02/10/24: 8:00 – 8:30 am • Eagle Watch News—Alan Tucker • Program time was given to much of what is going on in the world in the push toward a one world government. The business at Davos, Switzerland by the World Economic Forum the other week was mentioned as an indication of this. The conflict in the Middle East was considered as well as the effort in, what is being called, the Biden doctrine for Israel to provide land for the Palestinian people and recommended the two-state solution to the problem. The real fly in the ointment is the fact that the Palestinians actually want all the land and the Jews eradicated completely. Consideration was given briefly to the Scriptural idea that there can be no lasting peace in the Middle East until Christ comes to restore the entire world to a lasting peace and demonstrate what would have been possible if the world would have done things His way. The UN's involvement in this conflict along with its condemnation of Israel was included in the discussion. The retaliation by the US forces for the killing of 3 US soldiers was part of the program roster as well. Emmanuel Macron's plan given at the World Economic Forum in Davos, for peace in the Middle East was included. The proper Christian response to all of this was part of the broadcast's consideration.

02/17/24: 8:00 – 8:30 am • Eagle Watch News—Alan Tucker • Program time was given primarily to the pressure being applied to Israel to accept a two-state solution. This week world leaders, including King Abdullah of Jordan and President Biden, once again made a point that this is the only means to peace in the Middle East. The problem was mentioned that neither Israel nor the Palestinians want it. The Palestinians want the entire land for themselves and this point was made in the broadcast. Some time was given to Israel's coming push toward Rafah as the next target for the IDF, despite the efforts of world leaders in attempting to discourage this. Time was also given to the rising tide of violence in our land and the world. Mention was also made of the pressure coming to Christians in a variety of forms, such as the possibility of needing permission to place your children in a Christian school or to home school them, as is already happening in a number of places around the world. The right reaction in the face of all this for the Christian was also dealt with.

03/02/24 - 8:00 – 8:30 am • Eagle Watch News—Alan Tucker •: Much of the program time was devoted to Israel and the place in current events that are proving to be prophetically significant. Other topics made the program roster, however, including subjects like the characteristics of our early presidents and the need for such values today. Also included was the recent blackout of cell service and what may have been behind it as well the possibility of this sort of thing being used in the future for a variety of reasons and for a variety of ideologies. Mention was made of the different nations applying pressure on Israel from many different positions, for things such as a cease fire, or a complete stoppage of the war altogether, and a two-state solution, for the Palestinians. What the Bible has to say about bringing pressure to bear on the Jews for political advantage was included as well. The Christian's proper response to this broad range of issues was part of the program coverage this week.

03/09/24: 8:00 – 8:30 am • Eagle Watch News—Alan Tucker • Considerable program time for this week started with a summary of where the technology of our time is taking and the vulnerability it has included with it, both for government and personal concerns. The history of these dangers was listed with the men involved with both the warnings and conveniences that are part of it. Time was also given to the conflict in the Middle East and the variety of pressures the president is bringing to bear on Israel. Mention was made of the unlikelihood of Israel succumbing to that pressure, since they understand that the American people, for the most part, are supportive of Israel and how they are executing the war. Time was also given to the obvious ramping up of possible terrorism in the UK and around the world for that matter, and how all of this fits into the Scripture's mention of these coming events. Of course, the proper Christian response to all of this was included in the program discussion.

The growing rift between Washington and Israel was given substantial time as well, along with the Scriptural implications of those events. The alignment of the nations of the world against Israel is of course the prophecy of Scripture and is alluded to from week to week on the broadcast, and this week was no different. The underlying reason for the world's hatred of Israel was discussed. The fact that the Messiah came from this land was considered in the program content as a major reason for the Satanic hatred for the Jew and their land. The surprising current spiritual climate in Israel was given time also. Where the Christian stands in all of this and the proper response was dealt with as well.
