WGY AM/FM – 2nd Quarter 2017
Chuck & Kelly Issues Discussed
(all times AM)

Wednesday, April 5                    6:15    4 minutes

Kids brought in their beloved teddy bears for an annual checkup at the Albany Medical Teddy Bear Clinic. The volunteer-run clinic featured standard check-ups from medical students. It helps some children become comfortable with medical equipment and even inspires others.

Wednesday, April 12                    7:45    4 minutes

- A great turnout at Crossgates as more than 12-hundred people showed up for annual "friendship walk" sponsored by "Best Buddies New York". The goal? Create lifelong friendships, jobs and leadership development for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Wednesday, April 19                    6:15    4 minutes

- Great job by the Tri-City Valley Cats. In 24 hours, the team fixed-up four youth baseball fields, part of its annual "4 in 24 Field Renovation Project". Valley Cats COO Rick Murphy says his professional players still talk about their days in Little League.

Wednesday, April 26                    6:15    4 minutes

- A touching show of support for Niko DiNovo from Colonie who suffered horrific injuries last October as a passenger in a car that crashed into Blessings Tavern. A motorcade of support, well over three dozen people traveled from Albany to the Westchester County Burn Center. His aunt said there have been setbacks the past couple weeks, but Niko is again taking small steps forward.

Wednesday, May 3                    7:45    4 minutes

- State Police have made a teen in Livingston, Columbia County very, very happy. Brock Hathaway, 19, has cerebral palsy. He loves collecting patches from police and fire departments around the country. Not only did state police give him a patch along with several other goodies. He even got to go on a "ride along".

Wednesday, May 10                    6:15    4 minutes

- A young local girl, had a dream come true. Last summer, 9-year-old Haley McDonald was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer and genetic disorder. She underwent nine weeks of chemotherapy and three additional surgeries. On Friday, she went to the Via Aquarium at the mall, and while she was in the tunnel tank, she learned the Make-A-Wish Foundation is sending Haley and her family on a Disney Cruise. Haley and her mom say they are appreciative of the support.

Wednesday, May 17                    7:45    4 minutes

- Freshmen at Tech Valley High School are working on a project that will change the life of "Latte The Lab", a dog who lost a rear leg after getting hit by a car. Latte gets around pretty well now, but the vets say he'll do even better after he gets a prosthetic leg being designed and built by the kids on a 3-D printer.

Wednesday, May 24 6:15 4 minutes

- Joni Bonilla, is in the process of helping 20 veterans with PTSD train their own dogs or rescues, to become service dogs through her organization, Operation At Ease. But before this month, she didn't have a permanent place to train them. Last fall, 17-year-old Rosemarie Davidson as part of a project at Emma Willard asked Bonilla if she could raise $20,000 for the organization.

Wednesday, May 31 7:45 4 minutes

- The team of eight gymnasts at the World Class Gymnastics Academy in Latham are preparing for their big day in a couple of weeks at the "Special Olympics - New York." Coach Marlene Michels uses her background in adaptive physical education to teach gymnastics to children on the autism spectrum, those with down syndrome or with serious health impairments. And even if the kids might not pick up a specific movement right away, she says they are learning, having fun and building confidence.

Wednesday, June 7 6:15 4 minutes

- An emotional reunion in Latham as families got a chance to catch-up with the nurses who took care of their babies in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at Albany Med and there were plenty of former-preemies there too. Kristy Schupp was one of the miracle babies onhand.

Wednesday, June 14 6:15 4 minutes

- A homeless guy was living near the side of the highway, when he witnessed a serious accident and jumped into action. A truck driver had a heart attack behind the wheel causing him to veer into the next lane and slam into the guard rail. When the homeless man find the driver, he was not breathing and didn't have a pulse. But, he used what he learned as a boy scout and saved the truck driver. They have stayed in contact. The driver bought him a new pillow and camp supplies and a local resident has set up a GOFUND ME page to raise money for him to get a place of his own.

Wednesday, June 21 6:15 4 minutes

- Great ending at the airport. A woman on her way to Florida began crying when she realized that the diamond from her engagement ring had fallen out somewhere near security. Local TSA officers got on their hands and knees at the checkpoint looking all over, when TSA officer Steve Kaminski took another look through the bins and found the stone. He says the woman's tears of grief turned into tears of joy.
