810 & 103.1 WGY – 3rd Quarter 2016
Chuck & Kelly

10/5/16 6:15a

A great job by kids in Clifton Park, Saratoga and Glens Falls to help other kids who are blind or otherwise visually-impaired enjoy sports, just as they do. Students raised money for the Lions Club's "Camp Abilities" program. Kids from the Shen and Saratoga High Key Clubs raised more than 800-dollars selling bracelets....and in Glens Falls, members of the Adirondack North-stars girls hockey program raised nearly six-grand for "Camp Abilities".

10/12/16 6:15a

In Schenectady, a group of young local boxers helped a single mom and her two small children get a home. Kids from the "Ring of Hope Boxing Club" helped fix up a Habitat for Humanity home on Carrie Street. Ring of Hope not only teaches boxing...but also works on instilling pride and commitment to community.

10/19/16 7:45a

A very cool Halloween party was held at the Children's Hospital at Albany Med for kids who probably won't be physically able to go trick-or-treating this year. The "Spirit Halloween Store" brought Halloween to the kids... with costumes, decorations and of course, candy. Children's Hospital Child Life Specialist Megan Bien says it's more than just fun.

10/26/16 7:45a

In Schenectady, kids in Hamilton Hill took it upon themselves to improve their neighborhood, picking-up trash the last couple of weekends. Adults helped the kids by donating water, food, garbage bags, rakes and gloves.

11/2/16 7:45a

The Schenectady City Mission, the Schenectady Foundation and a bunch of others are working to make sure kids don't go hungry over the weekends. They provided backpacks full of all sorts of nutritious food and snacks to more than 1,000 students in the district who, through no fault of their own, need some help.

11/8/16 6:15a

The community continues to come together and rally behind Niko Dinovo, the Colonie teen badly burned in that crash at Blessings Tavern last week. Nick was a loyal customer at Headliner's Barbershop in Albany...and the owner this past weekend donated the proceeds from every haircut they gave to Dinovo, who's currently at Westchester Medical Center.

11/16/16 6:15a

Students at Albany Law School provided 40 military veterans with free one-on-one legal consultations as part of the student-organized Veterans Law Day. In all, about 100 veterans and their family members attended the annual event and got some much-needed free help.

11/30/16 7:45a

Service members stationed overseas will receive some holiday love all thanks to local volunteers for "Christmas Cards for Our Troops". About 20 people spent Saturday at a Rotterdam McDonald's, writing cards to service members who will be spending the holidays away from home. Volunteer Tom Farry says it's the least they could do.

12/7/16 6:15a

Students and teachers at Mohonasen High School are making sure people in the community have clothing, shoes, and personal grooming items whenever they need them. It all started out when a teacher reached out to the Schenectady City Mission for a pair of jeans for a student a few years ago. That turned into "The Anchor Project"....a classroom filled with all the necessities a person could need. These two Mohonoson students say they are happy to be making a difference:

12/14 7:45a

A 6-year old from Colonie loves police and knows that it's a dangerous job so.....James Assimon decided to do something about it. He showed up at Colonie PD and handed out a bunch of "GUARDIAN ANGEL MAGNETS" to protect his heros. Sergeant Louis DiNuzzo says it meant a lot to them.
