Michael Endo - Michael Endo thrives on uncertainty because he loves discovery. He is constantly challenging himself with mediums, materials... and deadlines. (Bend) Michelle Kaptur works with her dog, Sara, on agility training every day. She sees a connection between the concentration it takes to work with her dog, and her dance with glass in her work as a glassblower. She created Soulbursts, individual memorial glass pieces that include ash from a deceased family member or pet. Tiny, delicate glasswork risks possible destruction every time Chris Buzzini reaches the final stage of producing his art. The Oregon City man is one of only 20 people in the world producing lampwork paperweights.

In this visually compelling one hour special we'll explore the story of photography from scientific discovery to the creation of an art form. Portland Art Museum's Minor White Curator of Photography Julia Dolan gives us revealing historical insight; Christopher Rauschenberg and Craig Hickman, two of the founders of Blue Sky Gallery, show us how they brought a revolutionary spontaneity to the art of photography; and photographer Jim Lommasson continues to stretch the story telling capacity of photography through his work with Iraqi refugees. We profile other established and emerging photographers, plus travel to Corvallis for the first mobile photography gallery exhibition in the state. From the first daguerreotype created 175 years ago to the most recent cell phone snapshot, the photograph has evolved from a science

He mused about the idea and chatted with friends and then heard that PSU architecture professor Jeff Schnabel was thinking along the same lines. They got together with members of the Willamette Light Brigade - the team responsible for lighting Portland's bridges - and cooked up the first Portland Winter Light Festival in February 2016. Now in its second year, the Light Festival is bigger and brighter, with more than 60 illuminated art pieces, a lantern parade and illuminated bike ride. We tag along to find out how it all comes together on a minimal budget and hundreds of volunteers. Jason Waldron - Jason Waldron found the medium he was meant to work in closer to home that he ever imagined. (He's an Ice sculptor/wood sculptor in Bend!) Lan Su Chinese Garden New Year Festival - Lion dancing, Lantern viewing, and more! In this video essay capturing the magic of Chinese New Year, enjoy the teahouse, folk art

We watch him in action, and also join him for one of his popular, inspiring classes. Claudia Marchini - Peruvian-American artist Claudia Marchini has an unusual approach to her artwork. She bases much of it on the theories and behavioral observations she collects as a psychologist. Some of her work is representational, while some is abstract. Some is inscribed on natural materials like meteorites and others on traditional canvas. But whatever "grabs (her) mind" this Grants Pass resident just goes with it. Bow Ties - Kelly Durian Lyon knew she wanted to work for herself in a creative field. Her journey lead her to create bow ties for a new generation from her shop in Eugene.

'The Oregon Desert,' by Fort Rock rancher Reub Long and extension agent E.R. Jackman, was first published in 1964. Many years ' and many printings ' later, it has become our best-known compendium of Pacific Northwest cowboy folklore and rural wisdom. Our 'Oregon Experience' episode of the same name will explore many of the ranches, ghost towns and scenic wonders described in the book. Both authors are long passed-away, but the High Desert country they roamed is still home to plenty folks who keep the stories, humor and history alive. We'll meet and visit with several of these fascinating old cowboys, rodeo riders, farm women and ranch hands. And we'll pack the half-hour with plenty of unique, little-known pieces of our state's east-side history.

History	OEXP 000207	OREGON EXPERIENCE	LOLA BALDWIN AN OREGON EXPERIENCE #207	00:28:45:05	1/22/2018 21:30:00:00	OPB	Documentary	1		00:28:45:05	Lola Baldwin began working for the Portland Police Department in 1905 for the Lewis & Clark Exposition to protect women and children coming to town for the event. She was hired officially in 1908 becoming the country's first sworn policewoman crusading for the moral and physical welfare of families, single working women and children. An ardent suffragist, Baldwin advocated for pay equity and a living wage to keep young women workers from lives of prostitution and crime. Preventive police strategies developed by "municipal mothers" like Baldwin influence policing policies to this day.
History	OEXP 000902	OREGON EXPERIENCE	ASTORIA AN OREGON EXPERIENCE #902H	00:29:40:15	1/29/2018 21:00:00:00	OPB	Documentary	1		00:29:40:15	Astoria, Oregon is the oldest U.S. settlement this side of the Rocky Mountains. The Astorians established the overland route that became the Oregon Trail. That original settlement turned out to be the "foot in the door" which allowed the United States - and not Great Britain - to claim the Oregon Territory. Astoria (Pop. 10,000) is a hugely-significant little town. It has thrived - at various times - as a timber community, an international port and the Salmon-Canning Capital of the World! But other Oregonians have paid scant attention to all of this. Astoria is geographically isolated, and its 200-year history has transpired largely unnoticed by the rest of the state. Join Oregon Experience as we "discover" this active - and often overlooked - corner of Oregon.
History	OEXP 000402	OREGON EXPERIENCE	SAGEBRUSH SYMPHONY AN OREGON EXPERIENCE #402Z	00:29:15:01	1/29/2018 21:30:00:00	OPB	Documentary	1		00:29:15:01	In 1910 a classically trained violinist named Mary Dodge arrived in the high desert country of Harney County. She brought with her an intense love of music and the desire to share that love with the local children. Her determination and drive built an orchestra that gained statewide fame. The orchestra became the genesis for the Portland Junior Symphony - now called the Portland Youth Philharmonic. Sagebrush Symphony tells the forgotten story of a woman who changed Oregon's musical history.

It still claims 8 million lives a year worldwide. Oregon led the Northwest in the fight against TB in the early 1900s. But until the advent of modern antibiotics, most treatments remained crude and ineffective. This program explores the historical impact of TB in Oregon.

Time for a party, right? So went the wisdom of Oregon's Governor Tom McCall during the summer of 1970. His idea? Stage the first-ever state sponsored rock festival, promise 'big name talent,' and host the event just far enough out of town so that the 'hippies' wouldn't wreak havoc on Portland during Nixon's visit.
History	OEXP 000105	OREGON EXPERIENCE	WILLIAM GLADSTONE STEEL AN OREGON EXPERIENCE #105	00:28:50:25	2/5/2018 21:00:00:00	OPB	Documentary	1		00:28:50:25	William Gladstone Steel is best known as the 'Father of Crater Lake' but his legacy is enjoyed all over the Northwest. His 17 year fight to create Oregon's only National Park also lead to the protection of valuable watersheds and millions of acres of forestland through the establishment of the Cascade Range Forest Reserve. Complex and controversial, he was both a radical environmentalist and an enterprising developer who dedicated his life to the mountains of Oregon.

History	OEXP 000603	OREGON EXPERIENCE	WAYNE MORSE AN OREGON EXPERIENCE #603H	00:26:50:03	2/5/2018 21:30:00:00	OPB	Documentary	1		00:26:50:03	Nicknamed the 'Conscience of the Senate', Wayne Morse served 24 years as an independent, outspoken U.S. Senator. A lawyer and Dean of the University of Oregon's law school, he won a Senate seat as a Republican in 1944. He supported an internationalist foreign policy as well as some parts of the New Deal. But moving the party away from its wealthy, corporatist roots earned him the animosity of many fellow Republicans. In the early 1950s Morse left the party to become an Independent.
History	OEXP 000803	OREGON EXPERIENCE	KEN KESEY AN OREGON EXPERIENCE #803H	00:59:05:01	3/26/2018 21:00:00:00	OPB	Documentary	1		00:59:05:01	The 1960's might have been very different without Ken Kesey. He wrote two of the decade's best-selling novels, 'One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest' and 'Sometimes a Great Notion.' He became a brazen harbinger of psychedelic substances. And he starred as the Merry Prankster protagonist of Tom Wolfe's chronicle of the times, 'The Electric Kool-Aid Acid Test.' Ken Kesey grew to be one of Oregon's most colorful all-time, small-town characters. People knew him as an unlikely mix of writer, jester, artist and intellectual. But he lived his latter years as a Lane County farmer. And Kesey himself liked to describe his life with a simple: 'What a long, strange trip it still do be, doobie, doobie-doo.'

Science/Technology	NOVA 004208	NOVA	Invisible Universe Revealed	60 minutes	1/3/18 9:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	1:00:00	Twenty-five years ago, NASA launched one of the most ambitious experiments in the history of astronomy: the Hubble Space Telescope. In honor of Hubble's landmark anniversary, NOVA tells the remarkable story of the telescope that forever changed our understanding of the cosmos and our place in it. From its inception through its early days, when a one-millimeter engineering blunder turned the telescope into an object of ridicule, to the five heroic astronaut missions that returned Hubble to the cutting edge of science, NOVA hears from the scientists and engineers on the front line who tell the amazing Hubble story as never before. This single telescope has helped astronomers pinpoint the age of the universe, revealed the birthplace of stars and planets, advanced our understanding of dark energy and cosmic expansion, and uncovered black holes lurking at the heart of galaxies. For more than a generation, Hubble's stunning images have brought the beauty of the heavens to millions, revealing a cosmos richer and more wondrous than we ever imagined. An oasis of culture and abundance, the city was built by wealthy merchants who carved spectacular temple-tombs into its cliffs, raised a monumental Great Temple and devised an ingenious system that channeled water to vineyards, bathhouses, fountains and pools. But following a catastrophic earthquake and a slump in its desert trade routes, Petra's unique culture faded and was lost to most of the world for nearly 1,000 years. Now, in a daring experiment, an archaeologist and sculptors team up to carve an iconic temple-tomb to find out how the ancient people of Petra built their city of stone.
