Abortion	MLNH 012536	PBS NewsHour	NULL	60 minutes	5/27/19 7:00 PM	PBS	News (live news only)	1	0:06:01	The legal fight over abortion rights in the U.S. took a turn at the Supreme Court Tuesday. Justices ruled on an Indiana law stipulating how abortion providers dispose of fetal remains and prohibiting abortions performed on the basis of the gender, disability or race of the fetus. Lisa DeJerdins talks to the National Law Journal's Marisa Coyle about what the ruling might mean.
Abortion	MLNH 012546	PBS NewsHour	NULL	60 minutes	6/10/19 7:00 PM	PBS	News (live news only)	1	0:10:06	Another scandal is engulfing the Catholic Church. At a time when the Vatican has taken its most concrete steps to address a long ordeal with sex abuse and coverups, a growing chorus of nuns is speaking out about the suffering they have endured at the hands of the priesthood, including rape, forced abortion, emotional abuse and labor exploitation. Special correspondent Christopher Luewe reports.
Abortion	PNWE 001093	PBS NewsHour Weekend	NULL	30 minutes	5/19/19 5:30 PM	PBS	Interview/Discussion/Review	1	0:25:00	On this edition of Sunday, May 19, new state laws renew the debate on abortion. India wraps up the seventh phase of a weeks-long election process with exit polls favoring the country's prime minister, and a look at how colleges are finding ways to help a growing number of student-parents.
Agriculture	INLE 002017	Independent Lens	Harvest Season	90 minutes	5/13/19 11:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	0:00:00	California's Napa Valley is one of the premier wine-growing regions in the world. It has been celebrated for at least four decades as a kind of "American Eden" – an idyllic and luxurious global destination. Yet the vineyard workers and the small producers with roots in the fields are rarely credited for the valley's famous bounty. Filmed over the course of one agricultural year, Harvest Season takes an "other side of the valley" approach, delving into the lives of people who are intimately connected to the winemaking process. Harvest Season brings forward those who are often background characters in other narratives about wine and gives viewers an immersive experience into the compelling, difficult, and dramatic process of making some of the world's most celebrated wines.
Agriculture	MLNH 012533	PBS NewsHour	NULL	60 minutes	5/22/19 7:00 PM	PBS	News (live news only)	1	0:06:16	American farmers have been among the hardest hit by the U.S. trade war with China. With no deal between the world's two largest economies in sight, the Trump administration unveiled a second emergency aid plan Thursday to help offset agricultural losses. William Brangham talks to Iowa Public Television's Delaney Howell about farmers' support for President Trump and what they want more than aid.
Agriculture	MLNH 012542	PBS NewsHour	NULL	60 minutes	6/4/19 7:00 PM	PBS	News (live news only)	1	0:05:33	In parts of America's Heartland, prolonged wet weather and historic flooding are disrupting spring planting for many farmers. Nearly three months after waters washed over parts of Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska, some fields remain submerged – and President Trump's trade war with China isn't making conditions for struggling farmers any easier. Jack Williams from Nebraska's NET television reports.
Alcohol, Drug Abuse/Addiction	SEDE 001705	Secrets of the Dead	World War Speed	60 minutes	6/25/19 8:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	0:00:00	Stories about drug use by Hitler and German forces during World War II have been widely told. What's less well known is the Allied commanders' embraced pharmaceutical "force enhancers" as well. By 1941, rumors about Nazi soldiers using a "super-drug" identified as the methamphetamine Perivin were confirmed, and Allied commanders launched their own classified program to find the perfect war-fighting drug.
American History/Biography	AMEX 000001	Amelia Earhart: American Experience	NULL	60 minutes	5/7/19 9:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	0:00:00	Amelia Earhart was the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic, and the first to cross the North American continent alone. Her exploits as an aviator, her beauty and intelligence, her independence and charm made her a national heroine. Seemingly invincible, Earhart tirelessly traveled and lectured, a champion of aviation and equal opportunity for women. But her cheering public didn't know the cost of her courage. The record-breaking flights, the aerial exhibitions and races, the interviews to support her favorite causes, the endless speeches and promissorial commitments, together with household responsibilities, health problems, and financial worries, combined to push Earhart to the point of exhaustion. In 1937, she set out to accomplish yet another first: to circle the earth along the equator on an east-west flight. Friends warned that her preparations were hurried, even careless. When her plane disappeared without a trace, the "First Lady of the Air" was instantly transformed into an American legend.

American History/Biography	LAV5 000000	Lavender Scare: The	NULL	60 minutes	6/18/19 9:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	0:00:00	Narrated by Glenn Close and featuring the voices of Cynthia Nixon, Zachary Quinto, T. R. Knight and David Hyde Pierce. THE LAVENDER SCARE tells the little-known story of an unrelenting campaign by the federal government to identify and fire employees suspected of being homosexual. Produced and directed by Josh Howard and based on the award-winning book by David K. Johnson.
American History/Biography	NOMI 000000	Norman Mineta and His Legacy: An American Story	NULL	60 minutes	5/20/19 10:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	0:00:00	Meet the statesman who served as cabinet secretary for Presidents Clinton and George W. Bush. Imprisoned by the U.S. during World War II for his Japanese ancestry, Mineta rose to become the first Asian American to serve in a presidential cabinet.
American History/Biography	NOVA 004122	NOVA	First Man on the Moon	60 minutes	6/26/19 9:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	1:00:00	When Neil Armstrong set foot on the moon, he won instant fame. Yet this accomplished engineer and test pilot was so determined to stay out of the limelight that few know the personal story of how his rare combination of talent, luck and experience led to his successful command of Apollo 11. NOVA presents an intimate portrait of an unassuming American hero through interviews with Armstrong's family and friends.
American History/Biography	MLNH 012533	PBS NewsHour	NULL	60 minutes	5/22/19 7:00 PM	PBS	News (live news only)	1	0:04:44	The remains of the last slave ship that came to America have been found. In 1860, the schooner Clotilda brought 110 Africans to U.S. shores, decades after it was illegal to import slaves into the country. The wreckage of the boat was discovered in Alabama's Mobile River. Megan Thompson reports on the search for Clotilda, its history and the significance for the descendants of those slaves.
American History/Biography	PCHM 000000	PBS Previews: Chasing the Moon	NULL	30 minutes	5/3/19 10:30 PM	PBS	Other	1	0:00:00	Go behind the scenes with the production team to get a sneak peek of Chasing the Moon, a film by Robert Stone coming to PBS this Summer.
American History/Biography	AMEX 002309	Stonewall Uprising: American Experience	NULL	90 minutes	6/4/19 9:30 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	0:00:00	Stonewall Uprising explores the dramatic event that launched a worldwide rights movement. Told through those who took part, from drag queens and street hustlers to police detectives, journalists and a former mayor of New York, and featuring a rich trove of archival footage, this film revisits a time when homosexual acts were illegal throughout America, and homosexuality itself was seen as a form of mental illness. Hunted and often entrapped by undercover police in their hometowns, gays from around the U.S. began fleeing to New York in search of a sanctuary. Hounded there still by an aggressive police force, they found refuge in a Mafia-run gay bar in Greenwich Village, the Stonewall Inn. When police raided Stonewall on June 28, 1969, gay men and women did something they had not done before: they fought back. As the streets of New York erupted into violent protests and street demonstrations, the collective anger announced that the gay rights movement had arrived.
Arts	ORAB 1711	Oregon Art Beat	Beverly Cleary	30 minutes	4/11/19 8:00 PM	OPB	Documentary	1	0:27:37	Beloved author Beverly Cleary is turning 100 in April 2016. Plate and Pitchfork - Plate & Pitchfork takes presenting food to another level. The company turns locally sourced fare into delectable dishes, all plated with an artistic bent and served in a natural setting. Original Practice Shakespeare Festival - Portland's Original Practice Shakespeare Festival has the motto: Because Shakespeare should be dangerous. Back in Shakespeare's day, actors had no rehearsals, and performed different scripts every week. OPS Fest is keeping that tradition alive around the city. Portland Summer Ensembles - Portland Summer Ensembles give students the opportunity to play, study, and perform chamber music with other young musicians of a similar level.
Arts	ORAB 2001	Oregon Art Beat	Art Al Fresco	30 minutes	5/2/19 8:00 PM	OPB	Documentary	1	0:29:25	Portland Japanese Garden-Symbolized by the "Peace Lantern," the Portland Japanese Garden site was dedicated in 1961 to strengthen ties between the US and Japan following World War 2. Since its completion in 1967, the number of visitors has grown from 30,000 to nearly half a million each year. Meticulous maintenance and ingenious design have earned the garden international recognition as the best example of traditional Japanese garden design outside Japan. Lan Su Chinese Garden-Portland's Lan Su Chinese Garden is considered a beautiful example of a Suzhou-style scholar's garden. The design of the garden allows appreciation of the five elements - architecture, poetry, plants, water and stone - from every vantage point. In Portland, as in China, gardens in the classical Chinese style provide a refuge from the hustle of the city by making space for the recollection and contemplation of Nature. Oregon Garden Edge - It's a total eclipse of the art in downtown at the Oregon Garden! Thousands of people descend on

Roll Hardy join painter and tattoo artist Roll Hardy in a meditation by bike as he rides through the changing industrial landscapes of Portland where he draws inspiration for much of his work. Minor White/Portland Architecture - Minor White is known as one of the country's most important photographers of the 20th century. White spent the early part of his career in Portland, where he was hired by the Works Progress Administration in 1938 to photograph historic downtown buildings before they were demolished. This collection of WPA photographs reveals an era of beautiful architecture in the city, where classic cast iron buildings line the streets of what is now Portland's waterfront area. Some buildings from this era remain downtown, but for dozens of these classic structures, White's photographs
Arts	ORAB 2005	Oregon Art Beat	Path Revealed	30 minutes	5/30/19 8:00 PM	OPB	Documentary	1	0:25:00	Nora Sherwood worked in tech for much of her career, so when she turned 50 and decided she wanted to pursue a career in scientific illustration and wildlife art, she had a lot of catching up to do. But Nora is a big believer in the "10,000-hour" approach to learning - The principle holds that 10,000 hours of "deliberate practice" are needed to become world-class in any field. The skill and beauty of Nora's work is not just a joyful practice or new career track. "I'm just doing my... tiny little bit to get people to think about the natural world and be aware of it." Gabriel Uppner - After making money from selling his earlier linings to get out and see the world, Ashland artist Gabriel Uppner began to look at his own environment in a new light. Chris Cole - Chris Cole integrates the mechanics of a bicycle into the aesthetic of an artist. This year, he creates motorized and hand-cranked moving sculptures. We follow the former bike mechanic to a junkyard, then watch as he draws, cuts, welds, paints and asse

Arts	ORAB 2009	Oregon Art Beat	Hidden narratives	32 minutes	4/4/19 8:00 PM	OPB	Documentary	1	0:26:15	Claire Duncan - Claire Duncan never expected to be a painter. But once the former graphic designer picked up a brush, there was no turning back. But Claire's elegant and seductive portraits of animals are not just pretty pictures. By matching the main canvases with smaller "commentary" canvases depicting the results of human presence in the world - air pollution, wildfires, flooding and belching smoke stacks - a subtle connection between these conditions and their impact on wildlife is made. We visit Claire's gallery show "Dialogs with the Anthropocene" and see how these stunningly crafted and thought-provoking works make an indelible and disturbing impression on the visitors who see them. Ana Aguirre - Bend printmaker Ana Aguirre likes to explore the thin line between life and death in her colorful, evocative prints. Growing up in Monterrey, Mexico she believes give her a deeper understanding of this relationship. "It might be a little bit because of my cultural background," Ana says. "We kind of grow with it"

But how did medieval builders reach such spectacular heights? Consuming the labor of entire towns, sometimes taking a hundred years to build, these architectural marvels were crafted from just hand tools and stone. Many now teeter on the brink of catastrophic collapse. To save them, an international team of engineers, architects, art historians, and computer scientists searches the naves, bays, and bell-towers for clues to how the dream of these heavenly temples on earth came true. NOVA's teams out teams perform hands-on experiments to investigate and reveal the architectural secrets that allowed builders to erect their soaring, glass-filled walls. On this dazzling journey inside the pews of Gothic architecture, NOVA reveals the hidden formulas, drawn from the pages of the Bible itself, that drove medieval builders ever upward.

Women	AMEX 000601	Amelia Earhart: American Experience	NULL	60 minutes	5/7/19 9:00 PM	PBS	Documentary	1	0:00:00	Amelia Earhart was the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic, and the first to cross the North American continent alone. Her exploits as an aviator, her beauty and intelligence, her independence and charm made her a national hero. Seemingly inviolable, Earhart tirelessly traveled and lectured, a champion of aviation and equal opportunity for women. But her cheering public didn't know the cost of her courage. The record-breaking flights, the aerial exhibitions and races, the interviews to support her favorite causes, the endless speeches and promotional commitments, together with household responsibilities, health problems, and financial worries, combined to push Earhart close to the point of exhaustion. In 1937, she set out to accomplish yet another first: to circle the earth along the equator on an east-west flight. Friends warned that her preparations were hurried, even careless. When her plane disappeared without a trace, the "First Lady of the Air" was instantly transformed into an American legend.
