WFBT-CA CHANNEL 48 ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
10/01/06 – 12/31/06

NARRATIVE STATEMENT, continued

Most of these programs are locally produced in Chicago, in whole or in part, and some contain not only news and information, but also in-depth interviews with community leaders and panel discussions of specific issues of particular concern to the ethnic community to which the program is primarily directed. The number of discrete issues which these many diverse programs address is far too voluminous to be cataloged here, but they run the full range of human concerns and include a wide variety of health, political, economic, governmental, cultural and spiritual issues, as well as issues relating to language, acculturation, immigration and similar matters of particular concern to the communities in question.

In addition, WFBT-CA airs numerous other programs, which address the cultural and religious needs and concerns of many Chicago ethnic communities, as well as those of the public at large. These additional programs are identified and further described, along with the programs already mentioned, on the attached programming lists.
