

Quarterly Issues 2017

1st Quarter

Jan 2 Promoted our event calendar and the upcoming events starting off this year. We also explained how churches and non-profits can utilize our free air time to promote their events.

Jan 3 Broadcast a New Year's special by Kathy Lipp on how to organize and declutter your life as we start a new year.

Jan 4 Carried Family Talk by Dr. James Dobson at 930 for 30 minutes. He and a panel of professionals discussed the making of a family and how cohabitation interferes with that goal.

Jan 5 Broadcast Point of View, where a panel of guests discussed how to improve family life and family relations.

Jan 6 At 1:20 for 4 minutes we highlighted some of the 12 step programs and addiction ministries throughout our coverage area.

Jan 9 Carried Family Life today at 830 as Kathy Koch and Brian Housman discussed how to set boundaries on technology and assist children in this digital world.

Jan 10 Carried the 4 minute show A Word With You, at 235 about leadership and how to develop skills and abilities this coming year.

Jan 11 We promoted our event calendar and explained how our listeners could utilize our free airtime and public service announcements

Jan 12 Broadcast a 30 minute segment about a spending and investment plan for the new year that included getting out of debt strategies and savings.

Jan 13 Carried a 30 minute program with Jan Harrison as she discussed how to deal with the death of a child.

Jan 16 Kerby Anderson and guest spoke from 3-4 about how religious freedom is under attack from the past 6 years, and how it is impacting Christian education and even churches.

Jan 17 Broadcast Point of View from 2-3. They discussed the moral and social problems presented by pornography and how public policy can influence this epidemic.

Jan 18 We reported on the last week's executive orders that impacted the United Nations and our ally Israel. This historic decision is predicted to have negative consequences for our ability to fight terrorism

Jan 19 With the upcoming Right to life weekend, we carried a 30 minute program by Dr Dobson about the importance of being pro life and fighting for the unborn babies.

Jan 20 We gave news coverage to the Inaguration of Donald Trump and offered analysis of his acceptance speech and the direction back towards capitalism and away from globalism.

Jan 23 We covered tornado warnings throughout the coverage area all afternoon.

Jan 24 Carried the 30 minute broadcast Family Life Today where Paul Tripp discussed how to have mercy in a family so each is able to trust and grow.

Jan 25 Broadcast a 30 minute show with Barbara Rainey giving helpful tips for a healthy marriage.

Jan 26 Reported on the negative financial impact abortion has had on our nation and global economy

Jan 27 Discussed the Roe V Wade decision and how over 60 million babies have been aborted and the moral impact on our nation as a result. We promoted various March for life events throughout our coverage area.

Jan 30 We reported on the President's executive orders to make our borders safer by improving our vetting process regarding immigrants.

Jan 31 Carried a discussion with Scott Sauls at 830 as he discussed anxiety and treating depression

Feb 1 We interviewed Gerald Stephens at 5:05 for 10 minutes about lawn and garden care specifically during the month of February.

Feb 2 We carried a 30 special by Dr Ravi Zacharias about how to live a meaningful and intentional life.

Feb 3 We promoted our event calendar and how churches and non-profits can use our free public service announcements.

Feb 6 We carried the call in show Money Wise at 6pm. They discussed budgets and investing, and allowed our listeners to call in questions.

Feb 7 We carried the 30 minute show Focus on the Family. They discussed child rearing, and specifically how to love children as they are without burdening them with ideals of perfectionism

Feb 8 Carried a program with Family Talk that had a panel discuss how people can discover meaning and significance.

Feb 9 Broadcast Focus on the Family as they discussed how resist alienation and how to build community among neighbors.

Feb 10 We promoted several events, and we explained how to utilize and access our free airtime for public service announcements.

Feb 13 Broadcast an interview with Shaunti Feldhahn about helping women and men understand fundamental differences between them.

Feb 14 Carried an interview with Ronnie and Lamar Tyler about the negative stereotypes for minority marriages and families portrayed on television, and resources and support for those families that want to build a stable home.

Feb 15 Carried a live call in show of Point of View from 2-4. Welcome to another Millennial Round Table Show. Joining Kerby around the table today are Dr. Jarrett Stephens, teaching pastor at Prestonwood Baptist Church, Denison Forum's Nick Pitts and conservative millennial blogger, Allie Beth Stuckley. Together they will look at the top stories in the news today.

Feb 16 Ran an interview with Reggie Littlejohn, president of Women's rights without Frontiers, about the sex trafficking epidemic and what any listener can do to intervene.

Feb 17 Promoted our event calendar and how non-profits can use our free airtime and community calendar.

Feb 20 Broadcast the 30 minute show Focus on the Family at 8am and 730 pm. They discussed moral purity in a marriage, and other benefits of faithfulness in monogamous relationships.

Feb 21 We interviewed U.S. Representative Jody Hice for 10 minutes at 505 about the bill he cosponsored that would correct the 1954 Johnson Amendment and benefit non-profits.

Feb 22 Broadcast an interview with Kristin Clark about understanding sexual freedom and how that interacts with a healthy society and culture.

Feb 23 Carried the 30 minute broadcast Family Talk as they discussed censorship vrs parental controls and how technology can assist families.

Feb 24 News Media mocked the President for his statements about Muslims in Sweden. We carried a live call in show about the riots and illegal immigration in that Scandinavian country and how similar policies could impact our communities

Feb 27 Interview with World Magazine about how to discern fake news as well as understanding veiled worldviews and agendas behind the reports

Feb 28 Carried a 30 minute panel discussion about depression and getting help with winter blues.

March 1 Interview with Frank Peretti about how to help heal a wounds from the past.

March 2 Continued with part two of an interview with Frank Peretti. Today we discussed bullying and how to help those who are bullied.

March 3 Broadcast Family Life where a panel discussion was about how to approach helping an adult child in crisis.

March 6 Carried Kerby Anderson's call in show. He and Sheriff David Clarke discussed how communities and law enforcement can come together and heal.

March 7 Played the call in show Money wise for 30 minutes. It allows interaction with the money folks and our audience in regards to financial questions.

March 8 Broadcast a 30 minute interview with Dr. David Jeremiah on how Father's have a significant role in the development of our children, specifically, daughters.

March 9 Carried 30 minute interview on Focus on the Family for new parents and newborns.

March 10 Continued with part two of helping new moms adjust to a healthy environment and resources available for having a child

March 13 Interview with Jessie Minassian about helping girls with body image and navigating teen years.

March 14 Interview Shanti Feldman about how to forgive and move forward in life after an offense.

March 15 Interviewed Kimberly Wagner about how to help young girls develop into strong capable women of character as adults.

March 16 Broadcast Family Life, and they discussed how different personality types parent, and how they interact with the various personality types of children. They offered solutions to understanding one another.

March 17 Carried the program Family Talk, and Francis Littour discussed how we can take care with our words to prevent injury to others.

March 20 Broadcast Dr Dobson 30 minute address on education and the importance of parental involvement and private education.

March 21 Carried a broadcast on Focus on the Family about steps to shine a positive approach to downs syndrome.

March 22 Interviewed Gary Thomas about establishing boundaries in marriage and how to safeguard this unique union from threats.

March 23 Interview with Gary Chapman for 25 minutes about forgiveness and how to release the anger from a wrongful situation

March 24 Carried Family Life Today for 30 minutes about how men can mentor each other.

March 27 Carried a 30 minute message by Ravi Zaccharias addressing young people about how to select a marriage partner.

March 28 Broadcast the show Family Talk. The interview was with Zig Ziglar about how to parent positively.

March 29 Interviewed Lindsey Feldpausch about the importance of passing on stories of faith within the family to future generations.

March 30 Carried How to Manage your money. It is a 30 minute call in show where our listeners can ask questions about saving, spending, debt and investments.

March 31 Interviewed Lynn Jackson about techniques of discipline and love involved in parenting.. also how to improve not losing temper with kids

Second Quarter

April 3 Interview with Ron Walsh about marriage relationships and what needs to be done if one of the spouses is controlling.

April 4 Carried the program Family Talk. The panel of experts discussed depression and the various approaches and treatments to address it.

April 5 We had powerful storms move through the southeast today. We spent all day issuing tornado and severe weather warnings. We discussed the difference between watches and warnings and what safe action listeners should take as they stay tuned.

April 6 Carried Family Talk at 9:30. They discussed depression, how to identify it and possible referrals for treatment.

April 7 After Vice President Pence was scathed in the press about marriage boundaries between him and his wife, we discussed the topic of setting boundaries and how marriages can be protected from threats.

April 10 Interview with Brad Hewitt about finances, and how to develop a plan to save and get ahead.

April 11 We carried a special production about the new Attorney General's decision to enforce the laws against pornography. We discussed how this issue plays out in culture and how it impacts society.

April 12 We updated and reported a story on how the IRS was used by the previous administration to target political opponents and silence them.

April 13 Interviewed June Hunt about the reality and impact of sexual abuse on children. Steps to take to prevent it and where to turn for help.

April 14 Carried the call in talk show Money Wise at 6:pm allowing our listeners to call and speak with the panel regarding financial matters.

April 17 Broadcast a Kerby Anderson call in program. His guest was Dr Medved, and they discussed the benefits of trying to preserve a marriage.

April 18 Carried Focus on the family with a 30 minute discussion of how to overcome and find healing from sexual abuse.

April 19 Focus continued that discussion today to offer steps and referrals to be able to move forward after sexual abuse.

April 20 Carried Family Life Today for 30 minutes as they discussed the multiple benefits of adoption and how to begin the process.

April 21 Promoted our event calendar. We shared several upcoming events by non-profits and explained how to utilize our free air time.

April 24 Interviewed Carey Casey of the National Center for fathering and discussed how grandparents can have a significant influence on their grandchildren

April 25 Interview with Lysa Terkeurst about how to handle and discipline your emotions in regards to relationships with others.

April 26 Interviewed Dr Archibald Hart about divorce and how to help children cope with it and navigate the difficulties.

April 27 Interviewed Carrie Wilkerson about how to set up a home business to add income to the household.

April 28 Interviewed Harold Davis about some of the social issues young people face today that were not prevalent just one generation ago. And how those issues create pressure for them, and how to direct them to deal with the stress.

May 1 Interviewed Pastor Ray Ortland, who used to pastor first Presbyterian in Augusta, about God's design for human sexuality and how those boundaries create beauty and freedom for humans.

May 2 Interviewed Dr Harold Davis about specific needs within the black community and ways to address and meet those needs

May 3 Carried the 30 minute broadcast of Focus on the family as they discussed how to help hurting children through foster care.

May 4 Interview with Kay Wyna and how jealousy can negatively affect a person's life and how to implement changes.

May 5 Interviewed Ted Cunningham about the positive influence of a regular sit down meal with the family.

May 8 Discussed a 60 minutes report on technology, and how the social media platforms design their software to have addictive features like slot machines. We discussed measures to take to guard against problems.

May 9 Carried an interview at 8:00 and 7:30 on how to avoid explosive emotional outbursts in a marriage, and how to repair the damage for those that did occur.

May 10 Interviewed Gerald Stephens with Nurseries Caroliniana. We discussed fertilizer and lawn care as well as keeping bushes and trees alive as we enter the hotter months.

May 11 Interview with Larry Fowler about mothers day and how we can honor our mothers even if they are gone, or if there had been relational difficulties.

May 12 Carried Focus on the Family twice about helping mothers overcome some of the unrealistic pressures of modern motherhood based on unrealistic expectations and cultural myths.

May 15 Broadcast Family Talk as they discussed with Kim Green, religion correspondent with Fox News about how to hold onto values in this shifting world.

May 16 Carried the 30 minute program Money Wise at 6pm. Our listeners can call in and speak with a panel of financial advisors about money matters.

May 17 Promoted our event calendar, listing several events throughout our area, and we explained how non-profits can access and utilize our free airtime.

May 18 Interviewed Russ Crossan about money management and how to stretch out the paycheck to get ahead.

May 19 Reported on the gas rate tax increase in S.C. and how it will not improve roads but be diverted to education...as it has for decades.

May 22 Carried Family Life Today. This 30 minute program discussed bipolar tendencies and medical treatment.

May 23 Broadcast a discussion with Dr Dobson about answering why bad things happen and how to cope

May 24 We continued the 30 minute discussion with Dr Dobson about coping with life when all the world seems to be crashing down.

May 25 Carried an interview with Dr. Michael Youseff from Atlanta, about terrorism, understanding how it impacts our culture, and what we can do as communities as a response to the individuals who are susceptible to join its ranks.

May 26 Broadcast Dr Dobson's program at 9:30 about how to deal with tragedy and what to do when life doesn't make sense.

May 29 Carried MoneyWise at 6. It is a 25 minute call in show that allows our listeners to discuss anything regarding finances.

June 1 We carried an interview with Chaplain Wes Modder and how his biblical understanding of marriage and sexuality threatened his career and religious freedom.

June 2 We continued an interview with Chaplain Wes Modder and how his biblical understanding of marriage and sexuality threatened his career and religious freedom.

June 5 Being the marriage month, we discussed how newlyweds need to leave and cleave in order to form a strong bond with the new spouse.

June 6 We broadcast part one of a program on parenting styles and the impact that has on childhood.

June 7 We continued with part two of the show at 8:00 am focusing on the tween years for children and specifically how respect can impact your family interactions.

June 8 Interviewed Stuart and Jill Briscoe about how to use your golden or retirement years to invest in family and create a lasting legacy.

June 9 Interviewed Dr. Tim Clinton for 20 minutes about establishing rules for relationships and how to foster communication and respect.

June 12 Carried a discussion with Josh McDowell for the purpose of improving relationships between fathers and children. He grew up with a strained relationship, but they were able to reconcile and heal.

June 13 Coming up on Father's Day, we continued with discussions regarding fathers and children with Robert and Bobbie Wolgemuth and the influence fathers have with their daughters.

June 19 Shared program with Erwin Lutzer at 11:30 am of how to maintain a clear conscience toward others and foster good relationships.

June 20 Covered the issue of Sexual Addiction, citing how pornography, and unfaithfulness can ensnare a person.

June 21 We continued with yesterday's topic at 7:30 pm with steps to take to transform a heart and bring healing to a person battling sexual addiction.

June 22 Broadcast a 30 minute discussion with Dr Bob Reccord about helping couples avoid infidelity.

June 23 Continued with another 30 minute discussion with Dr Bob Reccord about helping couples avoid infidelity.

June 26, Discussed with author Florence Littauer how our words can be of great comfort and encouragement...a message of hope and healing or right the opposite, and how to develop a habit of speaking into the lives of others

June 27, Carried the show Focus on The Family..Jean and Jim Daly discussed how no parent is perfect, and how to find encouragement and resources that improve our parenting

June 28, We continued yesterday's broadcast for two thirty minute time frames.

June 29, Interviewed Jeff Scruggs about divorce and how to protect your marriage relationship from 8-830 from brokenness.

June 30, Continued with the second interview with Jeff about how after seven years of divorce, he and his wife were able to reconcile. We shared tips of how to build bridges and foster healing.

Third Quarter

July 7 Interviewed Dennis Rainey about his book “Building Your Mate’s Self Esteem”

July 11, Broadcast Focus on the Family as they interviewed best selling author, Emerson Eggerich about the male’s need for respect, and how parents can implement strategies in raising boys.

July 12 Carried an interview with Rebecca Hagelin for 20 minutes about protecting children from the exposure to bullying and negative influence through technology.

July 13, Continued with the second segment of yesterday’s interview on steps parents can take to help their children in today’s culture.

July 20 Carried an interview with Dr Carol Swain who described growing up in abject poverty to becoming a highly accomplished University professor and public intellectual.

July 21 We continued the interview with Dr Carol at 9:30 as she described her endurance and perseverance on her journey out of poverty

July 24, We shared events that are coming up and explained on air how others can access and utilize our free public service announcements to promote their events and organizations

July 25, Broadcast Dr Dobson’s program Family Talk at 9:30 with Beth Brown and how parents and children can best approach an empty nest

July 26, Continued with yesterday’s program

July 27, Carried part three of The Empty Nest

July 28, Concluded the program with Beth Brown and the changes in relationships the empty nest brings to a family.

August 4, In preparation for School beginning, we carried a lecture by Cynthia Tobias about understanding your child's learning style and how to help them benefit the most as they return to school

August 7 We broadcast Family Talk at 9:30 as they discussed helping students prepare for the school year, whether going to high school or off to college

August 10 We carried Focus on the Family 25 minute program 2x with an interview with Chris Hogan about practical advice for taking control of your finances by making wise short- and long-term plans with your money. Topics include establishing a budget, eliminating debt, planning for retirement, and more

August 11 We carried Focus on the Family 25 minute program again today with the continued interview with Chris Hogan about practical advice for taking control of your finances by making wise short- and long-term plans with your money. Topics include establishing a budget, eliminating debt, planning for retirement, and more

August 14 Ran a 20 minute interview with author and pastor Alistair Begg about steps to take to avoid marital failure and find lasting love.

August 21 Carried Focus on the Family with guests Tom and Dena Yohe. They related their story and offered help with dealing with a troubled child.

August 22 Continued with yesterday's program and offered resources to our audience where they could turn for help.

August 24 We broadcast an interview with Patrick Trueman, President of the National Center on Sexual Exploitation for 30 minutes. He discussed how pornography is toxic to relationships, and the issue is ground zero for our communities.

August 25 We carried part two of yesterday's continued interview with Patrick Trueman, President of the National Center on Sexual Exploitation for 30 minutes. He discussed how pornography is toxic to relationships, and the issue is ground zero for our communities.

August 28 Aired an interview with Dr. Tim and Julie Clinton explaining how being faithful to your spouse and making time for one another create the groundwork for an amazing marriage.

August 31 Carried an interview with Author and Dr Gary Chapman about Alzheimers and how to care for the elderly.

September 1 Spoke with Kim Meeder, founder of Crystal Peaks Youth Ranch an organization that rescues mistreated horses and uses them to reach abused children.

September 8 We issued warnings of the coming category 5 hurricane as all the tracks have it directly impacting our listening area. We covered what people could expect as well as where to seek shelter.

September 11 We spent the day issuing storm, wind and tornado watches all over our listening area as hurricane Irma passed over

September 12 We promoted the Family Life Marriage Conference we are sponsoring to strengthen families. We gave away multiple registrations for the conference.

September 13 We discussed a warning from the BBB for homeowners and business owners to watch out for scammers who exploit damages from the hurricane. We issued 9 different warnings

September 14 Broadcast Focus on the Family twice today. The guests were Bob and Audrey Meisner. They discussed how a couple can overcome infidelity in a marriage and find healing.

September 21 Carried Family Life Today with their guest, Lauren Chandler, who struggled with alcoholism. The topic led listeners towards resources for help for the alcoholic as well as family members.

September 22 Broadcast a discussion with Grace Chavis about the Sandwich generation...adults who care for their children as well as their aging parents. Grace spoke about her experience supporting her ailing parents and in-laws. And informed those who are dealing with this how to handle their family members with grace and love through the stress.

September 25 Ran an interview with Chris and Stephanie Teague. They met in college, married and within two years divorced. We talked about what they did to reconcile and rebuild the trust and relationship.

September 26 Carried Focus on the Family at 8am and 730pm. Dr Gregory Jantz discussed Depression in teenagers, and helpful resources for parents.

September 27 Continued part two of yesterday's program on Teen Depression and suicide prevention.

4th Quarter

Oct 2 Interviewed Janet Porter about a bill going before congress to limit abortions.

Oct 3 We broadcast a discussion with Julie Barnhill. She shared candidly about how emotional infidelity almost destroyed her relationship with her husband. This problem arose because an old boyfriend reached out to her on Facebook.

Oct 5 Carried Family Talk with an interview with counselor Sharon Hersh about how mothers specifically can come alongside their struggling teenager and support them during the tough adolescent years.

Oct 6 Continued today's broadcast of Family Talk with an interview with counselor Sharon Hersh about how mothers specifically can come alongside their struggling teenager and support them during the tough adolescent years.

Oct 10 Spoke with Dave Harvey about what to do when you have a child who steps off the path, gets in trouble and rebels against your family.

Oct 12 Carried an interview with Dr. Bruce Wilkinson. He discussed his book to show how to forgive others and even yourself so that you can find personal freedom.

Oct 13 We discussed the steady creep of legislation across the country attempting to legalize physician-assisted suicide. Five states have already legalized this practice, and nineteen other states are facing legislation this year.

Oct 16 Ran an interview with Terrie Morrow about the possibilities of adopting, and providing a home for others after your children leave home.

Oct 19 We broadcast Family Talk at 9:30 for 30 minutes with part one with guests, Paul and Marilyn Hontz about how to overcome shame from the past and move forward in life.

Oct 20 We continued with part 2 of a broadcast Family Talk at 9:30 for 30 minutes with guests, Paul and Marilyn Hontz about how to overcome shame from the past and move forward in life.

Oct 23 Interviewed Kevin DeYoung about how to build and invest in a marriage.

Oct 25 Carried Focus on the Family at 8:00 am and 7:30 pm. The guest, Emily Colson, discussed raising her child with autism and offered resources to listeners.

Oct 26 Interviewed Elisa Morgan about helping children develop a healthy body image and identify eating disorders.

Oct 30 We covered a 20 minute speech by Dr. Robert Jeffress about how to stand in the culture and defend Religious Liberty

Oct 31 We broadcast an interview with Mary Hunt's story of how she erased a mountain of debt by becoming a "professional cheapskate." She gave practical steps and offered resources of how to make or stick to a budget in the coming season and beyond.

Nov 1 Interviewed author John Majors about ways parents can help their teenagers discover purpose and meaning in relationships and life.

Nov 2 Carried a discussion with author Jill Savage who offered tips to those people who are perfectionist, and attempt to control every aspect of life.

Nov 7 Ran discussion with author and speaker Rhonda Stoppe about how her experience overcoming trials as a parent, and teaching her kids the right way to approach struggles in their own life.

Nov 8 Shared different events and seminars coming up throughout the area, and explained how organizations can use our free public service announcements to the community.

Nov 9 Discussed how parents can teach their children respect and why it is a meaningful characteristic to learn with nationally syndicated columnist and education expert John Rosemond

Nov 10 Interviewed Betty Huizenga about how her organization, Apples of Gold, provides opportunities for experienced mothers to pass along helpful advice on marriage and parenting to younger moms.

Nov 13 Carried MoneyWise at 6 for 25 minutes. It is a call in show for our listeners to discuss finances, debt, investing, and saving.

Nov 14 Ran an interview with author Shannon Guerra about how families can improve bonds with adoptive children.

Nov 21 Ran a conversation with Dr. Everett Piper, President of Oklahoma Wesleyan University about how College faculty throughout the nation are corrupting the young minds of their students by teaching them that truth is relative and by no means absolute and how students can prepare themselves to defend what they believe.

Nov 22 Broadcast a message at 10 by Pastor Chuck Swindoll. He examined the importance of giving thanks to God for what He has blessed us with, even when we don't feel like it.

Nov 27 Carried Family Talk for 25 minutes with Dr. Michael Lyles, a clinical psychiatrist, to talk about the opioid epidemic. He discussed how to identify those who have this addiction and what can be done to help those struggling with this deadly dependency and learn more about this public health crisis.

Nov 28 Ran a discussion with Counselor, Lou Priolo who talked about conflict, facing it head on and gaining resolution and peace.

Dec 1 Broadcast Focus on the Family at 8:00am and 7:30pm. The guests, Peter and Carol Chin discussed the difficulties they experienced building an inner city church, a miscarriage, a cancer diagnosis, and a break in. They offered ways to approach life's difficulties to help listeners overcome.

Dec 4 Discussed brokenness with Ann Voskamp. Dreams and enthusiasm for life get derailed along the way...Ann offered ways to find gratitude and strength.

Dec 5 Carried a discussion with LeRoy and Kimberley Wagner about how they adjusted their passive and strong personalities to improve their marriage and get along.

Dec 8 Featured an interview Dr. Tim Clinton conducted at the AACC World Conference with clinical social worker Leslie Vernick. She shared vital information about women in abusive relationships and explained how they can get out of these situations and find freedom.

Dec 11 We broadcast a discussion with conversation retired Lt Colonial E. Ray Moore, about his fight for parents to choose home school or private education for their children. He discussed where the public-school system has failed and where Christian families can look to for a moral education.

Dec 12 Ran 30 minute program with John Stonestreet, president of the Colson Center and host of "BreakPoint," tells how advancements are changing our society for the good and bad. Stonestreet reminds listeners we aren't the first generation to face a broken culture. People have to decide how to interact within society, and how to live out their convictions despite the world's brokenness.

Dec 13 Interviewed author Shuanti Feldham about how small acts of kindness affect those around us and can improve our environment.

Dec 18 Carried Family Talk at 9:30, and the discussion with Shaunti Feldhahn about marriages and specifically regarding men.

Dec 19 Ran 20 minutes of an interview with Author Frank Peretti about how as a young person he was bullied.

Dec 20 We continued with the conclusion of yesterday's interview with steps to take on healing brokenness in our lives and overcoming bullying.

Dec 28 Broadcast Moneywise, a 25 minute call in show that allows our listeners to ask any question about money and finances.

Dec 29 Carried a discussion and call in show at 3pm about the professions that have high suicide rates and where people can turn for help.