Viewpoints Segment #1 – The Logistics of Death

Duration: 0:11:51 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Scott Taylor Smith, author of “When Someone Dies: The practical guide to the logistics of death,”; Lori R. Sackler, Sr. VP and Sr, Investment Management Consultant, Morgan Stanley Wealth Management, author of “The M Word: The money talk every family needs to have about wealth and their financial future,”

When a loved-one dies, it's a time of great sorrow, and often confusion. How do you attend to the deceased's funeral? What about their banking? Credit cards? Notifying everyone? And what do you do when the heirs start fighting over the estate? We talk to two people who are specialists in these areas about what should be done after someone dies – and long before – to make the situation less difficult for everyone involved.

May 26, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – End of Life Etiquette

Duration: 0:28:22 minutes

Samira Beckwith discusses the ways that you should approach someone at the end of their life emotionally. She covers last requests, the rules of etiquette and how to discuss death with children.

June 9, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – The Key to Longevity

Duration: 0:20:06 minutes

Dr. Vincent Padre talks about exercise and the many benefits it will have on your life span. He discusses 5 ways you can look and feel younger, what your limitations should be and why you should know when to stop.

Governmental and Charitable Events

April 7, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Proofiness: Lies, damned lies...and statistics!

Duration: 0:10:16 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Charles Seife, Assoc. Prof. of Journalism, New York University, author of "Proofiness: The dark arts of mathematical deception,"

Statistics, demographics, percentages...it's never easy to wade through the data that advertisers, politicians and the news media throw at us every day. The numbers sound good, but are they really a true picture of what's going on in the world? We talk to a university professor and author who looked into the topic of numbers to find out how they can be manipulated to sound believable, but end up not describing reality at all.

April 7, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – Miami Dade Transit

Duration: 0:24:01 minutes

Irene Ferradaz re-joins the program to discuss the new improvements in the Miami-Dade transit system, how they have implemented more environmentally friendly ways of getting around and how you can use the transit system to your benefit.

April 21, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – Government Corruption: Where it comes from; how to stop it

Duration: 0:11:04 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Richard Winters, William Clinton Story Remsen 1943 Professor of Government, Emeritus, Dartmouth College; Robert W. Ney, former

Ohio congressman, author of "Sideswiped: Lessons learned courtesy of the hit men of Capitol Hill."

The news is full of stories of elected and appointed government officials being caught in scandals from bribery to tax evasion to pocketing campaign money for personal use. What is it that makes some officials think they can engage in these kinds of activities? Why is it that some states have scandal after scandal, and others seem squeaky clean? And what can the government and we, as citizens, do to lessen or eliminate corruption? We talk to a researcher who has studied the subject, and a former congressman who went to prison for corruption.

April 21, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – American Cancer Society

Duration: 0:21:08 minutes

Paula Randall joins the programs to talk about the American Cancer Society and their mission. She also talks about fundraisers like Relay for Life, volunteer opportunities and services the American Red Cross offers.

April 28, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – Calvin Coolidge: The sides of 'Silent Cal' you didn't know

Duration: 0:11:50 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Amity Shlaes, Dir. of the Four Percent Growth Project at the George W. Bush Center, presidential scholar, and author of "Coolidge."

If you ask anyone who their favorite president is, they probably won't say Calvin Coolidge. After all he didn't do much, did he? We talk to a presidential scholar and biographer who says Coolidge did more than people realize: he brought the country out of the wartime economy; lowered taxes; trimmed the size of the federal budget and made it possible for the average American to enjoy many of the innovations of the day such as automobiles, electricity and indoor plumbing.

May 5, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – Large and Small Businesses Give Back to the Community

Duration: 0:11:30 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Donald Katz, founder and CEO of Audible.com (www.audible.com); Judy Wicks, entrepreneur and author of "Good Morning Beautiful Business: The unexpected journey of an activist entrepreneur and local economy pioneer,"

Even though the economy is looking up, there are still cities in the nation where the unemployment level is above average, neighborhoods are falling into disrepair, and schools are subpar. We talk to two business leaders – one from a large corporation and the other with experience in small business – about how companies can help transitional communities by locating there and investing in their residents.

May 5, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Success After Prison: The key is “consistency”

Duration: 0:11:11 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Weldon Long, entrepreneur, trainer, speaker, author of “The Power of Consistency,”

It's still not easy to get a job these days, but for men and women coming out of prison, it's even harder. We talk to a former three-time convict who had a wake-up call while in prison and turned his life around. We discuss how he came to the realization that his problems were of his own making, how he changed his attitude and created a mindset to facilitate his ambition to make it in business – legally – and how anyone with perseverance and positive thinking can achieve their goals.

May 12, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – The Agony of Public Speaking

Duration: 0:10:49 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Jeremy Jamieson, Asst. Prof. of Social Psychology, University of Rochester, NY; Philip Dalton Assoc. Prof. of Rhetoric and Chair of that department, Hofstra University, NY

Why are people so afraid to give speeches in public? It's the cause of sweaty palms, headaches, nausea and weak knees, to mention only a few of the problems speakers experience. We talk to a psychologist and a speech educator about why anxiety builds when we have to give a public address, and how we can use this stress to our benefit. We also hear about some other strategies to lower the anxiety level and smooth out the experience of speaking in public.

May 19, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – Social Media and Business: Doing it right

Duration: 0:11:51 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Alex Hinojosa, VP of Media Operations, EMSI Public Relations, Tampa Bay, FL (www.emsipublicrelations.com); Karen Leland, Pres. Of Sterling Marketing Group, author of “Entrepreneur Magazine’s Ultimate Guide to Pinterest for Business,”

Everyone's on social media these days, including businesses of all types. But does it pay for companies to have a presence on Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest and other sites? We talk to two social media experts about how companies should present themselves on these sites, and some strategies they can use to maximize their presence.

May 26, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – The Constitution: What did the framers intend?

Duration: 0:10:25 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Jeffrey M. Shaman, Vincent DePaul Professor of Law, DePaul Univ. College of Law, Chicago, IL (www.law.depaul.edu); Ray Raphael, Sr. Research Fellow, Humboldt State Univ., Arcata, CA, author of "Constitutional Myths: What we get wrong and how to get it right,"

When Congress debates a constitutional point, or when the Supreme Court is considering a case brought before it, we often hear the question, "what did the framers intend?" How does anyone really know what people, who debated issues more than 200 years ago, really intended? We talk to two constitutional specialists about the issue, and hear how some Supreme Court justices approached an issue that is once again in the news.

June 2, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Superman: Do we need superheroes?

Duration: 0:12:21 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Robert Thompson, Prof. of Television and Popular Culture, Syracuse University, NY (newhouse.syr.edu); Larry Tye, author of "Superman: the high-flying history of America's most enduring hero,"

Superhero movies are doing big box office this year, with Batman, Ironman, Thor and the new "Man of Steel" Superman film, just to name a few. But why are these films and their characters so popular and long lasting? We talk to Superman's biographer and a professor of pop culture about the phenomenon.

June 9, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – The Science of the Impossible

Duration: 0:10:21 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Michio Kaku, Prof. of theoretical physics, City University of New York, NYC, host of Sci-Fi Science on the Science Channel, author of "Physics of the Impossible: A scientific exploration into the world of phasers, force fields, teleportation and time travel"

Science fiction is full of wizardry like phasers, invisibility, and time travel. It's pretty fantastical, but we don't think much about it really existing outside the pages of books or the movie screen. We talk to a renowned physicist who says that not only are these things possible; they're being worked on right now.

June 16, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Rooftop Agriculture: The best gardens you never see!

Duration: 0:11:29 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Lauren Mandel, landscape architect, Project Manager and Rooftop Agriculture Specialist at Roofmeadow, author of "Eat Up: The inside scoop on rooftop agriculture,"

One of the pleasures of summer is to take a walk around town and look at people's gardens to see what they're growing and how they' tend their plots. However, some of the most beautiful and productive gardens are ones you'll never see on your walk, because they're located on rooftops. We talk to an expert rooftop landscape architect about the different types of rooftop gardens, how they are tended, and what an amateur gardener needs to know to start their own garden on the roof.

June 23, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – Steampunk: New technology meets Victorian sensibilities

Duration: 0:12:18 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: James H. Carrott, freelance historian, writer and design consultant. Former global manager for Xbox 360 hardware, and Brian David Johnson, futurist at Intel Corp., speaker and writer. They are co-authors of the book, "Vintage Tomorrows: A historian and a futurist journey through steampunk into the future of technology,"

Why must every smartphone or iPad look like very other one? Must flat screen TVs lack style and flare? And why do new, high-tech kitchen appliances have to be stainless steel and sleek? The answer is, they don't. We talk to two authors who traveled the country researching "steampunk" – a cultural, social and technological movement that turns back the clock on mass-produced goods, and brings back craftsmanship, uniqueness and humanity to 21st century technology, fashion, literature and life.

June 23, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Fibonacci: The man who brought us numbers

Duration: 0:10:19 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Keith Devlin, Mathematician, Stanford Univ., NPR's "Math Guy," author of the book, "The Man of Numbers: Fibonacci's arithmetic revolution,"

We take our numbers and arithmetic for granted, and that's a good thing. However there was a time when it wasn't so simple to count, keep records of business transactions or do simple math problems because our numerals 0 through 9 weren't in common use around the world. We talk to a mathematician and author about the man who started the "arithmetic revolution."

June 23, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – Let's Do Business Summit

Duration: 0:25:44 minutes

The founder of the Minority Community Reinvestment Coalition, Al Pina, comes on to talk about equality in the work place and how the Let's Do Business Summit's goal is to make sure all major companies have employed the regulated amount of minorities.

June 30, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Bringing Historic Preservation

Duration: 0:09:55 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Steve Berry, author of the novel, "The King's Deception,"

Historic preservation isn't just for the big museums and art galleries. It's also the responsibility of small towns and libraries across the nation. We talk to a best-selling novelist about his historic fiction and how he helps small and large repositories of historical artifacts, books and even landmarks raise money to maintain their collections. He also discusses his new novel that holds a secret about Elizabethan England that could be more than legend!

June 30, 2013 6:55 a.m.

The Platform Segment #1 – 4th of July and Pet Protection

Duration: 0:18:57 minutes

Phil Blizzard re-joins the program to discuss the threats your pets may face during the 4th of July and hurricane season. He covers loud noises, hurricane season and thunderstorms and how you can help your pet thru these various stress situations using pressure.

Finance & Budget

April 7, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – The Foodshed & Urban Gardening

Duration: 0:12:22 minutes

Host: Philip Ackerman-Leist, Dir. of the Green Mountain College Farm & Food Project, and of their Masters in Sustainable Food Systems Program, and author of "Rebuilding the Foodshed: How to create local, sustainable and secure food systems," Eric Toensmeier, urban gardener author of "Paradise Lot: Two plant geeks, one-tenth of an acre and the making of an edible garden oasis in the city,"

It's spring, and backyard gardeners are gearing up to plant the tomatoes, zucchini, lettuce and carrots. Wouldn't it be great if everyone could have a garden that would produce enough so they'd have fresh produce most or all of the year? And just imagine not having to apples shipped in from Australia and tomatoes from Mexico. We talk to two agricultural specialists about how to grow a lot of food in very small space, and how regional and urban farming – even in vacant city lots and around public buildings – could provide healthy, fresh food for much of the community, increase employment in job-starved cities, and help revitalize economies in depressed areas of the nation.

April 14, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Overdressed: Fashion pollution and its toll on the economy

Duration: 0:11:20 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Elizabeth L. Cline, journalist, author of "Overdressed: The shockingly high cost of cheap fashion,"

Spring cleaning is here, and old clothes and shoes are often the items that end up in the charity bin. Why is it that Americans have so much clothing to throw away? What happens to the clothing and other items that go off to the resale store? And how does the consumerism of Americans affect the economies in emerging economies and Third World countries? We talk to an investigator and author who went inside the "fast fashion" industry for the answers to those questions, and discuss some solutions to the "clothing pollution" that plagues the world.

April 14, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – Sudden Wealth Syndrome

Duration: 0:27:56 minutes

Irvin Schotsch is the president of Pennsylvania capital management; he discussed a new syndrome having to do with those who acquire big lump sums of money quickly like lottery winners or those who were willed funds. He's talks about signs, symptoms and ways to deal with those suffering from Sudden Wealth Syndrome.

June 9, 2013 6:55 a.m.

The Platform – Save Money Cleaning

Duration: 0:24:55 minutes

Bryan Pinkham is taking cleaning and trying to make it more environmentally friendly. He discusses how the chemicals we use can end up in our drinking water, why cleaning green is a better way for your family and He talks about the benefits your bank account will reap.

Women and Family Issues

April 14, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – School Budgets: Are the arts expendable?

Duration: 0:11:18 minutes

Host: Laura Lyn Stern, art teacher and Head of the Art Dept., at the Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy, Bryn Mawr, PA (www.jbha.org); Nadine Herman, Music Dir. Newark School of the Arts, Newark, NJ; Ursus Wehrli, artist, comedian, stage performer, author of the book, "The Art of Clean U."

School budgets are tight, and school administrators are looking for places to economize. Often the arts – visual, dance, music and theater – are the first classes cut when money is tight. Is this a good idea? We talk to two arts educators and an artist about the benefits the arts provide for children, and how schools can use technology and ingenuity to create programs that are fun, innovative and cost-efficient.

April 21, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Vacationing? Make it an adventure!

Duration: 0:11:39 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Lisa Catherine Harper, co-author of "The Cassoulet Saved Our Marriage: True tales of food, family and how we learn to eat," Julia Pendl, humorist, author of "Memoir of the Sunday Brunch,"

When a family sits down to a meal, it's a special thing. Even if it's not a holiday feast, it's a time when people get to talk, catch up with each other and learn about food and table manners. It can also help nurture relationships. We talk to two authors about the connection between food, family and friends and how eating together --- and preparing food for others --- can strengthen the bonds between family members..

April 28, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – The Relationship Between Food and Families

Duration: 0:10:48 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Amity Shlaes, Dir. of the Four Percent Growth Project at the George W. Bush Center, presidential scholar, and author of "Coolidge."

If you ask anyone who their favorite president is, they probably won't say Calvin Coolidge. After all he didn't do much, did he? We talk to a presidential scholar and biographer who says Coolidge did more than people realize: he brought the country out of the wartime economy; lowered taxes; trimmed the size of the federal budget and made it possible for the average American to enjoy many of the innovations of the day such as automobiles, electricity and indoor plumbing.

May 12, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Slang: Where does it come from and why do we use it?

Duration: 0:11:51 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Robert Leonard, Prof. of Linguistics, Dir. the Graduate Program in Forensic Linguistics and of the Institute for Forensic Linguistics, Hofstra University (www.hofstra.edu); Lesley M. M. Blume, author of "Let's Bring Back: The lost language edition,"

Slang is often thought of as being a lower-class way of speaking, although we use it all the time and it does make our language more colorful and vibrant. But how does it come into being? We talk to a linguist and to an author about why slang and jargon are part of our speech, who brings them into our language and why some slang falls out of favor – but should come back.

May 12, 2013 6:55 a.m.

The Platform – Family eJournal

Duration: 0:25:23 minutes

Kevin Strauss is the creator of family eJournal, he comes back on the program to discuss innovative ways for families to communicate. He talk about bullying, the idea of e-mail family communication and how it can help family's stay connected and see sign of issues.

May 19, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – Simplicity: Why it's important in our lives and work

Duration: 0:10:48 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Irene Etzkorn, Exec. Dir. of Simplification, Siegel + Gale, co-author of "Simple: Conquering the Crisis of Complexity,"

Keeping it simple is a real challenge these days – for individuals and businesses. Anyone who has applied for a credit card or taken out a car insurance policy knows that even those two everyday tasks come with page after page of language only a lawyer can understand. And what about the directions for setting up that baby crib or kid's bicycle? We talk to a specialist on simplicity about how and why things become so complex, who benefits when they do, and learn how anyone can cut through the gobbledygook to incorporate more simplicity into their lives and work.

June 2, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – Gambling Addicts: What are the odds for recovery?

Duration: 0:10:05 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Christine Reilly is the senior research director for the National Center for Responsible Gaming; Mitchell Wallick holds PhDs in both addictions and counseling and is the executive director of C.A.R.E Florida

Gambling is all around us, and most people can have fun at the track or casino without going broke. Pathological or problem gamblers are a different story. We talk to two specialists about what gambling addiction is, treatments for it and how families can help a loved one who is a pathological gambler.

June 2, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – Mary Higgins Clark

Duration: 0:22:56 minutes

Mary Higgins Clark comes on to talk about her career and how she has trail blazed a path for female writers. She talk about how writers can break into the industry, her inspiration for her books and the three things she wants you to know.

June 9, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #2 – A Father and Daughter Collaboration

Duration: 0:12:13 minutes

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Jeffrey W. Rubin, Assoc. Prof. of History at Boston University, research associate at the Institute on Culture, Religion and World Affairs; his daughter and collaborator Emma Sokoloff-Rubin, Howland Research Fellow in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Co-authors of "Sustaining Activism: A Brazilian women's movement and father-daughter collaboration."

Dads and their teenage daughters do lots of things together –go fishing, learn to drive, create school projects – but how many actually collaborate on their father's research and the book he's writing? We talk to just such a duo that went off to South America to talk to and videotape the women of rural southern Brazil who fought for equal rights for all women in their families, society and business. We find out how the two worked together, how they debated the issues and how the book would be written, and the unique perspective a young daughter brought to her father's academic work.

June 16, 2013 5:20 a.m.

Viewpoints Segment #1 – Teenage Depression and Contagious Behavior

Duration: 0:11:02 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Dr. Frank Farley, Prof. of psychology at Temple University (www.temple.edu), past president of the American Psychological Association (www.apa.org); Suzanne Young, teacher, author of the young adult novel, "The Program"

Depression is a serious issue that many US teens and their families have to deal with. Depression can lead to risky behaviors such as alcohol and drug abuse, extreme dieting and other reckless activities. Combine that with peer pressure to undertake risky behaviors – even suicide--and you have a very dangerous situation. We talk to a psychologist and to a novelist who has written about the problem to find out why teens do it and what parents can do to help their children.

June 16, 2013 5:55 a.m.

The Platform – 4Kids of South Florida

Viewpoints Segment #1 – The Famous and Unsung Workers on the Atomic Bomb

Duration: 0:12:14 minutes

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Ray Monk, author of "Robert Oppenheimer: A life inside the center,"; Denise Kiernan, author of "The Girls of Atomic City: The untold story of the women who helped win World War II,"

Everyone knows about the Manhattan Project that created the first atomic bomb, and the man behind the Los Alamos laboratory – Robert Oppenheimer. But did you know he knew Sanskrit? That he loved French literature? We talk to a man who has written a new bio of the famous physicist that reveals some things you didn't know about him. Also, New Mexico wasn't the only center for A-bomb research. Oak Ridge, Tennessee played a pivotal role in winning WWII as well. An author talks about the women who worked at that installation, their jobs, their lives and their contributions to the war effort.

June 30, 2013 5:55 a.m.
