Viewpoints

July 3, 2022 – Segment 1: Gaining a Greater Understanding of the Military Experience – 8:58

Guests: Phil Klay, veteran, writer, author, Uncertain Ground: Citizenship in an Age of Endless, Invisible War; Dr. Carl Castro, veteran, associate professor, School of Social Work, University of Southern California, director, Military and Veterans Programs, University of Southern California.

There are close to two million Americans serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, according to 2021 data from the Department of Defense. The U.S. is considered to have the world's strongest military, yet many Americans are disconnected from this subset of American culture. We speak with two experts about why this is and how the gap can be bridged between civilians and those who serve.
