FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Broadcast station licensees are required to afford equal employment opportunity to all qualified persons and to refrain from discriminating in employment and related benefits on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, and sex. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.2080. Pursuant to these requirements, a television station employment unit that employs five or more full-time station employees must file a full and complete Broadcast Mid-Term Report. If a television station employment unit employs fewer than five full-time employees, only the first two pages of this report need be filed [through Section I and the Certification].

A copy of this Mid-Term Report must be kept in the station's public file. Failure to meet these requirements may result in sanctions or remedies. These requirements are contained in 47 C.F.R. Section 73.2080 and are authorized by the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

Consider as "full-time" employees all those permanently working 30 or more hours a week.

Section I

Does your station employment unit employ fewer than five full-time employees, if television, or fewer than eleven full-time employees, if radio? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If yes, you do not have to file this form with the FCC. However, you have the option to complete the certification below, return the form to the FCC, and place a copy in your station(s) public file. You do not have to complete the rest of this form. If your station employment unit employs five or more full-time employees, if television, or eleven or more full-time employees, if radio, you must complete all of this form and follow all instructions.

CERTIFICATION

This report must be certified, as follows:

- A. By licensee, if an individual;
- B. By a partner, if a partnership (general partner, if a limited partnership);
- C. By an officer, if a corporation or an association; or
- D. By an attorney of the licensee, in case of physical disability or absence from the United States of the licensee.

WILLFUL FALSE STATEMENTS ON THIS FORM ARE PUNISHABLE BY FINE AND/OR IMPRISONMENT (U.S. CODE, TITLE 18, SECTION 1001), AND/OR REVOCATION OF ANY STATION LICENSE OR CONSTRUCTION PERMIT (U.S. CODE, TITLE 47, SECTION 312(a)(1)), AND/OR FORFEITURE (U.S. CODE, TITLE 47, SECTION 503).

I certify to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, all statements contained in this report are true and correct.

GENERAL POLICY

A broadcast station must provide equal employment opportunity to all qualified individuals without regard to their race, color, national origin, religion or sex in all personnel actions including recruitment, evaluation, selection, promotion, compensation, training and termination.

Section IIRESPONSIBILITY FOR IMPLEMENTATION

A broadcast station must assign a particular official overall responsibility for equal employment opportunity at the station. That official's name and title are:

Name: BRENDA CLARK

Title: BUSINESS MANAGER

It is also the responsibility of all persons at a broadcast station making employment decisions with respect to recruitment, evaluation, selection, promotion, compensation, training and termination of employees to ensure that no person is discriminated against in employment because of race, color, religion, national origin or sex.

Section IIIMID-TERM REPORT

Television station employment units with five or more full-time employees and radio station employment units with more than ten full-time employees filing in the middle of the license term must attach a copy of each of the two most recent EEO public file reports (the reports from this year and last year). Stations are required to place annually such information as is required by 47 C.F.R. Section 73.2080 in their public files.

III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	Type Of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description Of Activity
1	Internship Program/KXXR Morning Show & Sanford-Brown College	From December 2014 to June 2015, members of the KXXR morning show staff mentored two students from Sanford-Brown College. The students performed and learned various tasks including audio production (Adobe Audition), digital delivery system for music/spots/imaging (ENCO), proper mic techniques, how to read spot and music logs, the process of prepping for a show, appropriate ways to interact with listeners and social media strategies. This Program provides students with a unique understanding of what it takes to produce a fast-paced commercial radio morning show.
2	Internship Program/Promotions Department	Our SEU hosts an ongoing internship program designed to provide participants with "hands-on" experience and teaches them "the world of radio" to facilitate a successful career in broadcasting. The SEU recruits interns from a wide variety of educational institutions which includes: the University of Minnesota; the University of Wisconsin; the University of St. Thomas; Brown College; IPR/Institute of Production Recording; Hamline University; St. Cloud State; and the Minnesota School of Business. Additionally, internship opportunities are posted on station websites, which are updated regularly. Our Program runs for twelve months and interns are expected to devote 5-to-15 hours per week to the SEU. Promotions Directors supervised our interns during this reporting period, which included 10 interns for KQRS and 8 for KXXR in the promotions department.

3	Participation in Minneapolis Urban League – Job Fair	On June 18, 2015, our Local Sales Manager and Human Resource Director attended the Job Fair hosted by the Minneapolis Urban League Center in North Minneapolis. The LSM and HR Director were able to reach out to job seekers in the community and inform them of job opportunities at the radio stations.
4	Internship Recruitment at University of Minnesota	On June 6, 2015, the Marketing Director, Promotions Director and Account Executive for KQRS and WGVX attended the University of Minnesota to recruit interns for the stations. Interns are also recruited through our websites and referrals from all of our other station interns. The interns learn about the promotions department, concert promotions, the logistics of booking and promoting concerts.
5	Co-Sponsorship of NAACP Job Fair	On Monday, January 19, 2015 the stations co-sponsored a job fair with NAACP and PDN, two organizations in the business and professional community whose membership includes substantial participation by women and minorities. The job fair was attended by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making hiring decisions, including our Human Resource Director and Sales Manager. The radio stations ran a combined total of 30 PSA's informing the public of the job fair.
6	Participate in events sponsored by organizations representing community groups interested in broadcast employment issues	The station's Market Manager serves on the Board of the National and Local Alliance for Women in Media (AWM). In this leadership capacity, she coordinates various events and seminars to advance women in the media industry. Locally, the AWM holds monthly board meetings and industry luncheons approximately six times a year. Nationally, the AWM holds four quarterly meetings and they plan, coordinate and execute national events like The Gracies, which is created to recognize exemplary programming created for women, by women and about women in all facets of media and entertainment, as well as individuals who have made substantial contributions to the media industry. This is an ongoing program.

	Type Of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description Of Activity
7	Hosted Job Fair	On Friday, April 3, 2015 stations KQRS -KXXR-WGVX hosted a Job Fair at the Ramada Inn in Bloomington, MN. The 3 radio stations partnered with local businesses to recruit talented individuals from the community for available job opportunities. Several employers from the community attended the job fair, including Minnesotajobs.com, Cross Country Freight Solutions, Alliance One, DLI, staff management and others.

III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	Type Of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description Of Activity
1	Participate in Events or Programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.	Vantage Project is an innovation of the Minnetonka Public Schools. In this innovative new program, students will work on a project team, on location, solving real-world problems and learning about the challenges of project-driven work. Under the direction of our KXXR Programming personnel the students are mentored in the area of Digital Media. The students have visited the station and have attended the KXXR morning show. The programming personnel keep in contact with the students via e-mail and/or text a couple times a month to give advice to the students on projects they are working on in class. This program has been in place since early October 2016.
2	Internship Program/Promotions Department	Our SEU hosts an ongoing internship program designed to provide participants with "hands-on" experience and teach them "the world of radio" to facilitate a successful career in broadcasting. The SEU recruits interns from a wide variety of educational institutions which include: the University of Minnesota; the University of Wisconsin; the University of St. Thomas; Sanford-Brown College; IPR/Institute of Production Recording; Hamline University; St. Cloud State University; and, The Minnesota School of Business. Additionally, internship opportunities are posted on station websites, which are updated regularly. The internships run twelve months and interns are expected to devote 5-to-15 hours per week to the SEU. Individual stations Promotion Directors supervise the interns during this reporting period, which included 1 intern for KQRS-FM and 5 interns for KXXR-FM.
