Moral Issues

Program: In the Market

Date: April 12, 2019

Time: 5:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: Who Am I?

It is difficult for Christians to know how to respond to homosexuality in today's culture. Some believers argue the truth while others remain silent to avoid offending. How can we lovingly, yet truthfully, respond? The guest offered advice from a perspective the world says isn't possible, as one who turned from homosexuality to find freedom in Christ. He answered questions like: - Does God call homosexual behavior sin? - Do homosexuals go to hell? - Does orientation equal identity? - How do I love without judgment or condemnation? - How do I minister to my child who has walked away from the Lord?

Program: Focus on the Family

Date: April 29, 2019

Time: 6:30AM

Duration: 28

Discussion: How Abortion Impacts Men: Radio host and counselor Stephen Arterburn candidly shared how he pressured his college girlfriend into getting an abortion, and how the guilt and shame haunted him until he learned to fully accept God's abounding grace.

Program: In the Market

Date: April 29, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: Dangerous Ideas

The discussion was how the New Age movements, both ideas and practices, are working their way into the Church today. Learn to recognize the deception, and the infiltration. Listeners heard from a man who was considered a high guru in the New Age movement and how he left it all for Jesus.

Program: Focus on the Family

Program: In the Market

Date: May 16, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: Rewriting Gender?

The world today claims that your identity is entirely defined by you. As parents raising children in this world, how do we teach children the gospel and explain how it impacts gender identity? In truth, transgenderism is a symptom of a far deeper problem that only Jesus can heal. Listeners learned how to guide gender issues with children with the perspective of the Gospel.

Program: In the Market

Date: May 17, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: What Do I Say?

Someone you love just told you, "I'm gay." Now what? You care for this person and you want what's best for them. You don't want to come across as judgmental, so how do you respond? Listeners heard the tender heart of one woman who has been on this journey and now ministries to those who want what Christ wants for them. Listeners learned how to respond like Jesus.

Program: Focus on the Family

Date: May 29 and 30, 2019

Time: 6:30AM

Duration: 28 Minutes for Two Days

Discussion: Finding Healing and Hope After Abortion: Author and speaker Patricia Layton described how God has helped her find emotional and psychological healing after an abortion she had when she was younger, offering encouragement and hope to women who are struggling with similar pain. Pat also discussed her ministry to post-abortive women and dismantles the cultural lie that "abortion hurts no one."

Program: In the Market

Date: June 5, 2019

Time: 5:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: The Porn Myth

Recent research has provided us with evidence that shows how physically addictive pornography is. Brain scans show how the brain of a porn addict is no different than the brain of a drug addict. Science has also shown us that many of the same neurotransmitter chemicals and hormones that are released when using drugs are also released when viewing porn. Yet, some say the use of pornography is harmless. Listeners we invited to tune in as they explored the porn myth.

Family Issues

Program: Open Line

Date: Each Saturday

Time: 10:00AM

Duration: 110 Minutes

Discussion: Every Saturday Dr. Michael Rydelnick answers listeners questions on Bible and Christian-Living topics, providing answers straight from Scripture and, when possible, bringing additional historical context from his wealth of knowledge and experience.

Program: In the Market

Time: 5:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: Fighting For Your Marriage

A home ripped apart by one spouse leaving reverberates with a host of unanswered questions. Simple answers don't exist heartrending complexities do. In the midst of the turmoil, reconciliation may seem out of reach. But there is still hope for those who are willing to fight for their marriages. The guest explored practical answers for men and women in the midst of a marriage crisis, guiding them step by step toward hope and a positive outcome, even when fighting for the marriage alone.

Program: In the Market

Date: April 9, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: I, Robot

We're constantly invited to think about the future of technology as a progressive improvement of tools: our gadgets will continue to evolve, but we humans will stay basically the same. In the future, perhaps even alien species and intelligent robots will coexist alongside humans, who will grapple with challenges and emerge as the heroes. But the truth is that radical technological change has the power to radically shape humans as well. The guest, a Biblical ethicist, guided us into careful consideration of the future of Christian discipleship in a disruptive technological environment. We cannot think about technology use today without considering who we will become tomorrow.

Program: In the Market

Date: April 24, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: Enough!

Every marriage has sparks that fly but what happens when those sparks turn into a forest fire of rage? When is it enough? Listeners joined with their questions about how to handle abuse in a marriage. Can an abuser be stopped? Does God allow for a separation, in the hopes of healing the relationship?

Program: In the Market

Date: April 25, 2019

Time: 5:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: To The Least Of These

What is it like to be the parent of a 'special needs' child? How can the Church reach out and support those families with a member of the household who has a disability? Listeners heard from a man who lives with this every day and is called to wake a sleepy church to minister to those who are broken and live among us.

Program: In the Market

Listeners learned the habits of playing, listening, appreciating and nurturing your marriage to make it joy-filled!

Program: In the Market

Date: May 8, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: The Last Chapter

There's a lot of advice about retirement out there. Some try to tell you retirement can and should be a perpetual vacation. Others might speak about retirement as a time for you second career. And there's some truth in all of it, but there's a lot wrong with it too. The guest explored ideas like Sabbath, calling, and purpose, and taught us how to: reframe conversations around the body and healthcare decisions, understand your family system, set boundaries, and leave an intentional legacy and love God, bear witness to the gospel, and serve your neighbors in retirement. Learn how to make the last chapter the best chapter!

Program: In the Market

Date: June 10, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: Forgiveness

Our Duck Dynasty guests were desperate for their love to survive—and with God's help they realized the only answer to marital and family betrayal is all-consuming, life-altering, desperate forgiveness. They will shared this message with anyone who wanted to exchange broken relationships for healing. Listeners were invited to join and learn about the necessity and power of humility; the freedom found in letting go of bitterness; and the restoration and reclamation on the other side of desperation. Listeners learned how to find the way to a changed life and revitalized marriage.

Program: Focus on the Family

Date: June 17, 2019

Too often people find themselves in an abusive relationship, whether it is a spouse, a friend or a relative, and there doesn't seem to be a way out. The program was designed to give listeners life skills for better relationships!

Program: In the Market

Date: June 25, 2019

Time: 6:00PM

Duration: 55

Discussion: Filling Your Tank

We all need more energy, the vitality that helps us stay motivated, focused and productive in life. We know we receive energy from good nutrition, along with working out, adequate sleep and maintaining positivity. But there is another major source for the energy we need: having the right kinds of relationships with others. Not the ones that drain us, but the ones that refuel us. The guest showed us how we need the fuel of "Relational Nutrients" from others, and, in turn we can then provide them to others.
