Issue: FEEDING THE HUNGRY

Person interviewed Rev. Maryann LoGuidice

Interviewees title Chair, Dubuque Crop Walk, 2015

Organization: Dubuque Area Congregations United (DACU)

File Title "CROP WALK 2015"

A brief synopsis:

Rev. Maryann LoGuidice was interviewed to promote Crop Walk, 2015, an annual event that raises funds for various organizations that help feed the less fortunate. Twenty five percent of the funds are used in our community, and the rest is distributed worldwide to feed the hungry in the rest of the world. This year's Crop Walk is scheduled for Sunday, October 4th on Grandview Avenue in Dubuque. Last year, over 250 people participated. Rev. LoGuidice represents DACU, Dubuque Area Congregations United which has over 35 local church organizations participating. Townsquare Media of Dubuque is a participating sponsor of this event.

This quarterly report highlights several of our regular services. Also listed are various programs that were aired on some or all of the Townsquare Media of Dubuque stations to deal with certain issues that are important in our community.

Forms are attached to each page of this report which will show which Townsquare Media of Dubuque stations broadcast programs regarding each issue, unless the times and dates of each program are included in the report itself.

ISSUES:

- I Sex Trafficking In The Tri States
- II Welfare of Animals
- III Alzheimer's Disease
- IV Welfare of Women and Children in the Tri States
- V Helping Area Visual Impaired and Hearing Impaired People
- VI Youth Development
- VII Housing for Tri-Staters That Need Help
- VIII Feeding the Hungry

I Sex Trafficking in the Tri States

Casey Klien of "Set Free" pointed out sex trafficking, especially of minors, is a growing problem in the Tri States. People are being kidnapped, and held for prostitution and slavery. The Tri States are in the middle of routes between Milwaukee, Chicago, and Waterloo and Cedar Rapids. Victims are being brought into our area and are being kidnapped from it. "Set Free" held a seminar on July 30th, featuring many people from different organizations including Dubuque Police Chief Mark Dalzing, offering help to victims. The seminar is being held to enlighten tri-staters about this growing problem.

II Welfare of Animals

Every Tuesday Morning, Cumulus of Dubuque presents interviews with Jane McCall of the Dubuque Regional Humane Society. The interviews contain information about proper animal care, upcoming fundraising events, and descriptions of animals available at the Dubuque Regional Humane Society. The interviews are heard on WDBQ-FM at 8:40 am, WJOD at 8:50 am, and Y-105 at 8:40 am.

III Alzheimer's Disease

Alex Barton is the Program and Event Coordinator of the Dubuque Alzheimer's Association. Alex told our listeners about different symptoms that could indicate that persons have Alzheimers, but do not necessarily mean that they are affected. Barton also told us different things that people could do to avoid Alzheimers symptoms in the future.

IV Welfare of Women and Children in the Tri States.

Maria House and Theresa Shelter gives women and children a place to stay in times of duress to escape a bad marriage or relationship. Executive Director of Opening Doors Amy Schauer gave us an insight into what services Maria House and Theresa Shelter provides. Amy Shauer also told our listeners that her organization is not a handout, but a hand up. Her clients are expected to learn how to manage their lives, raise their children, and get back into the workforce. This is the purpose of Opening Doors.

Issue Welfare of Women and Children

Amy Schauer Executive Director, Opening Doors

Name of organization Maria House / Theresa Shelter

File name & Length "Maria Theresa PA" Two Minutes

A brief synopsis:

Maria House and Theresa Shelter gives women and children a place to stay in times of duress from a bad marriage or relationship.

Executive Director of Opening Doors Amy Schauer gave us an insight into what services Maria House and Theresa Shelter provides. Amy Shauer also told our listeners that her organization is not a handout, but a hand up. ## V Helping Area Visual Impaired and Hearing Impaired People

The East Dubuque Lions Club helps community members, especially those dealing with issues regarding their sight or hearing. Funds are raised to help people who cannot afford adequate glasses, hearing aids, or proper ear and eye health care. The East Dubuque Lions held their fund raising dinner and auction on August 7th, and Casey Klien of the East Dubuque Lions invited people to the event and informed our listeners about the goal of the Lions.

VI Youth Development

The purpose of the Dubuque Colts and Colt Cadets is to help young people learn discipline, music, and become good representatives for the Dubuque community. "Music on the March" is a yearly presentation. This year it brought 7 international Drum and Bugle corps to Dubuque on July 7th, 2015, for part of their summer competition. Executive Director Jeff MacFarlane promoted the event, gave an update on the Colts summer national competition, and spoke of the importance to youth of the Colts organization.

Stephanie Ludovissy of Junior Achievement told us how her organization works to further educate young people. JA events, meetings and demonstrations help children age 6 through 18 learn about the world, business, and how to cope with things they probably will not learn in high school. The service is free to schools and students in the Tri States. The only form of funding is events like the JA Golf Classic which was held September 14th in Dubuque.

VII Housing for Tri-Staters that need help. __

Jeff Hefel, Managing Broker at Ruhl & Ruhl Realtors spearheaded a fund raising Adult Kickball Tournament to raise funds for Cedar Valley Friends of the Family, Dubuque Circles Initiative, and Habitat for Humanity. In our broadcast, which was heard on all five Townsquare Media of Dubuque Stations, Jeff described each of the three organizations and what they are doing to help people become financially independent. Friends of the Family helps people who are in a desperate situation find housing so that they can live independently from those family members who are causing the problem. The Dubuque Circles Initiative helps people who have not yet learned how to handle money and become financially independent. Habitat for Humanity builds and refurbishes homes for people who are willing to contribute sweat equity. The Adult Kickball Tournament was held August 29, 2015.

OTHER SERVICES

NEWS: All Townsquare Media of Dubuque stations carry news of the American Broadcasting Company and six local newscasts each weekday. In addition, WDBQ-AM carries Iowa state news from Radio Iowa.

WEATHER: Townsquare features full access to satellite and radar transmissions of current conditions. WJOD is associated with Weathertime, a private weather service that has a much better track record than the National Weather Service, is faster with their reports, and is especially valuable to the Dubuque area's extensive agricultural community.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS: Townsquare of Dubuque stations average well over 20 locally oriented public service announcements per day for various non-profit groups in the tri states.
