

This is a short list of all the subjects we have covered. A full list can be obtained by request to the station. We currently cover local matters at the following times every week:

- Monday through Friday from 10am till 11am: “Let’s talk about it” which covers various relevant subjects like health, family issues and race issues.
- Monday from 6pm till 7pm: “Let’s talk Law” which includes a local lawyer giving legal advice to our listeners.
- Sunday from 6pm till 7pm: “Operation PUSH” which is dealing with racial issues.

In earlier years we have had different programs, but we have always had a minimum of 5 full hours of talk show pertaining to local matters. We can provide a more extended list for every year and quarter by contacting the station.
