

Jan. 5th – Terry Wilson with Jett asphalt came in and talked about hwy 82 closure due to repaving the road. Advising the public to exercise caution while driving in that area

Jan 20 – Steve Strobele talking CCAPS – dog food donations, thrift store

Jan 22 – Jason Morrison, SAU Tech, talking basketball season starting tonight

Jan 38 – Jerri Lephiew, County Extension Agent, talking about feral hog eradication program task force

Feb 3 – Steve Strobele talking keeping dogs warm and safe this winter. What needs the shelter has that the community can help with.

Feb 4 – Jerri Lephiew talking about Master gardening training and 4 H

Feb 9 – Mayor Parnell Vann talking about water line replacement, sidewalk work, fixing yards and redoing intersection at college

Feb 15 – Mayor Parnell Vann talking about weather related problems. Stay home if your can, roads slick, keep off street with ATV

Feb 23 – Barbara Hamilton, SAU Tech, talking about the many aspect of Adult Education

Feb 24 – Candy Rowe and Debbie Chatelain talking about the Garden Club – looking for members

Feb 26 – Jason Morrison talking SAU Tech

March 4 – Jerri Lephiew talking about pesticide application class

March 5 – Jason Morrison talking SAU Tech’s Fire Training Academy

March 10 – Steve Strobele talking dogs needing health check ups and thrift store.

March 16 – Johnny Sprayberry talking 50th year of Columbia County Hayride. Telling history of show that has brought so much joy to country music fans.

March 17 – Steve Strobele talking weather affects animals

March 18 – Jerri Lephiew taling PAT Training and spraying rose bushes.

March 19 – Jason Morrison talking SAU Techs Welding program

March 25 – Jerri Lephiew talking about bull fertility and needing a soundness exam before putting out with cows. Also, talked about soil samples.

Rick Muncrief and Rebecca Beckam talking about Festival on the Rails and their pork chop cook off on April 10

March 26 – Jason Morrison and Jeremy Casey with SAU Tech talking about a career in welding

March 31 – Steve Strobele Talking about Columbia County Non Profit Day of Giving