

Alliance Radio, LLC.
ISSUES/PROGRAMS REPORT
for
WPNA 103.1 FM
April 1 - June 30, 2018

WPNA 103.1 FM Programs Addressing Public and Community Issues

During the second quarter of 2018, WPNA's bilingual (Polish/English) locally produced programming addressed the following issues of concern to the public:

1. Afternoon with 103.1 FM (April 2nd, 4:00 p.m., segment duration - 4 min.)
Afternoon host, Jacek Zielinski, interviewed Filip Frąckowiak, director of the General Kukliński Museum. The guest addressed the issue of political changes affecting retirement compensation of military personnel that served communistic Poland. He also summarized the mission of the General Kukliński Museum that's located in the US – where the Polish general lived for a large part of his life.
2. Morning with 103.1 FM (April 9th, 8:00 a.m., segment duration - 7 min.)
Morning show host, Magda Marczevska, interviewed Ewa Koch, president of the Association of Polish Teachers in the US, about the Seal of Biliteracy exam and its benefits for the bilingual students living in Chicago and attending public schools.

- 3. Morning with 103.1 FM (April 9th, 8:00 a.m., segment duration - 7 min.)
Morning show host, Magda Marczevska, interviewed Grzegorz Trzyma and Krzysztof Wojda from the Polish Institute of National Remembrance, together with Grzegorz Dziedzic from Polish Daily News, on the topic of conservation and digitalization of Polish Daily News archives. Polish Daily News is the oldest Polish-language daily continuously published outside of Poland. Once the archives are turned into electronic files, they will be available to the public.
- 4. Afternoon with 103.1 FM (January 16th, 4:00 p.m., segment duration - 22 min.)
Afternoon host, Jacek Zielinski, interviewed Polish American business woman Grazyna Skoczen and famous Polish actor Olgierd Lukaszewicz about supporting housing for retired Polish actors in Skolimow, Poland. Grazyna Skoczen organized a charity gala in Chicago benefiting the institution.
- 5. Afternoon with 103.1 FM (May 29th, 4:00 p.m., segment duration - 10 min.)
Afternoon host, Jacek Zielinski, interviewed Jerzy Leszczynski, marshall of Podlaskie Voivodship, and Michal Podbielski, director of promotion for Podlaskie Voivodship on occasion of dedicating a street in Chicago to be named Podlaskie Voivodship Way. The guests discussed the cooperation between their region and Chicago, including business, investments and tourism exchange.
- 6. Afternoon with 103.1 FM (May 29th, 4:00 p.m., segment duration - 16 min.)
Afternoon host, Jacek Zielinski, interviewed Jan Wiktor Sienkiewicz, rector of the Mikolaj Kopernik University in Torun, Poland, about the book about Polish war hero Gen. Wladyslaw Anders and movie that was based on it, Anders's Artists.