

Issues/Programs List

Quarterly Issues Programs for KINA-AM &

KSKG FM

October 1st-December 31st 2015

Placed in the Public File January 4th,

2016

KINA-AM & KSKG-FM has identified the following issues as significant issues facing our community in this quarter:

- A: Economics: Economic issues for both businesses and individuals.
- B: Children's Health and Safety: Children's issues concerning both health and safety.
- C: Healthcare: Topics covered concerning healthcare in Kansas and the nation.
- D. Water Issues: groundwater concerns in Kansas discussed.
- E. Public Safety: New fire and burglar alarm rules in Salina.
- F. Veterans Issues: Filling the gaps in service for veterans

Section II. Responsive Programs Two pages

The stations have broadcast programming dealing with each of the above-referenced issues. Programming dealing with each issue is set out below. The Eagle Radio Forum airs Sunday mornings at 6am on KSKG and 6:05am on KINA.

A: Economics

Eagle Radio Forum October 4th Length 3:30. Helping small businesses compete. Researchers at Kansas State University have launched a center to study social media and other online services to help rural small businesses to increase profitability. Lauri Baker guest.

Eagle Radio Forum October 25th. Length 5:01. Is Your Credit Score Correct ? Elizabeth Kiss talks about the importance of keeping updated on your credit score for financial management.

Eagle Radio Forum December 13th. Length 5:00. Shopping for the Holidays. Kansas State's Elizabeth Kiss suggest making a list and budget for holiday shopping.

Eagle Radio Forum December 20th. Length 3:30. Agriculture leaving a profitable time. K-State agriculture economist Allen Featherstone discusses the current state of the agricultural economy and compares it to the late 1970's.

Eagle Radio Forum December 27th. Length 3:40. Farm Management Tools. Administrator of the Kansas Farm Management Association, Kevin Herbel outlines what ag producers will need to do to sharpen their management with the downturn in the farm economy.

B. Children's Health and Safety.

Eagle Radio Forum October 18th. Length 3:48. Lasting effects of Early Trauma. K-State youth development specialist Elaine Johannes discusses a Harvard study which found a correlation between adverse childhood experiences that impact negative adult behavioral and health outcomes. A follow up program of 3:30 in length aired on November 29th.

Eagle Radio Forum November 1st. Length 4:37. Childbirth related deaths are up. Dr. Vinay Rane, an Australian obstetrician discusses problems of women dying during childbirth, especially in rural areas.

C. Healthcare

Eagle Radio Forum October 11th. Length 4:29. Better Hospital Food. Bryan Thompson from the Heartland Health Monitor learns about efforts to improve food served to patients, staff, and visitors better, and healthier.

Eagle Radio Forum November 22nd. Length 5:10. Efforts to improve Healthcare Billing. Bryan Thompson from the Heartland Health Monitor discusses changes made in coding and billing in healthcare billing.

D. Water.

Eagle Radio Forum December 6th. Length 3:06. Aquifer depletion study. Kansas State University has measured the long term depletion of the High Plains Aquifer. K-State civil engineer Dave Steward led the project and looks at water use data.

E. Public Safety.

Eagle Radio Forum November 15th. Length 4:10. New rules for alarms in Salina. Wayne Pruitt from the Salina Police Department and Roger Williams from the Salina Fire Department discuss changes in the ordinances regulating burglar and fire alarms in Salina.

F. Veterans Issues.

Eagle Radio Forum November 8th. Length 4:07. Filling the gaps for service members and veterans. Kansas State's Emily Betthausser and Brittany Beneke are working with the Kansas National Guard to bolster services for service members, their families, and veterans .