

RETRO SHOW DESCRIPTIONS

Episode Number 05/06-11 – Education :

Educating African American Children -- Crisis and Cure ? Is our nation cheating African American children when it comes to education? How much progress has really been made? This edition of America's Black Forum looks at some innovative strategies that have been developed over the years to help educate African American Children.

Episode Number 05/06-12 - Black Men In Crisis

Black Men In Crisis -- new studies say black males in the U-S are falling further behind. They're lagging in areas like health, education and employment. But why aren't things improving for young black men? This edition of America's Black Forum looks at this problem as we've been covering over the last decade.

Episode Number 05/06-13 African American Health

African Americans & Health --. In this episode of America's Black Forum, we look at the Health Crisis in the African American community. How diseases like Heart Disease, Cancer, HIV & AIDS are devastating our community. How have things changes over the years? Are we better off today, than in years past?

Episode Number 05/06-14 Media Images

This episode of America's Black Forum looks at Media and Race in America. How are media images shaping society's overall impressions of our community? Whether its music videos, film or tv, what impressions are we sending to the world? Are they fair representations of who we are?

Episode Number 05/06 -15 Police Brutality

Police brutality. The phrase, should be a contradiction in terms. Police in this country are sworn to protect the citizens. And yet in the past, we've been sickened by highly publicized accounts of public servants brutalizing men--and women--in our communities. On this edition of America's Black Forum -- a look back -- Coping With Police Brutality.