Community Convos with KimmyB. – Jason Taylor Foundation and the Blu Apple Poetry Network Present Louder Than a Bomb Poetry Festival

Duration: 0:45:00 minutes

Executive Director of the Jason Taylor Foundation, Seth Levit, and Director of Poetry at the Jason Taylor Foundation, Darius Daughtry talk about the Blu Apple Poetry Network and Louder Than a Bomb 2016. The Blu Apple Poetry Network is an extension of the Jason Taylor Foundation and provides young people in Dade and Broward County with a creative writing and spoken word outlet, which helps teach self-expression through the writing and performing of original poetry. The Network is open to any and all elementary, middle, and high school students. Louder Than a Bomb is a two week poetry competition and festival that allows the poets involved to showcase their hard work and talents for their peers in the spoken word community, friends, family, as well as any and all members of the extended community that would like to come out and support.

TOPIC: The Blu Apple Poetry Network, its focus, and how our young people can get involved. We also discussed the timeline and logistics for the upcoming Louder Than a Bomb poetry competition and festival.

Community Convo's with KimmyB. – Wings For Life and The Wings for Life World Run

Duration: 0:25:00 minutes

Wings for Life is an international not-for-profit spinal cord research foundation. Our mission is to find a cure for spinal cord injury. We fund world-class scientific research and clinical trials around the globe aimed at healing the injured spinal cord. The Wings for Life World Run is the only global race/fundraiser created by the CEO of Wings for Life, Anita Gerhardt, where runners around the world line up at the same time on the same day all over the world to run for those who can't and to raise money to help find a cure for paralysis and other spinal cord injuries.

TOPIC: Kimberly Ocampo, a 24 year old paraplegic and Ambassador for the Wings for Life World Run, came in to share her powerful story about paralysis, and to talk about her difficult yet inspiring journey of physical and emotional and spiritual rehab and recovery, and of course, to encourage the people of South Florida to come out and participate in the Wings For Life World run in Sunrise, which happens to be one of only two North American race locations.

April 17, 2016 6:00 a.m. and Community Convo's with KimmyB – Kyan's Kause Swimming Foundation and the 4th Annual Kyan's Kause Summer Splash
Duration: 0:27:00 minutes

Kyan's Kause Inc. is a non-profit organization which was established after we suffered the loss of our 2 year old little angel, Kyan Braxton Quintana, to a home drowning accident on June 9, 2013. Kyan is part of an amazing family which includes his four brothers and sisters. This unfortunate tragedy motivated his family to make every effort to prevent this loss from happening to other children in South Florida. Kyan's Kause Swimming Foundation is devoted to teaching proper water safety awareness through an early childhood curriculum and funding swimming scholarships throughout South Florida.

TOPIC: Juan Carlos Quintana shared the very personal story of how Kyan's Kause swimming foundation was created after he and his wife lost their 2 year old son to an accidental drowning which occurred at their home. We discussed the pertinence of water safety awareness and swimming instruction for children, especially here in South Florida. We also discussed the monumental work that Kyan's Kause Swimming Foundation is doing, the free services and programming they provide, and we talked about their upcoming fundraiser...the 4th Annual Kyan's Kause Summer Splash

April 17, 2016 6:30 a.m.
Community Convo's with KimmyB – The Breanna Vergara Foundation
Duration: 00:18:00 minutes

Alex Casanova, Treasurer of The Breanna Vergara Foundation, talks about the creation and work of the Breanna Vergara Foundation. The BVF is a relatively new 501c3 here in South Florida, but has already helped save the lives of 9 children, through its tireless work educating the community on the importance of EKG's for our children. The foundation has made it their mission to raise awareness about undetected heart conditions in children and the importance of EKG's for kids, especially those that are involved in any sort of athletic activities. They have also committed themselves to raising the funds necessary to not only help provide children with these EKG's, but also to help provide defibrillators to community centers, parks, organizations, and any other place where there could be an incident involving a child's heart.

TOPIC: The purpose of this interview was to help raise awareness about The Breanna Vergara Foundation and the great things they are doing in the community, as well as to help raise awareness about getting our children EKG's. Breanna Vergara was only 11 years old when she collapsed on the floor of her dance studio due to an undetected heart condition known as Wolff-Parkinson-White. There was no defibrillator on site and by the time Breanna reached the hospital she was pronounced dead. Within the first 6 months of her passing Breanna's parents and family had already set up the Breanna Vergara Foundation and have made it their mission to make sure no other family suffers the unnecessary loss of a child due to an undetected or underlying heart issue.

Community Convo's with KimmyB – Senator Braynon's Choice Challenge
Duration: 0:25:00 minutes

The Choice Challenge is a learning experience for children ages 13-17 created by Florida State Senator Oscar Braynon in conjunction with CMG Miami. The purpose of the Choice Challenge is to equip our youths, Middle and High School students, with the appropriate knowledge and tools to make conscious decisions about their future. It is a day full of educational workshops that focus on careers, life choices, character development, and teen self-empowerment. The focal point of the agenda is the mandatory workshop which highlights the real life consequences of drugs, gangs, and violence. The hope is that each participant will leave the workshop well-informed, with a renewed outlook on life, and the unwavering commitment to make the right choice.

TOPIC: Senator Braynon discussed the motivation behind creating the Choice Challenge, the importance of engaging our young people and encouraging them to think outside of their surrounding and bigger than their current circumstances, and how critical the choices they make now are to their futures. We also discussed how people could get involved and participate in the upcoming Choice Challenge.
