

Alabama Public Radio Newsroom

Public File

January 1st through March 31st, 2019

TOPICS COVERED

Homeless Count

Astronomy

Oscar Nominee

Alabama sports

Natural disasters

1/8 -- Clemson University is the new champion of college football. The Tigers beat Alabama in a lopsided forty four to sixteen victory at Levi's stadium in Santa Clara. Alabama has lost games before during the Nick Saban era, but this defeat at the hands of Clemson is being described as a knockout. Alabama Public Radio's Pat Duggins has more from California's Bay Area... 7:44, 4:44 (spot version 6:04, 7:04, 8:04, 4:32, 5:43—length :40.)

1/21 – Students at the University of Alabama joined millions across the world in taking in the Super Blood Wolf Moon total lunar eclipse. APR's Alex AuBuchon reports on a packed public viewing. 6:04a. 8:04a, 4:32p, 5:32p (runtime 1:00)

2/8- Alabama is taking part in a national effort to count the number of homeless in need of services. The Homeless Care Council of Northwest Alabama is going over the numbers gathered from the Point in Time count conducted last week. A-P-R's Stan Ingold has more on their efforts... (07:44) (4:44) (run time 04:08)

2/20 – Tuscaloosa, Alabama will host its first music festival in more than a decade in 2019. APR's Alex AuBuchon has the details on what to expect from this year's Druid City Music Festival... 7:44, 4:44 (runtime 3:51)

2/21- Alabama is going to be featured at the Oscars for the second year in a row. Last year the psychological thriller "Get Out" won best original screenplay and this year a documentary filmed in Alabama is up for the golden statue. A-P-R's Stan Ingold has this look at "Hale County This Morning, This Evening" and the growing film industry in Alabama... (07:44) (4:44) (run time 06:16)

3/4 -- The rescue and recovery efforts are just getting underway in Lee County in east Alabama. Early on, disaster officials say an F-4 tornado killed over twenty people. The storm was estimated to be a half mile wide and tore a path of destruction a mile long. APR's Pat Duggins sat down with one woman from the town of Beauregard who made it out alive... (3:29) (Spot versions 6:04, 7:04, 8:04, 4:32, 5:43. Length :40)