“The Influencers” – a report on social media influencers and how they are generating millions by using their popularity on the Internet in business marketing campaigns. Influencers connect with the hard-to-reach younger audience through platforms like Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, and Instagram. Includes an interview with Paul Cazars, CAA agent; Gary Vaynerchuk, CEO of VaynerMedia; and social media influencers: Logan Paul, Zach King, Amanda Cerny, Andrew Bachelor, and Kim Kardashian West. Also includes comments by unidentified fans of the social media influencers and Hulk Hogan (Terry Bollea).

10/30/16

“The Pot Vote” – a report on the upcoming November 8th vote to legalize recreational pot use in five states: California, Massachusetts, Maine, Arizona, and Nevada. Recreational marijuana has been legal for a few years in Pueblo, Colorado, and the state’s marijuana sales brought in $141 million in tax revenue in 2015. However, local law enforcement asserts that there is a rise in black market sales through organized crime; the number of babies born with THC (tetrahydrocannabinol) in their system has increased; an uptick in emergency room visits and drugged driving arrests. Includes interviews with: Bob DeGabrielle, owner of Los Suenos Farms; Ketch DeGabrielle, Bob’s son and operations manager at Los Suenos Farms; Dr. Steven Simerville, pediatrician and medical director of the newborn intensive care unit at Pueblo’s Saint Mary Corwin Medical Center; Sheriff Kirk Taylor, Pueblo County, CO; Dr. Marilyn Huestis, former chief of chemistry and drug metabolism at the National Institute on Drug Abuse; and Gov. John Hickenlooper (D-CO).

“The Arctic Frontier” – a report from the Arctic Circle about the competition for oil and mineral resources between Norway, Greenland, Canada, United States and Russia, since climate change is opening up the Arctic Ocean. United States scientists and naval personnel built a makeshift city called Sargo over the Arctic ice for a five-week long scientific and military exercise called ICEX 2016. Their mission was to learn how to survive and operate in the extreme weather conditions and to map the underneath portion of the ice so drones can patrol the waters looking for enemy submarines because last year, Russia staged an unannounced military exercise in the Arctic. Includes interviews with: Chuck McGuire, principal engineer at the University of Washington’s applied physics lab; Commander Scott Parker, Navy Atlantic Submarine Force meteorologist; Doug Horner, Naval Postgraduate School (NPS) research professor; Ret. General Philip Breedlove, Commander, U.S. European Command; Secretary of the Navy Ray Mabus; and Commander Theron Davis, Commanding Officer, USS Hampton. Also includes comments by Commander Scott Luers, ice camp officer-in-tactical-command.

10/09/16

“Artificial Intelligence” – a report on the advancement of artificial intelligence (AI), focusing on how it’s changing the world. IBM has invested $15 billion into Watson, a data-analytics technology platform. Watson was introduced to the world on the game show “Jeopardy” but is now being trained in genomics and oncology at twenty top-cancer institutes, including UNC Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center. Watson is revolutionizing cancer treatment because of its ability to: read and identify medical papers to suggest new trials human doctors may be unaware of; and to review scans and highlight what is normal and what is not. Carnegie Mellon University has more robots than professors on campus and some of their AI systems in the works include technology for: NASA’s Mars Rover, driverless modes of transportation; and Gabriel, a technology that uses Google Glass to gather data to advise you how to react. Artificial emotional intelligence (AEI) is having AI understand human emotions. Artificial general intelligence (AGI) is AI that could successfully perform any intellectual task that a human can. David Hanson, founder of Hanson Robotics, designed the human-looking Sophia robot, the latest in AGI. The Partnership on AI was recently established by IBM, Google, Amazon, Microsoft and Facebook to look at the ethical issues surrounding AI and monitor its development. Includes interviews with: John Kelly, head of research at IBM; Dr. Norman “Ned” Sharpless, director of UNC Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center; Pam Sharpe (now deceased) cancer patient under Watson trial; Andrew Moore, Dean of the School of Computer Science at Carnegie Mellon University; Maja Pantic, professor at Imperial College; and David Hanson. Includes comments by: Dr. Billy Kim, oncologist at UNC Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center and Pam’s doctor; and unidentified IBM employees.

“Bonobos” – a report on bonobos, a primate cousin of humans that looks like a chimpanzee. Bonobos are a separate species of ape that live in female-dominated groups and do not kill each other. Bonobos are endangered species and can only be found in the Democratic Republic of Congo in Central Africa. Conservationist Claudine Andre created Lola Ya Bonobo Sanctuary, an orphanage in Congo that’s caring for bonobos. To save these primates from extinction, Lola has released some back into the wild and, so far, they are thriving. Includes interviews with: Claudine Andre; Brian Hare, Duke University evolutionary anthropologist; and Suzy Kwetuenda, biologist who oversees bonobo rehabilitation at Lola Ya Bonobo.

11/06/16

“The Zika Virus” – a report on the American government’s efforts to control the Zika virus, a virus that can be transmitted through mosquitoes, blood and sex. It can result in babies born with catastrophic brain damage called microcephaly, or other developmental problems. The Zika virus continues to infect people in Puerto Rico, and also in every state but Alaska. The National Institutes of Health (NIH) plans to test the vaccine they created on thousands of volunteers living in Zika-infected areas. If it protects people in these areas, it could be ready for distribution by early 2018. Includes interviews with: Dr. Anthony Fauci, director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID); Dr. Alberto De La Vega, obstetrician/gynecologist in San Juan, Puerto Rico; and Dr. Tom Frieden, director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Also includes comments by: Rocio Hernandez, who was pregnant with Zika virus; and Catherine Paquette, who volunteered to receive first Zika vaccine.

“The Alzheimer’s Laboratory” – a report on a National Institutes of Health (NIH) supported study, attempting to discover whether Alzheimer’s disease may be preventable. The world’s largest concentration of people with a rare genetic mutation which causes early onset Alzheimer’s is found in Antioquia, Colombia. Scientists have taken a group of volunteers from this population, a group which will take an immunotherapy drug to remove amyloid plaque. The intervening years will offer researchers a chance to ascertain whether or not the drug has halted the disease in its tracks. Results aren’t expected until 2021. Includes interviews with: family volunteering for Alzheimer study in Antioquia, Colombia identified by first names only: Freddie, Cecilia, Victor, Sara, and Julio (through translator); Dr. Francisco Lopera, neurologist at the University of Antioquia; Lucia Madrigal, Dr. Lopera’s former nurse (through translator); Ken Kosik, neurologist and professor in neuroscience at the University of California, Santa Barbara; Dr. Pierre Tariot, director of Banner Alzheimer’s Institute; Dr. Claudia Kawas, Alzheimer’s researcher and clinician at the University of California Irvine; and Dr. Eric Reiman, executive director of the Banner Alzheimer’s Institute. Also includes comments by: Norm (only identified by first name), Alzheimer’s patient.

“Crime and Punishment” – a report on the German prison system, focusing primarily on Waldeck -- a maximum-security prison. Their system emphasizes humane treatment and rehabilitation, rather than punishment, and allows convicts an amount of freedom American prisoners do not have. German prisons cost less than those in America and produce fewer convicts who return. American politicians and prison supervisors are looking at Germany’s model to see what they can implement in America. Includes interviews with: German prisoners: Bernd Junge, Joerg Muehlbach (through translator) and Chris Templiner; Joerg Jesse, director of prisons in Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania; Governor Dannel Malloy, (D-CT); and John Wetzal, Pennsylvania’s secretary of corrections.

“Ask Ohio” – a report about how Ohio voters are divided between Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump for the upcoming presidential election. Candidates who win Ohio have won the presidency in every election since 1964, but with Election Day pending, voters here are still unsure. Includes interviews with: Ohio residents: Carlos and Aury Hernandez, Cyndra Cole, Tommie Jo Marsilio, Lisa Tolbert, and Jawanza Colvin, pastor at Olivet Institutional Baptist Church; and members of United Steelworkers Local 1104 in Lorain, Ohio: Greg Sedar, Tom Morris, Craig Cooper and Wayne Townsend.

11/06/16

“The National Mood” – a report about how Americans are feeling before they cast their vote for President of the United States. A CBS News/New York Times poll found 82 percent of likely voters are more disgusted than excited about the election between Democratic candidate Hillary Clinton and Republican candidate Donald Trump. Republican pollster, public opinion analyst and CBS News consultant Frank Luntz scientifically selected a focus group that reflects the current polling results. Includes an interview with Frank Luntz. Also includes comments from various unidentified people in the focus group.

11/13/16

“The 45th President” – a three-part interview with President-elect Donald Trump, conducted Friday, November 11th -- his first television interview as President-elect. Part I includes a discussion of his win on election night, social media use, his first meeting with President Obama, opponent Hillary Clinton, and various campaign promises. Part II is a joint interview between Mr. Trump and his wife Melania, who discusses her meeting with First Lady Michelle Obama and her intended cause when she assumes the role of First Lady: bullying on social media. Part III is an interview with the President-elect’s daughters Ivanka and Tiffany, and sons Donald, Jr. and Eric. They discuss their father’s temperament, election night, and running the family business empire.

10/01/16

48 HOURS: “My Mother’s Murder” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast of 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “My Mother’s Murder” (OAD: 04/10/10). On the morning of June 5, 2005, Noura Jackson, a teenager, called the police to report that she had discovered the body of her mother, Jennifer Jackson, in their Memphis, Tennessee home. Jennifer, a 39-year-old divorced single parent, was a successful bond trader, who provided Noura with a generous lifestyle. Due to the brutality of her murder, police initially considered a possible link between Jennifer’s death and the unsolved shooting death of her estranged husband, Nazmi Hassanieh, seventeen months prior; they also focused on Jennifer’s ex-boyfriend, Mark Irvin, a minister, who had an alibi. Although there was a lack of physical evidence at the crime scene, Noura’s conflicting accounts of her activities in the hours before she called 911, a gap in her cell phone usage, and an early morning trip to Walgreen’s to purchase first aid supplies for a cut on her hand, caused police to focus on her as a suspect. While none of the DNA at the crime scene matched Noura’s, she was eventually charged with her mother’s murder. Four years later, at her trial, prosecutors alleged that the seemingly good relationship between mother and daughter was strained due to Jennifer’s criticism of Noura’s hard-partying lifestyle and charged that this was the motive for the crime. The jury found Noura guilty of second-degree murder -- she still maintains her innocence. Onscreen text graphic: Noura Jackson was sentenced to 20 years in prison. She will be 39 years old when released -- the same age her mother was when she was murdered. 10/01/16 Update: In 2015, after Noura Jackson spent almost a decade in prison, the Tennessee Supreme Court granted her a new trial because the prosecution had withheld evidence from her defense team and had violated her right to remain silent during closing arguments. With a second trial looming, the prosecution offered Noura a plea deal. Using a rare legal procedure, called an Alford Plea -- the defendant proclaims innocence, yet pleads guilty -- Noura accepted a deal: a plea of Voluntary Manslaughter and 15 years. In 2016, Noura Jackson walked out of prison -- still proclaiming her innocence, vowing to pressure the State of Tennessee to find her mother’s killer. On-screen text graphic for the 10/01/16 updated rebroadcast: Noura Jackson is in a legal battle with some of her family over her mother’s $1.5 million estate. Interviewed: Noura Jackson; family friends Susan Tobey, Renea McMillan, Ansley Larsson, Dana Frederick; Sergeant Tim Helldorfer with the Memphis Police Department; Memphis detectives Lieutenant Mark Miller and Sergeant W.D. Merritt; Sergeant Connie Justice, the first officer to interview Noura; Valerie Corder, Memphis Defense Attorney; Prosecutor Amy Weirich.

48 HOURS: “Killer Performance” – a report on the 2010 murder investigation of 23-year-old dancer Julie Kibuishi in Southern California, and how her friend, former U.S. Army soldier Sam Herr, became the prime suspect in the case until investigators encountered an aspiring actor with a horrific tale to tell. Kibuishi was found dead in Herr’s bedroom, shot twice in the head. Police immediately believed Herr was the prime suspect, but friends and family thought otherwise. While searching for Herr and tracing his ATM and credit card usage, police were led to Herr’s neighbor, actor Daniel Wozniak, who told police that Herr confessed to him and was on the run. Suspecting he was lying, detectives continued to question Wozniak, and he became their prime suspect. They also brought his fiancé, fellow actor Rachel Buffet, in as well, and she barely reacted to the news -- another red flag to investigators. Under further questioning, Wozniak confessed to killing both Julie and Sam. He told police he had lured Herr to the theater, where he killed and dismembered Herr, ultimately disposing of his body in a park. Herr then went back and performed in a play. The investigation eventually revealed that Daniel Wozniak planned and executed the murders in order to steal Sam Herr’s life savings, which he planned to use to pay for his honeymoon trip with Rachel Buffet. After murdering Sam, Wozniak set Sam up by texting Julie to come to Sam’s apartment, where he killed her. Wozniak then went back to the theater and performed with his fiancé in a play. Rachel Buffet and his brother Tim Wozniak were arrested as accessories after the fact. Five and a half years later, in a five day trial, the jury found him guilty in two and a half hours. During the penalty phase, Wozniak’s attorney tried to shift the blame Rachel Buffet. Family members addressed the court to speak about Sam and Julie and their friendship. No one spoke for Wozniak. The judge sentenced him to death.

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Sophia’s Secret” (9:00 - 10:00p) - the story of Sophia Putney-Wilson, a Michigan teenager, and her work to expose the growing dangers of dating and break-up violence, following her own years of mental and physical abuse at the hands of her ex-boyfriend Adam Shigwadja. After meeting in 2011, the relationship between 14-year-old Putney-Wilson and 16-year-old Shigwadja seemed to be a typical teenage romance, but it quickly evolved into something much darker. Shigwadja often threatened to hurt himself or her family as a way to control Sophia, and after one attack, where he held her at knife point, she broke up with him. Despite a court order of separation, they started secretly seeing each other again. In 2014, she broke up with him again. Days later, he broke into her bedroom, held her at knife point and set her room on fire. Putney-Wilson was badly injured: Adam had escaped and was on the loose, and the family was terrified. Shigwadja was arrested the next day. He said that he had gone there with a knife and that his only intent was to harm himself and not Sophia. He was charged with home invasion with the intent to commit assault, and with felonious assault because he attacked Sophia with a knife. Shigwadja opted for a bench trial. Sophia testified that she felt she would only be safe if Adam was locked up. The defense argued he never meant to harm her and that his purpose for the visit was to kill himself. The judge found him guilty on home invasion and arson counts, but did not find that the burden was met for the charges of assault with intent to murder. The community was outraged. At sentencing, the judge surprised everyone, when she sentenced Adam Shigwadja to a minimum of twenty-nine years in prison. When questioned, Judge Pamela Lightroet said the uproar over her verdict had no influence on her ruling. On-screen text graphic: Sophia continues to speak with high school students about teen dating violence. Caught in an abusive relationship -- call the National Domestic Violence hotline at 800-799-SAFE (7233). Interviewed: Sophia Putney-Wilcox; Kristin Putney (mother); Kiely Putney-Wilcox (brother); Jeff Williams (Assistant District Attorney, Kalamazoo County); Susan Thomas (Adam Shigwadja’s mother); Detective Bill Moorian (Detective, Kalamazoo Public Safety) (C: Tracy Smith - P: Josh Gelman, Jonathan Leach, Chuck Stevenson).

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Long Road Home" - a report on the recovery of Sebastien Bellin, an international basketball star-turned tech entrepreneur, who was nearly killed in the March 2015 Brussels airport terror attack. His recovery is detailed over the course of eight months as he recovered from the bomb attack that caused him to lose over fifty-percent of his blood and left him with shattered bones and torn muscles. Following his basketball career, Bellin moved to Battle Creek, Michigan with his family and began a new career as a tech entrepreneur. The job involved regular travel to Brussels, including during the tense time in Europe. On March 22, 2015, he arrived at the Brussels airport to fly home and that day ISIS terrorists set off bombs at the airport and at a nearby train station. Bellin was severely wounded. This report takes a look at what it takes to survive an attack and put a life back together -- including Bellin's first-person account of the attack, his refusal to let the terrorists win, how his 15 years as a basketball player in Europe prepared him for the moment his life would change forever, his three months in the hospital, the quest to get back home to his family, hours of intense physical therapy and an inspirational return to the basketball court. On-screen text graphic: Sebastian is back flying to and from Europe. He even flies into Brussels airport. Sebastian is writing a book about his story of survival. 48 HOURS: "The Fight for Melissa" - a followup to "Blaming Melissa", OAD: 02/28/15; Updated 07/18/15. Melissa Calusinski, is a young woman who claims she did not murder 16-month-old Ben Kingan in 2009, while working at a day care center in Lake County, Illinois, despite having confessed to the crime. After new evidence from the coroner's office was brought to light and the cause of Ben Kingan's death was re-classified as undetermined, a hearing was held to determine if Melissa Calusinski would be granted a new trial. Examined are police interrogations, what happens after a confession, and what can happen when a key player in the investigation admits he made a life-altering mistake. Two days after Ben Kingan's death, Calusinski was brought in for questioning; police told her Ben died from a blunt-force trauma to the head and that she was the last adult to have seen him alive. She was interrogated for nine hours, never asked for a lawyer, and eventually confessed to dropping the child in a way that may have led to a head injury. She was convicted of murder, largely on the fact that she had confessed and that the Medical Examiner's report said that the child suffered from fresh injuries to his head. Her family persuaded a newly-elected coroner, Dr. Thomas Rudd, to re-examine the evidence. His findings revealed an older head injury -- a significant discovery. Eventually, state pathologist Dr. Eupil Choi admitted to missing the old injury in his report. With this information, attorney Kathleen Zellner, who specializes in cases pertaining to false confessions, said that Melissa Calusinski did not receive a fair trial. Advocates say that, under extreme conditions, 60% of people confess to crimes they did not commit. The police say they played by the rules. Two courts have allowed the conviction to stand. Attorney Zellner believed the medical evidence needed to be re-examined, but the State Attorney will not pass it on. At the latest hearing, witnesses testified for Melissa, but, the judge decided not to overturn the conviction. Attorney Zellner was not surprised; she says the next stop is the State Appellate Court. On-screen text graphic: Dr. Thomas Rudd is no longer Lake County Coroner. He lost the election in November. Kathleen Zellner will file Melissa's latest appeal in January. Interviewed: Melissa Calusinski; Paul and Cheryl Calusinski (parents); Dr. Thomas Rudd (Lake County coroner); Kathleen Zellner (attorney); Paul DeLuca (Melissa's original attorney); Stephen Schller and Matt DeMartini (Lake County Assistant States Attorneys); Michael Nerheim (States Attorney); Dr. Saul Kassin (professor, John Jacy College/CBS News Consultant); Jeff Mueller (imaging expert); Paul Foreman (former deputy coroner); Dr. Robert Zimmerman (pediatric neuroradiologist).
