WMAG
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WMAG provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Alzheimers: Scott Herrick - North Carolina Director of Public Policy, Alzheimer's Association and Steve Dozier - Co-Chair of Walk to End Alzheimer's, Guilford County. Scott and Steve talk to us about the current status of Alzheimer's today. How this disease affects individuals and families and what kind of medical advances are being made to fight this disease. We (tm)ll also talk about the upcoming Walks to end Alzheimer's in both Guilford and Forsyth counties,
- Community Gardens: Today's program features Quina Weber Shirk. Quina is a county Extension Agent in charge of community and school gardens She also brought with her today Synclaire Kenner a new intern at the North Carolina Cooperative Extension agency in Guilford county.
- Community Service: Do you have what it takes to be a Master Gardener? Learn to be a Master Gardener and find out how you can help out people all over the Triad. Classes begin soon and you need to sign up. Crystal Mercer with the Guilford
- Crime and Reducing Recidivism: Our mission: To assist formerly incarcerated individuals in starting their own business and engaging in entrepreneurship by providing resources, mentorship and hope. Our vision: To reduce the rate of recidivism by providing an alternative path to financial stability and success.
- Eating Healthy: Mediterranean style eating pattern incorporates the basics of healthy eating that are traditionally practiced in countries that border the Mediterranean Sea. The research has shown that the diet decreases the risk for chronic diseases such as hypertension, high cholesterol, diabetes, and obesity
- Financial Literacy: Shameca Battle with the NC Cooperative Extension service has some great tips on how to save money and still get all of those school supplies that your children need
- Heart Disease: Sarah Fedele, the Director Of Communications and Marketing for the American Heart Association of the Triad talked with us about the advances made in combating heart disease and stroke. What used to be a death sentence is now treatable due to the research funded by the American Heart Association.

- Job Training: Goodwill Industries of Central North Carolina is a 501(c)3 nonprofit charity that has been serving the community since 1963. At Triad Goodwill, we believe that all people, regardless of situation, should have access to meaningful employment. Through workforce development programs, we help individuals develop the skills they need for today (tm)s job market. 85 of every dollar earned in our stores supports Triad Goodwill (tm)s mission of providing career development services and work opportunities for people in our community.
- Living with diabetes: iHeartRadio (tm)s Living with Diabetes takes a closer look at what it means to have diabetes and provides information, tools and resources to help manage and or reduce an individual (tm)s risk of developing the disease.
- Local Foods Week: Today's program features Anna Beth Williams, an Ag agent with the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Agency in Guilford county. Anna Beth Williams is here to talk with us about the Local Foods week taking place in this area. Also here to talk with us is Quina Weber Shirk. Quina is a county Extension Agent in charge of community and school gardens
- Lung Cancer: Emily Parks, Board Member and Event Chairperson for the Triad Lunge Forward event and Di Ann Smith, lung cancer survivor talk about lung cancer and the Lung Cancer Initiative Group.
- Master Gardener Program: Hanna Smith from the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service talks about some big changes coming in the Master Gardener Program in Guilford County
- Nutrition: Vincent Webb from the NC Cooperative Extension Service in Guilford County talks about canning and preserving all of those veggies you get from your garden or buy at the Farmers Market
- Nutritional and Financial Literacy: Jordan James from the NC Cooperative Extension Service tells us about the EFNEP program and how it can help out young people in the area
- PGA Reach Program: PGA REACH is the charitable 501(c)(3) arm of the PGA of America. The program has been instilled in each of the 41 sections, to continue the impact at a section level. The Carolinas PGA is the largest of the 41 sections and had our own Foundation, PGA REACH Carolinas. Mirroring national, PGA REACH Carolinas has three pillars of focus: youth, military, and diversity & inclusion.
