Mayor's race in Pueblo facing potential election snag - Switching to a mayoral system of government in Pueblo has a potential problem. It has to do with the election process and the large number of people that could potentially be on November ballot.
Pueblo County Clerk and Recorder, Gilbert Ortiz, says there are at least 20 people who have asked for the paperwork to run. If even close to that number end up running for Pueblo Mayor, it significantly lowers the chances of someone getting the 50% plus one votes required for a win.
