2.1	Crime	5PM	7/12/2017	90 seconds	Five On 2	With the increasing number of drug overdoses now the leading cause of death among Americans under 50. A House Committee was told one way is to stop over-prescribing of opioid pain relievers. Another call to treat the addiction as chronic medical condition, not a crime.
2.1	Crime	4:30AM	7/24/2017	75 seconds	2 News Today	Vigil was held for the lives of more than 100 undocumented immigrants severely injured in a tractor trailer, people were found stuffed in the back of a truck packed in a San Antonio Wal-Mart. The truck driver was identified as James Bradley Junior and was arrested and will face State and Federal charges, Police say this is being treated as a human trafficking crime. Texas Governor Greg Abbott called this a heartbreaking tragedy.
2.1	Crime	6PM	8/2/2017	75 seconds	2 News at 6PM	Jeff Sessions stated we prescribe far more opioids per capita than any other Nation in the world, nobody is close. He said we cannot capulate intellectually or morally this rampant drug abuse. Sessions met privately with law enforcement representatives to hear their concerns and where assets are needed and they feel he was very open to it.

2.1 Crime	4:30AM	8/4/2017	90 seconds	2 News Today	As a lawmaker and young mother of a little girl, State Representative Kristen Boggs wanted to know how a violent felon was recently released from prison could be accused of committing six armed robberies, roam the city on COTA buses and then kidnap, rape and murder an OSU student. She wants the prison system and judges to have the flexibility for dealing with violent offenders, who show little or no sign of rehabilitation.
2.1 Crime	4:30AM	8/8/2017	90 seconds	2 News Today	Skyler Richardson walked out of the Warren County Jail and returned home just three hours after a judge set bails at $50,000. Neighbor Marti Campbell said it's really shocking after bail was set. Richardson is accused of killing, burning and burying her newborn baby within hours after birth back in May. After a tip, investigators say they found the remains of the child scattered throughout the family's backyard on Eagle Ridge Drive in July.
2.1 Crime	5PM	8/9/2017	105 seconds	5 On 2	Mad River Local Schools is the first school district to have armed security teams. Visitors to the building will see a sign that reads "Warning Armed Security Inside". Superintendent Chad Wyen says it's an additional layer for school for school safety with our proximity to Wright Patterson Air Force Base and the best way to keep students safe with recent shootings in local school districts.

					Time ran out the last time The Child Enticement Bill was introduced, but this time lawmakers hope it gets on the Governors desk before the General Assembly finishes. Stories of predators online chatting with kids and convencing them to meet. Representatives Tim Schaffer and Kent Smith introduced a bi-partisan bill that would put predators behind bars who use the internet to find their victims.
2.1	Crime	5PM	8/23/2017	90 seconds	5 On 2
2.1	Crime	4:30AM	9/6/2017	80 seconds	2 News Today	What the President called a case of "heart" is now sparking emotional protests all over the country. 800-thousand dreamers, children brought here illegally are now at risk of deportation unless Congress acts in the next six months. Under rules announced by his Attorney General, no new applications will be accepted and the program will phase out in the next 2 years. Attorney General Sessions said enforcing the law saves lives, protects communities but Senator Richard Burr thinks it was unconstitutionally done.
2.1	Crime	5PM	9/27/2017	90 seconds	Five On 2	The Regan Tokes Bill has been a catalyst that has sparked a chain raction at the Statehouse and has he House and Senate working as a team to tackle an issue. The bill details the sentencing of violent offenders and electronic monitoring and re-entry standards that would make the most severe offences carry a minimum and maxium sentence to give criminals an incent to reform whil in jail and keep them there if they don't.

					President Trump used his Twitter feed promising to "Save Americans from the Obamacare Disaster." Trump advisor Kellyanne Conway spoke To Christian Conservatives about the political test to repeal Obamacare, however several Senate Republicans are concerned about the impact on Medicaid in their states and cost burden on hospitals to care for the uninsured. Gov. Matt Mead says before we make a final conclusion on it, where is it actually gonna be, and is it going to satisfy the needs of this state and satisfy the needs of this state?
2.1 Health/Healthcare	11PM	7/15/2017	120 seconds	2 News at 11PM
2.1 Health/Healthcare	4:30AM	7/19/2017	80 seconds	2 News Today	If Obamacare collapses, it would leave 12-million Americans in Healthcare limbo and that's why some of the Nations's Governors and members of Congress want to see a real effort from both parties to come together and fix it. President Trump has another idea, let Obamacare fail. Now 11 Governors, 5 Democrats, 5 Republicans and 1 Independent are putting on the pressure, demanding that lawmakers launch a bipartisan effort to drive down costs and stabilize the markets.
2.1 Health/Healthcare	11PM	7/27/2017	105 seconds	2 News at 11PM	With voting underway, Senate Republicans are trying to pass "something" anything that would roll back parts of Obamacare. With pressure so intense, Republicans are preparing to vote "yes" on a "skinny repeal" bill on the condition it never becomes law. A Congressional budget office estimate showed as many as 16 million people could lose insurance if the mandates are repealed and premiums could rise up to 20 percent a year.

		6PM	7/29/2017	60 seconds	2 News at 6PM	A crowd stands together in solidarity, happy that Obamacare is still in tact, at least for now. Protest organizer said " we were very relieved that the bill went down, but we don't think it's over and we want to continue to send a message. Matthew Noordsij-Jones, Primary Care Doctor says this effects everybody. Everyone in Dayton and everyone in Ohio, but just because the latest battle is over doesn't mean they are going to stop attacks on our healthcare here in Ohio and across the country, we need to make sure everyone has access to doctors and the care they need.
2.1	Health/Healthcare	6PM	16-Aug	90 seconds	2 News at 6PM	The Center for Disease Control found that the death rate among people between 15 and 19, increased by 15 percent in 2015 after steadily falling for seven years. Overdose deaths have remained a public health challenge across the nation but especially in Montgomery County. Dayton is now one of four cities where the Drug Enforcement Agency is introducing a new 360 program to tackle the problem from all angles. Jill Sokolnicki, counselor at South Community, a Kickapoo Behavioral Healthcare Facility said the new data from the CDC is a concern but drug abuse among teens isn't exactly new, but now they're talking about opiates and of course they have even less tolerance than adults so they're probably even more prone to dying of an overdose.

					Medical professionals will not be allowed to prescribe opiates for acute pain to adults for more than 7 days and to children for more than 5 days. These limits can only be exceeded if a specific reason is written into the patients medical record. Governor Kaisich says that it doesn't matter who you are if you violate the new guidelines the Medical Board will come after you, and you will be disciplined and perhaps even lose your license.

					The benefits of volunteering are countless. At the top of the list are social. Emotional, physical and professional perks. There is definitely a lower rate of depression rate, a feeling of accomplishment, learning new skills, giving back to the Community, just staying an active member of society. Volunteering especially helps senior citizens for this reason, because they are at a higher risk for depression. You can change your life and the lives of others when you take the time to volunteer. The National Center for Health Statistics says one in three women in their 4's and 50's don't get enough sleep, many having trouble falling asleep and others can't stay asleep. Hormone changes leading up to and during menopause appear to be a factor and post-menopausal women are least likely to wake up feeling refreshed in the morning. Sleep experts recommend turning off electronics at least half an hour before bedtime.

2.1	Health/Healthcare	5PM	9/8/2017	105 seconds	Five on 2  Republican Governor John Kasich and Democratic Governor John Hickenlooper are pitching their bipartisan Health Care plan to lawmakers in Washington. The Governors' plan keeps Obamacare requirement that everyone has to buy health insurance, but it gives states the option to waive that mandate, if the states can create their own insurance systems that meet certain standards. Kasich says people should have more freedom when picking their health insurance plans, so give people choices and as you make these choices, it's going to bring costs down
2.1	Health/Healthcare	4PM	9/19/2017	100 seconds	First At 4  Heat exhaustion isn't something coaches worry about on rainy cooler days but when the temperature goes up, it is something they take seriously. Kettering Fairmont High School Athletic Director Chris Weaver has seen the effects of heat exhaustion first hand, saying the player could not be properly hydrated or had something to eat and just felt weird after a workout. School Athletic Trainers are out there with devices that can test the humidity in the air and determine whether they practice in full pad or just helmets. It is also very important that players communicate with their coaches if they aren't feeling well so they can do something about it.
2.1	Economy	5PM	7/3/2017	100 seconds	Five on 2  President Trump looks forward to his G20 Summit Trip and his first face to face meeting with Russian President Vladimir Putin. Trump tweeted blaming the media, saying they will be forced to discuss our great jobs numbers, strong economy, success with Isis, the Border Wall and so much else.

					it's back to school time and the high tech classroom is one reason back to school is getting more expensive. Parents can save money by taking inventory before shopping and places like Best Buy trade in or Gazelle. A broken phone or old laptop could get a cash or credit to help offset the cost of the new supplies. Many major retailers also offer price matches for competitors and some will even match Amazon prices for a single item. A cash back app can be used for even more savings, with some offering to double or triple the cash back amount.
