10am - 5pm Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee Exhibit

Where: SC

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Florence County Museum's new exhibit is Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee. This exhibit will focus on the military career and subsequent legends and legacy of General Francis Marion (1732 - 1795). The exhibition will feature a selection of important 19th-century American artworks depicting Marion and his militia during the Revolutionary War, with interpretive emphasis on how Marion's activities in the Pee Dee region of South Carolina contributed to the folkloric "Marion mythos." These artworks will be requested as loans from major national public & private collections. As much as possible, the exhibition will incorporate historical artifacts recently recovered from archaeological sites associated with Marion's local military activities. Loans of available authentic primary source archival materials such as documents and maps will be explored to the extent that they would sustain the exhibition's objectives by adding meaningful support to the overall thesis.

10am - 11am Book Club: The Late Bloomers' Club

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Pamplico Book Club meets Thursday to discuss The Late Bloomers' Club by Louise Miller. Summary: A delightful novel about two headstrong sisters, a small town's efforts to do right by the community, and the power of a lost dog to summon true love. Nora, the owner of the Miss Guthrie Diner, is perfectly happy serving up apple cider donuts, coffee, and eggs-any-way-you-like-em to her regulars, and she takes great pleasure in knowing exactly what's "the usual." But her life is soon shaken when she discovers she and her free-spirited, younger sister Kit stand to inherit the home and land of the town's beloved cake lady, Peggy Johnson. Kit, an aspiring-and-broke-filmmaker, thinks her problems are solved when she and Nora find out Peggy was in the process of selling the land to a big-box developer before her death. The people of Guthrie are divided-some want the opportunities the development will bring, while others are staunchly against any change-and they aren't afraid to leave their opinions with their tips. Time is running out, and the sisters need to make a decision soon. But Nora isn't quite ready to let go of the land, complete with a charming farmhouse, an ancient apple orchard and the clues to a secret life that no one knew Peggy had. Troubled by the conflicting needs of the town, and confused by her growing feelings towards Elliot, the big-box developer's rep, Nora throws herself into solving the one problem that everyone in town can agree on-finding Peggy's missing dog, Freckles. When a disaster strikes the diner, the community of Guthrie band together to help her, and Nora discovers that doing the right thing doesn't always mean giving up your dreams. Copies of the book are available at desk for checkout.

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Steven F. Gately Gallery is hosting Jan Chenoweth's new exhibit from May 9-June 16. For Jan Chenoweth, art has been a life-long pursuit enriched by her formative years in South Florida and unquenched wanderlust. For dozens of years, she obsessively avoided anything that was obviously representational and was horrified when she kept mentally referring to a certain shape as a ship. When she finally acknowledged it was a ship, everything started falling into place, and Chenoweth has happily been following the "path of the ship" on this new journey.

10am - 5pm Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee Exhibit [1/57]

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Florence County Museum's new exhibit is Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee. This exhibit will focus on the military career and subsequent legends and legacy of General Francis Marion (1732 - 1795). The exhibition will feature a selection of important 19th-century American artworks depicting Marion and his militia during the Revolutionary War with interpretive emphasis on how Marion's activities in the Pee Dee region of South Carolina contributed to the folkloric "Marion mythos." These artworks will be requested as loans from major national public & private collections. As much as possible, the exhibition will incorporate historical artifacts recently recovered from archaeological sites associated with Marion's local military activities. Loans of available authentic primary source archival materials such as documents and maps will be explored to the extent that they would sustain the exhibition's objectives by adding meaningful support to the overall thesis.

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Steven F. Gately Gallery is hosting Jan Chenoweth's new exhibit from May 9-June 16. For Jan Chenoweth, art has been a life-long pursuit enriched by her formative years in South Florida and unquenched wanderlust. For dozens of years, she obsessively avoided anything that was obviously representational and was horrified when she kept mentally referring to a certain shape as a ship. When she finally acknowledged it was a ship, everything started falling into place, and Chenoweth has happily been following the "path of the ship" on this new journey.

10am - 5pm Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee Exhibit [1/57]

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Florence County Museum's new exhibit is Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee. This exhibit will focus on the military career and subsequent legends and legacy of General Francis Marion (1732 - 1795). The exhibition will feature a selection of important 19th-century American artworks depicting Marion and his militia during the Revolutionary War with interpretive emphasis on how Marion's activities in the Pee Dee region of South Carolina contributed to the folkloric "Marion mythos." These artworks will be requested as loans from major national public & private collections. As much as possible, the exhibition will incorporate historical artifacts recently recovered from archaeological sites associated with Marion's local military activities. Loans of available authentic primary source archival materials such as documents and maps will be explored to the extent that they would sustain the exhibition's objectives by adding meaningful support to the overall thesis.

1pm - 2pm Florence County Book Club: Sold on a Monday

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Doctors Bruce and Lee Foundation Library's Book Club for Adults announces its selection for June 15, 2023. The book selection for June is Sold on a Monday, by Kristina McMorris. This Depression-era story starts with a scrawled sign on a farmhouse porch reads "2 Children for Sale," capturing the desperation sweeping the country in 1931. Struggling reporter Ellis Reed's photograph of the children leads to his big break, but the consequences are unimaginably devastating. Haunted by secrets of her own, newspaper secretary Lillian Palmer sees the image and is soon drawn into the fray. Together, Ellis and Lillian set out to right a wrong and mend a fractured family, at the risk of everything they value. The Book Club meets in person monthly on the third Thursday of the month at 1:00 p.m. in the Founders room. The library welcomes new participants to join in the lively book discussions. Registration is required to participate. To register, or for additional information, email book club coordinator Debbie Quesada at debbiequesada@florencelibrary.org or call 843-413-7074.

Description:

The Steven F. Gately Gallery is hosting Jan Chenoweth's new exhibit from May 9-June 16. For Jan Chenoweth, art has been a life-long pursuit enriched by her formative years in South Florida and unquenched wanderlust. For dozens of years, she obsessively avoided anything that was obviously representational and was horrified when she kept mentally referring to a certain shape as a ship. When she finally acknowledged it was a ship, everything started falling into place, and Chenoweth has happily been following the "path of the ship" on this new journey.

10am - 5pm Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee Exhibit [11/57]

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Florence County Museum's new exhibit is Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee. This exhibit will focus on the military career and subsequent legends and legacy of General Francis Marion (1732 - 1795). The exhibition will feature a selection of important 19th-century American artworks depicting Marion and his militia during the Revolutionary War with interpretive emphasis on how Marion's activities in the Pee Dee region of South Carolina contributed to the folkloric "Marion mythos." These artworks will be requested as loans from major national public & private collections. As much as possible, the exhibition will incorporate historical artifacts recently recovered from archaeological sites associated with Marion's local military activities. Loans of available authentic primary source archival materials such as documents and maps will be explored to the extent that they would sustain the exhibition's objectives by adding meaningful support to the overall thesis.

10am - 5pm Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee Exhibit [17/57]

Calendar: Florence Festivals & Events

Created by: Eric McKnight

Description:

The Florence County Museum's new exhibit is Legend: Francis Marion in the Pee Dee. This exhibit will focus on the military career and subsequent legends and legacy of General Francis Marion (1732 - 1795). The exhibition will feature a selection of important 19th-century American artworks depicting Marion and his militia during the Revolutionary War with interpretive emphasis on how Marion's activities in the Pee Dee region of South Carolina contributed to the folkloric "Marion mythos." These artworks will be requested as loans from major national public & private collections. As much as possible, the exhibition will incorporate historical artifacts recently recovered from archaeological sites associated with Marion's local military activities. Loans of available authentic primary source archival materials such as documents and maps will be explored to the extent that they would sustain the exhibition's objectives by adding meaningful support to the overall thesis.
