THE MUSIC MAN, JR.

July 14-16 & 21-23, 2017

This condensed 60-minute family-friendly adaptation of the classic musical comedy tells a story with wit, warmth, good old-fashioned romance, and bold songs. Follow fast-talking traveling salesman, Harold Hill, as he cons the people of River City into buying instruments and uniforms for a boys' band he vows to organize. But, he doesn't know a trombone from a treble clef. Performed by actors ages 6-18. Best for adults and young people 11+.

Shenandoah will perform at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Francis Marion University Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $39.

When country music lovers talk about the greatest groups in the genre, Shenandoah is always at the forefront of any discussion.

Fueled by Marty Raybon's distinctive vocals and the band's skilled musicianship, Shenandoah became well known for delivering such hits as "Two Dozen Roses", "Church on Cumberland Road" and "Next to You, Next to Me" as well as such achingly beautiful classics as "I Want to be Loved Like That" and the Grammy winning "Somewhere in the Vicinity of the Heart" duet with Alison Krauss.

Today that legacy continues as original members Raybon and Mike McGuire reunite to launch a new chapter in Shenandoah's storied career. It all began when the guys got back together to perform a benefit concert for a friend battling cancer. "We saw how folks reacted," Raybon says of the response to their reunion. "And then Jerry Phillips, son of legendary Sun Records producer Sam Phillips, said 'You guys need to make a run at this. People still love what you do. You can tell by the reaction. There's a lot of excitement in the air.'"

"It's kind of like riding a bicycle," McGuire says of the band reigniting that chemistry on stage. "We had done so many shows over the years together, even though we spent 17 years apart, we got back up on the stage and it was like we never stopped. We knew those songs inside out. They were still dear to our hearts. It was great to get back up there and do them together again."

The Kentucky Headhunters will be live in concert at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Francis Marion University Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $29.

Once upon a time, in a deep and dark forest, in the Bluegrass state of Kentucky, not far from the village of Edmonton, stood a psychedelic shack where the only rock and roll band in Metcalfe County rehearsed. The year was 1968, and the band was called Itchy Brother. The shack was really a farmhouse now known as the infamous Practice House. And the deep and dark forest was a place on Richard and Fred Young's family farm. Together, with cousins Anthony Kenney and Greg Martin, armed with a pickup-truck load of amps, drums, and guitars, and a stack of American and English rock records, they set out to conquer the world by creating their own brand of rock and roll.

Join us on August 31 for the 13th Annual Darlington Car Hauler Parade and Festival! Come watch the Monster Energy NASCAR Cup Series Teams make their way through cheering fans from the Florence Civic Center to Darlington Square and onto the track that's "Too Tough to Tame." There's plenty of FUN for the whole family!

The fun will begin at 4 p.m. at the Florence Civic Center with entertainment and live music. Kids play all afternoon for FREE on the Kids Zone inflatable rides, games, and bungee jump. The Game Truck will bring a wide selection of games for Xbox 360, Wii and PS3, and can accommodate up to 16 players at one time!

There will be refreshments for purchase, and the proceeds from food served by Julia Belle's will support Camp Pee Dee Pride. Kids and adults alike will love the airbrush tattoos, even a semi-permanent logo of the track Too Tough To Tame!

Fans will enjoy the exciting silent auction full of great NASCAR items and race memorabilia.

The main attraction, however, are the plentiful NASCAR transporters. Fans can make their way through a sea of NASCAR transporters and take pictures with their favorite team's hauler and driver, and even have a chance to ride in the big rig during the parade.

At 7 p.m., the parade of NASCAR haulers will leave the Florence Civic Center and make the 12-mile drive to Darlington RaceFest on the Darlington Square, where there will be added entertainment, food, a car show and awesome fireworks display. The transporters will continue through Darlington until they reach the track Too Tough to Tame where they can begin preparation for the Bojangles Southern 500 race.
