ISSUES REPORT

1st QUARTER 2022

Program: Newsbreak
Topic: Corona Virus in Hawaii
Date: Monday thru Friday
Time: 2:55 pm, 4:55 pm
Duration: 5 minutes

Daily reports on the spread of Covid 19 in Hawaii. Also information on vaccination locations and covid-19 test sites. Pacific Islanders in Hawaii, excluding Native Hawaiians, make up just 4% of the state's population.

But they compose 13% of coronavirus cases in the state.

That's according to new data from the Hawaii Department of Health released Friday that provides the most detailed breakdown yet about how COVID-19 is affecting diverse communities in Hawaii. The latest analysis eliminates the "mixed race" group and calculates population sizes slightly differently from typical census categories.

The state's second-worst COVID-19 disparity is affecting the Filipino community. Filipinos make up 16% percent of Hawaii's population but make up 21% of the state's coronavirus cases.
