| Public Safety     | Vermont Public Classical provides comprehensive weather forecasts along with information about all special weather-related watches, warnings, and advisories that affect listeners in the region. Delayed school openings, school closures, and notices about weather-related event cancellations and venue changes are also included in this information. (In drive time, forecasts are given approximately four times per shift, with each report being 30-60 seconds in length.) The station also provides serious traffic and transit alerts when the situation is of great significance to the listening audience. | Daily   |
| Arts / Culture    | Vermont singer Linda Radtke explores the range of great classical choral works, from madrigals to masses, on the Choral Hour, during which regional choruses and choral composers are regularly featured.   | Sunday mornings at 11 and Tuesday evenings at 8, 60mins |
| Race and the Arts | Powdered wigs, white men, aristocracy — these are just a handful of images and stereotypes historically associated with the world of classical music. But what if we're wrong? In this episode of the Vermont Public podcast, Homegoings, guest-hosts James Stewart and Adiah Gholston talk with teenagers, composers and professors to unpack some of our assumptions around classical music: Where its roots really lie, who it's made for, and where it's headed.  | 2/19 at 8:00pm  |
| Education         | For February's Student Composer Showcase we'll speak with Montpelier High School senior, Callum Robecheck about his years of involvement with Music-COMP.   | 2/26 at 8:30am and 2/28/23 at 5:30pm                    |
