

KHML Madisonville
Significant Issues
4th Quarter 2013

ISSUES LIST ASCERTAINED BY INTERVIEWS WITH COMMUNITY LEADERS
OCTOBER – DECEMBER 2013 QRTR

(not in order of importance)

Funding for the arts
More sidewalks
Start small businesses
Credit repair
Financial counseling
Unsupervised pets
Unbanked individuals
Financial needs
Robbery/theft
Financial education
Loans
Underbanked individuals
Budgets
Balancing a checkbook
High school dropouts
Investing
401 K
I RA
Mental illness
Autism
Brain disorder
Bipolar
Schizophrenia
Married issues
Therapists
Incarceration
Homicide
Suicide
Homeless
Depression
ADHD
Support groups
Advocacy
Medicaid
Emotional issues
Guilt
Shame
Hurt
Stress
Foreclosure

Depression
Divorce
OCD
Poverty
Uninsured
“working poor”
Mentors/ role models
Gangs
Crime
Sex trafficking
Prostitution
Drugs
Alcohol
Murder
Racism/race issues
G e d
Technical skills
Release of felons back into the community
More activities for kids
Lack of supervision for kids
Heart defects
Medical facilities
Translation
Hospitality
Child slavery
Civil rights
Immigration
Youth rights
Criminal law reform
Religious freedom
Disciplining children
Bad language
Bullying
Over incarceration
Domestic abuse
Sexual abuse
Seizures
Stroke
Voting fraud
Being held accountable for your actions
Cultural diversity
Fitness
Childhood obesity
Animal cruelty
Wheel chair bound individuals
Self esteem

Modesty
Anger management
Self respect
Child support
Homicide cases
Senior Issues
Refugee services
Peacefulness
Youth programs
Tolerance

ISSUES OF CONCERN
ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING
IN THE FOURTH QUARTER, 2013

1. Domestic Abuse – varying degrees of abuse and how you can avoid it.
2. Adoption: Stories of how adopting children brought blessings to their new families.
3. Mentoring: No matter what your age you can help and influence another life in a positive way.
4. Loneliness: Programming that will provide hope to the alone and hopeless.
5. Finances: Tips on how to monitor your spending during the holiday and save for the coming new year.
6. Communication: Effective ways to better express yourself in marriage and all other relationships.
7. Single Parenting: It can be hard raising children by yourself with no mate. These programs offer help and hope to single individuals.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS REPORT

Fourth Quarter 2013
(October 1st – December 31st)

MOST SIGNIFICANT ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

ISSUE: DOMESTIC ABUSE ISSUES

Focus on the Family

October 23-24, 2013

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

One in every four women will experience domestic abuse in their lifetime. Jim Daly talks with Leslie Vernick a Christian counselor who offers hope and practical help to women who feel trapped in destructive relationships.

Focus on the Family

December 5-6, 2013

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Human Trafficking is modern day slavery. On this program Jim Daly discusses tactics that they use to lure modern day kids and teens. They also discuss the abuse and situations these individuals endure once they are locked in.

ISSUE: ADOPTION

Focus on the Family

November 15, 2013

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Steven Curtis Chapman and his wife Mary Beth talk about the way that God led them into adopting 3 daughters from China.

Family Life Today

April 19, 2013

12:30 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Alex and Stephen Kendrick, co-founders of Sherwood Pictures and writers and producers of the hit Christian films Flywheel, Facing the Giants, Fireproof and Courageous sit down with Family Life Today's co-host Bob Lepine to talk about life, filmmaking, and Stephen and his wife's adoption of their new daughter, Mia, from China.

ISSUES: MENTORING

Family Life Today

October 21-25, 2013

12:30 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Dennis Rainey encourages men of all ages but especially those who are older to influence the lives on younger men and teach and train them how to be godly young men.

Revive our Hearts

November 29, 2013

9:30 A.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Anne Ortlund did not fear getting older or dying. Instead she served the Lord wholeheartedly and passed on wisdom to the next generation so she could have a legacy.

ISSUES: LONELINESS

Vital Issues in the Christian Home

December 5, 2013

10:30 A.M.

60 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Vital Issues is a call in program on Thursday mornings on KHCB. Cindy Kubetin Littlefield is the guest on this show and she answered calls in regards to depression, and loneliness.

Truth For Life

November 26-27, 2013

11:30 A.M.

24 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Alistair Begg discusses how storms in life can overwhelm us and will sometimes make us feel alone and on an island. Instead of wallowing in despair we should have hope that God is in full control of our circumstances during our storms.

ISSUES: FINANCES

Turning Point

October 4, 2013

6:00 P.M.

24 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Dr. David Jeremiah discusses the state of debt and how our spending can keep us in bondage.

Vital Issues in the Christian Home

November 21, 2013

10:30 A.M.

60 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Vital Issues is a call in program on Thursday mornings on KHCB. Mike Riddle is the guests on todays show and he answers calls in regards to estate planning, wills, and property questions.

ISSUES: COMMUNICATION

Vital Issues in the Christian Home

October 7, 2013

10:30 A.M.

60 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Vital Issues is a call in program on Thursday mornings on KHCB. George Thompson spoke on communication with spouses and how Gary Chapmans “The 5 Love Languages” can help you communicate more effectively.

Focus on the Family

November 15, 2013

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Jim Daly discusses conflict in relationships. Anger isn’t always expressed in words. Your tone, attitude, body language, and even silence can communicate a lot of hostility towards each other. In this program you will learn how to respond better when conflict erupts.

ISSUES: SINGLE PARENTING

Vital Issues in the Christian Home

October 31, 2013

10:30 A.M.

60 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Vital Issues is a call in program that takes place every Thursday morning on KHCB. Rick Wertz takes calls and answers questions on parenting.

Focus on the Family

December 13, 2013

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Sheri Rose said it was a road of hard knocks but God was faithful and she did her best to prepare her son for adulthood and marriage. She discusses being a single mom and raising a son.