(Duration: 17 min, 20 sec)	Market to Market	7/28/19 @ 10:30 am
American dairy prices have been under siege for several years due to production outpacing demand and a blockade to expansion in Canadian markets. Wisconsin, the country's number two dairy state, has seen its herd size fall 40 percent over the past decade as more farms consolidate or bow out of the business. Chair of the House Agriculture Committee says the stress on dairy producers competing in world markets is hurting the small town way of life. (Duration: 4 min, 34 sec)	Market to Market	8/4/19 @ 10:30 am
The Family Farmer Relief Act of 2019 passed Congress giving farmers more of an opportunity to use Chapter 12 of the bankruptcy code if they need it. Previously, only farmers with a maximum of $5 million in debt could qualify for relief but the bill raises the limit to $10 million. The measure is on its way to the president's desk.
