For our featured segment, Team Making It Grow travels to Whispering Pines in Mauldin, SC. Clemson Extension Agent Danny Howard suggested this sheep and goat dairy last winter and the day we went it was so cold and rainy, we had to reschedule. So we went back a few weeks ago and as we were parking the MIG van, a mama sheep was giving birth to 5! Luckily Amanda was there to help keep the babies warm while the owner, Debbie Webster, went to thaw out more milk as the mama didn't have enough for all 5. Debbie also called the local home schooled 4-H'ers, who were more than willing to come help and assist in bottle feeding the babies. Also some of those students brought along some baby goats they were fostering. I don't know if it's the best segment we have ever done, but it is probably the cutest!
