48 HOURS

12/04/21

48 HOURS: "The Corn Rake Murder" (9:13 – 10:13p) - a report on the death of Amy Mullis from a farming accident for which her husband is suspected, though he maintains it was a freak accident. In November 2018, Amy Mullis was found dead by her son, Trysten, in a shed on the family farm. She had apparently been killed by a corn rake used on the farm. After an investigation, her husband Todd Mullis was arrested for Amy's murder. The autopsy showed a pattern of puncture wounds that indicated Amy had been struck with the corn rake multiple times. Other injuries she had also indicated she had been in a struggle. Police investigations turned up an affair that Amy had in the past. The couple reconciled, but Amy agreed to leave her job and work on the farm, allegedly so Todd could keep an eye on her. Friends testified that Amy was unhappy. Eventually she would begin another affair, with the farm's manager Jerry Frasher, which Todd found out about. Todd's alibi was that he had been working in a barn with Trysten before his son found Amy's body. However, Trysten would amend his story, adding that he went to the office at the front of the barn a few times. At trial, the prosecution maintained this allowed opportunity for Todd to commit the murder. They also cited that surveillance cameras around the property were not working the day of Amy's death in addition to suspicious internet searches related to infidelity and murder. Todd countered that there had been no surveillance footage for weeks before the murder, possibly due to animals damaging it and that the device the searches were made on was accessible to the entire family. After jury deliberations, Todd was found guilty. He filed a motion for a new trial based on the fact that his original attorneys did not focus on presenting Amy's death as an accident as he pushed for. In September 2020, his motion was denied and he was sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic: Todd and Amy Mullis' three children—Trysten, Taylor, and Wyatt—are now with Amy's family. Interviewed: Daniel Nesheiwat, legal expert; Matthew Troiano, legal expert; Dina Nesheiwat, legal expert; Woman #1, alternate juror; Woman #2, juror. 48 HOURS: "What Happened to the Perfect Child?" (10:13 – 11:13p) – an update to "The Perfect Child" (OAD: 02/10/00), a 48 HOURS INVESTIGATION on Americans who adopted children from Russia. This report focuses on what ultimately happened to a 9-year-old girl adopted in 1997 by Crystal and Jesse, a couple from Atlanta, GA. While in Russia, adopting the girl they named Caralee, Crystal and Jesse also adopted a 3-year-old boy they named Joshua. Two years later, the couple came to believe Caralee was dangerous, even capable of murder and claimed she tried to throw her younger brother off a 30-foot-high deck. Troy Roberts, who reported on their story, was present as the American couple returned Caralee to Russia and left her behind in a children's psychiatric hospital. Over the years, Roberts tried to keep track of Caralee, but was unable to find out what happened to her. Last summer she reached out to Roberts and they reunited in North Carolina, where Caralee, now known as Sabrina Caldwell, lives with her husband and four children. During their meeting, Caldwell explained what happened on the family deck with Joshua, her feelings about Crystal and Jesse, how she left the hospital in Russia and was adopted by new parents in North Carolina, and her family with her husband. This broadcast also includes Roberts' own experience with adoption: In 2003, he became certified to adopt and learned about a woman in Djibouti (in East Africa) who was hoping to find an American to adopt her 4-year-old son, because she feared for his safety due to his being mixed-race. Roberts and his son, Jonah Gray Roberts, now 23-years-old, discuss their life together. On-screen text graphic: Jonah's mother passed away a few years after his adoption. Interviewed for the 12/04/21 broadcast: Sabrina Caldwell (f.k.a. Caralee); Phil Caldwell, Sabrina's husband; and Jonah Gray Roberts, Troy Roberts' son. Also includes archival excerpts from previous interviews with: Caralee (n.k.a. Sabrina Caldwell); Crystal and Jesse, Caralee's former adoptive parents; Dr. Brian Kennedy, psychiatrist who treated Caralee; and Nina Kostina, Russian émigré who ran the Frank Foundation, an adoption agency. 12/11/21

48 HOURS: “Who Killed Rachael DelTondo?” – an update on the investigation into the May 2018 murder of Rachael DelTondo, a popular teacher who was gunned down outside her home in Aliquippa, PA. The case was first featured in 48 HOURS: “What Happened to Rachael”, OAD: 05/18/19. The investigation led to several potential leads for the police to follow, including the actions of DelTondo’s ex-fiancé Frank Catroppa and her friendship with Sheldon Jeter, a young Aliquippa High School athlete. Before the murder, Catroppa was allowed access to a police report about DelTondo with a lot of sensitive personal information, but he denies showing it to anyone. Jeter, through his attorney, also denies anything to do with the murder. There is also the belief that Sheldon Jeter was obsessed with DelTondo and there may have been some sort of inappropriate relationship. Her mother, Lisa DelTondo, also says her daughter told her she was cooperating in an ongoing investigation by state police into alleged corruption in the Aliquippa Police Department and had received death threats. UPDATE: On May 17th, 2020, Sheldon Jeter was arrested and charged with the murder of Tyric Pugh, a friend of Jeter’s who lived on and off with the family. In early June 2021, Jeter went on trial and was ultimately found guilty; in Pennsylvania, first-degree murder carries a mandatory sentence of life without parole. A secret Pennsylvania statewide grand jury has heard evidence about Jeter’s possible involvement in DelTondo’s death; the district attorney’s office hasn’t officially named a suspect or person of interest. According to Frank Catroppa’s new attorney and District Attorney Lozier, Catroppa is not a suspect in DelTondo’s murder. No on-screen text graphic for this broadcast. Interviewed for this broadcast: Michael Moreland, minister, Sheldon Jeter’s uncle; John Paul, investigative journalist, CBS News consultant; Michael Santicola, Sheldon Jeter’s attorney; and David Lozier, district attorney, Beaver County, PA. Contains interviews featured in “What Happened to Rachael”: John Paul (investigative journalist/CBS News Consultant); Lisa and Joe DelTondo (parents); Frank Catroppa (ex-fiancé); Jen Glovan (once Rachael’s best friend); Matt Mottes, Jen Glovan’s boyfriend; Joe Perciavalle (Assistant Police Chief); Michael Santicola (Sheldon Jeter’s attorney); Jackie Belcastro (Rachael’s aunt); and Lauren Watkins (17-year old friend/former student of Rachael’s). (See also: 48 HOURS: “What Happened to Rachael?”, OAD: 05/18/19, Rebroadcast: 09/07/19 - includes an updated on-screen text graphic.) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Judy Rybak, Stephanie Slifer)

12/18/21

48 HOURS: “Scott Peterson: Case in Question” (9:00 – 10:00p) - an update on the case of Scott Peterson, who was convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of his pregnant wife in 2004. On December 24th, 2002, Laci Peterson was reported missing by her family in Modesto, CA. Investigators’ suspicions turned to her husband, Scott, whom they believed was acting strangely in response to her disappearance. They also considered it odd that he spent the 24th on a fishing trip, leaving Laci alone, despite her being eight months pregnant. The case quickly gained national and international attention. A month after Laci’s disappearance, Amber Frey came forward and revealed that she had been in a romantic relationship with Scott and had no idea he had been married or expecting a child. More than three months after her disappearance, the bodies of Laci and Conner washed up in San Francisco Bay, only a few miles away from where Scott said he was fishing on Christmas Eve. Police quickly moved to arrest Scott. In 2003, Scott’s trial began in Redwood City, CA, where it had been moved to avoid publicity. The prosecution focused on the numerous lies he told during the investigation and used Amber Frey’s secretly made recordings of phone calls between her and Scott. He was found guilty on November 11th, 2004. Four months later, Scott was sentenced to death. Scott’s defense team filed appeals for years and in the summer of 2020, the California Supreme Court threw out his death sentence due to a mistake on how jurors were selected. His attorneys continue to push for an entirely new trial based on juror Richelle Nice, who incorrectly filled out a prospective juror questionnaire. Scott’s defense team, as well as his sister-in-law Janey Peterson, theorize that Laci was still alive when Scott left for his fishing trip, that he is being framed and that there is a connection between two men caught burglarizing a home across the street from the Petersons. Original on-screen text graphic: Scott Peterson's next court appearance is expected in June 2021. On-screen text graphic for the 12/18/21 rebroadcast: On December 8, 2021 Scott Peterson was resentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole for the deaths of his wife and unborn child. Interviewed: Jon Buehler, Modesto Police detective; Jack Leonard, senior editor of investigations, Los Angeles Times; Michael Cardoza, member of Scott’s defense team; Pat Harris, Scott’s defense attorney; Janey Peterson, Scott’s sister-in-law. 12/18/21

48 HOURS: “The Life and Death of Nikki Kuhnhausen” (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the murder of Nikki Kuhnhausen, who disappeared June 6th, 2019 after connecting with a man in a Snapchat rendezvous. Her murder continues to impact LGBTQI (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and intersex people) communities. The murder of Kuhnhausen illustrates the real-life dangers and struggles many in the transgender community face every day. Kuhnhausen, age 17, vanished from Vancouver, WA in June 2019, just hours after meeting and exchanging messages on Snapchat with David Bogdanov, then 25. Bogdanov also seemingly disappeared. Four months later, Bogdanov claimed phone problems when he met with police and told them the last time he had seen Kuhnhausen was when he asked her to get out of his car, after she told him she was transgender. Bogdanov told police he had no idea where Kuhnhausen went after she left him. On December 7th, 2019, six months after she disappeared, Kuhnhausen’s body was discovered by a hiker on Larch Mountain. Bogdanov was arrested on December 17th, 2019 after cell tower data placed his phone where Kuhnhausen’s body was found. Prosecutors and investigators say Bogdanov killed Kuhnhausen in a hate-filled rage after learning she was transgender. At his August 2021 trial, Bogdanov said he killed Kuhnhausen in self-defense when she reached for his gun. He testified that he panicked after realizing she was dead and dumped Kuhnhausen’s body at Larch Mountain. Bogdanov was found guilty of murder in the second degree and malicious harassment, a hate crime. He was sentenced to the maximum 19 and a half years for murder, with 12 concurrent months for the malicious harassment charge. Kuhnhausen’s mother and supporters from the Justice for Nikki Task Force were determined something positive should come from her death and worked with legislators in Washington to pass Nikki’s Law, which is designed to prevent defendants charged with violent crimes from using sexual orientation or gender identity as an excuse for violence, the so-called “gay” or “trans panic defense”. On-screen text graphic: According to the Human Rights Campaign, there have been more violent deaths of transgender and non-binary people in the U.S. in 2021 than any other year on record. Interviewed: Lisa Woods, Nikki’s mother; Arielle Fox, Nikki’s best friend; Taylor Watts, Nikki’s childhood friend; Kristen Arnaud, Clark County prosecutor; Colin Hayes, Clark County prosecutor; Detective Joe Swenson, Clark County Sheriff’s office; Devon Davis Williamson, clinical social worker, transgender activist; Linden Walls, transgender activist; Vicki Matsuk, David Bogdanov’s niece; and Lily Bogdanov, David Bogdanov’s sister. 12/25/21

48 HOURS: "Natalie Wood: Death in Dark Water" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a follow-up report about the unexplained death of Hollywood star Natalie Wood nearly four decades ago. County sheriff's investigators speak for the first time and tell 48 HOURS her then-husband, actor Robert Wagner, is now a person of interest; the investigators want to speak with Wagner about circumstances surrounding her death in 1981. Wood drowned off the coast of Catalina Island in California in November 1981 after she went missing from the Splendour, her family's yacht. Also aboard that night were Captain Dennis Davern, and actor Christopher Walken. The next day, Wood was found floating in the water wearing a red down jacket and flannel nightgown. After a two-week investigation, the death was ruled an accident. In 2011, as detailed in "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage" (OAD: 11/19/11), the L.A. County Sheriff's Department reopened the death investigation. In 2012, the L.A. Coroner's Office amended the death certificate from "accidental drowning" to "drowning and other undetermined factors." Now, six years after that investigation 48 HOURS talks with the investigators about new witnesses, evidence, and theories as to what happened that night. Rumors of foul play have long surrounded Wood's mysterious death. At first, the three men aboard the boat told detectives Wood took off in a dinghy and went ashore. Over time, Wagner and Davern's accounts have shifted, raising a red flag to the investigators. Investigators also say Wagner has refused to speak with them since the case was re-opened. Investigators today note the autopsy report indicates there were a number of bruises that appeared to be fresh on Wood's body. The latest information is detailed through interviews with the detectives, and Natalie Wood's sister, Lana Wood. Also included are archival interviews with Robert Wagner and Captain Dennis Davern. Original on-screen text graphic: 48 HOURS' requests to interview Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken were declined. The Splendour is currently up for sale. On-screen text graphic for the 07/04/20 rebroadcast: 48 HOURS' requests to interview Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken were declined. On-screen text graphic for the 12/25/21 rebroadcast: 48 Hours' requests to interview Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken were declined by their representatives. This fall, Lana Wood published "Little Sister: My Investigation into the Mysterious Death of Natalie Wood." Interviewed: John Corina, LA County Sheriff's Office; Detective Ralph Hernandez; Lana Wood, Natalie's sister; Sam Kashner, Vanity Fair contributing editor; Matt Crowley, close family friend; Duane Rasure, original detective; and Thomas Noguchi, coroner. 48 HOURS: "The Fenn Treasure" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the treasure hunt started by a rich art dealer and the lives lost in pursuit of it. After he retired as a fighter pilot, Forrest Fenn became a successful art dealer in Santa Fe, NM. In 2010, he published a memoir that included a twenty-four line poem that he said contained clues to the location of a ten-by-ten inch box filled with gold he had hidden in the Rocky Mountains. After attention from the media, the hunt grew in popularity, including annual "Fennboree" meetups, which Forrest himself attended. On January 5th, 2016, Randy Bilyeu set off searching along the Rio Grande near Santa Fe, NM with his dog. He was reported missing ten days later. A helicopter rescue crew located his dog and raft, but could not find Randy. Six months later, his body was found on a riverbank. In June 2017, three more searchers lost their lives. Jeff Murphy fell off a cliff. Pastor Paris Wallace attempted to cross the high waters of the Rio Grande near the Taos Junction Bridge, but was overcome. His body was recovered four days later and spurred New Mexico State Police to ask Fenn to call off the hunt. Fenn refused. Eric Ashby attempted to swim across the Arkansas River outside Canon City, CO, but could not get past the rapids. On March 17th 2020, Mike Sexson and Steven Inlow set off from Salt Lake City, UT so they could search before the coronavirus lockdowns went into place. Originally on snowmobiles, they left their vehicles and most of their supplies when the terrain changed. They attempted to reach a mountain ridge, but the trek was more arduous than anticipated. Without water, Steve resorted to drinking his urine to survive the cold. At 2AM on March 20th, he awoke to find Mike dead from hypothermia. The next day, Steven was able to draw the attention of a helicopter. On June 6th, 2020, Fenn posted a brief message on a forum used by searchers stating the treasure had been found. In July 2020, he elaborated that it was found in Wyoming. In September 2020, Fenn passed away. Later that year, Jack Stuef went public as the person who had located the treasure. On-screen text graphic: To this day, searchers continue to look for the spot where Jack Stuef found the treasure, still hoping to solve the clues in Fenn's poem. Interviewed: Liz Key, Mike's friend; Beth Van Oss, Mike's girlfriend; Dan Barbarisi, author, Chasing the Thrill: Obsession, Death, and Glory in America's Most Extraordinary Treasure Hunt; Sacha Dent, searcher, Fenn's friend; Katya Luce, searcher, Fenn's friend; Toby Younis, YouTube show host; Kathy Leibold, Randy's sister; Erin Johnson, flight nurse; Jay Raynor, Dan Barbarisi's treasure-hunting partner; Paul Ashby, Eric's father; Steven Inlow, Mike's friend.
