

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST FOR KSKA

__ 1st __ 2nd __ 3rd X 4th
 Quarter of 2014

Weekly: Health	Line One	10/06/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Dr. Thad Woodard and his guests examine the health effects of marijuana guest psychiatrist Dr Doris Gundersen will discuss the medical side of the marijuana legalization debate. What does the science say? What's been the health impact of marijuana legalization in Colorado? How is marijuana used as a medicine.
Weekly: Health	Line One	10/13/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Screening for colon cancer - There is controversy regarding breast and prostate cancer screening. Is this true about colon cancer screening as well? On our next program we will discuss the symptoms, screening tests, and treatment of colon cancer with Anchorage gastroenterologist Dr. Saket Ambasht
Weekly: Health	Line One	10/20/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Dr. Woodard and guest surgeon Dr. Karen Barbosa will delve into surgical treatment of both benign and malignant disorders of the breast, including reconstruction
Weekly: Health	Line One	10/27/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Wilderness Therapy for Teens - Taking an angry, defiant, and depressed adolescent into the wilderness can have a profound effect on that young persons emotional development and can alter their lives forever. Join host Prentiss Pemberton and his guests from the Alaska Crossings Wilderness Program as they discuss using the power of the Wilderness to treat kids with emotional and behavioral problems.
Weekly: Health	Line One	11/03/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Disabilities and your health - About 23 percent of Alaskans are listed as having a disability. Additionally, people with disabilities have more chronic health issues and less access to health care than those without. On the next Line One, we'll discuss the reasons for these findings, barriers to change and what is being done to improve these problems
Weekly: Federal issues and Alaska	Addressing Alaskans	11/11/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Sen. Lisa Murkowski introduces Sen. Bob Corker, Tenn., for a talk on U.S. foreign policy and Alaska. Sen. Corker served on the Senate Energy Committee with Sen. Murkowski for four years. Their talk on U.S. foreign policy and Alaska was hosted by Commonwealth North.
Weekly: State of the City	Addressing Alaskans	11/18/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Anchorage mayor Dan Sullivan delivers his annual State of the City address at an Anchorage Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Hear about public safety, retail expansion, the city's waterfront plans and more.
Weekly: Military Affairs	Addressing Alaskans	11/25/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	JBER archaeologist Karlene Leeper speaks about the history of Air Force radar infrastructure in Alaska - how they were distributed across the landscape and how they have changed
Weekly: Judicial Selection	Addressing Alaskans	12//12/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Alaska Supreme Court chief justice Dana Fabe moderates a panel on judicial selection in Alaska at a luncheon hosted by the Anchorage Chamber of Commerce
Weekly: Community Support	Hometown, Alaska	12/03/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	This week, Hometown Alaska is all about volunteer service. If you rely on volunteers, or you give your time and energy to causes you believe in, share your story today on Hometown Alaska
Weekly: Community Arts	Hometown, Alaska	12/10/14 2p + 9p	59:00 min	Parlor in the Round is a fun way to experience local music, with performers taking the stage together to joke, swap songs, and even write them on the spot based on audience ideas. We'll capture some of that fun in the studio with musicians Nellie Clay, Michael Howard and Kevin Worrell, and learn about the challenges of creating and presenting original music in Anchorage

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST FOR KSKA

__ _ 1st __ _ 2nd __ _ 3rd __ X __ 4th
Quarter of 2014

Weekly: Community Arts Hometown, Alaska 12/17/14 2p + 9p 59:00 min Recipe: Take vintage municipal holiday street decorations. Save them in storage for years. When the right moment comes, strip, weld, attach LED lights, compose music. Install. Happy birthday, Anchorage, and here's to the next 100 years