The half hour program featured the “Ask the Governor” program featuring Louisiana Governor John Bel Edwards. Community members are open to asking the governor questions. One question was regarding concerns about how people from out of state are buying land in the state and if it may have an adverse effect to farmers. The Governor was not aware of any areas of concern and stated some landowners may even transition from crop production to solar farms. Another question was regarding the status of the redistricting of the state. The governor stated that before the 2024 election, he felt the state would have two predominantly black majority congressional districts. The governor announced that the “The Louisiana Heritage Monument” was recently placed in the Veterans Memorial Park. The monument pays tribute to African American veterans from Louisiana and the United States who have served in various historical wars.
