Emmie Perkins, Miss Mississippi 2022, shares her excitement in being able to compete in the national pageant. Miss Georgia’s platform and speech focused on autism awareness and acceptance. Her brother was diagnosed at the age of five, so she has personally experienced autism. Miss Louisiana stated that the pageant represents the modern women and one who continues to fight for her seat at the table. Miss Iowa shared her personal experience with bullying as a student and how she addresses it now as a teacher to help her students. These young women compete for scholarships to continue their education.

January 29, 2023 – 5am Louisiana Hometown PSA – 29:19 in length-

The half hour program featured the Battle of New Orleans Commemoration 2023 held at St. Bernard Parish. The event is a reenactment of part of the Battle of New Orleans. A great living history event which provides an economic boost to the community with participants and visitors of the commemoration. School students also attended and were able to put visuals with what they are learning in history. Students were shown how they made blankets, molasses, soldier uniforms, and other items during this time period. The program also included information on the Louisiana Workforce Commission as they celebrate National Apprenticeship Week. Students from various parishes visited as they had hands on exercises and learned about various careers and trades. You earn and do as you learn. The students were able to explore different trade opportunities where they live. Infrastructure is providing many employment opportunities across the state. This is a four-year apprenticeship program.

February 12, 2023 – 5am Louisiana Hometown PSA – 29:26 in length-

The half hour program featured the Governor’s Office of Disability Affairs – GOLD AWARDS- Purpose of the awards is to honor many of the state’s leaders in the disability community. All recipients have shown their commitment to their communities and state. The honorees go above and beyond everyday to improve the lives of those with disabilities. The governor stated at the event that the state of Louisiana has improved its efforts in helping those with disabilities. The half hour program featured Gov. John Bel Edwards’s Statewide Radio Call-in Program “Ask the Governor”. The program is filmed to air on television. Medicare expansion for the state was highlighted as one of the topics. More people in the state now have access to care. This has also helped healthcare providers because they are receiving at least some reimbursement instead of the high number of uninsured where they would likely get no reimbursement. The governor believes the Medicare Expansion program has also helped in keeping some of the community hospitals open.

February 26, 2023 – 5am Louisiana Hometown PSA – 29:56 in length-

The half hour program featured the Holocaust Remembrance Day. Fifty-one eight graders from Louisiana heard the testimony of Anna Salton Eisen. Anna is the daughter of two holocaust survivors. Her grandmother died in a gas chamber. Anna encouraged her father to travel with her to Poland, Germany, and France to help her learn his past. Until then, he or her mother would speak of the past. During the trip, Anna learned that her father's life was one of pain and suffering. The message to the students is stop judging others, be accepting, and compassionate to others.

March 5, 2023 – 5am Louisiana Hometown PSA – 29:26 in length-

The half hour program featured Gov. John Bel Edwards's Statewide Radio Call-in Program "Ask the Governor". The program is filmed to air on television. Medicare expansion for the state was highlighted as one of the topics. More people in the state now have access to care. This has also helped healthcare providers because they are receiving at least some reimbursement instead of the high number of uninsured where they would likely get no reimbursement. The governor believes the Medicare Expansion program has also helped in keeping some of the community hospitals open.

The half hour program featured the Angel Awards. These awards are to recognize volunteers from the state of Louisiana who go above and beyond to help children in the state. Kim Bowman of the Bella Bowman Foundation is an example of a person being honored for her work in helping families and children who are going through complex medical issues. Grants are provided through the Angel Awards to help continue those that are helping children. Michael Tipton, CEO of Louisiana Blue Cross Blue Shield, informed viewers how to nominate individuals for the award. The program also included information on the ribbon cutting ceremony of SOWELA. The new center is an educational opportunity for the people of Louisiana pursuing a career in culinary, gaming, and hospitality.
