ABC NEWS PROGRAMS – Second Quarter, 2016

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Friday, June 17, 2016 (premiere)

Hidden-camera fan-favorite returns this summer with all-new scenarios capturing unsuspecting people's reactions to everyday situations. These scenarios elicit new and sometimes surprising reactions, but what does not change is the incredible response to anchor John Quiñones when he appears on camera to ask about each person's split-second and often surprising decision-making process.

- A customer is bullying a supermarket employee with Down syndrome. Will customers step up and defend him or go about their business?
- A mother and her two daughters enter a local donut shop. The mother refuses to let one of her daughters get a donut because the girl is "overweight." Will onlookers intervene or let this mother parent her children the way she chooses?
- A mother and her children are shopping in a supermarket when the children begin to misbehave. To discipline this behavior the mother begins spraying a bottle of water in the kids' faces. Will onlookers support this mother's decision or be outraged?
- A pharmacist is loudly disclosing potentially embarrassing information about one of the people waiting online at prescription pick-up. Will someone tell the pharmacist to quiet down or will everyone listen in?
- A young girl is testing out a demo video game in the store when two boys begin harassing her, telling her "girls can't play video games." Will any of the customers come to the young girl's defense?

Friday, June 24, 2016

- Surrogate Mom: A surrogate mom excitedly tells the parents-to-be she is carrying twins, but they want only one baby and refuse to take the second one. How will bystanders react when the parents tell the surrogate to get rid of one of the babies?
- Drunk Cab Driver: A cab driver gets drunk on his lunch break and tries getting behind the wheel to continue his shift. How will bystanders react?
- Overwhelmed Caregiver: Our actors are a woman and her elderly mother, who needs help doing everything. Traci is at her wit's end – all of the emotion she's bottled up about having to care for her mom boils up and overflows. She complains to her mother about being overwhelmed, and her mother reacts nastily, saying things like, "I'm the one who should be overwhelmed. You're stupid and forgetful." What will people do?
- Teacher/Student: A teacher is out with her student helping him "study" when some inappropriate PDA between them starts up. They begin to discuss their relationship, and there seems to be something more going on between them than just tutoring. Do others speak up to protect the boy or stay quiet?
- Eating Disorder: Three teen girls are eating lunch together. One of the girls is curious how the other two stay so skinny despite the bad food they eat. They admit to her that they binge and purge, and they encourage her to do the same. How will other diners react to the two "skinny" girls pressuring their friend to take up their unhealthy habit?

She doggedly got a local news reporter to investigate, who, two and a half years later, found people who came forward to say they had heard incriminating statements that night –leading to a new investigation and an indictment. ABC News correspondent Ryan Smith reports.

Janet Barnicoat, one of those three baby foundlings, started her search as many do, with a Facebook post begging for clues about her biological family. The post went viral. STEVE HELPS A YOUNG COUPLE DECODE THEIR ARGUMENTS ABOUT TRUST, FINANCES AND MARRIAGE. TWO ENTREPRENEURS FACE OFF TO WIN $10,000!
Steve is used to helping women decode messages from their men, in an effort to help them figure out what's really going on in their relationships. But this time, Steve is decoding a little differently, by helping a couple who says they're constantly battling over the same issues. With their permission, "Steve Harvey" cameras are set up in their home to capture some of their real arguments. Steve will decode the couple's exchanges to help them better understand each other's point of view. Can Steve get this young couple on the same page and seeing eye to eye about important topics like trust, finances and marriage? Then, Steve is giving two young entrepreneurs a chance to show him how smart their products are and the winning pitch will get $10,000 to help grow their business! Steve has two savvy and successful business pros to help him decide the winner – Fortune 500 turn-around specialist and business guru AMILYA ANTONETTI and best-selling author and CEO of not one, but four private companies, GRANT CARDONE.

TIPS ON HOW TO BECOME A SOCIAL MEDIA STAR! HOW TO AVOID FEELING OLD AND FAT BY CLEANSING YOUR BODY FROM THE INSIDE OUT. A MAN WHO SPENT YEARS IN AND OUT OF PRISON, IS DETERMINED TO NEVER GO BACK BEHIND BARS.
Steve highlights the comeback story of SETH SUNDBERG, a pro basketball player charged with tax evasion and sentenced to seven years in prison. After this fall from grace, Seth found a way to pick up the pieces and start over. He reinvented himself by creating a product that gives back. He created a granola bar called "Prison Bars" after being inspired by working in the prison kitchen and reading the label on a box of chicken that said "not for human consumption."

The bars are made by former inmates who may have a hard time finding employment elsewhere because of their record. Plus, from online personalities and beauty bloggers, to Instagram and Vine pros, social media stars have become a new breed of celebrity and they're making serious money at it! Social media stardom, and the money that comes with it, isn't as unattainable as you may think. Steve is joined by You Tube sensations LAURA VITALE (from "Laura in the Kitchen" and star of the Cooking Channel's "Simply Laura") and RACHEL LEVIN (from RCL Beauty 101), who will teach the secrets to gaining online followers and cashing in, with tips for three women on how to become a social media star! Then, DR. FRANK LIPMAN, author of "10 Reasons You Feel Old and Get Fat," joins Steve with some health tips on how you can stay young, slim and happy and cleanse your life and your body from the inside out! Plus, Steve welcomes 37-year-old BRENT RILEY, who is recently out of prison and finally determined to create a new life for himself and avoid the vicious cycle that often lands people back to jail. What started out as a stint in juvenile detention as a teenager, turned into his first real prison sentence in 1999, followed by several more incarcerations after that. Brent participated in a program called the Prisoner Entrepreneurship Program before he was released a few months ago and he's hoping that this will be the program that helps him never end up back in prison again. It's gotten so bad, that they've actually pushed back the date of their wedding! The one thing they just can't seem to agree on is who should be the next president. AARON is voting for Donald Trump and his fiancée TORI is siding with Bernie Sanders. Are their political differences really strong enough to put the relationship in jeopardy? Steve brings in a couple that has kept their love strong, despite being on different sides of the political spectrum – Republican strategist MARGARET HOOVER (the great granddaughter of President Herbert Hoover) and her husband, JOHN AVLON who is an Independent and works as a political analyst for The Daily Beast. Plus, Steve helps parents DAMON and ZAWADI, who are desperate to save the life of their troubled 17-year-old son, SAMAJ. This one-time honors student has been making bad decisions, stealing, hanging out with the wrong crowd and smoking marijuana regularly, all of which has led to him being expelled from two different schools. Damon has tried everything in terms of punishment, but nothing seems to be getting through to Samaj. Steve hooks Samaj up with Project Storm, a program that teaches at-risk teens about the long term effects of criminal behavior, by spending the night in jail. Will this experiment help Samaj understand that he needs to start making better decisions? Clinical Psychologist DR. JOHN DUFFY joins the conversation. And, a Mexican-American teen who's faced ugly criticism on social media after publically singing the national anthem dressed in a traditional Mexican mariachi outfit, joins Steve to discuss how haters can make you even greater! Steve's longtime friend and fellow comedian, KYM WHITLEY (OWN's "Raising Whitley") stops by with an update on the "Recycle My Ex" dating experiment she and her friends went through earlier this spring. And more importantly, did Kym meet Mr. Right? Then, through four seasons of his talk show, Steve has met numerous women who have a ridiculous set of standards for the men they date, including how much money he must make, his physical attributes and even his dating past. Steve welcomes a woman whose only requirement is that a man doesn't cheat. Tune-in as Steve tries to get her to realize that she deserves much more than that, and helps her build a set of standards to realize how valuable she is. Plus, Steve honors MARIANNE BARNES, the first female Master Distiller in Kentucky since Prohibition, as a "Female Groundbreaker." STEVE WRAPS UP "WHERE ARE THEY NOW?" WEEK BY REUNITING THE CAST OF "A DIFFERENT WORLD!" AN ALL-FEMALE PANEL DEBATES THE CONTROVERSIAL TOPIC OF HAIR ... SHOULD YOU GO NATURAL OR NOT?

Steve catches up with the cast of "A DIFFERENT WORLD," a ground-breaking TV sitcom portraying students at a small fictional college named Hillman. The show didn't just make audiences laugh, it made people think. For six seasons from the late '80s to the early '90s, the series explored some of the most controversial issues of that generation and its influence led to a boom in enrollment at historically black colleges. Cast members including JASMINE GUY (Whitley), KADEEM HARDISON (Dwayne), CREE SUMMER (Freddie), CHARNELE BROWN (Kimberly) and DARRYL BELL (Ron) will join Steve Harvey. Then, it's the great hair debate! When it comes to hair, women don't mess around. The average woman will spend about $50,000 on her hair, in her lifetime. Whether it's natural, permed, straightened, teased, dyed, a weave or completely shaved off, women's hairstyles are serious business and can even be controversial, especially when it comes to cultural appropriation. Steve sits down with BISHOP EDDIE LONG, pastor of Georgia's New Birth Missionary Baptist Church, for an EXCLUSIVE sit-down interview. STEVE WELCOMES FELLOW TALK SHOW HOSTS, JERRY SPRINGER AND STEVE WILKOS! STEVE HELPS A MAN REVEAL HIS SECRET CRUSH. NEWLYWEDS WHO RAISED MONEY FOR THE NEEDY AT THEIR RECENT WEDDING!

Steve wraps up the "Summer of Steve Week" by welcoming fellow daytime talk show hosts JERRY SPRINGER and STEVE WILKOS! Tune-in to hear Jerry talk about his humble beginnings as a talk show host in Chicago 25 years ago, in the very same building where "Steve Harvey" is taped, and how Steve Wilkos went from being a Chicago cop, to a security guard on Jerry's show, to having a hit daytime show of his own! In honor of Jerry Springer's 25th anniversary, Jerry will share a compilation of some of the most outrageous moments on "The Jerry Springer Show." Then, Jerry and Steve stick around to help Steve Harvey navigate a family drama story that one might typically see on one of their own shows. It involves a long lost family member, questions of identity, and the results of a DNA test revealed right there on the "Steve Harvey" stage! Will Steve Harvey, Steve Wilkos and Jerry Springer be able to help this family at odds? And, Steve helps a man named VINCE come clean to his secret crush KRISTINE, in hopes of heating things up between the two for a summer romance! Kristine joins Steve Harvey under the guise that she's there for a segment about single moms, but what will her reaction be when Vince takes the opportunity to tell her how he really feels? Plus, Steve welcomes newlyweds JACOB and JOY for a "Good News" segment. Jacob and Joy recently said "I Do," but instead of getting gifts, they turned it into a day all about giving. They asked wedding guests to donate to help feed people in their hometown of Nashville and were able to raise over $10,000 for the cause! To honor Jacob and Joy for their selfless act, Steve Harvey will gift the newlyweds with $10,000 on behalf of DHerbs.com! And, "Travel Mom" EMILY KAUFMAN wraps up the "Summer of Steve Week" by giving one lucky audience member a summer trip to the Mediterranean!

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH BISHOP EDDIE LONG. BILL AND GIULIANA RANCIC STEP IN TO HELP A MARRIED COUPLE AT ODDS OVER RUNNING A BUSINESS TOGETHER! CELEBRITY STYLIST, TIMOTHY SNELL.

Steve sits down with BISHOP EDDIE LONG, pastor of Georgia's New Birth Missionary Baptist Church, for an EXCLUSIVE sit-down interview. In 2010, Bishop Long's world was rocked by controversy after several lawsuits alleging that the Bishop used his influence to coerce a number of the church's under aged boys into sexual relationships. Throughout the process, Long has denied the allegations through attorneys and spokespeople and all of the lawsuits have since been settled out of court. For the first time, Bishop Long discusses the struggles that he and his family went through, as he and his wife navigated the thought of divorce and he personally contemplated suicide. Bishop Long will talk to Steve about resilience, as described in his latest book, "The Untold Story: A Story of Adversity, Pain and Resilience." Then, BILL and GIULIANA RANCIC join Steve to help a married couple that is experiencing relationship strains, as they try to run their business together. ANTONELLA and GIUSEPPE are chasing their dreams of running a food truck called "Chicago Pizza Boss," but they can't seem to turn a profit. They've turned to Steve with help to keep their business – AND their marriage, intact. Who better to help, than Bill and Giuliana Rancic, who are married, but also own and operate a Chicago restaurant together, RPM Italian. DUELING MOMS TRY TO CO-PARENT A BLENDED FAMILY. STEVE HELPS A 20-YEAR-OLD WOMAN LAND HER FIRST DATE! STEVE HONORS A HERO COP, WHO SAVED A BABY FROM A DEADLY CAR ACCIDENT!

Steve kicks off the show with a new segment that is quickly becoming one of his favorites. In "The Way I See It," Steve gives his comedic take on some of today's current headlines. Then, when it comes to blended families, it's often hard to keep the peace, especially if the mom and step-mom don't get along! Steve welcomes two dueling moms, MICHELLE and RENE, as well as the dad in the situation, NIC. All three parents realize they need to change their ways for the sake of the kids, but with a long history of bitter feelings, they just don't know where to begin. Psychotherapist and Co-Parenting Specialist STACY KAISER joins the conversation with advice on how they can all put their differences aside and start co-parenting to the benefit of their children. Plus, Steve welcomes 20-year-old AYANNAH, who says she's never had a boyfriend and never been asked out on a date. She's ready to start dating, but admits she has absolutely no clue where to start. Her strong Christian moral values have made it tricky to find a match who will be on the same page. Ayannah was also raised by a single mom, so she didn't grow up experiencing the dynamic between men and women in relationships. Lucky for Ayannah, "Uncle Steve" is there to give her a crash course in dating. He also sets her up with a young man who was hand-chosen specifically for her, based on their common interests and likes. And Steve brings viewers the heroic story of Police Officer TYLER BEDDOES, who went above and beyond the call of duty to save the life of a baby trapped in a car that was lying upside down in a river. The little girl miraculously survived and Tyler says the whole experience renewed his faith. Plus, Steve's good friend STEVE JOYCE, President and CEO of Choice Hotels, stops by to present a check to benefit the Steve Harvey Mentoring Program for Young Men.

Getting over a breakup can be really tough, especially when you're not the one who ended it. Steve helps a group of women with an intervention for their friend CARMICE, who is having a particularly hard time getting over her ex. She's depressed over being dumped by a man who was no good for her to begin with. Her girlfriends decided that enough was enough. They ambushed her at home and sent her off in a limo to go see Steve Harvey! With the help of celebrity stylist LAWRENCE ZARIAN and TV personality and confidence coach KIM GRAVEL, Steve has a three-week plan to help build Carmice's self-esteem back up and prepare her from the inside out to help her move on and never look back! Over the span of those three weeks, Carmice will go out on dates with three different men that Steve has hand chosen for her. Then, Steve welcomes CHRIS RING, a veteran of the U.S. Navy who's making sure our fallen soldiers and their families are never forgotten, with a program he started called Legacies Alive. To help raise awareness for the cause, Chris swam the entire length of the Mississippi River last year, which turned out to be 2,552 miles! It took him six months to complete and he averaged about 14 miles and 6.5 hours in the water every day. Steve surprises Chris with the parents of a military member who was killed in action, to thank him in person for his work in honoring military families. Plus, KEN JONG, fellow comedian and star of ABC's "Dr. Ken" stops by for a hilarious conversation with Steve about his iconic role of Mr. Chow in "The Hangover" movies, his former career as a real life doctor and his busy home life where he and his wife are raising 8-year-old twin daughters! DUELING MOMS TRY TO CO-PARENT A BLENDED FAMILY. STEVE HELPS A 20-YEAR-OLD WOMAN LAND HER FIRST DATE! STEVE HONORS A HERO COP, WHO SAVED A BABY FROM A DEADLY CAR ACCIDENT!

Steve kicks off the show with a new segment that is quickly becoming one of his favorites. In "The Way I See It," Steve gives his comedic take on some of today's current headlines. Then, when it comes to blended families, it's often hard to keep the peace, especially if the mom and step-mom don't get along! Steve welcomes two dueling moms, MICHELLE and RENE, as well as the dad in the situation, NIC. All three parents realize they need to change their ways for the sake of the kids, but with a long history of bitter feelings, they just don't know where to begin. Psychotherapist and Co-Parenting Specialist STACY KAISER joins the conversation with advice on how they can all put their differences aside and start co-parenting to the benefit of their children. Plus, Steve welcomes 20-year-old AYANNAH, who says she's never had a boyfriend and never been asked out on a date. She's ready to start dating, but admits she has absolutely no clue where to start. Her strong Christian moral values have made it tricky to find a match who will be on the same page. Ayannah was also raised by a single mom, so she didn't grow up experiencing the dynamic between men and women in relationships. Lucky for Ayannah, "Uncle Steve" is there to give her a crash course in dating. He also sets her up with a young man who was hand-chosen specifically for her, based on their common interests and likes. And Steve brings viewers the heroic story of Police Officer TYLER BEDDOES, who went above and beyond the call of duty to save the life of a baby trapped in a car that was lying upside down in a river. The little girl miraculously survived and Tyler says the whole experience renewed his faith. Plus, Steve's good friend STEVE JOYCE, President and CEO of Choice Hotels, stops by to present a check to benefit the Steve Harvey Mentoring Program for Young Men.

STEVE WELCOMES COMEDIAN AND ACTOR KEN JEONG! TIPS ON HOW TO GET OVER AN EX, MOVE ON AND NEVER LOOK BACK! A NAVY VETERAN WHO STARTED A NON PROFIT IN HONOR OF HIS FALLEN COMRADES.

Getting over a breakup can be really tough, especially when you're not the one who ended it. Steve helps a group of women with an intervention for their friend CARMICE, who is having a particularly hard time getting over her ex. She's depressed over being dumped by a man who was no good for her to begin with. Her girlfriends decided that enough was enough. They ambushed her at home and sent her off in a limo to go see Steve Harvey! With the help of celebrity stylist LAWRENCE ZARIAN and TV personality and confidence coach KIM GRAVEL, Steve has a three-week plan to help build Carmice's self-esteem back up and prepare her from the inside out to help her move on and never look back! Over the span of those three weeks, Carmice will go out on dates with three different men that Steve has hand chosen for her. Then, Steve welcomes CHRIS RING, a veteran of the U.S. Navy who's making sure our fallen soldiers and their families are never forgotten, with a program he started called Legacies Alive. To help raise awareness for the cause, Chris swam the entire length of the Mississippi River last year, which turned out to be 2,552 miles! It took him six months to complete and he averaged about 14 miles and 6.5 hours in the water every day. Steve surprises Chris with the parents of a military member who was killed in action, to thank him in person for his work in honoring military families. Plus, KEN JONG, fellow comedian and star of ABC's "Dr. Ken" stops by for a hilarious conversation with Steve about his iconic role of Mr. Chow in "The Hangover" movies, his former career as a real life doctor and his busy home life where he and his wife are raising 8-year-old twin daughters! Ken also joins Steve for a segment of "Ask A Dad," with moms asking the duo for advice in raising their own twins at home!

TAYE DIGGS TALKS ABOUT PARENTING AND RACIAL IDENTITY. A WOMAN WHO CHEATED DEATH AFTER SEEING THE AFTERLIFE. A WOMAN CONFRONTS HER MAN, WHO IS DRAGGING HIS FEET ON A PROPOSAL!

Steve welcomes film, TV and Broadway star TAYE DIGGS to discuss his role as dad to his 6-year-old son Walker. Taye recently divulged that he refuses to identify his son as black or white, saying instead, that since he was born to a black father and a white mother, he prefers to use the word "mixed." Taye found himself in the middle of a heated debate about racial identity, which prompted him to write a children's book called "Mixed Me." Taye has gotten a lot of backlash for his point of view, and unwittingly has become a public voice for families with bi-racial children. Tune-in to hear the discussion! Then, a woman who cheated death when she suffered a pulmonary embolism after a C-section, shares her miraculous story of survival. Doctors and nurses performed CPR on her for over an hour while her heart stopped at least ten times. She was clinically dead and during that time, she experienced what she calls the afterlife. She lived through the ordeal with no brain damage and was able to share her story of her medical miracle. Plus, Steve welcomes ANDREA, who is fed up with her man JERRELLE, who just won't commit! She's tired of making compromises for a man who, in her mind, is dragging his feet in taking the next step in their relationship. They're currently both living with his parents and because his dad is a pastor, the rule is that they have to have separate bedrooms. Jerrelle joins Andrea and Steve on the show, with a surprise romantic proposal that will sweep Andrea off of her feet!

The "Summer of Steve" kicks off as Steve Harvey check in with viewers from his summer vacation, with a full hour of segments that didn't go quite as planned. First, it's an "Ask Steve" that was hijacked by ELLEN DEGENERES, telling Steve how to answer audience members' questions through an ear piece. But sometimes, when a segment goes off the rails, it can make for some of the most memorable television! Tune-in as Steve revisits an interview with former "Housewife of Beverly Hills," BRANDI GLANVILLE, that literally left Steve speechless. Steve tries to set Brandi up on a date with one of two bachelors that he found for her, but when Brandi's line of questioning gets out of hand, it turns into what Steve calls the "best, worst dating segment" he's ever done! And of course, there's just no way to plan for a cooking segment when You Tube sensation AUNTIE FEE stops. Steve revisits Auntie Fee's very first appearance on the show, where of course, very little cooking was actually done! Plus, tune-in to find out what happens when two legendary comedians go off script and talk about absolutely nothing that they were supposed to. STEVE LOOKS BACK AT SOME OF HIS FAVORITE TALK SHOW MOMENTS, INCLUDING INTERVIEWS WITH PRESIDENT OBAMA AND THE FIRST LADY. STEVE RECOUNTS AN EPISODE IN WHICH HE MARRIED 50 COUPLES ON THE SHOW.

Steve takes some time out of his summer vacation to reflect back on four years of the talk show. One of the most extraordinary moments that Steve has ever had on the show was when he sat down at the White House for a one-on-one interview with PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA. But of course, he also interviewed the FIRST LADY, MICHELLE OBAMA, very early in the show's history. Tune-in to hear Steve reflect on how momentous both of the interviews were for him, and how it helped shape the relationship that he has with the Obamas today. Then, one of Steve's main missions on the talk show is to help women struggling in their dating lives. Steve takes a look back at one of the most outrageous "United Dates of America" segments that's he's ever done. Ciarra, labeled as the "Worst Dater" in Ohio, ended up bringing her mom along with her, to pepper her date with questions! Tune-in for an update on Ciarra's love life and find out if Steve was able to help her turn around her bad dating habits. Plus, Steve has done some pretty amazing things on the talk show, but marrying 50 couples was never something he thought he'd do in his lifetime! Steve will reminisce about the episode in which he oversaw 50 couples as they exchanged vows and said "I Do," right there on the "Steve Harvey" set! Then, Steve takes it all the way back to his first season on the air, when he heard from a man named Phil who needed his assistance in taking a professional leap. Steve helped the man quit his job and find the courage to take a leap of faith, in order to fulfill his dream of opening a coffee shop. It's the "Summer of Steve," with Steve Harvey taking a moment out of his summer vacation to show viewers his favorite episodes of all time. It's hard to believe that after four seasons of "Steve Harvey," 650 episodes have aired! Just last season, the team aired its 500th episode with a specialty show dedicated to the celebration. Steve takes a look back with a montage of his favorite moments from that very special episode. Then, Steve knows how hard it is to get your kids to "unplug" from all of their electronics, especially in today's world, where people are technology obsessed. Steve reminisces on a story from the first season of the talk show, in which he helped a dad who said his family is tech obsessed. As a family, they had more than 40 devices in the house, and it was starting to cause a rift! Tune-in to see how this family coped with a 48-hour ban on all electronics. Did it help them to grow closer, or did it cause their rift to get even bigger? Plus, back in the second season of the show, both of Steve's youngest children, Lori and Wynton, turned 16. Steve takes viewers back to what he refers to as "one of the scariest days of his life," teaching them both to drive! And Steve takes a look at the "Date Your Husband" campaign from season three, during which he helped couples to reignite their passion for each other by encouraging their husbands to turn up the romance on their wives! Steve Harvey checks in with viewers from his summer vacation, with a look back at some of his favorite moments from the talk show's four-year history! Everyone knows that Steve has a special connection with kids. Even before the phenomenon of "Little Big Shots," Steve would frequently give amazing kids a chance to share their talents on the "Steve Harvey" stage. Tune-in for a montage of Steve's favorite kid moments on the talk show! Then, one of Steve's missions on the talk show has been to help the country's worst daters in his "United Dates of America" series. Jocelyn, the worst dater in the state of Missouri, left a lasting impression on Steve when she brought her date Brandon to a BBQ to meet her entire church congregation! Was Steve able to get through to Jocelyn and convince her that a church-wide gathering might not be the most suitable place for a first date? And as much as Steve loves doing segments with kids, he also says that seniors can be just as unpredictable and entertaining! Steve takes viewers back to the time he featured 100-year-old best friends Irene and Alice on the show. Then, Steve reminisces about one of his favorite segments on the show with Miriam

STEVE LOOKS BACK AT SOME OF THE MOMENTS THAT WERE PERHAPS A BIT MORE APPROPRIATE FOR A LATE NIGHT SHOW, FROM THE SEX EDITION OF "IS IT WEIRD?" TO A ROMANCE TUTORIAL ON THE SET, TO INTERVIEWS GONE AWRY WITH SHERRI SHEPHERD AND MARTHA STEWART!

Steve Harvey always assumed that if he had his own talk show, it would be on during late night. Well, he's found himself with a talk show that airs in the daytime, which always includes plenty of late night moments! Steve takes a look back at some of the moments that would have perhaps been better suited to a late night show, beginning with a montage of one of the show's signature segments called "Is It Weird?" Things definitely get weird when people ask Steve questions about their sex lives. Steve takes viewers back to the time he was left speechless after a woman revealed her crazy method to stop her man from cheating and another woman who asked some very intimate questions about personal hygiene! Then, Steve reminisces about the couple that he helped to reignite their romantic flame, right there on the "Steve Harvey" stage! Terri told Steve she loves her husband Junior, but .... he's just not romantic. In fact, they had only had sex a few times since their wedding day, two years prior! You won't want to miss Steve's crash course in romance, with all sorts of sexy suggestions on how to keep their marriage red hot, including a tutorial with one of Steve's favorites, baby oil! Then, Steve takes a look back at a segment where he tested several different "love" products on the show. Steve's not exactly sure what the producers were expecting, but it seemed obvious to him that things would likely get a little too sexy for daytime. And who would imagine that a Thanksgiving cooking segment could get too racy for daytime TV? Only on "Steve Harvey!" Plus, Steve feels particularly comfortable and at home when he has his personal friends on as guests. The conversation got a bit racy, with innuendos throughout, during a gift wrapping segment with Sherri Shepard and a segment with Martha Stewart, in which Martha taught Steve how to make blue bath salt balls!

Steve takes some time out of his summer vacation to bring viewers some of his most memorable moments in the four-year history of the talk show. Producers are constantly coming up with fun themes that require complete overhauls of the set, and for Steve to dress up in costume. Steve makes no secret that he doesn't necessarily enjoy themed-shows. But there was one episode that he says was really right in his sweet spot – the '70s! Tune-in for Steve's recap of the '70s Edition of "Ask Steve." Then, Steve reminisces over four of his favorite guests of all-time. Steve was able to help out four best friends and self-proclaimed nerds, who couldn't do anything right when it came to landing women. Steve's crash course in dating, swagger and style helped these nerds transform themselves into self-confident men who weren't afraid to approach a woman! Steve always tries to reinforce how important it is for couples to keep the sexy in their relationships. Most couples take Steve's advice home with them and are open to his ideas. Steve reminisces about one couple that he had trouble getting through to. A woman who was fed-up with her man's fixation on cleanliness, turned to Steve Harvey for help. He was so obsessed with being a neat freak, that it was actually affecting their sex life! Steve came up with a plan that forced him to loosen up, but was Steve able to make a lasting impression on him?
