

Issue	Organization	Date/Time/Duration	Program Segment
Education, Cultural Identity	Blount Mansion	4/1/22 -4/23/22	The Birthplace of Tennessee, Blount Mansion, presents Bluegrass, Beer, BBQ & Bourbon at the home of US Constitution signer, William Blount, in Knoxville on Saturday, April 23rd from 4:30p to 9pm. This festival will feature the Foothills Bluegrass Band. Tickets can be purchased through the website at blount mansion dot org
Education, Remediation of Poverty, Pandemic Information	Tennessee Department of Health	April 1 - May 15, 2022	The Tennessee Department of Health has set up a new website with information about COVID-19 that includes the basic information about this coronavirus, its symptoms, and testing sites plus a quarantine and isolation calculator. There is information about vaccine site locations and availability. For more information, covid19 dot tn dot gov or you can call 877-857-2945
Education, Cultural Identity	East Tennessee Historical Society	April 5 - April 29, 2022	East Tennessee Historical Society present "You Should Have Been There," an exhibit looking back on the World's Fair in Knoxville. The exhibition's theme is not only a nod to the international exposition's marketing catchphrase, "You Have Got to Be There! The 1982 World's Fair!," but also an acknowledgement that four decades removed, there is a generation of East Tennesseans who were not alive to experience the historic event. East Tennessee Historical Society is located at 601 S. Gay Street, Knoxville. For Information on how to see this exhibit, east t n history dot org
Education, Cultural Identity	Candoro Arts and Cultural Center	April 22, 2022 - May 7, 2022	On Saturday, May 7, 2022 Candoro Arts and Cultural Center will host the return of Vestival, an annual arts and music festival held on the historic Candoro Marble Company grounds from 11am to 4pm. Vestival will showcase Knoxville's local artists, food vendors, and crafters as well as local performers. The 2022 mainstage music lineup includes local musicians Tim Woody, Jodie Manross, Pistol Creek Catch of the Day, Zach Russell and headliner, the Tennessee Sheiks. For more information, candoro marble dot org slash vestival
Education, Remediation of Poverty	Remote Area Medical	April 29 - May 21	Remote Area Medical's pop-up clinic offering FREE medical, dental and vision services to the Jellico and surrounding communities is set for two days only, May 21-22. All services are no cost, no ID required and on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, ram usa dot org

Education, Cultural Identity	River and Rail Theater / Old City Performing Arts Center	April 29 - May 12	The Old City Performing Arts Center presents "Women's Wrk" on May 12th. Women's Wrk is a 3 hour training in exploring tools actors use to engage an audience that can be used in a business setting. The training for women in Knoxville is followed by dinner and a performance by River and Rail Theatre Company. For more information or tickets for the afternoon and evening events, river and rail theatre dot com slash workshops.
Education	Knoxville Museum of Art	May 9 - July 24, 2022	The Knoxville Museum of Art, in conjunction with the Hunter Museum of American Art in Chattanooga, showcases what two Tennessee cultural organizations are doing to support and empower women artists. Women Artists: Highlights from the Hunter Museum of American Art is on view at the KMA until July 24th. Currents: Women Artists from the KMA Collection is on view May 13-August 14, 2022. Both exhibitions pay tribute to contemporary women artists represented in each museum's respective collections. For more information, knox art dot org
Education, Remediation of Poverty, Cultural Identity	Nourish Knoxville	May 12 - September 29, 2022	Nourish Knoxville operates producer-only farmers' markets in Knoxville. Everything sold at their farmers' markets is grown, raised, or produced by the vendor within a 150-mile radius of Knoxville. Currently there are three weekly markets. On Wednesday the Market Square farmer's market is open from 10a to 1pm. The Saturday Market Square operates from 9a to 1pm. The third market takes place at New Harvest Park on Thursdays from 3pm to 6pm. For more information, nourish Knoxville dot org slash markets
Education, Cultural Identity	Knoxville Botanical Garden & Arboretum	May 24 - June 4, 2022	The Knoxville Botanical Garden & Arboretum features walking trails, display gardens, unique & historic horticulture near downtown. They are offering the class, Houseplants 101, on June 4th at 10am. This workshop goes over on the basics, then attendees will have a paint and pot experience creating their own mini plant arrangement. For more information or to register for other classes, Knox garden dot org
Education, Cultural Identity	Tennessee Theatre	May 25 - June 8, 2022	The Tennessee Theatre presents its Pass the Mic series, with the Black Opry Revue featuring Chapel Hart, Allison Russell, Kam Franklin, Jennah Bell, and Songwriters in the Round: Roberta Lea, Nikki Morgan, Autumn Nicholas, and Joy Clark. You can visit tennesseetheatre.org for more information. This Tennessee Theatre event is free and open to the public.

Education, Cultural Identity	Mabry Hazen House	June 7 - July 4, 2022	Mabry-Hazen House is hosting its annual old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration on Monday, July 4th, from 5:00 – 10pm. You can gather with the museum to celebrate Independence Day, the Declaration of Independence, and community. You are invited to bring your lawn chairs and blankets to spread out on the greenspace near downtown. Tickets are required to attend the event. For more information, mabryhazen.com/fourthofjuly
Education, Cultural Identity	Foothills Parkway Association and Foothills Land Conservancy	June 13 - June 25, 2022	The Foothills Parkway Association and Foothills Land Conservancy are hosting an event on the newest section of the Foothills Parkway on Saturday, June 25 from 1–4pm. The gathering is to celebrate the beauty of the vistas along the Parkway and to encourage voluntary conservation of the scenic views, natural landscapes and cultural heritage of the Great Smoky Mountains. Travelling from the Walland entrance to the Parkway, go east to the second overlook which is just past mile marker 20.
Poverty remediation, education	Remote Area Medical	June 27 - June 30, 2022	Remote Area Medical, a non-profit provider of pop-up clinics delivering free, quality dental, vision and medical care to those in need, is seeking volunteer medical, dental and vision professionals and general support staff for its September 17 thru 18 clinic. The two day clinic is to be held at Rutledge Middle School. If you or your organization would like to volunteer, you can visit ramusa.org , or call 865-579-1530
Cultural Heritage	listening audience	04/02/2022	How does a struggling self-described hillbilly ham smoker turn into THE man on hams and bacon? Dearly loved by locals, chefs, and customers across our nation, here is his story of taking a wise chance with his business and how that has paid off. segment length: 14 minutes
Cultural Heritage, education	listening audience	04/09/2022	East Tennessean, Clint Smith describes how he makes his small batch Tennessee maple syrup. Segment Description 14 minutes
Cultural Heritage	listening audience	04/09/2022	Author, Podcaster, gardener, and YouTube channel favorite “Digging It,” Kelly Smith Trimble on the topic of Asparagus. Segment 4 minutes
Cultural Heritage, education	listening audience	4/16/2022	15-year-old farmer Marshall Bales describes his egg business at Bales Farms, Mosheim, segment 6 minutes
Cultural Heritage, education	listening audience	4/16/2022	TN. Lady Farmer Aliceson Bales shares her Mother's famous deviled egg recipe plus tips on peeling the eggs more easily. segments 7 minutes
Cultural Heritage	listening audience	4/16/2022	Karen Zorio shares her recipe and story of Hot Cross buns. segment 6 minutes

Special Education, workforce development	Special Growers	4/23/2022	A visit with Special Growers of East Tennessee and their Birdhouses, Mother's Day plants, flowers and herb pots offered at the East TN Maker's Market. segment 14 minutes
Cultural Heritage, education	listening audience	4/30/2022	Winner of the 2022, 25th National Cornbread Festival Cook-Off, Veronica Callaghan describes her winning recipe.
Cultural Heritage, education	listening audience	4/30/2022	CEO Emeritus and Board Member of Lodge Manufacturing, Bob Kellerman, about his art creations he makes out of recycled pans and parts that he calls Pan Heads. segment 3 minutes
Cultural Heritage	listening audience	4/30/2022	One of the founders of the Southern Foodways Alliance and James Beard Award-winning food writer, Ronni Lundy, with cultural perspectives on sugar, or no sugar in cornbread, and her tao of cornbread. segment 5 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	05/07/2022	Mary Lynn Snyder, who shares memories of growing up in the R.C. Tway coal mining camp outside Harlan, KY. Then, she'll share her Mother Ruby's cooking ways and a recipe for "Mama Ruby's Creamy Lemon Pie." segment 7 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	05/07/2022	Fred Sauceman shares a lovely audio essay in memory of his late mother-in-law, Elsie Maddux Derting. segment 6 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	05/07/2022	Amy Campbell shared a story and recipe about her late mother, Edwena Janie Clayton, her growing up experiences in Mississippi, and kilt salad recipe that her Grandmother made. segment 4 minutes
Sustainability, education	listening audience	05/14/2022	Susie Kwar, owner and operator of Little Mountain Flower Farm, located in Maryville, TN. Susie grows her flowers and puts together farm-fresh floral arrangements by hand in her floral studio right on her family's farm. She, her husband, and her children grow these flowers with sustainable, regenerative growing practices. She will also share one of her go-to recipes for a refreshing tabouli salad. segment 14 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	05/14/2022	Fred Sauceman's Pot Luck Radio series features one of Tennessee's oldest restaurants - Nicks - of Kingsport, TN. segment 2 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	05/21/2022	Karen Shankles has twice won first place at the annual National Cornbread Festival cook-off. Today, she shares her recipe for Festive Good Luck Corn Bread Skillet with us. segment 7 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	05/21/2022	James Beard Award-winning food writer Ronni Lundy lets us know how she makes her skillet cornbread that goes with a pot of soup beans. And she also shares with us what she calls her tao of cornbread. segment 5 minutes

Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	05/21/2022	Food preservationist with deep family ties to the East TN mountains and mountain cooking Shannon Walker lets us know how he makes his cornbread and his thoughts on cast iron cookware and old ways of his settler ancestors who made their home in the Smoky Mountains long before it was a National Park. segment 5 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage, education	listening audience	05/21/2022	"Mountain Man", Josh Lowans of Salubrious Farms, Walland, Knoxville, describes a Cornbread salad recipe that his better half Meagan makes and is his family's go-to recipe. segment 4 minutes
Health education, remediation of poverty, education.	listening audience	05/28/2022	Femeika (Meik) Elliott, founder, and owner of Meik Meals and the Lotus Program. This young, black, Knoxville-based entrepreneurial chef creates foods that give us that comfort of taste while using healthier, plant-based ingredients. Meik encourages people to make lifestyle choices that nurture the body, mind, and soul. She specifically works with postpartum Mothers to help them feel their best through food, education, and meditation with her Lotus program. Meik also speaks to groups throughout the community about her work. This episode originally aired in February 2022, and since then, Meik Elliott has won the What's The Big Idea? 2022 Pitch Competition, through the Knoxville Entrepreneurial Center, and has presented at Pecha Kucha night, Knoxville. segment 15 minutes
Culinary Cultural Heritage	ETSU Center for Appalachian Studies	05/28/2022	Fred Saucepan's potluck radio series features Cherokee poet and storyteller Marilou Awiakta speaking on how her Mother used spam in recipes. segment 2 minutes
Education, Culinary Cultural Heritage	listening audience	06/04/2022	Farmer Aliceson Bales of Bales Farm, Mosheim, TN, shares her recipe for buttermilk chicken, how to get the most of an entire chicken, and how to make chicken broth. Aliceson and her family, Barry, and Marshall, operate their family farm, which has been in continuous operation since 1882. Marshall is the 6th generation farmer of this land and is an impressive young farmer. They produce premium pasture-raised meats, and Marshall is head of the egg program. Barry Bales is a multi-grammy award-winning musician who has played with Alison Krauss and Union Station for many years. Barry even wrote the theme song for Aliceson's segment called "Ali's Tune." segment 6 minutes

Cultural Heritage, Culinary Education	Cades Cove Preservation Association	06/04/2022	We also hear from Lois Shular Caughron and her daughter Ruth Davis of Blount County, TN, with a recipe their family has enjoyed for many years, which is easy to prepare and economical, Chicken and Crackers. Lois is known as “The Last Woman out of the Cove.” The cove referenced is Cades Cove, a part of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and once Lois and Kermit Caughron’s home.segment 6 minutes
Education, Culinary and Cultural Heritage	listening audience	06/04/2022	James Beard award-winning food writer Ronni Lundy reads from her book Shuck Beans, Stack Cake, and Honest Fried Chicken The Heart and Soul of Southern Country Kitchens, published in 1990. In addition, she reads from her book on honest fried chicken and exactly how it is prepared in cast iron and exactly what cast iron pan makes the best honest fried chicken. segment 8 minutes
Culinary and cultural heritage	listening audience	06/11/2022, and 06/18/2022	Chef David Rule, Trotter’s Whole Hog BBQ, Sevierville, Tennessee. We visit with Chef David Rule on his new project Trotter’s Whole Hog Barbecue, Sevierville, TN. You may know Chef Rule from his former work with Dancing Bear, Blackberry Farm, and Walnut Kitchen. His current restaurant is The Appalachian, Sevierville, TN. David and his partner are redeveloping the Old Pines theater where Dolly Parton performed as a child in the 1950s. David describes this renovation work in this segment. segment 13 minutes
Culinary cultural heritage	listening audience, ETSU Appalachian Center	06/11/2022, and 06/18/2022	Fred Sauceman’s Pot Luck Radio Series features a special appetizer found at Ridgewood BBQ in Bluff City, TN segment 2 minutes
Culinary Cultural heritage	listening audience	6/25/2022	We visit with Mary Alice Phillips. Mary is a descendant to the Walker sisters, if you might be familiar with the Walker Sister Cabin in the Great Smoky Mountain National Park. Mary will share wisdom on home canning of green beans, the types of beans that she prefers to use, and some invaluable experience on the differences between water bath canning and tips on how to handle a pressure cooker. Segment 13 minutes
Culinary Cultural heritage, Sustainability	Sustainable Mountain Agriculture Center, Inc.	6/25/2022	Fred Sauceman’s audio essay features Bill Best, Seed saver, and founder of the Sustainable Mountain Agriculture Center, Inc. Bill has saved over 300 types of heirloom green bean seed varieties. Segment 2 minutes