

Issue	Organization	Date/Time/Duration	Program Segment
Education	Knoxville Museum of Art	July 1 - July 24, 2022	The Knoxville Museum of Art, in conjunction with the Hunter Museum of American Art in Chattanooga, showcases what two Tennessee cultural organizations are doing to support and empower women artists. Women Artists: Highlights from the Hunter Museum of American Art is on view at the KMA until July 24th. Currents: Women Artists from the KMA Collection is on view May 13-August 14, 2022. Both exhibitions pay tribute to contemporary women artists represented in each museum's respective collections. For more information, knox art dot org
Education, Remediation of Poverty, Cultural Identity	Nourish Knoxville	July 1 - September 29, 2022	Nourish Knoxville operates producer-only farmers' markets in Knoxville. Everything sold at their farmers' markets is grown, raised, or produced by the vendor within a 150-mile radius of Knoxville. Currently there are three weekly markets. On Wednesday the Market Square farmer's market is open from 10a to 1pm. The Saturday Market Square operates from 9a to 1pm. The third market takes place at New Harvest Park on Thursdays from 3pm to 6pm. For more information, nourish Knoxville dot org slash markets
Education, Cultural Identity	Mabry Hazen House	July 1 - July 4, 2022	Mabry-Hazen House is hosting its annual old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration on Monday, July 4th, from 5:00 – 10pm. You can gather with the museum to celebrate Independence Day, the Declaration of Independence, and community. You are invited to bring your lawn chairs and blankets to spread out on the greenspace near downtown. Tickets are required to attend the event. For more information, mabryhazen.com/fourthofjuly
Poverty remediation, education	Remote Area Medical	July 1 - September 9, 2022	Remote Area Medical, a non-profit provider of pop-up clinics delivering free, quality dental, vision and medical care to those in need, is seeking volunteer medical, dental and vision professionals and general support staff for its September 17 thru 18 clinic. The two day clinic is to be held at Rutledge Middle School. If you or your organization would like to volunteer, you can visit r a m usa dot org , or call 865-579-1530
Culture Identity, Education	The Smoky Mountain Blues Society	July 1 - September 30, 2022	The Smoky Mountain Blues Society strives to preserve, promote and perpetuate Blues music along with fostering unity among all people. They offer programs for veterans and have a Blues in the Schools program. To keep the blues alive in East Tennessee, Smoky Mountain Blues Society offers shows featuring local and national talent. This year's line up includes the Blues Cruises on the Knoxville Riverboat as well as concerts at local venues. More information can be found at smoky mountain blues dot org slash events
Culture Identity, Education	Smoky Mountain Quilters of Tennessee	July 5 - August 5	Smoky Mountain Quilters of Tennessee are holding their annual quilt show at the Knoxville Expo Center, August 5 & 6th. Each year this quilt show exhibits over 200 quilts, which features over a dozen "best of" categories as well as quilt turnings, vendor sales, quilt appraisals and more. For more information, smoky mountain quilters dot com
Culture Identity, Education	Old Harp	August 8 - 23, 2022	There will be an Old Harp singing school for beginners taught at the Claxton Community Center, 1071 Edgemoor Road, in Clinton, on the 2nd through 5th Wednesdays in August. Classes start at 5:45pm. Old Harp singing is a unique Shape Note tradition native to East Tennessee. The instructors are members of the Old Harp community. More information can be found out about the regular monthly sings as well as these classes at old harp dot org .
Culture Identity, Education	Keep Knoxville Beautiful	August 23 - September 11, 2022	Keep Knoxville Beautiful has scheduled the East Knoxville Community Clean up for September 17th from 9am to noon. The event base will be at Ashley Nicole Dream Playground at 620 Winona Street. There are two options to sign up, either as an individual or as a group. Keep Knoxville Beautiful provides gloves, litter pickers and trash bags. Volunteers must wear closed-toe shoes. Signups close September 11th. For more information or to sign up, keep Knoxville beautiful dot org

Culture Identity, Education, Remediation of Poverty	Big Brothers Big Sisters of East Tennessee	September 9 - September 30, 2022	September is Big Brothers Big Sisters Month! The role that mentors play in the lives of young people is more than simply providing support. East Tennessee Bigs are helping pave the way for positive long-term outcomes. Big Brothers Big Sisters are celebrating the importance of mentorship and encouraging this community to volunteer, and help spread the word. Big Brothers Big Sisters grows because of caring adults investing in children and young adults. For more information, Tennessee Big dot org
Culture Identity, Education	River and Rail Theatre	September 11 - September 30, 2022	River & Rail Theatre Co. presents its Theatre for Young Audiences production of The Little Prince at the Old City Performing Arts Center at 111 State Street in Knoxville. When a world-weary aviator finds himself stranded in a strange new world, the friendship and guidance of a small child enables them to shed what is not useful and pay attention to the life and beauty before their eyes. This show runs September 23 - October 9th. For more information including how to purchase tickets, river and rail theatre dot com
Culinary Education, Cultural Heritage	General listening audience	07/02/2022	Chef David Olson is a nationally-recognized American Culinary Federation Chef, television personality and social network influencer, award-winning recipe developer, live fire grill master, international adventurer, and the creator behind "Live Fire Republic." Chef Olson lets us know how to cook chicken over live fire that is always juicy, not dry.
Culinary Education, Cultural Heritage	General listening audience	07/02/2022	Chef Joseph Lenn. Owner of JC Holdway in Knoxville, TN, and winner in the past of Best Chef Southeast by the James Beard Foundation. Joseph loves to fish, especially fly fishing for trout, and he will let us know how he cooks a trout on an open fire in the woods. And about his annual ramp hunt and cook he does annually with Allan and Sharon Benton (of Benton's Smoky Mountain Country Hams)
Culinary Education, Cultural Heritage	General listening audience	07/02/2022	And Fred Sauceman's Pot Luck Radio series features a specialty of the White Trolley Cafe in Corinth, Mississippi. The Slugburger.
Cultural Heritage	General listening audience	07/16/2022	Segment Description: Dale Mackey owner of Dale's Fried Pies describes how she makes this classic southern food with a modern twist. Iva Spoon Wilde of Walland, TN, and how she makes her fried pies. Duration: 00:17:00
Sustainability	General listening audience	07/23/22 & 7/30/2022	Segment Description: A visit with Farmer Heather Fulchum, ecology teacher, farmer, and founder of She Diggs Farm, located in the Hardin Valley area of Knoxville, TN. Also a visit with Chef Jeff Jorgenson, brother to Heather and how he uses the garden products grown by Heather in his culinary dinners prepared and served on their farm in a dinner series called Farm to Feast. Duration 16 minutes
Culinary Education, Sustainability	Blount County Public Library / Master Gardener Program, UTK Extension	08/06/2022	Segment Description: Amy, host, shared how to home-can or freeze tomatoes. Also, news of the Tomato Jam Celebration, August 13th, 2022, at the Blount County Public Library, Maryville, TN. This event features Tomatoes, a tomato-tasting contest, 4-H participants with an ugly vegetable contest, music, and food. . This event is to encourage the community to grow their own tomatoes, learn how to process tomatoes, save seed, and learn the nutritional properties of tomatoes. Also, the Master Gardeners group was on hand to answer questions. Our guest today is master gardener Janine Brouillette, one of this event's coordinators. Janine also describes the state-wide Tennessee Extension Master Gardener Program. Note: None of these organizations advertise on this program. Duration 18 minutes
Culinary Education	General listening audience	08/13/2022	Corn Relish, and Corn Cob Jelly with Rachel Abbott Davis, farmer, homesteader and co-owner of J and R Farms, TN, plus a beautiful audio essay on corn from author and gardener Kelly Smith Trimble. Duration 16 minutes.

Culinary Education, sustainability	General listening audience	08/20/2022 & 8/27/2022	Segment Description: Aliceson Bales, farmer and co-owner of Bales Farms, Mosheim, TN describes the nutritional and health related differences of Lard that comes from pasture raised, pasture fed pigs as opposed to pigs raised in captivity and raised on grain. Aliceson also describes the process of rendering lard so that it can be used in cooking. Aliceson also shares her recipe for her white cheddar pimento cheese. Duration 15:30p
Sustainability	General Listening audience	09/03/2022	A visit with Frog Greishaw, Founder of Frog Juice Kombucha, Knoxville and how she created her business, and the farmers from East TN where she sources her ingredients. Duration 16 minutes
Sustainability	Slow Food TN Valley	9/10/2022	Segment Description: Description of the international organization Slow Food International, and the local Tennessee chapter Slow Food TN Valley, and promotion of their annual event Pesto Festo with raises funds for community grants for 3 TN organizations who practice sustainability, remediation of poverty, and better community health through food. This organization do not advertise on this program. Duration 16 minutes
Cultural Heritage	general listening audience	09/17/2022	Segment Description: Tyler Rogers from Chattanooga, Tennessee, makes wooden chairs, the old-style way with hand tools. His chairs are as beautiful as they are functional. Tyler also shares his Grandmother Wylene Lewis's squash casserole recipe. Also, Fred Sauceman shares ham smoker Allan Benton's Red Eye Gravy recipe. duration 14 minutes
Cultural Heritage, Education	Great Smoky Mountains Heritage Center	09/24/2022	A look at the annual Great Smoky Mountains Heritage Center Blue Ribbon country Fair. Duration 3 minutes