This organization also helps men who are going through domestic violence as they are just as important to voice. Usually, in the Latino community, they aren't aware of the legal services that are available to them and that is why they want to push out this information regardless of their citizen status. Everyone has rights and that is why in this program they are discussing the first step you need to do, like have a police report, to break silence and voice what you are going through. Tatiana, is dedicated to helping people like her, she came from Colombia and has been here for 16 years and didn't know about all the information available to help people in these situations.

(June 11, 2022) Host: Josue Rodriguez Issue: Parade Of Playhouse

Guest: Gabriela Valandre with Dallas Casa –

The guest is speaking about events that have been canceled due to COVID and Dallas Casa is usually very connected to the community, and they are trying to work around that. Dallas Casa protects children, restores childhoods, and helps child victims of abuse and neglect achieve their full potential. Dallas CASA was impacted a lot by COVID, so they tried to find ways to still be able to work and help these children, usually, they can meet with the kids in person but because of COVID, they were able to use ZOOM to conduct interviews. It was very difficult because behind a screen abuse can be hidden very well vs. in person, you get more of a feel if there is or isn't any abuse. Now they are really pushing for Bilingual volunteers to sign up to be able to go to court and translate for the parents who may not speak English. There is also an event taking place in July. It is called the "parade of playhouses" usually big companies take part in this event and donate playhouses for children, then Dallas Casa puts them up in a raffle and tickets are usually $5 to enter that way kids can win a playhouse to take home! It is usually done at the North Park

Mall. These houses can really make a kid happy and change their life. Which is the mission for Dallas Casa.
