University of Pennsylvania's recent graduates are seeking job opportunities. I would like to invite you to post a WBSX-FM job to recruit Pennsylvania professionals and graduates at:

<http://jobs.quakerslist.com>

I saw that you posted a job opening on the WBSX-FM website, and I work for QuakersList, the marketplace for Pennsylvania professionals and graduates. We post your job to 80,000 visitors/month, with 900,000 pageviews/month. Posting on QuakersList gives you access to Pennsylvania professionals, students and alumni, especially talented computer software engineers, cloud-computing programmers, and mobile app developers. Trim your selection to the best and brightest!

Good morning Gerald,

I hope this email finds you well. I thank you for contacting the Times Leader in regards to the Account Executive Advertisement you would like placed. I would be happy to help you design, set and publish the advertisement! I have sent the advertisement, graphics and wording of the ad to our graphics team to design, and will forward a proof/copy of the completed ad once I have received.

The three days would include Saturday, Sunday and Monday as a full color, 3x5 (4.87x5") advertisement within the Times Leader, our three day package also includes a 30 days job posting on MyOwnJobMatch.com, and will be optimized and distributed to a variety of nation, local and industry specific job boards to help you get exposure to the most job seekers within our market; a 30 second professionally design video clip which is posted on our homepage of JobNetwork for 30 days, the clip is designed from the contents of the advertisement; and one insertion into each of our five weekly papers, the Sunday Dispatch, Dallas Post, Abington Journal, Weekender and the Bazaar. Total for the advertisement would be $1,981.00 trade.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I look forward to hearing from you, and seeing a proof!

I'll talk with you soon!

NASH FM 93.7 (WSJR) is searching for a Program Director to join the NASH brand in Wilkes-Barre. Experience programming winning Country stations is not just preferred, we're looking for someone that lives for Country Radio and has it in their bones. The successful candidate will be responsible for all aspects of programming including; music scheduling, an on-air shift, coaching air staff, station strategy, development/execution of promotions, website and revenue generation, and have a strong customer service approach towards listeners and staff. Salary is commensurate with experience and ratings history. Resumes, ratings history, references and mp3 should be sent in confidence to cumulusradio.jobs@cumulus.com with the subject "Wilkes-Barre NASH PD". EOE.
