Community Fire Preven- tion Education Environment	What You Can Do to Prevent Wildfires in Utah	It is wildfire season in Utah and, after a wet winter and spring, there's even more shrubs, growth, and trees that could catch fire. But, most wildfires are preventable, especially since up to 80% of those fires are human caused. In this episode of Utah Weekly Forum, FM100.3 Host Rebecca Cressman is joined by Karl Hunt, the Public Information Officer of Utah Division of Forestry, Fire, & State Lands who explains how to protect our homes and our surrounding hillsides, mountains, and valleys from wildfires. More information is at Utahfiresense.org .	11:00- 11:30pm	7/02/23	30 Minutes

Community Charity Education Public Health	5 For the Fight Against Cancer Tees Off in Provo	Guy Roche has volunteered for many years organizing charity golf tournaments to raise crucial funds needed for cancer research at Huntsman Cancer Institute. This year's "Golf Classic" on July 10th in Provo will have an even greater impact as it's now part of "5 For the Fight", a crowdfunding charity created by Qualtrics to increase the number of scientists working in cancer research. In this episode of Utah Weekly Forum, FM100.3 Host Rebecca Cressman is joined by Qualtrics Head of Social Impact Lori Kuhn and Guy Roche who explain how an extraordinary golf tourney is making it possible for everyone to donate to help defeat cancer. For more information, visit 5forthe-fight.org .	11:00- 11:30pm	07/09/23	30 Minutes
Community Family Education Public Health Charity	Creating Awareness and Support for Healing Hearts	Congenital heart defects are one of the most common kinds of birth defects. They can alter the way a child's heart works and depending on how mild or serious they can make a big impact on day-to-day lives of the child and their family. The non-profit organization Intermountain Healing Hearts provides support, resources, events, and help to families of children and adults with congenital heart defects and childhood onset heart disease. In this episode of Utah Weekly Forum, FM100.3 Host Rebecca Cressman is joined by Melissa Andrew, Executive Director of Intermountain Healing Hearts, and Alex Howard, IHH President, who share more about how families can get support from Intermountain Healing Hearts and the details on the upcoming Walk for Healing Hearts on the morning of September 9th in Sandy, Utah. Community Education Children Family	Mascot Miracles Foundation	Mike chats with President Rich Ellis and Hero Spencer Angerbauer. With our mascots serving as hosts, our heroes and their families have the chance to laugh, play and forget the pain, stress, and struggle they face each day at Mascot Miracles' events throughout the year. Through the generosity of our partners, supporters, and volunteers, MMF kids and their families enjoy special experiences designed just for them - where they are safe, allowed to be themselves, and enjoy activities at their own speed and abilities. We host at least one experience per month for these special kids including Night at the Aquarium, Stick Horse Rodeo, Cowabunga Bay, Polar Express Rides with Santa, one-on-one events, and more. www.MascotMiraclesFoundation.org	11:30pm-12:00am	7/02/23	30 Minutes
Charity Community Mental Health	Utah Infertility Resource Center	Mike chats with Executive Director Shelli Mecham & Program Manager Auschel Felt. Our non-profit is dedicated to helping people of all backgrounds and identities to expand their families. Whether you are facing infertility or exploring other options, we are here to provide you with education, support, and awareness. Our goal is to empower you, strengthen you, and equip you for your journey, at whatever stage you may be. www.UtahInfertilityResourceCenter.org	11:30pm-12:00am	07/09/23	30 Minutes

Health Community Education Charity	Utah Parent Center	Mike chats with Project Coordinator Jennie Dopp. The mission of the Utah Parent Center is to help parents help their children, youth and young adults with all disabilities to live included, productive lives as members of the community. We accomplish our mission by providing accurate information, empathetic peer support, valuable training and effective advocacy based on the concept of parents helping parents. The term "parent" is broadly defined to include anyone serving in that role. www.UtahParentCenter.org	11:30pm- 12:00am	07/16/23	30 minutes
Healthcare Family Community	Columbus Community Center	Mike chats with Chief Executive Officer Kristy Chambers and Autism Program Director Amy Wadsworth. Columbus was founded in 1968 by a group of parents looking for a community-based program for their children with disabilities. In the beginning, the center survived and thrived because parents provided financial support, facility maintenance, and program supervision. Today, Columbus is recognized locally and nationally as a well-established, innovative non-profit agency. We work strategically with many stakeholders to support individuals with disabilities so they can make informed decisions and live with independence in the community. www.ColumbusServes.org	11:30pm- 12:00am	07/23/23	30 minutes
Family Community Children Charity	Ogden Pride	Mike chats with Ogden Pride President Sean Childers-Gray. Ogden Pride celebrates and supports the LGBTQ+ community, individuals, and their families and allies in Northern Utah in building and strengthening inclusive communities. We are committed to excellence in advocacy, educational programs, and services. The 9th annual Ogden Pride Festival takes place August 4th through the 6th at The Ogden Amphitheater. www.OgdenPride.org	11:30pm- 12:00am	07/30/23	30 minutes

Charity Community Family	Craft Lake City	Mike chats with Executive Director Angela Brown. The Annual Craft Lake City DIY Festival is Utah’s largest local-centric art, music, science and technology festival. August 11th-13th we are celebrating our 15th Anniversary with our biggest fest yet with over 350 local artisans, vintage vendors, foodies, youth entrepreneurs, performers, & STEM exhibitors at the Utah State Fairpark! National headlining acts Warpaint, Haley Heynderickx, Courtney Marie Andrews, and Gable Price & Friends will be performing on Friday Night, with Segorounding out our incredible line-up on Saturday. www.CraftLake-City.com	11:30pm- 12:00am	08/06/23	30 Minutes
Arts Community Theater Education	Red Barn Farms	Mike chats with Executive Director Michael Haws. Red Barn Farms is a licensed, two-year minimum residential life-skills academy that reinvents lives broken from addiction and crime by teaching honesty, accountability, and integrity in a farm setting. We are not a ‘drug-rehab’ and we do not utilize or allow any medication assisted treatment of any kind. We are a peer driven community that uses an “each-one-teach-one” process of behavior modification, focusing on doing the next right thing until it becomes a habit. www.RedBarnFarms.org	11:30pm- 12:00am	08/13/23	30 Minutes

Community Arts Family Culture	Utah Foster Care	Mike chats with CEO Nikki MacKay and Director of Recruitment Jennie Sheperd. Utah's legislature and Governor Mike Leavitt created Utah Foster Care (UFC) in 1999. We work to develop innovative strategies to help find, educate, and support Utah foster families. UFC fulfills this goal through a contract with Utah's Division of Child & Family Services (DCFS). When the Legislature and Governor Leavitt created UFC, they envisioned a state where children who must spend time in out-of-home care are offered safe, loving, and stable homes until they can be reunited with their families or placed in a permanent adoptive home. Utah Foster Care has recruited and trained more than 16,000 families since its inception. www.UtahFosterCare.org	11:30pm-12:00am	08/20/23	30 Minutes
Community Family Education	Dance for Life	Mike chats with Executive Director Kristin Barlow. Dance for Life was initiated in July 2018 when director Kristin Barlow heard of another suicide in her community and was alarmed by the growing rate of suicides in Utah. Determined to do something about it, she took her experience of 27 years in the dance industry in both California and Utah to launch the first Dance for Life Suicide Prevention & Awareness Event during National Suicide Prevention Month in September 2018 with overwhelming support from the dance community including amazing dance talent Sophia Lucia of Dance Moms fame. We continue to grow programs in hopes of preventing any child, teen, or adult from reaching the point of no return. www.DanceForLifeNation.org	11:30pm-12:00am	08/27/23	30 Minutes

Healthcare Family Community Education	National Center on Shaken Baby Syndrome	Mike chats with Executive Director Danielle Vazquez & Parent Support Program Nurse at Hill Air Force Base Deedra Nelson. Founded in 2000, the National Center on Shaken Baby Syndrome (NCSBS) is a non-profit 501(c)3 public charity with a mission to Prevent shaken baby syndrome and promote the well-being of infants generally through the development and implementation of programs, policy, and research; and to support and educate families, caregivers, and professionals. The NCSBS works nationally and internationally with hospitals, public health, pediatricians, social workers, home visitors, and other similarly aligned individuals and organizations to provide education and resources to families and professionals that will ultimately keep babies safe. www.DontShake.org	11:30pm-12:00am	09/03/23	30 Minutes
Community Charity Education Family	Utah Infertility Resource Center	Mike chats with Program Manager Auschel Felt. Our non-profit is dedicated to helping people of all backgrounds and identities to expand their families. Whether you are facing infertility or exploring other options, we are here to provide you with education, support, and awareness. Our goal is to empower you, strengthen you, and equip you for your journey, at whatever stage you may be. The 8th Annual Infertility Conference will be held on September 23rd at the Karen Gail Miller Conference Center in Sandy. www.UtahInfertilityResource-Center.org	11:30pm-12:00am	09/10/23	30 Minutes

Education Environment Community Charity	People Helping People	Mike chats with Program Manager Izabel Neely. People Helping People, Inc (PHP) is a local grassroots 501c3 non-profit Employment Program dedicated to helping low-income women and single moms reach their full potential in the workplace. Our Employment Program offers a unique, long-term, one-on-one approach that helps low-income women develop the tools, knowledge, and self-confidence to compete for better jobs, seek raises and promotions, and eventually earn an adequate income. The Single Mother Seminar & Job Fair is September 28th from 5-8 pm at the Intermountain Employee Service Center in Murray. www.PHPUtah.org	11:30pm- 12:00am	09/17/23	30 Minutes
Community Family Education	Alzheimer's Association, Utah Chapter	Mike chats with Executive Director Stacie Kulp & VP of Marketing and Communications Jim Herlihy. The Alzheimer's Association of Utah is the premier source of information and support for Utahns living with dementia and their families and caregivers. Our statewide offices help us to provide a broad range of free programs and services, funding for Alzheimer's and dementia research, and advocacy efforts on behalf of Utahns. The Walk to End Alzheimer's is Saturday, September 30th at America First Field in Sandy. www.alz.org/utah	11:30pm- 12:00am	09/24/23	30 Minutes
