Community Women Healthcare Education	Spanish Fork Hospital Hosts Girls Night Out for Women's Health	Many women in Utah are so busy taking care of work, families, and other responsibilities that they don't take time to care for their own personal physical and mental health. On October 12th, Spanish Fork Hospital will hold their 2nd annual Girls Night Out to make it easier for women to know what support, resources and screenings are available in their community at a festive event with giveaways, pampering, and swag bags full of gifts. In this episode of Utah Weekly Forum, FM100.3 Host Rebecca Cressman is joined by Hospital Nurse Administrator Megan Johnson and Lots of Love CEO Grace Ehinger who share how Girls Night Out can help women prioritize their health and wellness, learn more about breast cancer, and even schedule their mammograms during the event.	11:00- 11:30pm	10/01/23	30 Minutes

Community Politics Economy	Helping Local Businesses Succeed at Utah Business For- ward Conference	Year after year, Utah earns national attention as an economic leader and because of it's business-friendly environment. Now a conference has been created to help the local business community learn from Utah's most successful executives and entrepreneurs. Utah Business Forward is on November 16th, 2023 at the Grand America. In this edition of Utah Weekly Forum, FM100.3 Host Rebecca Cressman is joined by Utah Business Editor-in-chief Melanie Jones, Brandthropology Agency CEO Dr. Chelsea Shields CEO, and Lovesac CEO Shawn Nelson. They explain how this conference filled with breakout sessions featuring dozens of Utah's top business minds can help the local business community improve strategy, marketing, entreprenurship, international business, and gain insights about people and culture in the business world. Registration details at forward.utahbusiness.com	11:00- 11:30pm	10/22/23	30 minutes
Community Education Family Mental Health Healthcare	UVU Conference Connects Local Mental Health Providers	On Friday, October 27th, Utah Valley University's College of Humanities and Social Sciences will host its annual UVU Conference on Mental Health. The hybrid on-line and inperson event offers the mental health community the opportunity to connect to each other, find resources, and to learn more about Suicide Prevention, Addiction, Interpersonal Violence, and Depression. In this episode, Extraordinary Options Board Member and Summit Counseling Solutions CEO, Kate Plato joins FM100.3 Host Rebecca Cressman to share why the day-long conference is important for mental healthcare and how it will also pay tribute to community members involved in this life-changing work. Community Education Children Family Charity Sports	Calle & Free The Game	Mike chats with retired MLS Goalie Nick Rimando. Inspired by the experiences playing soccer in the streets of Spain, Brazil, Bolivia, and Mexico, a group of college soccer friends founded Calle in 2006. Calle started selling tees to camp kids and local soccer shops. In 2012, after six years of grind, the brand had to hang up its boots. In 2022 after a decade hiatus, founder Travis Winn and Nick Rimando relaunched Calle with some original designs. The brand's mission remains the same: to promote community-based street courts where players can play for free. By donating 10% of their sales to the non-profit Free the Game, Calle remains anchored to its core values. www.FreeTheGame.org & www.Calle.com	11:30pm- 12:00am	10/01/23	30 Minutes
Performaning Arts Culture Family Community	Ballet West	Mike chats with Executive Director Shelli Mecham & Program Manager Auschel Felt. Our non-profit is dedicated to helping people of all backgrounds and identities to expand their families. Whether you are facing infertility or Mike chats with Ballet West Artistic Director Adam Sklute. Ballet West is presenting the return of Ben Stevenson's Dracula, back by popular demand and just in time for Halloween! The New York Times hailed the production as "a Dracula beyond Stoker's darkest dreams." The blockbuster show features exciting pyrotechnics, flying vampires, and a ghostly carriage that careens on-and-off stage. Dracula runs Oct. 20 – 28 at the Janet Quinney Lawson Capitol Theatre. Tickets start at just $29. Visit balletwest.org for ticket information.  www.BalletWest.orgother options, we are here to provide you with education, support, and awareness. Public Health Community Education Charity Family	Canines With a Cause	Mike chats with Executive Director Cathy King. We are a registered 501c3 nonprofit organization that rescues predominantly shelter dogs and places them with disabled military veterans to then become psychiatric service or assistance dogs. CWAC provides training classes for veterans, enabling them to develop the skills needed to train their own dogs and become an experienced handler. The dog can provide the veteran with many benefits: simple companionship, motivation to get out of bed in the morning, and unconditional and non-judgmental love. www.CaninesWith-ACause.org	11:30pm- 12:00am	10/15/23	30 minutes
Environment Family Community Charity	Ogden Nature Center	Mike chats with Public Relations Coordinator Brandi Bosworth. Located in the heart of Ogden, you'll find a 152-acre nature preserve and education center open to the public year-round. The Ogden Nature Center offers a wide variety of activities from walking trails to educational programs for all ages. Our mission is to unite people with nature and nurture appreciation and steward- ship of the environment. Since it was founded in 1975 as Utah's first nature center, the Ogden Nature Center has provided a place where people can go to enjoy and learn about the natural world.www.Og- denNatureCenter.org	11:30pm- 12:00am	10/22/23	30 minutes
