J. Crosstalk

A live one-hour national call-in program, Crosstalk covers the issues that affect our world, our nation, our families and the Christian church from a perspective centered in the Word of God. Crosstalk airs at the following time:

Monday-Friday

2:00 p.m. – 2:55 p.m.

Issues covered during this quarter:

Date	Issues	Speaker(s)	Description
1/1	Right Priorities in a World Gone Wrong	Jim Schneider / Pastor Rodney Shuler	In Isaiah 5:20 it says, 'Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!' As Jim noted, we are seeing this take place all around us. If you stand for biblical marriage, you are branded as a hater, a bigot or intolerant. He cited an example that came in the form of a voicemail received by VCY America. An individual was outraged that the network had the audacity to say on the air that God calls homosexuality an abomination. The caller indicated that he'd do whatever he could to bring the ministry down. Where's the love and tolerance that this side so often speaks of in such a response? This Crosstalk looked at this phenomenon through a message preached this past Sunday by Pastor Rodney Schuler, the pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin. He's also host of the radio program, 'Calvary Today.' Pastor Schuler's message, 'Right Priorities in a World Gone Wrong,' is based upon Hebrews 13. Using this and other portions of Scripture, he communicates why men and women are to honor God's plan for one-man/one-woman marriage, why unbiblical lifestyle alternatives are to be avoided no matter how popular they are, and how biblical contentment affects this issue. Related news items and input from Crosstalk callers round out this informative broadcast.
1/4	Playing Russian Roulette with Your Soul	Jim Schneider / Dr. David Brown	Today Jim took a break from the many issues going on in the world to speak with us about the most important issue of all. In Mark 8:36 we find a very critical question that everyone must answer, "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" In other words, you might win big in politics, financial gains, a legislative battle, the stock market, or a big work promotion; but, if you've never placed your trust in Jesus Christ as Savior, it is all meaningless. Sadly, many people spend more time planning their next vacation getaway than they do considering their eternal destination. According to Pastor David Brown, you are playing "Russian Roulette" with your soul if any of these describe you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Believing infant baptism will get you to Heaven</li> <li>• Believing that there are many roads to Heaven</li> <li>• Believing religious service and good works will get you to Heaven</li> <li>• Believing in God will get you to Heaven</li> <li>• Making a phony decision for Christ to fulfil an earthly goal</li> <li>• Following false teachers and faulty philosophies</li> <li>• Procrastination – putting off the decision for Christ until later</li> </ul> One cannot fool God when they ultimately stand before Him. Pastor Brown explains clearly how you can KNOW for sure that your eternal destination is Heaven.
1/5	At Stake: The Saving of Our Republic	Jim Schneider / Robert Knight	This is a momentous week as a high turnout of voters in Georgia are going to the polls today. The control of the U.S. Senate hangs in the balance. Tomorrow at 1pm Eastern Time when Congress convenes, Vice President Mike Pence will preside over the certification vote of the presidency. It's being reported that a large number of House members will be objecting to the certification in contested states and 11 senators will join Ted Cruz in doing the same. Our guest, Robert Knight, indicates the stakes are high this week. What could happen if the left captures all three branches of government? Do major changes to elections mean increased integrity? Exactly what authority does Vice President Mike Pence have?
1/6	GA Vote & Electoral Certification	Jim Schneider / Rick Green	This is a momentous time for our nation and what's at stake. Georgians went to the polls yesterday to cast votes for two Senate seats which impact the majority party for the U.S. Senate. Today the Save America March in Washington DC was said to be the largest rally in the history of our nation. This afternoon Congress convenes for the purpose of certifying the electoral votes from the states. Does the Vice President have the authority to reject electoral college votes from states in which electoral fraud has been proven?

			Rick Green joined the program to shed light on these current events. Jim rounded out the program with the latest updates and several audio clips.
1/7	Pray for America	Jim Schneider / Mat Staver	Yesterday began with America awaiting the results of the Georgia Senate vote and with a massive rally in Washington to Save America and Stop the Steal with President Trump addressing the massive crowd. In the afternoon Congress met in a session presided by Vice President Mike Pence in regard to the certification of the elector vote. As we were told would happen, there was a contesting of states in which there were allegations and sworn testimony and affidavits and evidence of voter fraud. The first state to be contested was Arizona. Debate was taking place as suddenly the security of the U.S. Capitol was breached and violence broke out with a shooting followed by one fatality and chaos on many fronts. While this was unfolding, Liberty Counsel sent out a Liberty Alert yesterday that consisted of only 3 words. The alert said, “Pray for America.” Mat Staver joined the program to recount yesterday’s events in detail. Most importantly discussed in this program was the fact that no matter what happens in the White House, in America, or in the world, our Almighty God is still on the Throne. He is still in control. All people in positions of authority were allowed to be there by God. Nothing and no one escapes His notice. Keep your eyes focused on Him. Have YOU prayed for America today?

1/11	World Government Gains Traction	Jim Schneider / Gary Kah	Efforts are underway to impeach President Trump a second time. Social media has taken action against the president and some conservative groups. Banking action has been taken against supporters of the president. The U.S. Supreme Court has denied expediting of the cases pertaining to the November election. Some are pushing for government mandates of the COVID vaccination and even the ability to detain people. In the midst of all this turmoil, the world continues to press forward toward a ‘Great Reset’ as world government gains traction. Joining Jim to bring listeners the latest on this issue was Gary Kah. Gary is the founder and director of Hope For the World. He’s the former Europe and Middle East Trade Specialist for the Indiana State Government. In 1987, Gary was invited to join the World Constitution and Parliament Association, one of the organizations involved at the forefront of promoting the world government agenda. During the next 4 years he obtained detailed documents which demonstrated that the push toward a one-world government was active and rapidly advancing. Gary is the author of Enroute to Global Occupation and The New World Religion. As you review this edition of Crosstalk, be prepared to take notes as Gary had much to report on. His comments related to world government included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Why Democrat leaders seem so intent on removing President Trump from office in spite of the fact he only has several days remaining in office.</li> <li>● Robert F. Kennedy Jr. on the COVID vaccine and how it intervenes in the genetic material, altering that same material, and what that means for treating the vaccine symptoms.</li> <li>● The World Economic Forum is planning a global summit called, ‘The Great Reset’ to be held on May 18th in Lucerne, Switzerland. Those involved are pro-socialism and pro-globalism with the full backing of elites. They stand against free markets, the rule of law and individual freedoms. Gary sees this as a huge deception as they try to make their plans appear benevolent. As he</li> </ul>

			noted, ‘...but once all this is in place, we’re looking at big-brother totalitarianism being enforced by one-world militants.’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Details of possible ‘Great Reset’ policy as put forth by a Catholic archbishop in a letter sent to President Trump. Is the pope and the Vatican involved?</li> </ul> There’s much more content to examine, including the input of listeners as the hour continued.
1/12	Election’s Impact on Israel, Middle East and World Affairs	Jim Schneider / Dr. Jimmy DeYoung	We are quick to look at the impact of the United States Presidential election on our own nation, but there is another impact this election has and it deals in the area of foreign policy. Crosstalk examines the current events unfolding as it pertains to Israel, Iran, China, Russia, and even North Korea. Dr. Jimmy DeYoung joined the program to expound upon these points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What level of friendship can we expect between the Biden Administration and Israel?</li> <li>• What kind of relationship does the U.S. Congress have toward Israel?</li> <li>• Sudan normalizing ties with Israel</li> <li>• The Iran Nuclear Deal</li> <li>• Al Qaeda setting up a home base in Iran</li> <li>• Which country will test Biden the most?</li> <li>• Kim Kong Un is back to his old ways</li> <li>• How close are we to seeing Biblical prophecy unfold in these areas?</li> </ul> Is America mentioned in Biblical prophecy?
1/13	The Red Sea Rules	Jim Schneider / Robert Morgan	At some point in our lives we encounter times when we feel ‘backed up against the wall’ and things become so overwhelming that it appears as though there’s no way out. Perhaps you’re going through one of those experiences right now. Sadly, some people will succumb to depression, despair, anger, hate or bitterness, with some even taking their own life thinking that suicide is the only solution. How can we handle such periods in life? The guest on this Crosstalk has taken principles from Scripture and provided 10 God-given strategies for difficult times. It helps the reader understand that the same God who led you into those circumstances will lead you out. Robert Morgan is a writer, speaker and pastor. He has more than 35 books in print with more than 4.5 million in circulation. Crosstalk interviewed him previously pertaining to his 3 volumes on hymn history called, Then Sings My Soul. He’s also appeared on Crosstalk regarding his book, 100 Bible Verses That Made America: Defining Moments That Shaped Our Enduring Foundation of Faith. This broadcast looked at his book, The Red Sea Rules. In the book of Exodus we see that the Israelites had been enslaved for a long time by Pharaoh and the Egyptians. Moses then came at the direction of God and said, ‘Let my people go.’ The account details a series of plagues with Pharaoh finally giving in and releasing the Israelites. However, as they left, they discovered that they were trapped. Ahead of them was the Red Sea and behind them was Pharaoh’s army coming to annihilate them. This is the way many people feel today. Fortunately, God in His grace and mercy has left us with numerous lessons from this chapter that can be of great help in navigating through life. As the broadcast continued, Robert shared his testimony of how the 10 rules he writes about in his book came to him. Here’s the first five: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Realize that God means for you to be where you are.</li> <li>• Be more concerned for God’s glory than for your relief.</li> <li>• Acknowledge your enemy but keep your eyes on the Lord.</li> <li>• Pray</li> <li>• Stay calm and confident and give God time to work.</li> </ul> Robert brings helpful commentary on these as well as the other five ‘rules’ while listeners had things to say as well on this edition of Crosstalk.
1/14	A Nation Pursuing a Path of Socialism	Jim Schneider / William Federer	House Speaker Nancy Pelosi tried to force the vice-president to unconstitutionally use the 25th Amendment to remove President Trump. When that didn’t work, with no hearing and limited debate, she rushed to have the president impeached for a second time. What does the 25th Amendment say? What was its purpose? What about the efforts of social media to silence the president with some sites even banning patriotic merchandise? What about the attempts to blacklist those who’ve worked in the Trump administration? Could it be that the gates are now officially opened to fulfill the socialist dreams of people like Bernie Sanders, Alexandria Ocasio Cortez, Nancy Pelosi and Chuck Schumer? Looking at these and other related thoughts and issues was William Federer. William is a nationally known speaker, historian, author, and president of Amerisearch, Inc, a publishing company dedicated to researching America’s noble heritage. He’s the speaker on The American Minute daily broadcast. He has authored numerous books including, America’s God and Country Encyclopedia of Quotations, Who is the King in America? and Socialism: The Real History From Plato to the Present in which he analyzes how the Deep State capitalizes on crises to consolidate control. Jim kicked things off by quoting from an important ‘tweet’ that was sent out May 16th of 2017. It was sent by Nancy Pelosi and indicated that she believed the election was hijacked and that it is the duty of Congress to protect our democracy. She was

			objecting to Donald Trump becoming president of the United States and since that time she's done everything possible to discredit him and have him removed from office. William believes what we're seeing is a vindictive response from the 'left' that has hated not only President Trump, but those who support him. He also feels that they will come after such supporters as well if they get away with this. On this broadcast William sifts through the various political/psychological tactics that are being used by the 'left,' showing how history may be repeating itself as he ties these tactics to important people/moments of the past.
1/15	News Roundup & Comment	Jim Schneider	Jim had items to share related to the impeachment of the president, the Capitol siege, changes to come from President-elect Biden and much more. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-President-elect Joe Biden announced a 1.9 trillion dollar stimulus plan to address the ongoing virus pandemic in the U.S.</li> <li>-President-elect Joe Biden promises that on his first day of office he will issue an order requiring all schools that receive federal funding to let transgenders play on the sports teams and use the rest rooms/locker rooms that accord with their gender identity.</li> <li>-Congressman Jim Jordan spoke on the floor of the House against the second effort to impeach President Trump, noting that 4 years ago Democrats objected to the electoral college votes of 2016, two of whom are now leading the impeachment effort of the president.</li> <li>-In a video address to the nation, President Trump called on Americans to promote peace amid the reports of planned demonstrations to take place in the coming days. Jim played the audio of the address.</li> <li>-A Black Lives Matter activist that was seen storming the U.S. Capitol January 6th was charged with being on restricted grounds, civil disorder, violent entry and disorderly conduct according to the Department of Justice.</li> <li>-Congressman Louis Gohmert of Texas is accused of seeking more uprisings after quoting Nancy Pelosi who actually was the one making the request.</li> <li>-Chuck Schumer calls for D.C. rioters to be placed on a no-fly list.</li> <li>-Democrats are drafting a bill that could erase the legacy of President Trump.</li> <li>-President-elect Joe Biden promised to defeat the National Rifle Association while he's in office.</li> <li>-The president of the New York State Bar Association announced that it has opened a probe into whether to remove Rudy Giuliani as a member of the bar over incendiary remarks that he made before the Capitol siege in his efforts to cast doubt on the 2020 election.</li> <li>-GoDaddy kicks the largest gun forum off the Internet without explanation.</li> <li>-A Texas woman who bragged about ballot harvesting has been arrested for fraud.</li> <li>-Joe Biden to introduce a constitutional amendment that will eliminate private dollars from federal elections.</li> <li>-Representative Marjorie Taylor Greene of Georgia announced that she'll file articles of impeachment against President-elect Joe Biden on January 21 for abuse of power because of the overseas business activities of the Biden family.</li> <li>-Joe Biden added another pro-abortion cabinet appointee. Rhode Island Governor Gina Raimondo will head up the U.S. Department of Commerce.</li> </ul>

1/18	Where We Are...Where We're Headed	Jim Schneider/ Alex Newman	The inauguration is set to take place this Wednesday in Washington, D.C. It's said to be a 'virtual' inauguration yet there are some 25,000 National Guard troops on hand for security. One TV station has reported that Virginia will be limiting access to the Capitol, closing some interstates and bridges. On another front, there's been mass censorship of conservative thought sweeping social and major media. In the midst of all this, Joe Biden says he will unify the nation, yet his stated plans seem to contradict that idea. On day one, as well as on the days to follow, he plans to target and reverse many items that were supported by tens of millions of Americans while introducing socialist policies to our republic. Joining Jim to discuss these and other related matters was Alex Newman. Alex is an international freelance journalist, author, researcher, educator and consultant. He's a foreign correspondent and regular contributor for The New American. Alex began by noting that if you listen to President Trump's speech from January 6th, you can clearly hear that he didn't incite anyone to commit any sort of violence. In fact, he specifically told the crowd to march peacefully to the Capitol to make their voices heard. From this Alex believes what took place was planned in advance while also being guided and instigated by more than just a few provocateurs in addition to some overzealous Trump supporters. Alex described a man wearing horns who appears to be receiving a tour of the Capitol by a police officer. A well-known Black Lives Matter/Antifa extremist from Utah, who was arrested by the FBI, is seen on video speaking with a reporter and celebrating while in the Capitol. So Alex believes that you had 9 months where the media was glorifying violence, insurrection and the burning of cities. Yet this latest incident at the Capitol is being used as a pretext to silence Americans and strip us of our rights. What's perhaps most telling is that we were on the verge of having a national discussion about massive voter fraud as both chambers of Congress were just about to get started. The media couldn't have covered it up yet right at that moment, that opportunity was thwarted because some individuals just happened to 'breach' the Capitol. Other related points for discussion included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The massive troop build-up in Washington and at state capitol buildings around the nation.</li> <li>• The war on terror. Has it turned inward to now target Americans in America?</li> <li>• Massive censorship of major and social media.</li> <li>• China's relationship with the Biden administration.</li> <li>• Biden and the Equality Act as well as a new federal law on domestic terrorism.</li> <li>• Bernie Sanders and his comprehensive reconciliation bill.</li> </ul> ...and much more including calls from listeners around the nation.
1/19	Row v Wade at 48 Years	Jim Schneider / Brad Mattes	January 22, 2021, marks the 48th anniversary of the infamous Roe vs Wade Supreme Court decision in which a majority of the court said it was 'legal' to take the life of an innocent human being in the womb. Now 48 years later the blood of over 62.5 million is on their hands. Something else ought to shock you. Did you know there have been more deaths by abortion in the first 19 days of 2021 worldwide than have died worldwide of coronavirus in all of 2020 and 2021 combined? As of 1:45pm Central Time on the day of this broadcast, the number of deaths from COVID, since it broke out a year ago, was 2,058,259 worldwide, but in just the first 19 days of 2021 there were 2,166,622 abortions. That's over 100,000 more abortions in 2021 alone compared to all the COVID deaths since the start of the pandemic. This week we are in a transition from one administration that has respect for life in the womb, to a new administration that favors the taking of life in the womb and forcing taxpayers to fund it. Joining Jim for discussion concerning numerous life related issues was Brad Mattes. Brad is the president of Life Issues Institute, the pro-life grass-roots partner of the Susan B. Anthony List Education Fund. Life Issues Institute was founded in 1991 to serve the educational needs of the pro-life movement. Brad is the host of Life Issues, a daily radio commentary and also producer of multiple pro-life specials including one they have recently released, We Will Be Their Voice: The New Pro-Life Generation. President Trump showed support for life from day one of his presidency and that continued until the end. Brad noted that one of his first acts was the Mexico City Policy now known as the Global Protect Life Rule. It protected about a half-billion in tax dollars from being used to promote or provide abortions overseas. Conversation then moved to one of Trump's last acts as president. This was his proclamation declaring January 22, 2021, as National Sanctity of Human Life Day. This is quite a change coming from a man who just a few years before running for president supported partial birth abortion. As the first president to address the March for Life and looking at his life record overall, one can see that he set the bar very high for any future pro-life president. As Brad declared, 'It just goes to show that you should never underestimate what God will do with a human heart in the ways that He will use him for His kingdom.' Much more was covered on this broadcast including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Brad's thoughts concerning the judicial appointments at the Supreme Court.</li> <li>• What might Joe Biden do in the early days of his administration to thwart</li> </ul>

			the pro-life cause? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Who are some of the Biden cabinet nominees and how might they affect abortion in America?</li> <li>• What's happening in the states concerning abortion?</li> </ul> Learn where we go from here, and what can be expected in the battle for life, when you review this edition of Crosstalk.
1/20	A Nation Transfers Power: from 45 to 46	Jim Schneider	Today with a heavy National Guard troop presence in D.C., the United States of America transferred power from Donald Trump, the 45th president, to Joe Biden, the 46th president. This edition of Crosstalk looked at the events of the day. Jim played the audio of President Trump's farewell address, his brief comments just before boarding Air Force One to head to Florida, the swearing in of Vice President Kamala Harris, President Joe Biden, and a brief excerpt from Biden's acceptance speech. Other items of interest noted by Jim: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Although House Speaker Nancy Pelosi did not want President Trump to involve the military concerning violence perpetrated by Black Lives Matter protests, she requested that National Guard troops be sent to D.C., even requesting crew manned machine guns, for inauguration security purposes.</li> <li>• House Speaker Nancy Pelosi accused religious Americans who cast votes for President Trump and basically selling America out over the issue of abortion.</li> <li>• Senator Mitch McConnell took to the Senate floor to blame President Trump for provoking an insurrection.</li> <li>• NARAL Pro-Choice America hopes there are big plans for reproductive freedom in 2021.</li> </ul> There's additional content as well which includes input from Crosstalk listeners nationwide.
1/21	A Nation Changes Course	Jim Schneider	Today's Crosstalk zones in on what has already been implemented to change the course of America during the Biden Administration's first 24 hours in office. Here is a walkthrough of several important points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• China posts a message confirming that Biden was its choice</li> <li>• Chris Wallace states that Biden's was the best inaugural address he has ever heard</li> <li>• Senator Chuck Schumer becomes the new Senate Majority Leader</li> <li>• A new video of a Trump supporter at the Capitol riot completely defies the Media's narrative</li> <li>• A law professor emphasizes that there is plenty of proof of election fraud, but it was dismissed in court on legal process grounds</li> <li>• Nancy Pelosi believes Trump could be an accessory to murder because he 'instigated the insurrection' at the Capitol</li> <li>• Hundreds of publisher employees are working to block Trump from writing his story</li> <li>• Biden plans to focus on domestic terror, possibly targeting Trump supporters</li> <li>• Antifa vandalizes democratic party office in Portland</li> <li>• Democrat Antifa/Left-Wing Provocateurs caught changing costumes to Trump attire to blend in and incite riots at Capitol protest</li> <li>• Biden changes U.S. Ambassador to Israel Twitter name to include West Bank and Gaza</li> <li>• Biden White House immediately updates contact page for transgender pronouns</li> <li>• The HRC applauds most LGBTQ-inclusive inaugural prayer service in U.S. history</li> <li>• Biden Administration will allow gay pride flag to fly over U.S. Embassies</li> <li>• Biden nukes 8,000 Union jobs before his first day is over</li> <li>• Biden caught on camera violating his own mask mandate on Federal land while addressing reporters</li> </ul>
1/22	News Roundup and Comment	Jim Schneider	There was plenty of news to share as our nation began a new chapter in its history with a new president and vice president. Below is a brief sample from the group of stories highlighted by Jim: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-On this day in 1973, the majority of the Supreme Court made the decision that it's constitutional to kill a baby in the womb. Since Roe v. Wade there have been 62,553,810 deaths by abortion in the U.S. as of the beginning of this broadcast. It's the number one cause of death.</li> <li>-Last Saturday, President Trump recognized Religious Freedom Day in a special proclamation and encouraged Americans to celebrate one of the nation's most cherished, fundamental values.</li> <li>-NARAL Pro-Choice America believes we have to re-imagine a world where access to abortion is a reality for everyone.</li> <li>-Joe Scheidler, leading advocate of the pro-life movement, has died.</li> <li>-The 'Value Them Both' Amendment gets passed in the Kansas House of Representatives.</li> <li>-The case called Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health Organization challenges the</li> </ul>

			state law prohibiting the direct killing of pre-born children after 15 weeks of pregnancy. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Dr. Anthony Fauci assures us that the U.S. will remain a member of the World Health Organization and will support the sexual and reproductive health of women and girls. To that end, President Biden will be revoking the Mexico City Policy.</li> <li>-Nancy Pelosi will be delivering articles of impeachment concerning President Trump to the Senate this Monday.</li> <li>-South Carolina-based lawyer Butch Bowers will be a lead attorney in President Trump's Senate impeachment trial over charges that he incited insurrection.</li> <li>-The Capitol riot on January 6th is said to have begun 30 minutes prior to the end of President Trump's speech.</li> <li>-People caught on video changing into Trump clothing in order to disguise themselves as being Trump supporters.</li> <li>-John Earle Sullivan insists he's not a member of Antifa or Black Lives Matter.</li> <li>-Mike Lindell, the founder and CEO of My Pillow, is under fire from major retailers Kohl's and Bed, Bath and Beyond who have recently dropped his products.</li> <li>-More than 22,000 people have signed a petition calling for Franklin Graham to be fired from Samaritan's Purse and the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association due to his support for President Trump.</li> <li>-Thousands of National Guardsmen stationed in D.C. congressional buildings were told to vacate the premises yesterday and to take rest breaks during their 12 hour shifts either outside or in nearby parking garages. 5,000 troops were allegedly forced to rest on the hard floors of a parking garage that lacked Internet reception, contained a single electrical outlet and lone rest room with just two stalls.</li> <li>-Hillary Clinton floated a new Trump/Russian collusion narrative in a recent podcast.</li> <li>-Many Georgia Democrats who backed Warnock and Ossoff in the Senate runoff earlier this month are already outraged over not receiving $2,000 checks as promised by Joe Biden.</li> <li>-The vice president of White Castle has indicated that raising the federal minimum wage from $7.25 per hour would force the closure of nearly half of his company's locations.</li> <li>-Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez thinks it's time to pour more money into efforts to de-radicalize and de-program the population.</li> <li>-A 'prayer service' for the Joe Biden administration featured a trans-activist, Catholic nuns and a reading from the Qur'an.</li> </ul>
1/25/21	Biden Administration Turns U.S. into Sanctuary Nation	Jim Schneider / Mark Krikorian	One of the first acts of new President Joe Biden was to suspend investigations, arrests and deportations of most criminal aliens for the next 100 days. In essence, this makes all of America a sanctuary nation, not only for criminal aliens, but for those here in defiance of our laws. In addition, the Biden administration has ordered the Census Bureau to include illegal aliens an apportionment. Also, are you aware that the border security director in President Biden's White House is coming from the United Nations? Joining Jim to look at these and other immigration issues was Mark Krikorian. Mark is a nationally recognized expert on immigration issues serving as the executive director of the Center for Immigration Studies. They are an independent, non-partisan research organization examining and critiquing the impact of immigration on the United States. He has testified numerous times before Congress and has published articles in many outlets. According to Mark, much has changed in the short time since Joe Biden took office. Biden said he would undo everything President Trump did on immigration. The most important thing is that until a new 'yardstick' can be arranged, he's prohibited almost all deportations for 100 days. However, even after the 100 day period, no illegal immigrants should be deported, unless that person is convicted of a violent crime. President Biden also lifted the travel ban on various countries (the so-called 'Muslim Ban'). The reason for this ban was because there was no way of knowing who these people actually were that were applying for visas. So until it was possible to do background checks, President Trump simply didn't want them here. In addition, President Biden introduced an amnesty bill that Mark believes is a radical departure even from what we saw a few years ago. At least that one promised to enforce the law in the future after an amnesty happens, something Biden's bill doesn't. Then there's the issue of the caravan that was coming from Honduras last week. Mark believes these movements are sparked by immigration rhetoric from the Biden administration. If they get to our border, set foot in the U.S., and say the 'magic words' concerning political asylum (which they've been coached to say by smugglers), the Biden administration has said they will not detain them or throw them out. They will be let go until the date for their asylum hearing comes up. In other words, they'll be let go and they'll be home free. What Mark described is how immigrants are interpreting the Biden administration's early moves. So while Biden may not want a border crisis to be headlining the early days of his administration, as Mark noted, '...he's invited it. You know, you make your bed, you sleep in it.' This broadcast has much more to offer on this issue, including the perspective of Crosstalk listeners nationwide.
1/26	Impeachment Article Delivered to Senate	Jim Schneider / Matt Staver	Yesterday House Democrats delivered an article of impeachment to the Senate against former President Donald Trump. Representative Jamie Raskin read on the Senate Floor the part of the 14th Amendment regarding those who could not hold office if they have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same or gave aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. The article of impeachment states, "President Trump gravely endangered the security of the United States and its institutions of government." House Democrats are seeking to bar former President Trump from ever holding office in the future.

			President Biden yesterday indicated that an impeachment trial of former President Trump “has to happen.” Many were shocked to learn that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court would not be presiding over the trial, but rather it will be the longest-serving Senate Democrat, Senator Patrick Leahy. Mat Staver joined Crosstalk to discuss this critical issue. President Biden’s competency was also briefly discussed in the beginning of the program.
1/27	Soapbox Speeches	Jim Schneider	Over the past several months, Crosstalk has spent extensive amounts of time bringing you information concerning the election and its aftermath, socialism, globalism, the advancement of Islam, COVOD-19, the Middle East, spiritual warfare, the LGBTQ agenda, critical race theory, abortion, Agenda 21, the Green New Deal, immigration, recent executive orders and much more. On occasion, Crosstalk takes a pause and allows you the opportunity to get up on your ‘soapbox’ and express comments related to various issues of concern. Since we’ve analyzed so many topics in recent months, we felt this was a good time to present one of those ‘soapbox’ programs. Jim opened the phone lines and the nation responded. Find out what was on everyone’s mind when you review this broadcast.
1/28	Swamp Refills with Deep State Globalists	Jim Schneider / William Jasper	When Donald Trump campaigned for the presidency, he often spoke about the need to ‘drain the swamp.’ He also spoke about the ‘deep state’, the need to put America and its interests first, national sovereignty and distancing America from the U.N. After being elected, he went to work on these things, pulling away from such efforts as the Paris Climate Accords, the World Health Organization and the push toward globalism. As he did this, there was constant push-back with virtually every agency and department taking action to slow or stop his efforts. Now with the change in the White House, the guest on this edition of Crosstalk believes that the ‘swamp’ is being refilled with ‘deep state’ globalists from the Council on Foreign Relations. Joining Jim to give his perspective on this issue was William F. Jasper. William is the senior editor at The New American Magazine. He’s an author, journalist and commentator as well as a top investigative reporter and documentary producer. For more than three decades he served as an accredited correspondent at the United Nations in New York and U.N. summits around the world. William began by presenting listeners with a brief history of the Council on Foreign Relations which began after WWI with President Woodrow Wilson. When the League of Nations charter failed to pass the Senate, The Council on Foreign Relations was formed. Eventually they began to build influence within the U.S. government and by the time you get to WWII, they had almost taken over the government. So now we have a situation where for the last eight or nine Republican and Democratic administrations, the cabinet and sub-cabinet posts have been overwhelmingly populated by members of the council. What is the place of the phrase ‘deep state’ in this effort? Are the members of the CFR limited to aspects of the U.S. federal government? Do they include individuals from both major political parties? Are there corporate members that are part of this effort? How about religious individuals? William answers these and numerous other questions as he names names, some of which may surprise listeners.
1/29	News Roundup and Comment	Jim Schneider	Here’s a sample from Jim’s stack of stories presented for listeners this week: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>–45 Republican senators voted in favor of a motion introduced by Senator Rand Paul to dismiss the impeachment article against former President Donald Trump as being unconstitutional.</li> <li>–There’s a furor growing over a claim by ‘squad’ member Representative Alexandria Ocasio Cortez that a Republican senator tried to have her killed.</li> <li>–House Speaker Nancy Pelosi announced that more resources will be devoted to Capitol building protection, especially toward the enemy within the House.</li> <li>–Pro-lifers criticized the New York Times for describing President Joe Biden as the most religiously observant president in 50 years, even though he supports killing unborn babies in abortions without restriction and wants to force taxpayers to fund such deaths.</li> <li>–Last Friday, President Joe Biden vowed to make Roe v. Wade the law of the land.</li> <li>–Yesterday President Biden signed an executive order forcing Americans to fund the international Planned Parenthood abortion business and sending taxpayer funds to promote its global abortion agenda.</li> <li>–Planned Parenthood celebrated after President Biden signed the previously mentioned executive order giving millions of American taxpayer dollars to abortion advocacy groups around the world.</li> <li>–The New Mexico Senate Committee is considering a pro-abortion bill that not only would keep abortions up to birth legal, but would also force doctors and nurses to do them.</li> <li>–The South Dakota governor is working to prevent the death of unborn children with Down syndrome.</li> <li>–Arizona’s Equal Opportunity to Life Act (House Bill 2650) would protect the unborn at all stages of development without exception, while also prosecuting abortion in the state as murder.</li> <li>–A Republican lawmaker in Florida has filed a bill that would allow the installation of newborn infant safety devices known as baby boxes at hospitals and fire stations in an effort to save newborns who might otherwise be abandoned in dumpsters or killed by their mothers.</li> <li>–The Kansas Senate voted this week to pass the Value Them Both Amendment.</li> <li>–The South Dakota House Committee advanced legislation on Tuesday to protect newborns who survive abortion from infanticide. It’s State House Bill 1051.</li> <li>–President Joe Biden benefited from a record breaking amount of donations from anonymous donors to outside groups backing him, which means the public will never have a full accounting of who helped him win the election.</li> </ul>

			–President Joe Biden signed an executive order on Monday allowing transgender Americans to serve in the military. –President Joe Biden’s performance concerning executive orders is running contrary to what he said in October. At that time he said that only a dictator can legislate by executive order and that we’re a democracy and need consensus. –President Biden says there’s nothing we can do to change the trajectory of the pandemic in the next several months. –President Biden’s press office to ban media that traffic in conspiracy theories. –According to the Washington Post, they’re going to call off their entire fact checking operation now that Joe Biden is in office. –Senate Democratic Leader Chuck Schumer suggested Monday that it might be a good idea for President Biden to call a climate emergency in the same way Trump did with the border in order to bypass legislative debate and use executive authority.
2/1	Biden Pursues Radical Climate Change Agenda	Jim Schneider/Tom DeWeese	Tom DeWeese is the president of American Policy Center. He’s one of the nation’s leading advocates of individual liberty, free enterprise, private property rights, personal privacy, back-to-basics education, American sovereignty and independence and protecting our Constitutionally-guaranteed rights. Tom is the author of Sustainable: The War on Free Enterprise, Private Property and Individuals and Erase a political novel. President Joe Biden declared that he would unify our nation. The problem is that he took numerous actions within hours of taking the helm that point in the opposite direction. Tom believes this is not about unifying the nation. The reason why they were so anti-Trump is because he recognized what these programs are about so he put a stop to them. Example: Take a look at the Green New Deal. It has 4 pillars. Pillar number one is an economic bill of rights. What does that have to do with the environment? Nothing. Why? It’s about subjugation and control. Need more proof? Tom noted information obtained from Reuters News Service talking about Transform USA 2021. It lays out the corporations taking part such as Ikea, Ben and Jerry’s, GM and Kraft, talking about ways to move away from free enterprise to top-down global control. From there the information came in rapid-fire fashion as Jim had Tom comment on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Remarks from President Biden on ‘Climate Day.’</li> <li>• Suspension of new oil and gas leases and permits.</li> <li>• Thousands of Keystone XL pipeline jobs eliminated.</li> <li>• Rejoining the Paris Climate Accord/Comments from John Kerry.</li> <li>• President Biden displays bust of Cesar Chavez.</li> <li>• President Biden recommits the U.S. to the World Health Organization</li> </ul> This is just a sample of what Jim and Tom laid out for consideration, and you can hear it all when you review this vital edition of Crosstalk.
2/2	Military Readiness Takes a Hit by New Administration	Jim Schneider / Elaine Donnelly	Yesterday’s Crosstalk looked at some of the executive actions put into place by President Biden, all designed to propel the U.S. toward the ‘Great Reset.’ This edition of Crosstalk took a look at Biden’s role as commander in chief, particularly as it pertains to re-instituting a social experiment that began under the Obama administration. Joining Jim to break down the specifics of this experiment was Elaine Donnelly. Elaine is the president of the Center for Military Readiness, an independent, non-partisan public policy organization that specializes in military/social issues. The Biden administration got off to a ‘rocky’ start with National Guard troops in the Capitol. When all was said and done and inauguration day was over, about 5,000 of those same troops were put into a cold parking garage. However, this brings up a question: Unless a person believes the conspiracy theory that there’s going to be some sort of uprising, why are troops still there? Then there was the insult by Democrat Steve Cohen of Tennessee who insinuated during an interview that most of the 25,000 soldiers there for the inauguration were mostly White males and probably Trump voters, so they might be in the class of individuals who may want to cause trouble. Are these kinds of activities and reactions signs of deeper problems ahead? That may be the case when you look at some of the executive orders already signed by the president. One order bans any sort of distinction based upon sexual orientation or how someone identifies as to gender within all branches of government. Another one focuses on the military and was designed to reinstate policies that were in place during the Obama administration. Accompanying that was another order reinstating instruction concerning Critical Race Theory in all branches of government, including the Department of Defense. Get the specifics and hear how callers responded when you review this broadcast.
2/3	Republic vs. Democracy and Other Forms of Government	Jim Schneider / William Federer	In protests around the nation, you’ve probably heard people chant, ‘This is what democracy looks like!’ In addition to that, members of Congress have talked about our ‘democracy.’ However, in our Pledge of Allegiance it says, ‘...and to the republic for which it stands...’. So what is the United States of America? Are we a democracy or are we a republic? Joining Jim to answer that question was William Federer. William is a nationally known speaker, historian, best-selling author, and president of Amerisearch, Inc, a publishing company dedicated to researching America’s noble heritage. He’s the speaker on The American Minute daily broadcast. He has authored numerous books including, America’s God and Country Encyclopedia of Quotations, The Original 13, Socialism: The Real History From Plato to the Present and Who is the King in

			America: An Overview of 6,000 years of History and Why America is Unique. Beginning with the word ‘democracy’ William noted that it has two meanings. One refers to an actual form of government where the people rule and the majority can decide to get rid of the ‘49 percent.’ America’s founding fathers called that a ‘mobocracy.’ The second definition of democracy became popular during the cold war. In his inaugural address, Harry Truman talked about democracy as he compared our nation to the Soviet Union. In other words, this cold war definition of democracy is simply popular government where the people have a voice. How does a democracy and a republic compare to other forms of government such as a monarchy, an oligarchy or a dictatorship? William answered that by first looking at the origins of where the terms ‘democracy’ and ‘republic’ came from. This requires starting at the beginning and looking at kings, the most common form of government in world history. William explained that in America we have a democratically elected constitutional republic. This means that our elected representatives can’t do whatever they want. These representatives have guidelines to follow such as the length of their terms, they can’t take away our right to keep and bear arms or our right to free speech, etc. In other words, they are limited by a constitution. If you enjoy world history and want to know how it helped shape the kind of government we have in America, you’ll want to review this unique edition of Crosstalk
2/4	Biden Advances Sharply LGBTQ+ Agenda	Jim Schneider / Peter LaBarbera	When you look at what’s transpired in just the past two weeks via executive orders and Biden’s nominees, it’s easy to see that his goals concerning the LGBTQ+ agenda are moving forward as promised. We say ‘as promised’ because you may recall that while campaigning, he called the transgender issue the civil rights issue of our time. In fact, the Washington Post has called President Biden the most pro-transgender president in history. The result? Girls sports are in jeopardy. Privacy in school restrooms and locker rooms as we once knew it will become a thing of the past, while students are being ordered to address their transgender peers with their preferred pronouns. Joining Jim with the latest news on this issue was Peter LaBarbera. Peter is the founder and president of Americans for Truth. Here are some highlights from the first quarter hour: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Peter was told to remove a ‘tweet’ about Dr. Rachel Levine, Biden’s nominee for a high post with Health and Human Services. Levine is a divorced man (formerly ‘Richard’) who transitioned to a supposed female identity.</li> <li>• Open homosexual and former mayor of South Bend, Indiana, Pete Buttigieg, has been confirmed as the next Secretary of Transportation.</li> <li>• Jim provided audio of Senator Rand Paul questioning Miguel Cardona, the nominee to be the next Secretary of Education. He questioned Cardona on biological males identifying as girls being eligible to compete on girls sports teams.</li> </ul> Peter had much more to say, and you can hear it all, including input from listeners, on this edition of Crosstalk
2/5	News Roundup & Comment	Jim Schneider	Below is a sample of what Jim had for listeners this week on the ‘Round-Up.’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>–President Biden encouraged Americans to respect their fellow human beings at the National Prayer Breakfast.</li> <li>–At a 2019 Planned Parenthood Action Forum, Joe Biden said, ‘...we are the saviors around the world...’ while pointing at himself.</li> <li>–Senate Democrats blocked a request by Republicans to vote on an amendment that would stop infanticide and provide medical care and treatment for babies born alive after a botched abortion.</li> <li>–In January, Hillary Clinton asserted that politicians need to continue the fight to protect abortion for our grand-kids.</li> <li>–Texas taxpayers once again are being forced to fund Planned Parenthood.</li> <li>–The South Carolina State Senate has passed a heartbeat bill to prohibit most abortions after the point that a fetal heartbeat can be detected.</li> <li>–Abby Johnson has a new project to help women seek legal action for post-abortion injuries.</li> <li>–The Honduran National Congress has strengthened pro-life laws by amending their constitution.</li> <li>–A change to abortion law in Poland will protect babies with disabilities.</li> <li>–Donald Trump was nominated again for a Nobel Peace Prize.</li> <li>–A voting technology company is suing Fox News, 3 of its hosts and 2 former lawyers.</li> <li>–The Arizona Senate has drafted a resolution threatening the arrest of Maricopa County Board of Supervisors for not handing over the requested election machines and ballots.</li> <li>–More than 700,000 Georgians, who voted in the November election, did not turn out for the Senate runoff election.</li> <li>–Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer says he’s reached a 2 year power sharing deal with Mitch McConnell.</li> <li>–Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot thinks Donald Trump is to blame for the Chicago public schools issue.</li> <li>–A writer for the New York Times did a survey of experts, one of whom said it’s time for the Biden administration to set up a truth commission on misinformation.</li> <li>–Months after receiving nearly a million dollars to study intellectual humility toward political opponents, a professor expressed glee at the deaths of his political opponents.</li> <li>–A federal judge in Washington slapped the hand of a former FBI lawyer who altered a key piece of evidence that enabled the Obama administration to obtain warrants to spy on the Trump campaign to advance its now debunked Russian collusion claim.</li> </ul>

			–President Biden canceled a Monday trip to the State Department. This was to be his first major foreign policy address. It was rescheduled due to inclement weather citing 2 inches of snow that fell in D.C. –President Biden has proclaimed a commitment to embed equity ideology throughout the government.
2/8	Christian Persecution: 2021 World Watch List	Jim Schneider / Dr. David Curry	According to a leading watchdog group, global levels of Christian persecution are at a record high. The number of Christians murdered on account of their faith rose 60% during the year 2020 with 91% of the violent killings for religious reasons occurring in Africa. Persecution is not isolated to just Africa, but is taking place in countries all over the world. Other forms of persecution are taking place daily with fellow brothers and sisters in Christ needing our prayers. Scripture tells us to remember those who are in bonds as being in bonds with them. The purpose of today’s program is to open our eyes to the extent of persecution taking place around the world. Dr. David Curry with Open Doors USA joined Crosstalk to discuss the 2021 World Watch List for persecuted Christians
2/9	2 nd Amendment Under Assault	Jim Schneider / Mark Walters	It should come as no surprise because the nation was told in advance that a Biden Administration would bring an attack against our Constitution’s 2nd Amendment, in which the Founders intended and the U.S. Supreme Court has affirmed that it is an individual right. The Biden Administration has a gun control agenda. The first assault came within 24 hours of the new Congress being sworn in and the issue is only intensifying. Meanwhile there is an intense surge in the number of firearm sales and background checks being conducted. Mark Walters from the Citizens Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms joined the program to discuss these gun-related issues. He recommends visiting JoeBiden.com/GunSafety to become informed about the Biden Administration’s plans for gun rights.
2/10	2 nd Impeachment Trial Underway	Jim Schneider / Rick Green	An impeachment trial is underway in the United States Senate for former President Donald Trump. The charge is incitement of insurrection. According to the accusation, the article states, “President Trump gravely endangered the security of the United States and its institutions of government.” It further says, “He threatened the integrity of the democratic system, interfered with the peaceful transition of power, and imperiled a coordinate branch of government. He thereby betrayed his trust as President, to the manifest injury of the people of the United States.” The rhetoric is amazing as impeachment managers from the House made outlandish accusations saying, “He summoned a mob to Washington, exhorted them into a frenzy, and aimed them like a loaded cannon down Pennsylvania Avenue.” Rick Green joined Crosstalk to address this trial, the goings on in the Senate, and the unconstitutional nature of what’s happening even to the point of the US Supreme Court refusing to take part in this
2/11/21	Executive Orders: How Did We Get to this Point?	Jim Schneider / William Federer	Newsweek reported that President Biden signed more executive orders in his first 12 days than did President Trump and President Obama combined. Conservative Daily News indicates that by February 1st, he signed an unprecedented 42 executive orders. These are orders to expand socialized medicine, provide taxpayer funding for foreign abortions, destroy American energy jobs, rejoin international agreements and organizations, further the promotion of mischaracterized U.S. History, call for transgender rights in school sports, alter immigration policy, and the list goes on. Running up to the election in a Townhall event with George Stephanopoulos on ABC, then Candidate Biden stated that we are a democracy. He further spoke about having a consensus and not using executive orders to advance items like dictators do. Did you know there has been a rapid evolution in the use of executive orders? What was the original purpose of executive orders? How did we get to this point? William Federer, a best-selling author and president of Amerisearch, Inc., joined Crosstalk to answer these questions in detail.
2/12	News Roundup & Comment	Jim Schneider	As usual, there is no shortage of news stories worth mentioning during the News Roundup. Here is a selection of headlines from the program: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● House Democrats conclude Trump impeachment case and warn of potential violence if Republicans refuse to convict</li> <li>● Georgia prosecutors open criminal investigation of Donald Trump</li> <li>● Georgia election board refers 35 voter fraud cases for prosecution, including one from Georgia’s new Democrat senator</li> <li>● Biden is purging the DOJ: Trump-appointed U.S. Attorneys must resign by the end of the month</li> <li>● New bill allows state to ignore Joe Biden’s executive orders</li> <li>● Cancelling Keystone will boost carbon emissions equal to nearly 500k more cars on the road</li> <li>● Biden declares that the national emergency at the border is over and ends funding of the wall</li> <li>● Senator Ron Johnson is quoted saying “obviously leaders in Congress think walls and barriers work because they surrounded the Capitol with them”</li> <li>● Cuomo aide Melissa DeRosa admits they hid nursing home data so feds wouldn’t find out</li> <li>● Organizers reportedly hit number of signatures required to force recall vote for Gavin Newsom</li> </ul>

2/15	Taking an Honest Look at Marijuana	Jim Schneider / Dr. James Avery	The topic on the use of marijuana continues as a major debate item. A number of states have already or are seeking the approval of the medicinal use of marijuana. Others are advancing its recreational use while others are pushing for decriminalization. What exactly is marijuana, what is its physical impact and does the Bible condone its usage? Appearing on Crosstalk to discuss this issue was Dr. James Avery. Dr. Avery is the National Medical Director For Diversicare Healthcare, and a Visiting Assistant Professor of Medicine at the University of Virginia's School of Medicine. He's a Fellow in the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine. He was named 'One of the 50 Most Influential Physician Executives' by Modern Physician magazine and was also nominated as 'One of the 100 Most Influential People in Healthcare' by Modern Healthcare Magazine. He's the author of Marijuana: An Honest Look at the World's Most Misunderstood Weed. You can't get into the specifics on this issue without first defining certain terms. Those would include hemp, cannabis and marijuana. When people use the term, marijuana, they can be referring either to the plant or to one of its chemicals, THC or to CBD. Hemp has a very defined definition. It's a plant that has to have less than 0.5% THC content. Cannabis is the scientific name for the entire genus. So if someone mentions cannabis, they could be referring to hemp or marijuana. With that basis established, Dr. Avery went on to discuss THC (Tetrahydrocannabinol), the chemical for which marijuana is grown. THC is one of the cannabinoids (chemicals) within the marijuana plant. It's one of the most common cannabinoids along with CBD. As this program moved along, Jim had Dr. Avery answer the following questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How can THC be taken into the body and what is the impact on the body, the blood and the brain?</li> <li>• How does marijuana affect those under age 18.</li> <li>• What exactly is CBD, its connection to THC, and just how safe is it?</li> <li>• Is marijuana legitimate medicine?</li> <li>• Does the obtainable tax revenue from marijuana justify the social costs?</li> </ul> These and other questions were answered as this broadcast looked at this important subject. Crosstalk listeners from around the nation added their input as well.
2/16	Twice Impeached... Twice Acquitted	Jim Schneider / Matt Staver	Since last week's impeachment trial of President Trump and the acquittal this past weekend, much of the media has been quick to describe the former president by using the impeachment label while failing to mention his acquittal. Joining Jim to review these two recent activities and the aftermath was Mat Staver. Mat is a constitutional attorney, founder and chairman of Liberty Counsel. Mat has argued before all levels of court including landmark cases before the U.S. Supreme Court. He's an author and is the speaker on the radio programs, Faith &amp; Freedom and Freedom's Call. On Saturday, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi issued a statement applauding the job that was accomplished by the House impeachment managers in President Trump's second impeachment trial. She accused the president of inciting a violent mob to attack the Capitol and then claimed he refused to intervene to stop it. Mat explained that Pelosi's remarks ignore a number of facts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The speech was given away from the Capitol.</li> <li>• The incursion into the Capitol was planned long before the speech, going all the way back to December, and no one has been able to link him to any such planning, discussions or conspiracies to do so.</li> <li>• The intrusion into the Capitol began while the president's speech was still ongoing, so those at the Capitol wouldn't have been able to hear what he was saying.</li> <li>• The president's speech referred to being peaceful with nothing that would indicate the inciting of violence. In fact, his speech is the opposite of what one hears when you listen to the language of Democrats from last year when they were literally encouraging violence. One particular example was when Chuck Schumer threatened two Supreme Court justices.</li> </ul> Some questions to consider include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Is it constitutional to impeach a president who is out of office?</li> <li>-Why was protection offered prior to January 6th by the FBI, the DOJ and the president refused when intelligence sources were indicating that extremists (pretending to be Trump supporters) would be at the event to incite riots?</li> </ul> Get the answers, and hear what listeners had to say, when you review this edition of

2/17	Devout Catholic vs Devout Christian	Jim Schneider / Mike Gendron	Over the past several weeks there's been discussion concerning President Joe Biden's Catholic faith. He's been portrayed as a 'devout' Catholic, yet just days ago, the Archbishop of Kansas City, Kansas, said that Biden should stop defining himself as a devout Catholic because of his push for pro-abortion policies. On the other hand, on inauguration day, Pope Francis extended cordial good wishes to Biden with no word concerning his position on abortion. To help listeners sort out the debate concerning the issue of being devout, Crosstalk welcomed back Mike Gendron. Mike is the founder and director of Proclaiming the Gospel Ministry. Mike was a devout Roman Catholic for over 3 decades and was taught to rely upon the authority of the church above all else. Mike searched the Scriptures and was amazed to find that what he read in Scripture contradicted the teaching and tradition of the church he had been a part of for so long. He trusted Jesus as his Savior and now the Bible has become his sole authority in all matters of faith. Mike is the author of the books, Preparing for Eternity and Contending for the Gospel and has produced numerous videos with warnings concerning false teachings vs. the truth of the Scriptures. This program began by laying a foundation through defining of the word, 'devout.' Mike believes being a devout Catholic means different things for different people. As a former devout Catholic, for him it meant being a strong defender of what he felt at the time was the one, true church. He attended Mass every day during Lent, practiced the sacraments, supported the church financially and did what he could to obey the laws of the church. He went on to note that a Catholic is baptized into the religion and then is immediately indoctrinated into different teachings of the church. In Mike's case, the one that impressed him the most was the belief that the Catholic church was the one true church founded by Christ. The problem was that he was trusting in his religion to get him to heaven and not God. He believes this is the big difference between a devout Catholic and a devout Christian. Later Mike phrased the issue this way: 'So you can see on one hand the devout Catholic is dedicated to his religion, whereas the devout Christian is dedicated to serving and glorifying the Lord Jesus Christ. As the program continued, Mike addressed the following and more including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The definition of a Christian.</li> <li>• Can a person be a devout Catholic and a devout Christian at the same time?</li> <li>• Can a person be a devout Catholic and promote abortion?</li> </ul> What do high ranking Catholics say about President Biden's so-called 'devout' Catholicism?
2/18	Together Through the Storms	Jim Schneider / Jeff and Sarah Walton	This broadcast addressed an issue that's not regularly discussed here but is still very important for the life of the home, the family and the church. It concerns marriages and the storms that impact those relationships. To discuss this issue from the perspective of their marriage, Jim welcomed Jeff and Sarah Walton, co-authors of the book, Together Through the Storms: Biblical Encouragements for Your Marriage When Life Hurts. At the time when we're saying our wedding vows, we prefer to think about a future of richness and health as opposed to the times where we might be poorer or going through times of sickness. In reality, all marriages pass through storms. Sometimes they blow in from the outside and sometimes they blow up from inside. Beginning with the health and behavioral challenges of their first child, Jeff and Sarah also reflected on other experiences in their marriage that included facing Sarah's own chronic illness issues, the after-effects of abuse and financial difficulties, and through their story, they explained how to cling to Jesus and to each other. Obtain encouragement and bring strength to your marriage when you review this edition of Crosstalk.
2/19/21	News Roundup & Comment	Jim Schneider	This edition of the 'Round-Up' was highlighted by news concerning 2 important bills: The Equality Act and the Minor Consent for Vaccinations Act of 2020: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Jim began with a report from Pastor Tony Evans concerning the aftermath of the Texas storm and how it's impacted their ministry as they were trying to help others.</li> <li>-The U.S. House of Representatives is set to vote next week on the radical, pro-LGBT Equality Act. It would amend the 1964 Civil Rights Act to include sex, sexual orientation and gender identity as expressly recognized non-discrimination categories. Mat Staver of Liberty Counsel will break down this act on Monday's Crosstalk.</li> <li>-The Southern Poverty Law Center is joining a coalition and calling on Congress to pass the so-called Equality Act.</li> <li>-Page 25 of the Equality Act communicates that there will be no exemptions/protections for Christian schools, churches, ministries, homeless shelters, etc. from this act. This includes the Religious Freedom Restoration Act of 1993.</li> <li>-The Washington, D.C., Minor Consent for Vaccinations Act of 2020 (D.C. Bill 23-171) is now in Congress. It's a D.C. law that would allow for children as young as age 11 to give legally binding consent to receive a vaccine and would prohibit the provider of that vaccine from recording the vaccine in the child's medical record. It would require the provider to send the record only to the child's school and would prohibit the school from recording the vaccination on any record that the parents might see. It also prohibits the insurance carrier from sending an explanation of benefits form that lists the vaccination.</li> <li>-A new book, Black Lives Matter at School, lays out how the entire system of K-12 education in America could be transformed to carry out the agenda of the Black Lives Matter movement.</li> <li>-A Michigan realtor is fired for publicly stating that All Lives Matter.</li> <li>-Madison, Wisconsin, is attempting to ban white people from police oversight boards.</li> </ul>

2/22/21	“Equality” Act Introduced	Jim Schneider / Matt Staver	Late last Thursday afternoon we received word that the so-called ‘Equality Act’ was formally introduced. In the House it is H.R. 5. The Senate Bill, though drafted, is waiting for a bill number. Some have called this ‘The Criminalization of Christianity Act’ for the impact it would have upon churches and Christian ministries across the country. As Joe Biden ran for President he promised this as a top legislative agenda point to be passed in his first 100 days. It is moving like greased lightning in the House of Representatives. Joining Jim to look at this critical issue was constitutional attorney Mat Staver. Mat is the founder and chairman of Liberty Counsel. Before weighing in on the main topic, Jim had Mat comment on a number of other issues including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Today the U.S. Supreme Court decided it won’t be resolving disputes arising from the 2020 elections where state officials violated their own state laws. 3 justices, including Thomas, Gorsuch and Alito, have warned that failing to bring a conclusion to this issue could result in catastrophic consequences. Justice Thomas said that for the high court to refuse to address this is a concern in itself.</li> <li>• Today was the beginning of confirmation hearings for Merrick Garland who was nominated by President Biden to be the U.S. Attorney General.</li> <li>• Tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at 10am Eastern Time, the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions will meet in a hearing in consideration of Xavier Beccera to be the next Secretary of Health and Human Services.</li> </ul> Back on February 18th, H.R. 5, the so-called ‘Equality Act’ was introduced. It was immediately sent to five separate committees for hearings. On Friday morning, President Biden ‘tweeted’ the following: ‘The Equality Act provides long overdue federal civil rights protections for LGBTQ+ Americans, preventing discrimination in our housing, education, public services and lending systems. I urge Congress to swiftly pass this historic legislation.’ According to Mat, this is the most radical bill to ever come out of Congress and if passed, it will affect the following: Employers, online retailers and service providers, religious and non-profit organizations, contractors, houses of worship, churches, schools (public, private and religious), colleges, universities, sports, hiring, curriculum, restroom usage, daycare providers, shelters, hospitals, adoption and foster care, and even places of gathering with no numerical limit as to what that would be. As this broadcast progressed, Jim had Mat look at a number of other factors related to this issue, especially as it pertains to churches and religious freedom: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How does the Religious Freedom Restoration Act affect this?</li> <li>• What is the standard that determines a cause of action so that this legislation doesn’t become a haven for harassing lawsuits?</li> <li>• Is conversion therapy affected by this legislation?</li> </ul> There’s much more to this issue and you can hear it all when you review this critical program.
2/23	Texas Power, Green New Deal, Paris Climate Accord and Agenda 2030	Jim Schneider / Tom DeWeese	Many of you are aware of the major winter storm that knocked out power to millions in Texas. While some say that global warming experts were too busy predicting warmer winters for Texas to see the snow, others like Senator Chuck Schumer are blaming the power outage on the state’s failure to address climate change. While some say the Green New Deal needs to be more actively pursued, the governor of Texas is warning that this is what the entire country will go through if we accept the Green New Deal. Tom DeWeese is the president of American Policy Center. He’s one of the nation’s leading advocates of individual liberty, free enterprise, private property rights, personal privacy, back-to-basics education and American sovereignty and independence, and protecting our Constitutionally-guaranteed rights. Tom is author of Sustainable: The War on Free Enterprise, Private Property and Individuals and Erase, a political novel. Chuck Schumer communicated that Texas thought they could ‘go it alone’ while building a system that ignored climate change. Tom called that ‘incredible spin’ because Texas has put a large amount of their energy on the grid through solar and wind power which is what the Green New Deal calls for. It’s been proven time and again that these two power sources do not provide enough energy to rely completely upon them alone. With wind turbines frozen and solar panels covered in snow, they couldn’t provide the needed energy. President Biden has the U.S. back in the Paris Climate Accord. Jim provided audio of climate czar John Kerry as he addressed the Munich Security Conference and told them that largely because of President Trump, 3 of the 12 years that scientists said the earth had left to mitigate this problem, were wasted. According to Tom, Kerry’s comments basically amounted to using the tactic of fear via climate change for increasing government control. Tom then had listeners consider the Green New Deal that’s the driving force behind what’s called, Agenda 2030. He noted that this deal has 4 pillars. The

			first pillar is its economic bill of rights that guarantees full employment, guaranteeing a living wage, medical care for all, tuition free education, and affordable housing. Tom then told the audience, ‘What does any of that have to do with protecting the environment? Nothing. It is an economic control from the top and the word we used to use was, communism.’ Other aspects of this topic that were examined included: HR-1, the Keystone XL pipeline, Bill Gates, and Article V, along with comments from callers around the nation.
2/24	Open Forum on Islam	Jim Schneider / Usama Dakdok	Usama Dakdok is the founder of the Straight Way of Grace Ministry. He’s the speaker on the daily radio broadcast, Revealing the Truth About Islam. He speaks fluent Arabic and has translated the Qur’an into English. He’s the author of Exposing the Truth About the Qur’an and Exposing the Truth About Jihad. The format of this program consisted of an open forum discussion on the topic of Islam and featured various questions from listeners including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Is the wearing of the hijab by women a suggestion or a command by Islam?</li> <li>• Why do so many liberals and progressives defend Islam when these two worldviews are antithetical to one another in so many ways?</li> <li>• What is the relationship between Islam and Roman Catholicism?</li> <li>• Can the term, ‘Allah’ be used to identify the God of the Bible?</li> <li>• How can Christians greet Muslims in a way that is significant?</li> <li>• Islamic believers claim that Christians corrupted the New Testament. What’s their evidence for that?</li> </ul> Usama provided answers to others as well utilizing Islam’s very own teachings and writings. Hear them all when you review this edition of Crosstalk
2/25	Purim, Iran Nuclear Deal & Other Middle East News	Jim Schneider / Dr. Jimmy DeYoung	Jimmy Dr. DeYoung is a student of Bible prophecy and expert on the Middle East. He leads a ministry, Prophecy Today, and has spent many years living in Israel as well as having led many trips there. He’s a noted conference speaker and constantly monitors news regarding Israel and the Middle East, providing a unique blend of political, biblical and prophetic insight that is absent from the media today. Jim had Dr. DeYoung comment on several issues related to Israel and those nations in opposition to them. They included: The Biden administration has plunged us back into the Iran nuclear deal. Dr. DeYoung credits this deal to the ‘Obiden’ administration. Now that the U.S. is back in the deal, could Israel feel at some point that they may need to act alone in dealing with Iran? Dr. DeYoung described how things are shaping up in the Middle East to help answer that question. A Palestinian scholar, Mraweh Nassar, the secretary general of the Jerusalem committee of the International Union of Muslim Scholars, has said that the Jews are the most dangerous enemies of the Muslims and indicated that if Muslims want to live in peace and security, they must get rid of the Jews. Then once the world is cleansed of Jews, there will be prosperity. Jim asked Dr. DeYoung if he feels this individual sounds like a modern day version of Haman from the book of Esther. Then there’s the BDS (boycott, divest and sanction) movement that continues to take aim at Israel. Dr. DeYoung noted that college campuses are the fertilization area where much of this takes place. This hatred of the Jews is nothing new. Jim asked listeners to consider these things as Israel remembers and celebrates Purim, one of their holy days, beginning tonight at sunset
2/26/20	News Roundup & Comment	Jim Schneider	Here’s a sample of what was making news this week as presented by Jim. Comments from listeners followed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>–The House of Representatives passed the so-called ‘Equality Act’ yesterday by a vote of 224-206. This act would write transgenderism into our civil rights laws.</li> <li>–Jim played audio from Texas Congressman Chip Roy, who criticized the so-called ‘Equality Act,’ accusing the Democrats of trampling upon the religious freedom of people in the name of equality.</li> <li>–Toy maker Hasbro to drop ‘Mr.’ and ‘Mrs.’ from the classic Potato Head toy series.</li> <li>–A bill has just been introduced in California that will require gender neutral stores and will fine retailers for having separate boy and girl toy departments.</li> <li>–A Gallop Poll from 2020 found in the age group Generation ‘Z’ (ages 18-23) that now almost 16% said that they’re in a category that is not heterosexual.</li> <li>–In the U.K., an LGBT activist has called for Christians to be banned from praying for someone with unwanted same-sex attractions.</li> <li>–The nomination hearing took place this week for transgender Dr. Rachel (born Richard) Levine, President Biden’s pick for Assistant Secretary of Health and Human Services. 3/1	Immigration: The Biden Effect	Jim Schneider / Mark Krikorian	With the inauguration of President Joe Biden, a very leftist agenda was put into place. This has had ramifications concerning immigration and particularly what's taking place at our nation's southern border. Joining Jim to examine this issue, and what's at stake for the future, was Mark Krikorian. Mark is a nationally recognized expert on immigration issues serving as the Executive Director of the Center for Immigration Studies. They are an independent, non-partisan research organization examining and critiquing the impact of immigration on the United States. He's testified numerous times before Congress and has published articles in many outlets. Mark recently wrote a column about proposed legislation from the Biden administration that was formally introduced in the House and Senate last week. It would legalize virtually all illegal aliens, increase legal immigration, and weaken immigration enforcement. What could the agenda possibly be behind such legislation? Mark indicated it began with a press call with legacy media reporters. He described how a New York Times reporter asked one of the congressional staff members what this would do to legal immigration. In other words, what would the numbers be. The answer of the people who supposedly sponsored this bill was that they didn't know. Mark believes they never figured out what the increase would be because they see the legal immigration issue as '...a way of giving things out to different special interest groups. So what it adds up to just doesn't interest them.' One interest group concerned about one issue gets its visas and another group concerned about something else gets their visas. What this legislation basically does is give the Biden administration great leeway concerning who gets to stay and who doesn't. Behind this is the principle of many on the left who don't believe you should be made to leave the country if you don't want to. As this program progressed, Jim had Mark comment on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unaccompanied minors crossing the border.</li> <li>• Detention centers were closing down under Trump now reopening under Biden.</li> <li>• The Democrat mayor of Del Rio, Texas, is begging President Biden to stop the flow of illegal immigrants (family groups) into his community.</li> <li>• Changes to the citizenship test.</li> <li>• Merrick Garland and Xavier Becerra and what they bring to the immigration debate.</li> </ul> There's more to learn, including hearing what listeners had to say, on this packed edition of Crosstalk.
3/2	Basic Bible Prophecy	Jim Schneider	Have you ever shied away from studying Bible prophecy because you thought it was too controversial? Too many conflicting views? Just too hard to understand? One of the things we appreciate about the guest for this broadcast is that he's able to take difficult concepts and make them easier to understand. He's done that through many books dealing with the topic of apologetics and he's also done it in the area of Bible prophecy, such as we see in his recently released, Basic Bible Prophecy: Essential Facts Every Christian Should Know. He explores the who, what, when, where and why of Bible prophecy. The guest we're referring to is Dr. Ron Rhodes. Dr. Rhodes is president of Reasoning from the Scriptures Ministries. He's a researcher, author and apologist, having written over 60 books including titles such as: End Times Super Trends, 40 Days Through Revelation, Unmasking the Antichrist, Israel on High Alert, Spiritual Warfare in the End Times, New Babylon Rising, The End Times in Chronological Order and numerous others. Dr. Rhodes explained very interesting aspects related to Bible prophecy you may never have heard of before. For example, he noted that it proves that the God of the Bible is the true God, it promotes evangelism, comforts us in our grief, strengthens us when facing adversity, proves that God will triumph over evil, and can also bring special blessings to people. You may wonder how that can be true when numerous alleged prophecy experts have been wrong on their prophecies. Dr. Rhodes admitted such false prophecies are an embarrassment. To the point, he noted that the track record of such individuals is 100% wrong. In other words, you shouldn't set dates nor should you listen to those who do. When people follow others who set dates, you can have individuals who stop saving for the future/retirement, students of college age might decide not to attend school, while others might spend all of their savings on a special shelter/armaments. All of this can happen because of someone who set a date for the rapture or the return of Christ. Still others may lose their faith completely, thinking God let them down, when the prophesied event doesn't take place! This book is strategically designed to help the reader see the big picture of Bible prophecy and retain what has been read by containing just enough detail to make the subject understandable. Need more information? Review this Crosstalk and learn the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why Bible prophecy should be viewed literally.</li> <li>• Who are some of the 'good guys' and the 'bad guys' of Bible prophecy?</li> <li>• Is the anti-Christ alive today?</li> </ul> Is the COVID pandemic setting the stage for what's to come

3/3	American Heritage Girls	Jim Schneider / Patti Garibay	We've reached a time when it's no longer politically correct to talk about girls and boys, their differences, the biblical model, and God's ideal for each. The result is that today the debate is whether we should have a 'Mr.' Potato Head or not, whether we can have boys that choose to identify as girls, have them participate on girls sports teams and utilize the same restrooms/locker rooms/showers, and vice versa. Now some stores are under fire just for having separate clothing and toy departments for girls and boys. Joining Jim to talk about an organization that is playing a counter-cultural role in the midst of all this was Patti Garibay. Patti is the founder and executive director of American Heritage Girls, a faith-based, national, Christ-centered, scout-type leadership and character development program for girls ages 5-18. She's the author of Why Curse the Darkness When You Can Light a Candle? and is also a speaker on the daily radio commentary, Raising Godly Girls. Patti actively served for 12 years in Girl Scouts USA. What caused her to leave? According to Patti, they changed. They decided in 1993 that they would change their oath so that it would no longer mandate an oath to God. This was a critical change for Patti because as a Christian woman, she used scouting as a ministry. She began to do some investigating and discovered that Girl Scouts was not the type of organization her mother brought her into nor the one Patti brought her own daughters into. She tried to make some changes but the effort was to no avail and that's when she felt the Lord was telling her to start something new. American Heritage Girls was founded in 1995. On their website they have a diagram with several prongs, (like petals on a flower) such as faith, leadership, citizenship, social/emotional, life skills, and outdoors, with Christ at the center. The reason for this is because Patti believes that in order for girls to really flourish in the world and the kingdom, they need to know what being Christ-like is for them, and without Christ at the center, American Heritage Girls is no different than a secular organization. This means Christ is infused in whatever they do including badge acquisition, outdoor skills, learning about leadership, to being socially and emotionally stable, how to dig deeper into faith, and understand how important their relationship with Christ is throughout the week, not just on Sunday. If you're interested in an effort that helps build women of integrity, learn more by listening to this broadcast and checking out the website at the link below.
3/4	Deep State Globalism	Jim Schneider/ Alex Newman	Over several years we've witnessed the workings of what's known as the Deep State. This is a shadow government that is said to manipulate and shape the policies of our visible government without regard to the best interests of the laws or the Constitution of our nation. How long has this effort been in place? Is it at work only in the United States? Alex Newman provided answers to these and other questions. Alex is an award-winning international freelance journalist, author, researcher, educator and consultant. He's a foreign correspondent and regular contributor for The New American and contributes columns to other publications as well. Alex has authored or co-authored several books such as Crimes of the Educators and Deep State: The Invisible Government Behind the Scenes and The Deep State: Pulling Strings from Behind the Scenes. Alex informed listeners that depending upon how you define the term, Deep State, you can actually trace these kind of anti-Christ schemes all the way back to the beginning of America. He described how conspirators were infiltrating Masonic lodges in Europe at the time of George Washington and were responsible for the French Revolution. From there he moved on to mention 'above ground' organizations such as the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission, and the Bilderberg Group, as well as secretive organizations including the Skull and Bones Society and the Bohemian Grove. As this Crosstalk moved along, Alex brought listeners more including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why did the Deep State hate Donald Trump?</li> <li>• Is the Deep State no longer needed now that Biden and Harris are in office?</li> <li>• What concrete examples prove that the existence of the Deep State is worldwide?</li> <li>• What future plans does Alex believe the Deep State has for the United States?</li> </ul> What is the possible 'next step' we'll see from the Deep State?
3/5	News Roundup & Comment	Jim Schneider	Here's a sample of stories from Jim's news lineup this week: -Like the House, the Senate is holding no committee hearings on the so-called 'Equality Act.' This means it's going right to the Senate floor. You can let your feelings be known by contacting your senators at 202-224-3121 or go to senate.gov. -Republican Congressman Gregory Steube of Florida, boldly gave a defense of male and female from the biblical perspective and also warned of the consequences on the House floor. When he was finished, Congressman Jerry Nadler said the following: 'What any religious tradition ascribes as God's will is no concern of this Congress.' -This week word came out from Bethany Christian Services of Grand Rapids, Michigan, the nation's largest Protestant adoption and foster care agency, that they will begin serving LGBTQ couples. -A California judge is allowing a 'thruple' (3 homosexual men) to be listed as the legal parents of two children. -In Kennesaw, Georgia, a Baptist Church has been booted out of the Southern Baptist Convention for affirming homosexuality. -A disturbing online video (called the 'GayBC's') has a young child learning what each letter of the alphabet through homosexual terms.

3/8	Hope For This Present Crisis	Jim Schneider / Dr. Michael Youssef	If you feel you’re living in the most turbulent period of your lifetime, you’re not alone. Today, forces are at work to strip the principles and precepts of the Christian faith from public venues and minimize their significance. But even though these times seem frightening, there is hope. Troubled times give us an opportunity to know Christ more fully and to make Him known to people around us. That’s an excerpt from the book, Hope for This Present Crisis: The Seven Step Path to Restoring a World Gone Mad by Dr. Michael Youssef. Dr. Youssef is the founder and president of Leading the Way and founding pastor of The Church of the Apostles based in Atlanta. He’s authored numerous books including the one discussed today on this edition of Crosstalk. COVID-19, the economic shutdown, civil unrest, riots, fires, looting, destruction of the signs of our nation’s heritage...all these and more are frightening enough, but according to Dr. Youssef, there’s a greater crisis confronting our nation. According to Dr. Youssef, the factors just mentioned are only symptoms signaling a crisis of truth. He believes that once truth has been undermined, there’s no longer a basis for humanity to operate in relationships. That’s the foundational breakdown he sees today. At the same time he sees the decline of the Christian church as well. He puts the full blame on pastors in the pulpits because that’s where he believes the undermining of the truth began. Instead of pastors being a guide for a lost culture, they are now following the culture. Such friendship with the world establishes enmity with God. He described it this way, ‘...because as goes the pulpit, so goes the pew, and as goes the pew, so goes the culture.’ Dr. Youssef believes it’s time to get back to the truth. Once it begins to be established, there will be an awakening. This is the hope he describes in the 7-steps portion of his book, which you can obtain via the information listed below.
3/9	HR-1: A Threat to Election Integrity	Jim Schneider / Bob Adelman	A number of states have refused to clean up their voter roles to eliminate those who are deceased, or moved away. Then there’s ballot harvesting, those who’ve thwarted identification requirements, election workers filling in missing information on absentee ballots that would otherwise have necessitated the spoiling of the ballots along with the receiving of ballots days after the election. Now there’s an attempt to place into federal law the practices that many found to be abusive and that leads to fraud. Known as HR-1 (‘For the People Act’) this legislation was introduced January 4th, 2021. Joining Jim to discuss this issue was Bob Adelman. Bob is a former investment advisor and now is a regular contributor to The New American writing primarily on economics and politics. HR-1 is a massive 791 page document that had 222 co-sponsors, each one a Democrat. When the vote occurred last Wednesday, all Republicans in attendance opposed it. With its passage in the House of Representatives, the next step is the U.S. Senate. When did this start? Bob named some historic presidents and key years in American history, but in the end he prefers to go back to the Garden of Eden. So with his 50 years of experience in the fight for freedom, he believes it starts with the father of lies, the great deceiver. He’s the one propelling this effort. As the program progressed, Bob commented concerning specifics of the legislation such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The banning of voter ID and making it a crime for a state election official to reject someone’s registration to vote.</li> <li>● Forces states to adopt universal mail-in balloting.</li> <li>● Allows former felons to vote before completing their sentences.</li> <li>● Allows those 16 and 17 years old to register.</li> <li>● It threatens anyone, such as a local election official or poll watcher, who might undertake any questioning of any voter or attempts to establish his/her eligibility to vote. Maximum penalty? 5 years in prison.</li> </ul> Bob summarized HR-1 this way: ‘It’s the primary tool by which the Democrats hope to cement forever, control of the election process in the United States, in their favor.’ This is just some of the information from the first quarter hour of the broadcast. Hear

3/10	Vaccination Issues	Jim Schneider / Barbara Loe Fisher	Many people are wondering whether they should get a COVID-19 vaccine or not. While this program provided no personalized medical advice in that regard, there are some things worth considering. Joining Jim to take a closer look at the latest news concerning vaccines and vaccine legislation Barbara Loe Fisher. Barbara is president of the National Vaccine Information Center (NVIC), a non-profit charity she co-founded with parents of DPT vaccine injured children in 1982. For nearly four decades she has led a national, grassroots movement and public information campaign to institute vaccine safety reforms and informed consent protections in the public health system. She has researched, analyzed and publicly articulated the major issues involving the science, policy, law, ethics and politics of vaccination to become one of the world's leading non-medical, consumer advocacy experts on the subject. She is co-author of DPT: A Shot in the Dark and author of The Consumer's Guide to Childhood Vaccines, as well as Vaccines, Autism and Chronic Inflammation: The New Epidemic, and Reforming Vaccine Policy and Law: A Guide. Discussion began with what's taking place in Washington, D.C. Through their city council, they passed The Minor Consent for Vaccinations Act of 2020 (DC 23-171). This legislation basically says that any child as young as 11 can consent to vaccination after being convinced by a physician to get one or more vaccines. This can be done without the knowledge or consent of the child's parents. It actually prohibits telling the parents the type of vaccines the child received. This obviously doesn't give parents the opportunity to monitor the child after the fact for symptoms of a serious or fatal vaccine reaction. In essence, it doesn't allow parents to be the proper guardians of their children. Barbara noted that if it passes, it's actually in violation of federal law that was passed in 1986, so she doesn't understand why anyone would pass dangerous legislation that puts a child in physical danger. The fate of this bill is in the hands of the U.S. Congress. There are two resolutions: House Joint Resolution 25 (HJR-25) and Senate Joint Resolution 7 (SJR-7). It will take affect on March 23 unless Congress passes the veto resolution. You can read all about the bill by going to the NVIC advocacy portal at the link below. Why is this important for you? As Barbara noted, if this becomes law, it will be a model for other states to adopt. This is just the highlight of the first quarter hour of an information-packed program that also included the latest COVID-19 vaccine news, as well as the views of Crosstalk listeners.
3/11	2 nd Amendment Attack Advances	Jim Schneider / Michael Hammond	As promised, during the run-up to the 2020 elections, it was warned that gun control was going to be in the sights of a Biden administration. They had their sights on the 2nd Amendment with the enabling of a House of Representatives under Pelosi and the Senate under Schumer. Just hours ago that promise was fulfilled, in part, with legislation that passed the House of Representatives. Joining Jim for discussion regarding this critical issue was Michael Hammond. Michael is the legislative counsel for Gun Owners of America. The bills referred to are HR-8 and HR-1446. HR-8 is called the Bipartisan Background Checks Act of 2021. It passed by a vote of 227 to 203. 8 Republicans voted for it with one Democrat voting against it. Michael described HR-8 as basically a universal gun registry. It would create a registry of every gun, gun owner and their addresses. In addition, it would create a set of complex rules that no one could comply with. Michael described the rules as being similar to a minefield. Make the wrong step and you go to prison. In other words, the complex nature of the rules amounts to intimidation. He cited examples to prove his point. HR-1446 had 165 co-sponsors, all Democrats. It's called the Enhanced Background Checks Act. The final vote was 219-210. 2 Republicans joined the Democrats while 2 Democrats joined the Republicans. In 1993 there was a compromise. There would be a 'Brady check' but the government wouldn't allow you to hold up a gun transaction indefinitely. Instead, after 3 days, without violating the law, you'd be able to take possession of the gun from the seller. That's assuming the government hadn't found anything adverse about you. Instead what's been happening is the government has been going around to gun sellers (particularly 'box' stores) and has been telling them that unless they give the go-ahead, don't transfer the gun in spite of the fact that they know the law allows the gun to be transferred at the end of 3 days. Michael noted that they've received probably more complaints on this one issue than any other. Now the FBI is saying that 3 days is not enough and they want to hold up transactions for at least 10 days. After that period you petition the FBI. Then 10 days after that, you're in the same position you were in at the end of 3 days under previous law; that is, you can legally take possession of the gun but you probably won't be able to. Sound convoluted? As Michael explained previously, it's all about intimidation and making things so complex that people will ask, 'Do I really want to own a gun?' Michael sorts this all out, and listeners offer their views as well, on this edition of Crosstalk.

3/15	Becerra Nomination Protested	Jim Schneider / Twila Brase	The nominations continue to flow for key cabinet positions and other high ranking government officials. Of great concern to many is the nomination of Xavier Becerra for the position of Secretary of Health and Human Services. Joining Jim to discuss this nomination was Twila Brase. Twila is the president and co-founder of Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom. Twila is a registered nurse, a certified public health nurse, and author of Big Brother in the Exam Room: The Dangerous Truth About Electronic Health Records. She’s the speaker on the daily Health Freedom Minute heard on stations across the nation. Earlier this month, Twila sent a letter to the leadership of the U.S. Senate to oppose the confirmation of Xavier Becerra who is currently the Attorney General of California. Judging from his current title, how much experience in health care does he have that qualifies him to hold the position of Secretary of Health and Human Services? The answer is...none. Twila indicated that he has no experience in this regard, he’s not a physician, and he’s never worked in the health care industry. The reason she thinks he’s in this position is because he defended the Affordable Care Act in front of the U.S. Supreme Court, he’s a single payer advocate, and a Medicare for all advocate. Jim then wondered why certain people, like Becerra, are being brought up for positions for which they have no experience. He pointed to Pete Buttigieg who was nominated for Secretary of Transportation. Is it a case where they are being mentioned just to fill such positions with left-wing radicals? Twila noted that the Biden administration is filled with Obama era veterans. She described what Obama was able to do. She mentioned the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act and the large amount of money it took from taxpayers. Then there was the Affordable Care Act. In other words, they did all they could in two years to push what they could and she believes the Biden administration is doing the same for his first two years. Jim quoted Twila who wrote that Becerra has ‘...a disturbing record of exploiting state and federal medical laws to legally persecute the religious and individual liberties of both patients and physicians.’ She backed this up by describing how he helped to produce a law that created a new type of speech in California. This involved an attempt to regulate the pro-life clinics by forcing them to tell anyone who came to them for help where they could go to get an abortion. These are just the early details this program provided concerning this highly controversial nomination. Learn more, including the latest on the COVID-19 vaccine front, and hear what listeners had to say, when you review this edition of Crosstalk
3/16	Persecution Abounds in China	Jim Schneider / Paul Popov	There are changes going on in China that breed persecution of the church. The guest on this edition of Crosstalk indicated that China’s situation for Christians, coupled with increased human rights abuses, is heartbreaking. Jim welcomed back Paul Popov. Paul is the CEO of Door of Hope International. They are a voice and a helping hand to persecuted Christians worldwide. When he was five years old, his father, Haralan Popov, a prominent Protestant Minister, was brutally taken from his family by the KGB in 1948 and arrested on false charges of being a ‘spy for America.’ The guest on this broadcast, along with his family, were branded as ‘enemies of the state.’ Jim noted that new measures are set to take effect in China beginning May 1st. They’re called ‘Administrative Measures for Religious Groups.’ According to Paul, under these measures, all pastors must enter a database handled by the secret police. In this database, pastors must tell everything about themselves. Also, pastors must record sermons so they are available when asked for by the secret police. Noting his father’s past experience under communism, Paul believes this is about forcing pastors to preach socialism from the pulpits. While similar control has been in place for some

			time, Paul indicated that the new law is much worse. Paul also described plans underway for a new socialist Bible. It will be similar to our Bible, however, the narrative in some areas will be different and outright blasphemous. He noted John 8 where Jesus is dealing with an adulterous woman. Instead of Jesus communicating that he who is without sin should cast the first stone, this new Bible will communicate that the crowd leaves, with Jesus telling the woman that he is also a sinner. Then he proceeds to stone the woman. Paul sees China as benefiting from the capitalistic system of efficiency. At the same time they're increasing their surveillance and dictatorship of the minds of the people. It's about building the communistic paradise that Marx believed would happen in the future
3/17	Play the Flute	Jim Schneider / Rich Christiano	Sadly, there are many churches and youth groups that are going with the flow of the culture today. They don't want to do or say anything that could possibly offend anyone. Instead, the name of the game is numbers. In other words, how big can we make the church or youth group. In order to accomplish that, we wrack our brains trying to come up with the latest gimmick or newest activity to draw people/youngsters in. This is often done without regard to giving serious thought to the necessity of building a true, solid, biblical foundation in the lives of those to whom we minister. This isn't to say that activities are wrong. We must ask ourselves where we're putting our emphasis. Is it on the cool, fun things to do, or is it spiritual maturity? Rich Christiano tackles this issue in a powerful new film. Rich is a film writer, director, producer and distributor. He's written, directed and produced such films as The Appointment, Time Changer, Unidentified, The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry and A Matter of Faith. He joined Jim to discuss his latest film, Play the Flute. Rich got the idea for the film back in 2015 when he asked himself, 'What is a Christian?' The first thing that came to his mind was this: A Christian is someone who is serious about the Lord. From there he got the idea about doing a movie about a youth pastor who takes over an indifferent youth group to try and motivate them to read the Word of God and get serious about the Lord. Rich has never been more excited about a film that he's done so he's hoping the Lord will use this project to motivate viewers to become serious and begin reading the Word of God. Jim plays excerpts from the film and has Rich present his comments. From that you'll begin to see why he's so excited about it and the potential impact it can have upon those who view it.
3/18	Public School Exit	Jim Schneider / Lt. Col. (Ret.) Ray Moore	Lt. Col. (Ret.) Ray Moore is an Army Reserve Chaplain and veteran of Gulf War I which he was awarded the Bronze Star Medal. He's the director of the Exodus Mandate Project and Chairman of the Christian Education Initiative and Chairman of PublicSchoolExit.com. He is a homeschooling pioneer and is author of Let My Children Go. He is script-writer and executive producer of the 2015 film, Escaping Common Core: Setting Our Children Free. After a brief history of his own home schooling experiences as a parent, Ray described his reason for backing the effort. He noted how Scripture is clear that the responsibility of educating children doesn't belong to government. It belongs to the family and the church. 170 years ago Christians and churches began to surrender this responsibility to the state. The state allowed Christians to participate and there was a level playing field. However, he described the current situation as very damaging to the point where, ...all the waste and garbage and debris of a 170 year failed experiment in state education is now washing up on our shores all at once.' He feels this is the time to make the switch and that, '...we're in an opportune moment to see more happen than we've ever dreamed of.' As the program continued, Jim had Ray comment on specific details concerning why parents should seriously consider exiting the public school system. They included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Indoctrination</li> <li>• Dumbing Down</li> <li>• Sexualizing children</li> <li>• Data mining and profiling students</li> <li>• Forced vaccinations</li> <li>• Radical Labor Unions</li> </ul> Crosstalk listeners also participated with their questions and comments.

3/22	The Equality Act is Thinly Veiled Inequality	Jim Schneider / Dr. Erwin Lutzer	The so-called Equality Act is a top priority item in the Biden Administration. In the House it is H.R.5 and passed February 25th on a vote of 224-206. All 221 Democrats voted in favor of the legislation, none voted against it. As to Republicans, 206 voted in opposition. 3 voted in favor; that’s Congressmen Fitzpatrick, Katko &amp; Reed. So HR 5 has been sent to the Senate. Incidentally the Senate on February 23rd introduced their own bill by the same name, ‘Equality Act’ (S.393). So whether the Senate takes up H.R. 5 from the House or S393, the devastating consequences remain the same. Indeed, the church and Christianity are in the cross-hairs of this legislation. In addition to the church being impacted, this legislation will also impact every business across the nation. Girls sports as we know them will be obliterated. Privacy will be breached. Also, shelters for battered women, whose residents have been abused by men, will now be required to house men who identify as women. The consequences don’t end there, but will have only just begun. Joining Jim to discuss this issue was Dr. Erwin Lutzer. Dr. Lutzer is the Pastor Emeritus of The Moody Church where he served as the senior pastor for 36 years. He’s the speaker on radio programs such as Running to Win and Songs in the Night. He’s the author of numerous books including the recently released, We Will Not be Silenced. Some Christians will look at a verse such as Galatians 3:28, which communicates that we are all one in Christ Jesus, and proclaim that the verse promotes equality. So as Jim asked, ‘How could you possibly be opposed to equality Dr. Lutzer?’ Dr. Lutzer responded by noting that there probably isn’t a word in our culture that’s as misused as the word ‘equality’. While all are created equal in terms of value, not all actions are equal. So you can’t take the word ‘equality’ like an elastic band and stretch it to make it whatever you want it to be. In the end, Dr. Lutzer sees the so-called ‘Equality Act’ as the greatest threat to the Christian faith and America and a recipe toward greater inequality. Will this legislation impact the Religious Freedom Restoration Act? Is there a tie-in to Marxism? The answer on both counts is ‘yes’. Find out how and why when you review this important edition of Crosstalk.
3/23	Why Socialism is Not Biblical	Jim Schneider / Pastor David Brown	Why Socialism is Not Biblical  Date: March 23, 2021  Host: Jim Schneider  Guest: Pastor David Brown The roars of socialism are growing louder. We hear of equality and even more recently we are hearing of equity, for all to be and have the same. We hear the rich need to pay their fair share. Those who have much are required by government mandate to give to those who don’t have what they have. There’s the growing ‘social justice movement’ and a push toward socialism and even steps toward communism. Month after month this roar grows louder and louder. You see the push ever increasing in a legislative agenda pushing progressivism and shunning conservative values. Joining Jim to examine this phenomenon was Dr. David Brown. Dr. Brown is the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Oak Creek, has a Masters in Theology and PhD in History – specializing in the history of the English Bible. In addition to his study of the English Bible, he’s also president of Logos Communication Consortium which operates LogosResourcePages.org. Dr. Brown began by explaining why biblical Christianity is disappearing in America. He noted John Smith, governor of Jamestown, who had to get the people to realize that if a man doesn’t work, neither shall he eat (2 Thessalonians 3:10). Move forward in time to the formation of the U.S. and you can see our nation was based on the Judeo/Christian ethic. While they never separated God from state, our founders separated church from state because Christianity isn’t political. In other words, they didn’t want a national religion for the country as was the case in places such as England and Germany. Our founders believed that rights came from God and that He’s the founder of liberty. Dr. Brown cited two proofs, the first indicating that the signers of the Declaration of Independence spoke of the Lord 4 times: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ‘...the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God...’</li> </ul>

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ‘...they are endowed by their Creator...’</li> <li>• ‘...to the Supreme Judge of the world...’</li> <li>• ‘...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence...’</li> </ul> Then on the Liberty Bell we read: ‘Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.’ With that basis set, Dr. Brown communicated how he fears America is in the same position as depraved Israel as referenced in Isaiah 59. He referenced some items from our history since the 1960’s to prove the point: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Prayer and Bible reading banned in public school in the the early 60’s.</li> <li>• Abortion legalized in 1973.</li> <li>• Ten Commandments removed from public schools in 1980.</li> <li>• Same-sex marriage legalized in 2015.</li> </ul> We can see from this how God has been systematically removed from American culture and socialism is coming to fill the void. Why isn’t it biblical? Find out the specifics when you listen to this Crosstalk broadcast.
3/24	Crisis at the Border/Israel Election in Limbo	Jim Schneider / Chris Chmielenski and Dr. Jimmy DeYoung	Chris Chmielenski is the vice president and deputy director of NumbersUSA. They are pro-immigrant, pro-immigration, but with numerical limits and they seek to minimize illegal immigration. The White House denies it but we have a crisis on our southern border. It’s overwhelming the Customs and Border Patrol as the border is being flooded with illegal aliens, many of which have said they never would have tried coming here under President Trump. Due to the fact that this new administration has been under prepared and there’s not enough space for everyone, the names of these illegal aliens are taken and they are being released into the interior of the country. Chris layed out the numbers, explained how this looks for the future, why the media is being barred from seeing the situation at the border, who might be among those coming across the border, what this does to Biden’s immigration reform plan, and more. Dr. Jimmy DeYoung is a Middle East expert. He leads a ministry, Prophecy Today. He constantly monitors news regarding Israel and the Middle East and provides a unique blend of political, biblical and prophetic insight that is absent from the media today. Israel has never had 4 elections in two years, but believe it or not, the possibility of a 5th is on the horizon as yesterday they entered into their 4th election for Prime Minister. 39 parties contested in the election and as of broadcast time, it was still unclear as to the outcome with 97%-98% of the vote counted. Dr. DeYoung explained how the Israeli parliamentary system works so that listeners can better understand how the nation has reached this point. He also commented on the possible implications, Kamala Harris and her place in U.S./Israeli relations, how he sees the current situation in Israel in light of Bible prophecy, and the new Dead Sea Scroll archaeological find.
3/25	The War on Normal	Jim Schneider / Robert Knight	Today there’s a war on normal. Millennia of normal told us (along with God who designed it and biology that proves it) that marriage is between a man and a woman. We’ve created polyamorous categories such as ‘thruples’ as well as those who deny science by claiming that you can change your gender. Joining Jim to sort through some of these trends in the war on normal was Robert Knight. Robert is a former Los Angeles Times news editor and writer and was a Media Fellow at the Hoover Institution at Stanford University. He’s a regular weekly columnist for The Washington Times, Townhall.com, OneNewsNow.com and others. Robert has held senior positions in a number of pro-family organizations. He’s an author of several books including The Coming Communist Wave: What Happens If the Left Captures All Three Branches of Government and Liberty on the Brink: How the Left Plans to Steal Your Vote. Robert sees the war on normal as a deliberate tidal wave because it’s hitting us everywhere from TV, social media, everyday media, to the education establishment. Christians understand that our most fundamental values are under assault and that if it isn’t turned back, we’ll eventually see persecution. To show how crazy this has become, Robert noted how a large consumer product company is making a change with regard to their hair care products. While such products might be recommended for a range of hair types from oily to dry to normal, they will no longer use the term, ‘normal’, because it’s now deemed offensive. Robert contends this is being driven by those who want to sell us the idea that there is no ‘normal’. The extension of this is the idea that there’s no objective reality. Everything is in our heads. So gender has nothing to do with biology and is just a frame of mind. Your truth isn’t my truth is the idea here. Bible believing Christians realize this is nonsense because they know that the Lord is Lord of truth. For Robert, this is aimed at the idea of biblical truth; that it’s something that’s beyond debate and it’s a moral framework that He gave us for our own good. Jim had Robert break down some of the factors and activities that play into this war. They included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How Marxists commandeered language and steer it toward revolutionary goals.</li> <li>• How Dumbo, Dr. Seuss, Peter Pan, The Swiss Family Robinson and others are now abnormal.</li> <li>• How the border crisis has been relabeled a border ‘challenge’.</li> <li>• Drag queen story hours for children.</li> <li>• Curriculum being peddled to schools teaching that homosexuality and</li> </ul>

			transgenderism are normal. There's much more to hear, including thoughts on this topic from listeners across the nation.

3/29	Hope for This Present Crisis	Jim Schneider / Dr. Michael Youssef	If you feel you're living in the most turbulent period of your lifetime, you're not alone. Today, forces are at work to strip the principles and precepts of the Christian faith from public venues and minimize their significance. But even though these times seem frightening, there is hope. Troubled times give us an opportunity to know Christ more fully and to make Him known to people around us. That's an excerpt from the book, Hope for This Present Crisis: The Seven Step Path to Restoring a World Gone Mad by Dr. Michael Youssef. Dr. Youssef is the founder and president of Leading the Way and founding pastor of The Church of the Apostles based in Atlanta. He's authored numerous books including the one discussed today on this edition of Crosstalk. COVID-19, the economic shutdown, civil unrest, riots, fires, looting, destruction of the signs of our nation's heritage...all these and more are frightening enough, but according to Dr. Youssef, there's a greater crisis confronting our nation. According to Dr. Youssef, the factors just mentioned are only symptoms signaling a crisis of truth. He believes that once truth has been undermined, there's no longer a basis for humanity to operate in relationships. That's the foundational breakdown he sees today. At the same time he sees the decline of the Christian church as well. He puts the full blame on pastors in the pulpits because that's where he believes the undermining of the truth began. Instead of pastors being a guide for a lost culture, they are now following the culture. Such friendship with the world establishes enmity with God. He described it this way, '...because as goes the pulpit, so goes the pew, and as goes the pew, so goes the culture.' Dr. Youssef believes it's time to get back to the truth. Once it begins to be established, there will be an awakening. This is the hope he describes in the 7-steps portion of his book, which you can obtain via the information listed below.
3/31	Boulder Shooting: Is Gun Control the Answer	Jim Schneider / Michael Hammond	Monday of last week, a very tragic mass murder claimed the lives of many, including a police officer, at a King's Super Store in Boulder, Colorado. It didn't take long for some legislators to announce their belief that we need gun control; that if we had common sense gun control, incidents like this would not happen. In the wake of the shooting, the Biden administration is poised to use the incident as a springboard to issue executive orders on the matter of gun control. Joining Jim to discuss this and related issues was Michael Hammond. Michael is the legislative counsel for Gun Owners of America. Michael laid out how in 2013, Colorado had enacted gun control. They had not banned semi-automatic weapons, but they had banned high capacity magazines for such weapons. The gun control measures included red flag gun confiscation laws as well as universal gun registration/universal background checks. This is important because now President Biden is claiming that the Boulder shooting tells us that we have to enact universal background checks at the federal level. Michael contends that since such checks were in effect in Boulder 8 years before the shooting, and they did no good, why would enacting them at the federal level have any impact? He believes that what the shooting really shows is that gun control (that the House and Senate are trying to pass right now) has proven to be demonstrably ineffective. Michael then noted that Gabby Giffords, one of the gun control leaders in America, spent a lot of time badgering Kroger (owner of King's Super Stores) into making its stores gun-free zones. Kroger ultimately gave-in to that idea. Michael believes that since King's Super Store is a gun-free zone, not only didn't that fact prohibit this shooting from taking place, it encouraged it to happen. More can be gleaned from this broadcast such as:

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How did the major networks cover this issue (gun control vs. gun rights)?</li> <li>• Had the shooter actually passed his background check?</li> <li>• The shooter was on the 'radar' of the FBI. What happened?</li> <li>• Would bills HR-8 and HR-146 have stopped this shooting from taking place?</li> </ul> Crosstalk listeners also presented their questions and views.
