HOUSTON
ISSUE/PROGRAM REPORT
FIRST QUARTER 2023
APRIL 10, 2023

Part 1 – INTRODUCTION

KRBE (FM) is licensed to Houston, TX and serves the Houston area. From January 1 through March 31, 2023, KRBE (FM) aired 30 minutes of public affairs programming weekly. This takes the form of a locally produced weekly program, Around H-Town, which focuses on issues affecting our local community and includes guests who have knowledge of these topics.

Weekend Programming:

Around H-Town: every Sunday morning from 6:00a – 6:30a.

Details about individual Around H-Town segments are included in Part 2 of this report.

KRBE has determined the following as issues of concern to our audience during the fourth quarter of 2022.

- 1-Community Events
- 2-Youth Outreach
- 3-Health & Wellness
- 4-Black History Month
- 5-Arts and music

During this time, if KRBE participated in Community Service Projects, they are listed and described in Part 3.

The following pages describe the station's most significant treatment of the previously described community issues of concern.

Part 2 – KRBE’s SELECTED ISSUES OF CONCERN

Family Houston, Charly Wheldon

Family Houston is a non-profit that has been serving the Houston area since 1904, helping those struggling with financial issues as well as mental health. They have 15 professional counselors providing low to no cost mental health support in 15 area schools. We talked about simple ways we can lift each other up as well as volunteer opportunities with Family Houston.

Eat Drink HTX, Katie Stone

The sister event to Houston Restaurant Weeks, Eat Drink HTX is coming up in February. This event is for the casual dining industry, to support the service industry during what is typically a slow time after Valentines. Proceeds also benefit the Houston Food Bank as well as Children at Risk.

Emm's Wish, Gil Garcia

This organization was formed by Gil after the loss of his adult daughter to cancer. She had a goal to create this program to send adults who are dealing with chronic illness to Disney to be a prince/princess for a day. They are working with several broadcasting companies and radio stations to make these wishes come true. The first trip is scheduled for this year. They need sponsors to fund Emm's Wish.

Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center, Cameron Palmer

January is national Blood Donor Month, celebrating donors and encouraging everyone to donate. Our hospitals have a great ongoing need for blood year-round. GCRBC has their main location near the TX Medical Center, as well as many neighborhood donor centers throughout the Houston area and mobile units doing mobile drives every day. People can host a mobile blood drive at their neighborhood, business, or event. We talked about the process of donation and how easy it is.

The sister event to Houston Restaurant Weeks, Eat Drink HTX is coming up in February. This event is for the casual dining industry, to support the service industry during what is typically a slow time after Valentines. Proceeds also benefit the Houston Food Bank as well as Children at Risk.

MLK Jr Oratory Competition, Claude Treece

Law firm Foley and Lardner hosts this annual event in Houston to honor Dr King as well as encourage young students in Houston with writing skills and public speeches. The firm has been hosting this competition for about 30 years and it has grown and spread to other cities including Dallas and Chicago. The 12 finalists will compete Jan. 13th, and the competition can be viewed by the public on HISD's website. Claude encourages everyone, especially 3rd and 4th graders who may want to participate next year to watch this year's competition.

ReelAbilities Houston Film and Arts Festival, Angle Ponce

ReelAbilities is celebrating the 10th year of this festival happening in February. Angel is director at the Mayor's office for people with disabilities. ReelAbilities celebrates the lives, stories, and talents of people with disabilities and to promote inclusion. The festival is about inclusion through music and arts incorporating several events showcasing artists with disabilities. All events are free to attend.

Little Stinker Candies, Melanie Simpson

Melanie is a local small business owner with a very unique product. She sells various "bags of farts" with different themes (they contain cotton candy 😊). 10% of the profits are donated to local charities supporting children and animals in need. In just a few short years, this little family run business has been able to donate over $200,000 to local charities that Melanie is passionate about including: Cycle Houston (works with 2nd graders in the Houston area to earn a new bicycle through academics). The Parks Youth Ranch (provides shelter and counseling to abused and neglected youth). Easter Seals of Greater Houston. Next Step Academy (helps those with autism). Dream Datsun Rescue. Kickstart Kids at Meyerland Middle School (teams that help kids with disabilities).

Push-Up Foundation, Keith Rollins

Keith is a local area colon cancer survivor on a mission: to encourage more people to "push up" their colonoscopy dates to save more lives. On March 4, during Colon Cancer Awareness Month, his nonprofit organization appropriately named the Push Up Foundation will host its third annual Victory Lap, a family-friendly 5K event to help raise awareness of the disease.

Houston Botanic Garden - Claudia Gee Vassar

There is plenty to see and do even in winter at the garden. A unique oasis for nature in Houston that is open to the public 362 days a year. Intertwined, a sculpture exhibition, is coming up and Nature Connects is still open for a short time.

Literacy Now - Jaque Daughtry

Literacy Now is a non profit organization focused on helping children in Houston area schools in grades K-2 to get their reading skills at or above grade level. This is a pivotal time in education and research shows that a child's ability to read at grade level (or not) in 3rd grade is a predictor of success throughout life. Their highly-trained paid interventionists work in HISD and Aldine schools in small groups to help these kids, especially in low income and disadvantaged communities. They are currently in 20 campuses and need more teachers to be able to do more. A new program called Literacy Lab is launching to offer anyone with a college degree to obtain the training to be an interventionist and be part of Literacy Now.

Periwinkle Foundation - Doug Suggitt

The foundation develops and provides programs that positively change the lives of children, young adults and families who are challenged by cancer and other life-threatening illnesses and are cared for at Texas Children's Hospital. A big part of that is providing camps for kids with health challenges. They have several exciting fundraising events coming up this spring including Cycle For Life.

Houston Arboretum – Christine Mansfield

Located just inside Loop 610 on the western edge of Memorial Park, the 155-acre Houston Arboretum & Nature Center offers an escape from the hustle and bustle of city life and the opportunity to experience the natural world. It provides services to over 600,000 visitors annually and offers nature education to more than 10,000 children per year. We talked about events coming up in February, March, and April.

Fort Bend Women's Center – Vita Goodell and Michele Fisher

FBWC is a non-profit organization that helps victims of domestic violence and sexual assault throughout the Houston area. In addition to the shelter, they offer financial and other assistance to those in need to make sure they can get out of abusive situations and never have to return. The upcoming Girlfriends Giggle is their main fundraiser.

Sanctuary Foster Care Services, Gracie Pete and Kristin Gonzales

This organization supports foster children and families throughout the Houston area, including assistance for kids as they age out of the foster care system into their adult lives. They provide a variety of free services to foster parents including family therapy, meal assistance, and emergency help. Sanctuary recently expanded, opening a new location in Fort Bend county. Their annual golf tournaments are coming up on April 24th.

Writers In The Schools, Erica Dodson

Writers in the Schools partners with authors, journalists, and other creatives to help teach creative writing in the classroom in several HISD schools. They work with K-12 with the most emphasis on 2nd-4th grade. During Black History Month, Writers in the Schools will present curated readings and conduct a writing workshop. 2/23 they have a virtual workshop hosted by WITS writers focused on documenting artifacts of black joy in our everyday lives. WITS believes every child deserves a holistic education that encourages critical thinking, creativity, and personal responsibility.

Lupus Foundation, Anne Marie Blacketer

Lupus is an autoimmune disease that attacks the body from the inside out. It disproportionately affects the Black community. The Lupus Foundation works to educate the Black community on the signs, symptoms, and treatment options for the disease, which currently has no cure. They have an event coming up called the Tiger Walk at TSU.

Girls Let's Pray, Shirley Tucker

Shirley Tucker from Girls Let's Pray will discuss Black History through the generations. GLP promotes unity within families and works in the communities, reaching out with compassion and love to each generation. People can go to their website to request prayer from the GLP network, as well as volunteer. GLP works throughout Houston to provide food, assistance to the homeless, nursing home visits, and to support and encourage youth in the black community.

HGI Counseling, Nefertiti

She is an African American therapist with HGI here to discuss mental health concerns in the black community. Due to a historical stigma in the community, people of color are often underrepresented in the mental health professional industry, and that can also make it difficult for POC to seek help. We talk about issues of pride, shame, and breaking generational cycles. We talked about what therapy is really like for those who have preconceived negative ideas.

Houston Grand Opera, Nicole Heaston

Now a popular annual tradition at HGO, Giving Voice is a free opera concert that was created by tenor Lawrence Brownlee for Houstonians happening during Black History Month. The fourth Giving Voice will be held 2/24 at Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church and feature some of the world's best opera singers, joined by choirs from Wheeler Avenue, HGO, Houston Ebony Opera Guild, Prairie View A&M University, and Texas Southern University.

Teach For America, Teela Murphy

Teela is a local middle school teacher in Houston and an alumni of TFA. TFA recruits teachers to teach in underserved schools and supports them on their journey. Teela learned about TFA as a parent interacting with her son's teachers and was inspired to become a teacher and join TFA as her values aligned with their mission. Now she teaches a class called Multicultural and Society, which helps students learn and appreciate different cultures. We talked about the importance of the bond between black teachers and black students, to help kids of color to be seen and understood and be able to share their culture.

Houston Chamber Choir, Robert Simpson

The Houston Chamber Choir was founded by Robert in 1995 and is a professional ensemble of 24 singers dedicated to increasing the awareness, appreciation, and esteem of choral music and musicians through performance, outreach, and education. Their March offering shines the spotlight on one of the most gifted contemporary African American musicians and music educators in the United States, Dr. Anthony Trecek-King. He is our guest conductor on Saturday, March 11 for the groundbreaking Ancestors' Dream. When considering choral music by Black composers, some think no further than spirituals, work songs, and gospel music. This concert broadens that view by presenting seldom heard works by Nathaniel Dett, Harry Burleigh, Florence Price, Moses Hogan, Joel Thompson, Stacy V. Gibbs, and others who believed that Black composers should embrace the spiritual but never be limited by it.

YMCA of Greater Houston, Stephen Ives

Stephen is the President and CEO of the Y. He joins us to discuss the YMCA's commitment to inclusive communities and strengthening the foundations of our city. The Y has 22 facilities in the Houston area as well as programs where they go directly to communities in need to provide services for youth. This includes water safety at apartment complex pools and programs on-site at many schools. We talked about the long history of the YMCA and the core objectives of equality and diversity.

Children's Museum Houston, Dr. Lisa Williams

Lisa is the director of Gallery Programs at the museum. They have several special events this month for Black History Month including the ongoing Black History storytime series of readings with local tv news anchors, the Black History Experience every Saturday, the T. Ellis Artist Showcase and Self Portrait Workshops. The museum is a great destination for kids during spring break, summer, or anytime with flexible hours and days/times when admission is free.

Blue Triangle Community Center part 1 – Charlotte Kelly Bryant

Ms. Bryant is the Founder and director of the Blue Triangle Multicultural Association. She talks about the history of the center and how it is tied to her own history. At 92 years old, Charlotte recounts growing up in Houston during segregation and how she found a safe place to gather with her friends at the YWCA that would eventually become Blue Triangle. She gives an overview of the history of the center, how it has served the community and the struggles to keep it during the split from YWCA and later Hurricane Harvey.

Blue Triangle Community Center part 2 – Charlotte Kelly Bryant

Ms. Bryant talks about her personal experience growing up in Houston and how she lives with a positive attitude and motivation to succeed despite the racism she faced. She had a successful career as a medical technologist (clinical pathology) and also taught this curriculum at what is now Debakey High School for Health Professions. We talked more about the Blue Triangle Center: the restoration of the historic mural there as well as the pool and the swim safety programs that they teach.

Boys & Girls Club of Greater Houston – Zena Campbell

Ms. Campbell is the VP of Program Services. We talked about the history of the Club and all of the services they provide for kids after school and spring/summer breaks. Diversity, equity, and inclusion is a big part of the bgcgh. She told us about the programs and activities going on at their locations this month to celebrate Black History Month.

Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, Chris Boleman, President and CEO of HLSR

We talked about this year's rodeo and all the events. For the first time this year, they are having a Community Day on 3/8 where admission to the grounds is free for everyone before noon and carnival games, rides, and food are discounted. This allows visitors to experience the carnival as well as the livestock show, horse show, and learn about agriculture with so many exhibits including birthing center, petting zoo, western heritage, bees, and more. The HLSR has given out over 575 million dollars in scholarships over the years. We talked about scholarship opportunities as well.

Annabelle's Amazing Graces, Shelley Van Duersen

Shelley's daughter Annabelle has a very rare terminal genetic mutation called GNA01. Only 250 kids in the world have this at the moment, and there is no real treatment or cure. She started a non-profit and they do a 5k every year to raise funds for research. Last year the event raised over $100,000, 100% going straight to the research. It's April 1st at No Label Brewery in Katy. There is the 5k, raffle, silent auction, and more family activities throughout the day.

Colon Cancer Coalition of Houston, Allison Rosen

Allison founded this non-profit after being diagnosed with and surviving colon cancer at the age of 32. March is colorectal cancer awareness month, encouraging all to wear blue and use #blueforcrc. The main goal is to create awareness for the importance of colon cancer screening, now recommended at age 45 for those with average risk and no family history. We talked about how you may need to advocate for this screening with your own doctor to make sure he/she knows the suggested age has changed.

Communities In Schools of Houston, Cristal Cervantes

CIS has been in Houston since 1979 and now serves 173 schools in the Houston area. They are an educational non-profit that places full time staff on campuses to provide counseling, mental health support, and other family services. We talked about the needs of kids and families and the range of support provided by CIS.

Association for Advancement of Mexican Americans, Patrick Rocha

AAMA was formed here in Houston in 1970 by the Ninfa family to address the high crime rate, drugs, and dropout rate in the east end of Houston. They formed programs to help kids change behaviors, focusing on education and support. AAMA has 2 charter schools called George I Sanchez, and they have partnered with Depelchin to create a free counseling program for students and their families. They work with parents as well to learn how to support their child. The counseling is available to any families, not just students at the charter school.

Epilepsy Foundation of Texas, Jacoby Gantt and Rebecca Moreau

The Foundation is preparing for the upcoming Texas Epilepsy Walk April 29th at the Houston Zoo. It is the 40th anniversary of the walk. The walk is about 2 miles and keeps participants engaged with the animals at the zoo. The Foundation supports 176 counties in TX with a clinic program for uninsured, a camping program for kids with epilepsy, and an education program including seizure first aid training.

BakerRipley, Cristina Cove

BakerRipley provides services to help families who are struggling financially in the Houston area. We talked about the recent decrease in SNAP benefits due to the expiration of COVID related subsidies. Families who receive SNAP saw a decrease in their benefits this month and moving forward. We talked about their utility assistance program that helps with electricity, gas, and water bills. We also learned about their free tax preparation services for low income residents.

Covenant House, Alvin Adjea

We talked about the upcoming Sleep Out: Young Professionals Edition in Houston to raise awareness and funds to help homeless youth in our community. The Sleep Out is March 24th. Young professionals sleep on the street for one night to raise donations. Covenant House provides housing, job training, education, healthcare and more for high-risk youth who are aging out of the foster care system. Laura from H-Town Live on KRBE will be broadcasting live for the Sleep Out.

Astrodome Conservancy, Beth Wiedower Jackson

The Astrodome Conservancy hosts the 3rd annual RACE FOR THE DOME, with registration now open to the public. Join the fun on Saturday, April 15 to race around the iconic Astrodome with hundreds of Dome-lovers and fans in support of a bright future for the Eighth Wonder of the World.

Rebuilding Together, Christine Holland – CEO

Rebuilding Together is a non-profit organization that rebuilds the homes of low income senior citizens, vets and the disabled in Harris county. Their big push is the third ward housing crisis. Christine is here to get the word out for donations, gifts, volunteers and homeowners that need help.

Camp For All, Pat Sorrels – CEO

Camp For All transforms the world for children and adults with challenging illnesses or special needs. Camp For All intentionally delivers unique, truly barrier-free experiences throughout the year by collaborating with multiple not-for-profit organizations to enable thousands of campers to attend. They are promoting their fourth annual Over The Edge event at The Woodlands Tower on April 29. This unique event invites participants to rappel down the side of the 31-story building to raise awareness of the barrier-free campsite.

The City Market, Linda West and Diana Root

The City Market is a fundraiser for the Houston Junior Forum (HJF) a non-profit women's service organization. They work through 15 different non-profits in the area including the Houston Food Bank, Interfaith Ministries, See to Succeed, etc. The City Market 3/30-3/31 is their fundraising event featuring fashion, jewelry, gifts etc.
