HOUSTON
ISSUE/PROGRAM REPORT
THIRD QUARTER 2023
OCTOBER 10, 2023

Part 1 – INTRODUCTION

KRBE (FM) is licensed to Houston, TX and serves the Houston area. From July 1, through September 30, 2023, KRBE (FM) aired 30 minutes of public affairs programming weekly. This takes the form of a locally produced weekly program, Around H-Town, which focuses on issues affecting our local community and includes guests who have knowledge of these topics.

Weekend Programming:

Around H-Town: every Sunday morning from 6:00a – 6:30a.

Details about individual Around H-Town segments are included in Part 2 of this report.

KRBE has determined the following as issues of concern to our audience during the third quarter of 2023.

- 1-Community Events
- 2-Youth Outreach
- 3-Health & Wellness
- 4-Poverty/underserved communities
- 5-Arts and music

During this time, if KRBE participated in Community Service Projects, they are listed and described in Part 3.

The following pages describe the station's most significant treatment of the previously described community issues of concern.

Part 2 – KRBE’s SELECTED ISSUES OF CONCERN

Great Age Movement, President and Founder Fritz McDonald

Fritz has a background as an occupational therapist working with senior citizens. In 2017 he formed this non-profit to build senior fitness parks in the Houston area specifically designed for senior citizens to stay active and healthy physically and socially. These parks have specialized equipment and facilities for seniors as well as classes. The second center is currently being built with funding from Baker Ripley. All parks are completely free for seniors and their caregivers. They are also working toward fundrasing for a 3rd center. They also have a program in partnership with the Health Museum, a mobile music medley workout with curated music from the 50s to the 80s mixing art with fitness. They are always in need of volunteers and donations.

Back to the Future Senior Prom Gala, Fritz McDonald

Great Age Movement is having a major fundraiser in September, a "senior" prom for people of all ages. They will be honoring senior fitness influencer Joan McDonald, who will tell her story. The event will feature a live band, dancing, and a 3 course meal. Performers include breakdancers and other pop-ups. All proceeds benefit the building of a 3rd fitness center for Great Age Movement at 59 and I-10.

Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center, Cameron Palmer

GCRBC is a community provider of blood and blood products. They supply 170 hospitals in a 26 county area of the Gulf Coast. Blood is always needed for patients in our area, for everything from chemotherapy to trauma and many other medical needs. They have 17 donor center locations as well as about 7,000 mobile drives per year. Summer is a challenging time with a decline in blood donations, despite the fact that the need is ongoing. This week they are doing the Battle of the Badges initiative. When you donate, you credit your local police or fire department. Donors will get a Freedom Over Texas ticket, shirt, and $10 gift card.

Teach for America, Robert Carreon

TFA Houston works collaboratively with five area school districts with alumni in leadership positions throughout the local education system.. Founded in 1990, Teach For America recruits and develops a diverse corps of outstanding leaders who make an initial two-year commitment to teach in high-need schools and become lifelong leaders in the effort to end educational inequity. They have full time programs for those who want to become teachers, and a new mentorship program called Ignite which is a virtual tutoring fellowship.

Writers In The Schools, Christina Mackey

WITS employs a roster of professional writers to teach alongside teachers in classrooms around the Houston area. They have summer camps as well as in-school programs. They employ all types of professional writers as well as retired teachers to help ELA teachers K-12. In July they have a performance from students with original slam poetry.

Houston Concierge Association, Guy Yount

HCA is a professional organization of hospitality individuals in the Houston area. They meet and network through events and socials throughout the year to share information. HCA also gives back to the community with charity events and their ongoing support of Star of Hope. 7/17 is their open house and clothing drive. They also have an endowment scholarship for hospitality management.

Spectrum Fusion, Dr. Heidi Hamm

Spectrum Fusion has created a Media Team that acts as an advertising agency and production studio, employing those on the spectrum. The growing team has videographers, editors, writers, graphic designers, and voice actors. Spectrum Fusion is excited to announce their move to a new location. This move will allow them to better serve the needs of the community by expanding their media team and internship program.

MedExpress Extreme Heat Precautions, Dr. Niral Patel

According to the Environmental Protection Agency, a heat island is an urban area, where buildings and roads are highly concentrated, and greenery is limited. They become “islands” of higher temperatures, relative to outlying areas. Houston’s temperatures can be 17 to 20 degrees warmer than surrounding areas. It’s important that we address the potential health risks associated with our extreme heat. Heat-related deaths and illnesses are preventable. By knowing who is at risk and what prevention measures to take, these types of illnesses can be avoided this summer.

Houston Restaurant Weeks – Katie Stone

The 20th annual Houston Restaurant Weeks (HRW) is around the corner! Taking place August 1st through Labor Day, September 4th, this year will be a big one, with hopes to surpass the $20 million donation amount to the Houston Food Bank in the 20th year. Restaurant list just went live on 7/15.

Coalition for Barrier Free Living, Ana Urena

CBFL is a community based, non-profit, independent living advocacy organization created by and for people with disabilities. They assist disabled people in the Houston area with everything from medical equipment, home and vehicle modifications, transportation, and health care.

Moonshot Compost, Chris Wood

The USDA estimates that nearly 40% of the available food supply is wasted and sent to the landfill. As this excess food decomposes, it produces methane at sufficient levels to constitute nearly 10% of total global greenhouse gas emissions. Fortunately, Moonshot Compost is helping Houston area residents and businesses reduce their environmental impact. The mission of Moonshot Compost is to transform the way our society thinks about excess food—to see it not as trash but as a resource.

Harris County Medical Society, Dr. Mina Sinacori

Dr. Sinacori is president of HCMS as well as a practicing ob/gyn. We talked about the recent approval from the FDA of an OTC birth control pill. Dr. Sinacori shared that this pill is progesterone-only and may not be the best birth control option for all women. It is still extremely important to see a doctor for regular checkups and to discuss all options before making a decision about birth control. We also talked about the recent rise of syphilis in the Houston area, infection rates are up over 128% in women since 2019. She told us about free testing options and the importance of safe sex using condoms to prevent both pregnancy and STDs.

Night Court – Marty Lundstrom

Night Court, Houston's all-lawyer theater company that performs an original musical comedy annually at the Hobby Center in downtown Houston, is a public 501(c)(3) charity that donates its proceeds to Houston area charities that provide free legal services to people in need here in our community. Night Court is back with a bang to celebrate the more than 30-years tradition of lawyers having fun while fundraising and educating the community about the law and ethics in... The Law Files.

The Harris Center – Jennifer Battle

Jennifer is VP of Community Access and Engagement at the Harris Center for Mental Health and IDD. They are celebrating the one year anniversary of the 988 hotline. Formerly known as the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline, the number became the 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline last year. It is a mental health crisis number handled by trained counselors, many of which are here at the Harris Center. They are still working to increase awareness of 988 with the ultimate goal of reducing suicides and providing a pathway to well-being.

LiftOff Houston – Cylenthia Hoyrd and Ophelia Gomes

In its 11th edition, The LiftOff Houston is the City of Houston's only public business plan competition designed to encourage Houstonians to achieve the dream of small business ownership – the lifeblood of our economy. The competition is a public/private collaboration between Capital One Bank, Houston Public Library, and the City's Office of Business Opportunity and is accepting applications through August 4. In addition to prize money, the program includes an invaluable education path, with workshops led by industry experts, and mentoring by entrepreneurs and financial experts who help participants create a framework for their business, from marketing to access to capital, refine their business plans, all culminating in Pitch Day.

Houston Botanic Garden, Justin Lacey and Open Dance Project, Annie Arnoult

These 2 organizations have teamed up to present “Flutter: The Monarch Butterfly Project.” 2 evenings of live performances. The family friendly event will celebrate and draw attention to the monarch butterfly’s approximately 3,000-mile southern migration, which passes through Texas each fall. As visitors explore the Susan Garver Family Discovery Garden and discover three butterfly installations by local sculptor Meredith Tucker, the company will present a series of immersive contemporary dance performances, in interactive costumes by Houston-based artist Natasha Bowdoin.

Boys & Girls Club of Greater Houston, Ashley Tate

Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Houston (BGCGH) announces registration is now open for its fall afterschool programs at 24 different clubs in a five-county area. As the region’s leading youth development organization, BGCGH has achieved an enviable record of creatively engaging, educating and empowering youth in ways that improve their chances of achieving and sustaining academic and economic success. More than 50,000 youth ages 6 to 17 walk through the doors of BGCGH Clubs each year for after-school and summer programs. These children and teens are provided nutritious meals, strong role models, homework/tutoring assistance, organized athletics, character development, access to the arts and field trips. The cost for the school-year program is only $10 per child; however, scholarships are available for families who need help covering this cost.

Periwinkle Foundation, Shawn Beck

In support of The Periwinkle Foundation’s upcoming “Iron Bartender” competition and fundraiser on Thursday, Sept. 14 at Lyric Market downtown, 15 Houston-area bars/restaurants will offer a signature “Periwinkle cocktail” to patrons during the month of August, with $1 going to Periwinkle for every cocktail sold. The competition supports Periwinkle’s programs that positively change the lives of children, young adults and families who are challenged by cancer and other life-threatening illnesses and are cared for at Texas Children’s Hospital. A big part of that is providing camps for kids with health challenges.

Archeology Now, Becky Lao

Archaeology Now, the Houston affiliate of Archaeology Institute of America, presents the Senan Shaibani Marsh Arabs Project, kicking off with the Sept. 9 grand opening/ribbon cutting of a traditional Mudhif constructed on the campus of Rice University. This wide-ranging project, hosted by Rice University, is in conjunction with the Arab American Educational Foundation and Iraqi community groups, with support from the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston. Nothing symbolizes the Arab Marsh culture more fully than the Mudhif. This is the first Mudhif in Texas and only the second in the United States.

A Taste of Cy-Fair, Robin Beattie

This event is a fun family day of food, wine, and community at Bridgeland on October 7th. All proceeds benefit Cy-Hope, a non-profit organization that supports children in the Cy-Fair area.

Main Street Theater "What The Constitution Means To Me" Shannon Emerick

Main Street Theater provides theater experiences for all ages. In this new play, fifteen year old Heidi earned her college tuition by winning Constitutional debate competitions at American Legion posts across the United States. In this hilarious, hopeful and achingly human new play, she resurrects her teenage self in order to trace the document's profound impact on women's bodies-starting with her great-great-grandmother, a mail-order bride who died under mysterious circumstances.
