HOUSTON
ISSUE/PROGRAM REPORT
FOURTH QUARTER 2023
JANUARY 1, 2024

Part 1 – INTRODUCTION

KRBE (FM) is licensed to Houston, TX and serves the Houston area. From October 1, through December 31, 2023, KRBE (FM) aired 30 minutes of public affairs programming weekly. This takes the form of a locally produced weekly program, Around H-Town, which focuses on issues affecting our local community and includes guests who have knowledge of these topics.

Weekend Programming:

Around H-Town: every Sunday morning from 6:00a – 6:30a.

Details about individual Around H-Town segments are included in Part 2 of this report.

KRBE has determined the following as issues of concern to our audience during the fourth quarter of 2023.

- 1-Community Events
- 2-Youth Outreach
- 3-Health & Wellness
- 4-Poverty/underserved communities
- 5-Arts and music

During this time, if KRBE participated in Community Service Projects, they are listed and described in Part 3.

The following pages describe the station's most significant treatment of the previously described community issues of concern.

This weekend on Around H-Town we celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with all 3 interviews featuring leaders in the Houston Hispanic community.

AAMA - Patrick Rocha

The Association for the Advancement of Mexican Americans was founded over 53 years ago by Ninfa Lorenzo and family to address the social problems of Hispanic youth in Houston. The program started as after-school care and education and has grown to include a charter school with 2 campuses, prevention and counseling services, the work and learn program, adult learning, early childhood programs, STEM, trade certification programs, and family services. The Illumine Gala to benefit the work and learn program is 10/14.

Latin Womens Initiative, Patricia Garcia

This is primarily a fundraising organization that raises money for 5 charities in the Houston community. They provide grants to organizations that help and empower women and children in need in local Hispanic communities. They also provide volunteer opportunities to serve these non-profits. We talked about the charities that they support and how this Initiative works with the organizations to make sure they have the funding they need so that they can focus on the work they do for families in need.

Latina Entrepreneurship Day - Anhelica Cazares

As a Latin business owner, Anhelica wanted to give back to the community and lift up other entrepreneurs, especially Latinas. She got a proclamation from the city of Houston for Latina Entrepreneurship Day 10/13. On this day they will hold a free conference for the first time this year. Most speakers at the conference are women helping women succeed at business ownership.

Civic Heart, Kira Promise and Mamie Kelley

Civic Heart's Self Sufficiency Fund provides job training, including in-demand trades, such as forklift operator, welding, and construction to reduce the risk of dependency on public assistance among recipients of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF). The program not only provides an industry certification upon successful completion of training but it also connects participants with participating companies for job placement, thus enabling participants to achieve self-sufficiency while retaining their dignity.

Santa Maria Hostel, Vaughn Gilmore

They operate a program geared towards improving maternal health outcomes and a clinic for expectant mothers recovering from substance abuse. In addition, they are one of the community partners Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Texas has been supporting in this work as well.

Habitat for Humanity, Allison Hay

Habitat is making great progress at Robins Landing, a mixed-income community of new homes. 100 homes will be built by Houston Habitat for those earning 80% or below the City of Houston's average median income (AMI) and sold through Habitat's Homeownership Program. 300 homes will be built and sold by partner builders for those whose income is 120% AMI or below, with the remaining homes sold at market rate. All builders are working together to ensure every home has a similar look and feel, with homeowners of all income levels represented on every street.

Teach For America, Tiffany Cuellar Needham

TFA Houston works collaboratively with five area school districts with alumni in leadership positions throughout the local education system.. Founded in 1990, Teach For America recruits and develops a diverse corps of outstanding leaders who make an initial two-year commitment to teach in high-need schools and become lifelong leaders in the effort to end educational inequity. They have full time programs for those who want to become teachers, and a new mentorship program called Ignite which is a virtual tutoring fellowship.

Fresh Arts, Nicole Peralta

Located in the historic First and Sixth Wards, Arts District Month is the perfect opportunity to experience local art, meet artists living and working there and support small businesses. Fresh Arts is encouraging Houstonians to explore this nationally-recognized creative neighborhood that features the largest concentration of working artists in the state of Texas. A range of events are taking place including today celebrating Dia De Los Muertos. Sculpture Month is happening at an art gallery inside the renovated rice factory silos.

SPARK School Park Program, Kathleen Ownby

To commemorate 40 years of building community parks, SPARK School Park Program recently announced a $10 million campaign to build 40 school parks in four years in the Greater Houston area, including 20 new and 20 “reSPARK’ed” parks. Several of the 16 initial parks identified in the campaign will be dedicated during SPARK Week, November 13-17. SPARK was created in 1983 by Houston City Council Member Eleanor Tinsley to develop functional, attractive neighborhood parks and increase access to green-space by utilizing land on public school grounds, particularly in underserved areas.

LISC, Laura Jaramillo

Own the HOU, a new initiative designed to help people of color overcome housing challenges, launched across Houston and Harris County. Led by the Houston office of Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC), Own the HOU is comprised of a robust team of ten nonprofit and government housing experts that will work together to address people of color homeownership gap. The new Own the HOU website is now live. The site is designed to help connect new or existing homeowners to local resources and organizations based on their needs. It also includes the ability to search and sign up for HUD-certified homebuyer education courses offered in Houston and Harris County, as well as provides essential information and tips about the homebuying process.

Colon Cancer Coalition, Allison Rosen

Allison founded this non-profit after being diagnosed with and surviving colon cancer at the age of 32. The main goal is to create awareness for the importance of colon cancer screening, now recommended at age 45 for those with average risk and no family history. The 12th annual Get Your Rear In Gear Houston 5K is coming up 11/12 at Constellation Field.

Nutcracker Market,

The Houston Ballet Nutcracker Market benefits the Houston Ballet Foundation and has raised over 80 million dollars over the years to support the arts in Houston including school programs, scholarships, and community programs. They have both new and returning vendors this year and the most amazing gifts, food, and more.

Catholic Charities, Betsy Ballard

Houstonians who can't afford to pay their rent often have issues that prevent them from becoming established in a secure home. The Catholic Charities Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston's Housing Stability Services provides services to address issues that may keep people from becoming self-sufficient like regular employment and mental house counseling.

Ronald McDonald House, Cristina Vitrano

Ronald McDonald House Houston will host the 14th annual Trafigura Run on Saturday, December 2, 2023 at 8 a.m. at Sam Houston Park. 100% of proceeds directly benefit Ronald McDonald House Houston, a loving Home Away from Home for families with seriously ill children being treated in the Texas Medical Center.

Covenant House, Sean Maher

Covenant House provides safe housing and care for homeless youth 18-24 years old. Many of the young people they help have aged out of the foster care system and are at high risk for being drawn into crime and/or human trafficking. They help with housing as well as education, medical care, life skills and other programs to get them on their feet with college and/or jobs. Sleep Out Executive Edition is this Thursday night. Over 120 business leaders and Houston executives will be sleeping on the street in Houston to raise awareness and money for Covenant House.

TUTS, Laura and Jacob

TUTS is Theatre Under The Stars is a non-profit that has been operating in Houston for 55 years producing musical theatre. They are currently producing Cinderella at the Hobby Center Dec 5-24. They have partnered with Dress For Success to help women in our community achieve economic independence. Those attending are encouraged to bring a pair of new or gently used professional attire shoes to donate to Dress For Success.

YMCA of Greater Houston, Jeff Watkins, chief international initiatives officer

YMCA international services is not the typical YMCA services, they are a social services provider helping vulnerable newcomer populations such as refugees, trafficking victims, unaccompanied immigrant minors based here in Houston. They assist with resettling, employment, case management, education, citizenship, medical needs, legal services, and more. They collaborate with other organizations to assist with complex humanitarian crises. There are volunteer opportunities.

CPR and Safety Lady, Gail Gould

Gail teaches CPR and AED use. Immediate CPR and defibrillation can save 100,000-200,000 lives yearly and increase survival rates by 70%. It's important that everyone knows how to react and respond in situations of choking or cardiac arrest. Learning hands-only CPR is easy and saves lives. It is especially important for all parents, teachers, and caregivers. Training should be repeated every 2 years because of changes in CPR as well as refreshing your memory.

Harris County Medical Society, Dr. Mina Sinacori, President
Dr. Sinacori joined us to talk about upcoming Medicare cuts and how they will affect doctor's offices and patients. The cuts force many practices to stop taking Medicare patients, which is why this is an important time to check that your physicians still take Medicare if you are a subscriber. Patient premiums are increasing by 6% which is also important information for patients to be aware of.

Collaborative For Children, Dr. Melanie Johnson
Collaborative for Children, a leading nonprofit organization dedicated to early childhood education, is thrilled to announce an exciting partnership with Harris County Public Library (HCPL). This collaboration aims to bring innovative learning experiences directly to families through the Collab-Lab, an advanced mobile classroom designed to foster early childhood development. It is a natural partner for Collaborative for Children's mission to provide high-quality early education opportunities to children ages birth to five years. The partnership will focus on expanding access to educational resources and empowering families with the tools to support their children's learning journey.

STEPS, Katherine Sterbenz
STEPS is a non-profit that stands for Skills Transitioning and Employment Pathways to Success. They are focused on empowering those with disabilities. STEPS helps adults and children with disabilities find meaning through vocational training, educational opportunities, employment, and community engagement. They are always in need of volunteers and mentors.

Moonshot Compost, Chris Wood

The USDA estimates that nearly 40% of the available food supply is wasted and sent to the landfill. As this excess food decomposes, it produces methane at sufficient levels to constitute nearly 10% of total global greenhouse gas emissions. Fortunately, Moonshot Compost is helping Houston area residents and businesses reduce their environmental impact. The mission of Moonshot Compost is to transform the way our society thinks about excess food—to see it not as trash but as a resource.

Genesys Works Houston, Jarale Jones

They provide high school seniors with technical and professional skills training, placement and paid internships. They provide pathways to career success to students coming from underserved communities in the Houston area, about 40 nearby high schools. Genesys Works also has a new Accelerator program specifically for IT certification for young adults out of high school. They encourage local companies to partner in hiring.
