- 03/09/14 “The Data Brokers” – an investigation into the private companies that collect, analyze and package the personal information of millions of Americans. By using someone’s online internet searches, credit card purchases and government records, data brokers have been creating profiles of individuals and selling it as a commodity to each other, to advertisers and the U.S. government. Includes interviews with Julie Brill, Federal Trade Commissioner; Tim Sparapani, VP of Law, Policy and Government Relations at Application Develops Alliance; Ashkan Soltani, digital privacy expert and Bryan Kennedy, chairman and CEO of Epsilon. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Graham Messick, Maria Gavrilovic)
- “The Heart of the Revolution” – a report on the people behind Ukraine’s revolution against their government for the past three months in Kiev’s Independence Square. The revolt resulted in the parliamentary removal of President Victor Yanukovych and Russia’s seizure and annexation of Crimea. Includes interviews with Sviatoslav Yurash, in charge of the media operation for Euromaidan movement; Petro Poroshenko, billionaire and former Ukrainian foreign minister and Vitali Klitschko, retired heavyweight boxing champion and leader of the Ukrainian Democratic Alliance for Reform. (C: Clarissa Ward – P: Randall Joyce)
- “ALMA” – a report on the observatory in the Atacama Desert in Northern Chile known as the Atacama Large Millimeter/submillimeter Array, ALMA for short. ALMA is the $1.3 billion radio telescope which deciphers wave lengths of light--colors really--that the human eye cannot see, and gives scientists a window on parts of the universe that are otherwise invisible, such as the actual birth of planets and stars. It is the most ambitious astronomical project on earth. Includes interviews with Pierre Cox, ALMA’s director; Alison Peck, physicist overseeing ALMA’s construction; Stuart Corder, ALMA’s deputy director and Chilean physicist Eduardo Hardy, ALMA’s director of North American operations. (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)
- 03/16/14 “Bassem Youssef” – an interview / profile of cardiac surgeon - turned satirist - Bassem Youssef, whose political humor and Egyptian television show resemble America’s Jon Stewart and Comedy Central’s “The Daily Show.” Youssef’s satire has faced interrogation by Egyptian authorities, protests and even cancellation. (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)
- “Drones Over America” – a report on domestic drones -- remote controlled, unmanned aerial vehicles -- and how they are revolutionizing everything from environmental research to possible package delivery at your doorstep. Many of the drones are equipped with cameras and are raising concerns for privacy issues since the Federal Aviation Administration is still deciphering the rules for them. Includes interviews with Colin Guinn, drone entrepreneur; Michael Toscano, President of the Association for Unmanned Vehicle Systems; Missy Cummings, former Navy fighter pilot and professor of drone research at MIT and Duke University; and Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-CA), chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee. (C: Morley Safer – P: David Browning)
- “Cajun Ketchup” – a report on the first family of hot sauce, the McIlhenny clan, and how they have perfected the formula for making their signature Tabasco pepper sauce, which is exported around the world. Five generations of McIlhenny’s have adhered to a hundred and fifty years of tradition by creating Tabasco on their privately owned Avery Island, in the bayous of Louisiana. Includes interviews with the following McIlhenny Company employees: Tony Simmons, CEO; Harold “Took” Osborn, Senior Vice President; and Coy Boutte, warehouse manager. (C: Dr. Sanjay Gupta – P: Sumi Aggarwal)
- The Mail - selected viewer comments about the segments “The Data Brokers” (OAD: 03/09/14); and “ALMA” (OAD: 03/09/14)

- 03/23/14 “Manhunt” – a report on how federal investigators handled the Boston Marathon bombing on April 15, 2013. The Joint Terrorism Task Force comprised of federal agents, state police and Boston cops used photo and video evidence to identify the bombers, and they then released a picture of the two suspects to the press. In the subsequent aftermath of the shooting death of an MIT police officer, one suspect was killed and later identified as Tamerlan Tsarnaev. The other suspect was then identified as his brother, Dzhokhar Tsarnaev. He was eventually captured. Includes interview with Rick DesLauriers, Special Agent; Stephanie Douglas, FBI Executive Assistant Director and Carmen Ortiz, U.S. Attorney. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Pat Milton, Robert G. Anderson)
- “The Pink Panthers” – a report on the most successful gang of diamond and art thieves in the world, dubbed by Interpol, the global police organization based in Lyon, France, as the “Pink Panthers” because of their glamorous and audacious heists. The group is made up mostly of ex-Yugoslavs, many who fought in the Serbian Special Forces during the Bosnian wars, and who use their military discipline and expert planning to execute the robberies. Includes interviews with Ron Noble, secretary general of Interpol; Andrea Scholz, risk prevention consultant; Jan Glassey, Swiss Detective; Patrick Peys, chief inspector of Antwerp Diamond Squad and a semi-retired Pink Panther who identified himself as Filip. (C: Bob Simon – P: Katherine Davis)
- “The Cartoonist” – a report on the weekly process of how the staff at The New Yorker chooses the magazine’s famous cartoons. The report focuses on Bob Mankoff, cartoon editor of The New Yorker, who recently released a memoir titled after one of his celebrated cartoons, “How About Never – Is Never Good for You?: My Life in Cartoons”. Includes interviews with Bob Mankoff, cartoon editor of The New Yorker; David Remnick, editor of The New Yorker and cartoonists: Ben Schwartz, David Sipress, Roz Chast, and Charlie Hankin. (C: Morley Safer – P: David Browning, Jonathan Schienberg)
- Update: “The F-35” (OAD: 02/16/14)
- 03/30/14 “Rigged” – a report on Michael Lewis’ book, “Flash Boys: A Wall Street Revolt”, which argues the U.S. stock market is rigged to benefit high speed computerized traders who are able to work the stock market to their advantage by using fractions of a second to legally front run orders. Lewis talks publicly for the first time about his book and gives credit to trader Brad Katsuyama who discovered the problem and formed a new exchange, IEX (Investor’s Exchange), to combat the investing issue. Recently, New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission in Washington have both launched investigations into the matter. Includes interviews with author Michael Lewis; Brad Katsuyama, CEO of IEX; Ronan Ryan, Chief Strategy Officer of IEX; David Einhorn, hedge fund manager and president and founder of Greenlight Capital. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Draggan Mihailovich) (See also: “The Mad Scientist of Football”, OAD: 01/04/09; and “Inside The Collapse”, OAD: 03/14/10)
- “Fast Cars and Rocket Ships” – an interview / profile of billionaire Silicon Valley, California entrepreneur Elon Musk. Musk co-founded and sold PayPal, and used that profit to create the electric car company Tesla Motors and SpaceX (Space Exploration Technologies). As successful as both companies are today, Musk describes 2008 as the worst year of his life because both businesses were nearly defunct and he was broke and in debt. Also includes interviews with Elon’s mother, Maye Musk, sister Tosca Musk, brother Kimbal Musk and his second wife, Talulah Riley. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Harry A. Radliffe II) (See also: “The Race For The Electric Car”, OAD: 10/05/08 and “SpaceX”, OAD: 03/18/12)
- “The Virtuoso” – an interview / profile of jazz pianist and composer Marcus Roberts, who lost his sight as a child but came to possess an incredible encyclopedic insight into American music. Roberts returns to his alma mater, the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind in St. Augustine, where he performs a duet with Wynton Marsalis. Includes an interview with Marcus’ mother Coretta Roberts, and comments by: jazz pianist Chick Corea; Sister Murray, Silas Missionary Baptist Church; Vicky Palmer, teacher; and Marcus’ bandmate, Ricardo Pascal. - 03/01/14 48 HOURS: "The Last Confession" - a report on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest to trial for the crime. The night before Easter, Irene Garza went to church and disappeared. Five days later she was found dead in a canal. Police said she was sexually assaulted and suffocated. There was one immediate suspect, Father John Feit, the priest who admitted to hearing Garza's confession that night, but who has denied any involvement in the murder. Noemi Ponce Sigler, the original investigator's daughter, says her father was told to step away from the case because a deal had been made between the Church and the police regarding Feit. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers Cold Case unit to re-examine the murder. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Joseph O'Brien, an assistant pastor at the church in 1960 also told investigators that Feit told him that he did it. Despite these new findings, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra doesn't believe the case is strong enough to take to court, though he would have prosecuted Feit in 1962 on the charges. Members of the Garza family have pinned their hopes on Ricardo Rodriguez, a candidate for Hidalgo County District Attorney, who has said he would look into the case. On-screen text graphic: The primary election for Hidalgo County District Attorney is Tuesday. Interviewed: family members Noemi Ponce Sigler and Lynda De La Vana; journalist/48 HOURS consultant Pamela Colloff; Texas Ranger Rudy Jarmillo; McAllen Police Chief Victor Rodriguez; former monk Dale Tacheny; San Antonio Police Detective George Saidler; Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Peter Shaw)
- 03/08/14 48 HOURS: "The Blue River Murder" - a report on the investigation into the 2010 death of Stephanie Roller, a Colorado mother of three who allegedly went for a walk during a blizzard and was later found dead in a nearby river. According to Roller's husband, Dale Bruner, she packed up her laptop and headed out for a walk during a blizzard. He waited 11 hours before calling police to report her missing. Friends, as well as the police, found the story strange. Three days later, she was found dead in the Blue River, the victim of a brutal murder: she had been badly beaten and was still alive when thrown into the water. The police investigation uncovered: a marriage on the brink of collapse, Stephanie's emotional affair with Ron Holthaus, and her concerns for her safety and that of her children. Police had three suspects - the jilted husband, the married boyfriend and the boyfriend's jealous wife. Ultimately, the focus turned to Dale Bruner as the chief suspect when information was discovered regarding his dark, violent side, and eight months later he was arrested for the murder of his wife. In 2012, he was convicted at trial. On-screen text graphic: Dale Bruner will be eligible for parole in 2072. He would be 110 years old. Interviewed: Dale Bruner; Police Officer Theresa Barger; friends of Stephanie Roller, Jennifer and Mike Voxakis; Bruner's best friend, Brad Olivanti; District Attorney Mark Hurlbert; Colorado Bureau of Investigation Agent Gene Sadar; Bruner's defense attorney Rob Bernhardt; and Jodi Eberhardt, former girlfriend of Dale Bruner. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Liza Finley)
- 03/15/14 48 HOURS: "Fateful Connection" - a report on the investigation led by a determined detective to solve a 30-year-old cold case involving two young women who went missing in Florida, in 1982. Amy Hurst and Wendy Huggy did not know each other. Hurst and her new husband, Bill Hurst, had recently moved to Pasco County, Florida, leaving her two young children in the care of relatives in Michigan. Then she just disappeared. Sixteen-year-old Wendy Huggy lived with her grandparents in Pasco County, and went to a party - she never returned home. A fisherman found a body floating in the Gulf of Mexico, wrapped in a homemade afghan, but identification proved difficult. There was no connection made to either woman, although Hurst's husband was immediately viewed as a suspect in her disappearance -- but he too disappeared, and both cases languished for decades. Detective Lisa Schoneman, a member of the cold case unit, stepped in and a new investigation began. In 2009, Amy Hurst's son discovered significant evidence about the afghan, through the Doe Network, and a body in a Tampa, Florida potter's field once thought to be Wendy Huggy's was examined. In 2011, it was determined to be that of Amy Hurst. Investigation led to her husband, Bill Hurst, who was in Kentucky. Police were able to get Hurst into custody, and he was indicted on first degree murder charges -- he was found guilty. Detective Schoneman says she will keep trying to find Wendy Huggy. On-screen text graphic: William Hurst will be 85 when he becomes eligible for parole. Interviewed: Pasco County (FL) Sheriff's Office Detective Lisa Schoneman; Wendy Huggy's aunt and uncle Patti Spragg and Robert Richards; Angelyn Chester, a friend of Wendy Huggy's mother; Coast Guard member Greg Stout; Amy Hurst's niece, Laura Shampine, her son and daughter Lisa Stewart and Jeff Earley, and her sister Sharon Nijhof; Elmer Kruze, a neighbor of Bill Hurst's; Dawson Spring, Kentucky Police Captain Craig Patterson. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 03/22/14 48 HOURS: “aka Rockefeller” - a report about the mysterious life of Christian Gerhartsreiter, a con-man, who pretended, since he came to America from Germany, to be a bond trader, a TV producer, a baronet and even Clark Rockefeller, a member of the famous and wealthy Rockefeller family. In 2008, Gerhartstreiter, then claiming to be Clark Rockefeller, made headlines when he abducted his 7-year-old daughter. The Rockefeller family made it clear that he was not a part of their family. What he was, according to police, was a killer on the run. His arrest in the kidnapping case blew the lid off a 30-year con. All the other identities he had used came to light including the alias he was living under in 1982 in San Marino, California: Christopher Chichester, the 13th Baronet of Chichester. San Marino police believe he murdered John and Linda Sohus, who disappeared in 1985. Years later, the bones on John Sohus were found in the backyard of the house where they lived. At the time, Christopher Chichester lived in the guest house on the property. He went on trial for the murder of John Sohus and was found guilty. On-Screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: “Rockefeller” fired his lawyers and filed his own petition for a new trial. The judge denied the motion. His daughter is now twelve-years-old. She has no contact with her father. Interviewed: Christian Gerhartsreiter; Vanity Fair reporter/48 HOURS consultant Mark Seal; journalist and former friend Walter Kirn; Linda’s best friend Sue Coffman; former boss Richard Barnett; Lt. Dan Allen of the San Marino, California Police Department; Los Angeles County Sheriff Lee Baca; Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Deputy Tim Miley; FBI Special Agent Tammy Harty; forensic pathologist Dr. Frank Sheridan; prosecutor Habib Balica; John Sohus’ sister and brother Ellen Sohus and Chris Sohus. (C: Erin Moriarty- P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher, Avi Cohen) (OAD: 10/19/13)
- 03/29/14 48 HOURS: “ryanferguson@lifeafterten” (9:00-10:00p) - a followup to “Dream Killer” (OAD: 02/18/06), “The Lost Night” (OAD: 03/26/11), and “The Accuser (OAD: 02/23/13)”, all dealing with the case of Ryan Ferguson, who was released from prison in November 2013, after nearly 10 years behind bars for the murder of Ken Heitholt, a Columbia Daily Tribune sports editor who was killed in 2001. Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder and the bizarre circumstances that put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime since 2006 and were with Ferguson when he was released from prison. Details of the case, which were presented in the original broadcasts, are interwoven into this report along with past interviews. Also included are new interviews with Ryan Ferguson; his parents, Bill and Leslie Ferguson; his attorney, Kathleen Zellner; his accuser, Charles “Chuck” Erickson; and his new girlfriend Myka Cain. Ultimately, Erickson, even after confessing, believes that he was not responsible for the crime and has a new attorney, the interest of the Midwest Innocence Project and the support of Ryan Ferguson. For now, Ferguson is concentrating on what he will do now: he is thinking about going back to college and may follow his father into the real estate business. On-screen text graphic: Ryan Ferguson has written a book that will be published in 2015. If Charles Erickson’s appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2026. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman)
- 03/29/14 48 HOURS: “Last Chance” (10:00-11:00p) - an interview with Damon Thibodeaux, who was wrongfully convicted of the 1996 murder of his 14-year-old cousin Crystal Champagne and who spent 11 years in Louisiana’s notorious Angola prison. Thibodeaux, a distant cousin who was staying with the Champagne family was immediately questioned by police after the girl disappeared. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed to murdering - and raping - the girl. Thibodeaux says he confessed to police after an intense interrogation and because he was sure he would be cleared during trial. When he met with attorneys hours later, he denied having anything to do with the crime. At the 1997 trial, he was convicted and sentenced to death by lethal injection, even though none of the 84 pieces of physical evidence were ever tied to him. His case caught the eye of attorney Denny LeBeouf, who specializes in cases getting inmates off death row. LeBouef sought the help of Minneapolis attorney Steve Kaplan. Their investigation revealed that Crystal Champagne had never been raped. Together, they came up with a risky plan to present their evidence to Jefferson Parish District Attorney Paul Connick. Connick agreed to re-examine the physical evidence and Thibodeaux was freed two years later. 48 HOURS interviewed various individuals to piece together what may have happened to Champagne. On-screen text graphic: After Thibodeaux was released he earned his GED. He now works for a commercial trucking company. Thibodeaux was invited to testify before Congress about conditions on death row. Last year he became a grandfather. Interviewed: Damon Thibodeaux; his attorneys Denny LeBeouf and Steve Kaplan; Chrystal Champagne’s mother Dawn Champagne; private eye Jen Vitry; John Tomlinson, family friend who found the body; retired forensic pathologist Fraser Mackenzie, psychologist Dr. Michael Welder, attorney Barry Sheck of the Innocence Project; and son Josh Thibodeaux.
