

Quarterly Programs and Issues
2nd Quarter 2012 – WRHI

Programs:

WRHI provides local newscasts 24 hours a day from Monday at 5:30am through Saturday at Noon. Eight long form newscasts are delivered in the morning and three in the afternoon. Plus six 90 second updates in the afternoon and evening, and sixty second updates twenty ten times per day, for a total of twenty seven newscasts per day.

WRHI also posts a daily summary news headline page on its internet website, Public Service Announcements are aired on a rotating basis, prerecorded. Some are voiced by members of the community. They air daily.

Straight Talk is a locally produced news and public affairs program which airs on weekdays, Monday through Friday. It is a thirty minute in depth interview program features newsmakers and issues in the news. The program features discussion of a wide variety of topics of interest of concern for the upstate of South Carolina. A complete listing of daily guests and issues is updated regularly and is included on our website.

Critical Issues facing the region covered by WRHI news during the quarter include:

Monday night, York County Council tabled a plan to move a nearly 100-year-old former schoolhouse in hopes of saving it from demolition by a Lake Wylie Church.

Monday night, York County Council tabled a plan to move a nearly 100-year-old former schoolhouse in hopes of saving it from demolition by a Lake Wylie Church.

A Columbia teen is under arrest after he led authorities on a high-speed chase through downtown. It all started last night when 18-year-old Tyron Keller allegedly refused to yield for a school bus.

At least one Lancaster County apartment was destroyed in a fire this morning. Four volunteer fire departments and the Lancaster County Fire Service responded to a fire at Westway Apartments on Memorial Park Road about seven A-M.

This year's NFL Draft is hitting close to home as former South Pointe High School quarterback Stephan Gilmore is projected to be a first round pick. With only two weeks left before teams decide who will be their rookies for the upcoming season, Gilmore has already has visited with about ten different NFL clubs.

Just outside of Albuquerque, New Mexico, researchers are set to build a ghost town of sorts -- all based on the City of Rock Hill. The Associated Press is reporting that New Mexico company CITE Development announced Tuesday it would construct the 15-square-mile city with new and old buildings, highways and houses.

A missing Kershaw County child was found Wednesday morning after an all-night search.

Two Lancaster County fire chiefs will be inducted into the South Carolina Firefighters Hall of Fame next week. Chief Dennis Cauthen died of a heart attack last August after battling a blaze in Elgin. Cauthen will be inducted into the hall of fame posthumously during the firefighters conference next Thursday.

Straight Talk Guests in the 2nd Quarter:

Tommy Pope – SC House Representative

Lee Gardner – Family Trust FCU

Carey Tilly – Director of Culture and Heritage Museums

Marty Burr – Rock Hill Performance Manager