

Upon review and advise of counsel, we reformatted the Issues and Programs lists and have re-uploaded this supplemental document.

Quarterly Issues Programs List for the Second Quarter of 2019

WFAE 90.7 Charlotte, NC
WFHE 90.3 Hickory, NC

Following is list of some of the significant issues responded to by the station along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the quarter. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which issues appear does not reflect a priority or significance.
ME= Morning Edition 5 to 9am EST ATC: All Things Considered 4 to 6pm EST

Issue	Story	Summary	Date	When Aired	Duration
Affordable Housing	Finding Home: Addressing The 'Homelessness Continuum' In Charlotte-Mecklenburg	Mecklenburg County Community Support Services and UNC Charlotte's Urban Institute play key roles in tracking problems of housing and homelessness. They work together in research that's key to informing policymakers in addressing economic mobility and homelessness. Stacy Lowry is the director of Community Support Services. She spoke to WFAE's Lisa Worf for this week's installment of the Finding Home series.	4/22/2019	ATC/ME	7:55:00
Affordable Housing	Finding Home: Developers Use Federal Tax Credit Program To Build Affordable Housing	Developers are using a federal affordable housing tax credit program to build housing for low-income residents in Charlotte and nationwide.	4/29/2019	ATC	8:35:00
Affordable Housing	Finding Home: Charlotte's Affordable Housing Chief Talks Progress, Challenges	Pamela Wideman, director of housing and neighborhood services for Charlotte, joined WFAE's Marshall Terry to discuss successes, challenges, and strategies in addressing Charlotte's affordable housing crisis. Renaissance West sits on 41 acres off West Boulevard. It has a mix of housing prices and types, and is the type of development the city is encouraging.	6/24/2019	ME	8:25:00
Business	Crosland Unveils Eastland Plans, And Says It Wants 'Appealing' Homes	Tim Sittema of Crosland Southeast discusses his plans for Eastland Mall Wednesday night. A sports complex in one corner of the 70-acre site. Homes and townhomes in the back. And – on Central Avenue – a cluster of offices and restaurants. But Crosland Managing Partner Tim Sittema said it's been harder to get other developers interested in the east Charlotte site – as opposed to other Crosland projects like Birkdale Village in Huntersville and Waverly off Providence Road.	6/20/2019	ME	3:45:00
Business	BizWorthy: Charlotte On Pace To Surpass Raleigh Area In Tech Jobs	Raleigh is known for having more tech jobs than Charlotte but that could soon change. Charlotte is on pace to surpass Raleigh-Durham and be dominant in the process. That's according to reporting in the Charlotte Ledger Business Newsletter. Tony Mecia, a former Charlotte Observer reporter, launched the newsletter in March and it's beating the rest of the media in a lot of business stories. So we invited Tony to join Morning Edition for a new segment to talk business news. He spoke to WFAE's Marshall Terry.	6/20/2019	ME	7:25:00
Business	BizWorthy: CBD Oil Booming, Rise In Investor-Owned Housing, Movie Theaters And More	CBD oil sales are booming right now, but there's a threat looming for the small mom and pop CBD oil stores in Charlotte. Big retail chains are now looking to get in on the business. Charlotte is losing another movie theater, Ballantine Village Theatre, that shows independent and arthouse films.	6/27/2019	ME	5:35:00
Criminal Justice	Council's Justin Harlow: City Must Look At CMPD's Use Of Force Policy	Footage of Wende Kerl to drop the gun Thave prompted a lot of anger, reflection and calls for change. Lisa Worf interviews City Council Member Justin Harlow who represents the part of West Charlotte where the shooting happened.	4/19/2019	ME	7:55:00
Criminal Justice	Franklin 'Did Comply And He Still Got Shot': Activist Robert Dawkins Responds To Full Video	Video of the fatal police shooting of 27-year-old Danquirs Franklin on March 25 appears to show that a gun he was holding was not pointed at officers or a person next to him.	4/25/2019	ME	8:05:00

Issue	Story	Summary	Date	When Aired	Duration
Criminal Justice	Charlotte Leaders React To UNCC Shooting	The shooting at UNC Charlotte Tuesday that killed two people and injured four others has cast a shadow over the city and amplified concerns over gun violence. On WFAE's "Morning Edition" city leaders said the city needs to come together as a community and focus on the problem and victims.	5/1/2019	ME	10:00:00
Education	CMS Teachers Learn About Equity At Gantt Center Seminar	150 CMS teachers attend two-day seminar at the Gantt Center for African-American Arts and Culture to learn how to use art to create more equitable classrooms.	4/5/2019	Noon	5:50:00
Education	Small SC Utilities Make Up Majority Of State's Drinking Water Violations, Investigation Finds	A year-long investigation by The State newspaper finds that small utilities systems that supply water are operated by towns and small cities, mobile home parks, country stores — serve 4 percent of the population. But, since 2012, account for about 88 percent of enforcement cases by state regulators for drinking water violations. And many don't add fluoride to the water, or treat it to prevent lead from corroding off pipes and seeping into the water.	4/18/2019	ME	5:20:00
Education	Bennett College Officials Mum On Reason For President's Departure	Officials at four colleges announced the abrupt departure of their presidents last week — Marist, Muhlenberg, Auburn and, in North Carolina, Bennett College. Officials at the historically black college for women in Greensboro are not saying why Phyllis Worthy Dawkins is leaving or why the departure was effective on the day it was announced.	6/25/2019	ME	3:25:00
Environment	NC Orders Duke To Dig Up Coal Ash At All Remaining Sites	The state Department of Environmental Quality has ordered Duke Energy to excavate coal ash from six remaining coal-fired power plants in North Carolina that don't already have closure plans.	4/1/2019	ME	4:10:00
Environment	Duke Energy To Appeal Orders To Excavate Coal Ash	Duke Energy says it will file an appeal soon of state regulators' orders last week that it must excavate coal ash from six coal-fired power plants in North Carolina that don't already have approved closure plans.	4/11/2019	ATC	3:30:00
Environment	Young Activist Stages Weekly Strike For Climate Action	For the past seven Fridays, 14-year-old Mary Ellis Stevens of Charlotte has skipped classes at Trinity Episcopal School and staged what she calls a School Strike for Climate outside Charlotte Mecklenburg Government Center.	4/12/2019	ATC	2:50:00
Health	Lawmakers Again Consider Bill To Protect Consumers From Surprise Medical Bills	Lawmakers are again trying to address a practice known as surprise billing. It occurs when a patient goes to an in-network hospital but at some point treated by a doctor who is not a part of the insurer's network. The patient is then billed separately from the out-of-network provider.	4/3/2019	ME	4:45:00
Health	Atrium, Wake Forest Plan Charlotte's First Four-Year Medical School	Atrium Health and Wake Forest University announced Wednesday that they plan to open a new medical school in Charlotte, the city's first in more than 100 years.	4/10/2019	ME	3:50:00
Health	Networks Of Trauma Survivors Help Patients With Recovery	In response a network of trauma survivor groups has sprung up at many hospitals to provide mentors to victims.	5/9/2019	ME	5:15:00
Immigratin	Charlotte Immigration Activists Say Trump Threat Will Make People Hide	Charlotte immigration activist Hector Vaca expects the president's tweet will cause many people who are in the country illegally to stay home.	6/19/2019	ATC	2:00:00
Immigration	NC Sheriffs' Association Opposes Bill Requiring Cooperation With ICE	The North Carolina Sheriffs' Association says it opposes a bill that would compel sheriffs around the state to honor ICE detainers.	4/3/2019	ATC	0:00:00
Immigration	City Council Members Propose 'Language Access Plan'	The bad translation was brought up at a recent community meeting by local immigrant-advocate Astrid Chirinos. Now, the city is hoping to change that. The city's Immigrant Committee, comprised of four city council members, proposed a citywide "Language Access Plan" on Thursday that's designed to open up the city government to more non-English speakers.	4/4/2019	ME/ATC	1:30:00

Issue	Story	Summary	Date	When Aired	Duration
Politics	This Is Fool's Gold: SC Senator Explains Legislative Stall On Bill To Incentivize Panthers Move	The Carolina Panthers are considering moving their team headquarters from Charlotte to York County. Last month, lawmakers in the South Carolina House approved a bill that would create at least $115 million in tax breaks and other incentives to help encourage such a move. South Carolina Gov. Henry McMaster supports such a deal. But the incentives legislation is currently hung up in the South Carolina Senate, where Sen. Dick Harpootlian, a Democrat from Columbia, has questioned the state's estimates of how much economic benefit South Carolina would actually reap from a Panthers relocation.	4/22/2019	ATC	8:10:00
Politics	Dan Bishop On Guns, HB2 And The Affordable Care Act	Republican Dan Bishop took his campaign outside the headquarters of Democrat Dan McCreehy yesterday to hold a press conference shortly before McCreehy held his own press conference inside. He had a cardboard cutout of McCreehy by his side, which is also part of Bishop's new ad in which he delivers the message that he is pro-life pro-gun and pro-wall. We'll talk to McCreehy at this time tomorrow. Lisa Worf interviews Mecklenburg State Senator Dan Bishop.	5/16/2019	ATC	9:40:00
Politics	Dan McCreehy On Immigration, Gun Control And Trade	For the second time within a year Dan McCreehy is running a general election campaign to represent North Carolina's 9th Congressional District. The first day of this general election involved dueling press conferences just a few minutes and a few feet from each other as his opponent Dan Bishop held his event outside McCreehy's headquarters. Lisa Worf speaks with Dan McCreehy.	5/17/2019	ATC	9:50:00
Race Relations	Smithville Residents Push County To Pay For Redevelopment	Cornelius resident Willie Jones spoke at Thursday's county budget hearing, seeking funding to develop Smithville.	5/10/2019	ATC	1:30:00
Race Relations	The Excelsior Club Has A Buyer	A buyer has been found for Charlotte's historic Excelsior Club. Word that the property on Beatties Ford Road is under contract came Wednesday night in a text message to WFAE from Steve Robinson, owner of New River Brokerage. The firm has been handling the prospective sale of the Excelsior, which was on the market for $1.5 million.	6/20/2019	ME	0:00:00
Transportation	Republican Convention Will Delay Streetcar Construction, Pushing Opening To 2021	The Charlotte Area Transit System said Monday that the Republican National Convention in August 2020 at the Spectrum Center will require all streetcar construction to cease for 60 to 90 days, and will likely push the opening of the Gold Line's second phase to early 2021.	4/1/2019	ME	2:50:00
Transportation	Lime Phases Out Bicycles As Scooters Win Charlotte Streets	It looks like electric scooters have beaten out dockless bicycles in the race for users on Charlotte's streets. Lime said Thursday it has phased out its green rental bicycles in Charlotte over the past several weeks to focus on scooters.	4/18/2019	ATC	0:55:00