	Parenting	Plugged In	1/15/2020/ 6:01 pm	0:01:00	The video ,Maleficent: Mistress of Evil, echoes the darkness in Disney’s original Sleeping Beauty. We see characters betrayed by loved ones. We witness prejudice between different races. And even though there isn’t a drop of blood on screen, characters are still battered by bullets, pierced by crossbow bolts and reduced to ashes by bombs. They give this 3 out of 5 stars for the video. So despite its strong redemptive themes, this sequel’s intense-but-sanitized violence might still be too much for sensitive viewers.
	Parenting	License to Parent	1/21/2020/ 4:34 pm	0:01:00	Social Media can be time consuming. Set time limits on social media. Monitor the good sites. Have the children spend time with adults and carry on good conversations.
	Parenting	Family Health	1/28/2020/ 12:28 pm	0:01:00	Broccoli is a fabulous vegetable. It helps lower blood pressure. It has B6, folic acid, antioxidants, vitamin C, Potassium, magnesium and calcium. It is worthy of its super food status and should be eaten as much as possible.
	Parenting	Plugged In	2/9/2020/ 6:01 pm	0:01:00	TikTok is an app for cell phones. It is extremely popular with the young crowd as it can make videos and put music behind them. The age is usually 16 yo and up but younger kids are playing with it too. They all need to be careful because of the words in the music not appropriate. Make the app private so that only approved friends can see what you are doing.

	Parenting	Family Health	3/11/20/ 7:39 pm	0:01:00	Losing weight can easily be sabotage because of hidden sugar. Sugar occurs naturally in fruits, veggies and dairy but when it is added to drinks, candy, and sweets, it adds up. It has little nutritional value. Be careful when dieting in these areas.
