

KNDN AM – Farmington, New Mexico
Issues & Programs Listing for 2023 QTR 2

June 30, 2023

KNDN-AM provides its listeners in the surrounding areas with items of interest from regional Navajo Nation Chapters, Area Agencies, and Communities. Many announcements of interest are made each broadcast day, here below are listed specific categories that were highlighted during the previous calendar quarter:

Area Announcements of Concern to Navajo Tribal Members

- Monthly Veteran's Meeting at Navajo Nation Chapters.
- Regular Chapter Meetings continue to be announced over the air by Officials Via KNDN Open Microphone Program.
- Navajo Aging Local Senior Advisory Council Meetings were aired.
- Navajo Nation Chapters SYEP and PEP job announcements were aired.

Community Improvement Programs

- Navajo Nation Food Distribution Program Schedules were aired
- Bethel Christian Reformed Church Food Pantry and Free Vegetable Plants were aired for needy families.

Health, Wellness, and Safety

- Health promotions were aired for Walking, Running, Health Screening Events for Diabetes Awareness and Uranium Education Classes were announced daily until day of Events. All Part of KNDN AM's Daily Broadcast Program.
- CERT & ALERT Teams Emergency weather preparedness meetings and information were aired.
- Navajo Nation Office of Environmental Health Services and Indian Health Services Pet Vaccination Day schedules were aired on KNDN-AM.
- Navajo Nation Police Recruitment Drive PSA's were aired.